(1) Determine the base container. If the canner sold the same kind and grade of canned vegetables during the first 60 days following the beginning of the 1941 pack, but only in other container types or sizes, he shall first determine the most similar container type in which he is able to calculate a maximum price for that kind and grade of canned vegetable under this regulation (even though he no longer sells that container type). From that container type he shall choose the nearest size which is 50% or less larger, or if there is no such size, 50% or less smaller (even though he no longer sells these sizes). This will be the "base container." If there is no such smaller size, he shall go to the next most similar container type and proceed in the same manner to find the base container.

NOTE: In most cases "the most similar container type" will be merely the container type which the canner is adding to or replacing, such as tin which he may be replacing with glass. Where there has been only a size change, "the most similar container type" will be the same container type. This is also true in the reverse situation where there has been a change only in container type, the "nearest size" will be the same size.

(2) Find the base price. The canner shall take as the "base price" his maximum price per dozen, f. o. b. factory for the kind and grade of canned vegetable when packed in the base container. However, if this maximum price is a price delivered to the purchaser or to any point other than the canner's factory, the canner shall first convert it to a base price f. o. b. factory by subtracting whatever transportation charges were included in it.

(3) Deduct the container cost. Taking his base price f. o. b. factory, the canner shall then subtract the direct cost of the base container. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the packer's factory, of the container, cap, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(4) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(6) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the canner's maximum price for the canned vegetable in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows. The canner shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. If for any reason the canned vegetable in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, the canner shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during March 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since March 31, 1942, shall not be taken into account. (Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of the transportation charge.) The canner shall then add these transportation charges to his f. o. b. factory price for the commodity in the new container. The resulting figure is the canner's maximum delivered price.

(b) If the canner has established prior to January 25, 1943, a maximum price under paragraphs (d), (j) or (k) of § 1341.22 for a kind, grade and container size of canned vegetables, of which he made no sales during the first 60 days following the beginning of the 1941 pack, he may retain that maximum price, or, at his option, may establish a maximum price under this section.

(g) Amendment No. 7 (§ 1341.22a) shall become effective January 25, 1943.

CANNED FRUITS AND CANNED BERRIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Sections 1341.102a, 1341.106a (e) and 1341.114 (f) are added as set forth below.

§ 1341.102a Canner's maximum prices for canned fruits and canned berries in new container types or sizes. (a) The maximum price per dozen for a kind and grade of canned fruits or canned berries packed in any container type or size which the canner did not sell during the first 60 days after the beginning of the 1941 pack shall be calculated as follows. tainer type he shall choose the nearest size which is 50% or less larger, or if there is no such size, 50% or less smaller (even though he no longer sells those sizes). This will be the "base container." If there is no such smaller size, he shall go to the next most similar container type and proceed in the same manner to find the base container.

NOTE: In most cases "the most similar container type" will be merely the container type which the canner is adding to or replacing, like the tin which he may be replacing with glass. Where there has been only a size change, "the most similar container type" will be the same container type. This is also true in the reverse situation; where there has been a change only in container type, the "nearest size" will be the same size.

(2) Find the base price. The canner shall take as the "base price" his maximum price per dozen, f. o. b. factory, for the kind and grade of canned fruits or canned berries when packed in the base container. However, if this maximum price is a price delivered to the purchaser or to any point other than the canner's factory, the canner shall first convert it to a base price f. o. b. factory by subtracting whatever transportation charges were included in it.

(3) Deduct the container cost. Taking his base price, f. o. b. factory, the canner shall then subtract the direct cost of the base container. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the packer's factory, of the container, cap, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling, or packing.

(4) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(5) Add the new container cost to get the price f. o. b. factory. Next, the canner shall add to the adjusted figure the "direct cost of the container" in the new type and size. If his maximum price for the commodity in the base container is an f. o. b. factory price, the resulting figure is the canner's maximum price, f. o. b. factory.

(6) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the canner's maximum price for the canned fruits or canned berries in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows: The canner shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. If for any reason the canned fruits or canned berries in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, the canner shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during March 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since March 31, 1942, shall not be taken into account. (Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of the transportation charge.) The canner shall then add these transportation charges to his f. o. b. factory price for the commodity in the new container. The resulting figure is the canner's maximum delivered price.

(b) If the canner has established prior to January 25, 1943, a maximum price under the provisions of § 1341.102 for a kind, grade, and container size of canned fruits or canned berries, of which he made no sales during the first 60 days following the beginning of the 1941 pack, he may retain that maximum price, or, at his option, may establish a maximum price under this section.

§ 1341.106a Information to purchasers from canners. * * *

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply when a canner has computed his maximum price under the provisions of § 1341.102a and in such case he shall not report a base price or permitted increase and need not report his maximum price to a purchaser.

§ 1341.114 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(f) Amendment No. 6 (§§ 1341.102a, 1341.106a (e) and 1341.114 (f)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 185 shall become effective on January 25, 1943.

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[MPR 226,[1] Amendment 4]

FRUIT PRESERVES, JAMS AND JELLIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment No. 4 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 226 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (e) of § 1341.302 is amended, and a new sentence is added to paragraph (a) of § 1341.309a after the phrase "calculated for his own wholesalers", all as shown below.

(e) New container types and sizes. (1) The maximum price per dozen or other unit for a kind, flavor and brand of fruit preserves, jams or jellies packed in any container type or size which the packer did not sell during the 1941 base period shall be calculated as follows. He shall:

(i) Determine the base container. If the packer sold the same kind, flavor and brand of fruit preserves, jams or jellies during the 1941 base period, but only in other container types or sizes, he shall first determine the most similar container type in which he is able to calculate a maximum price for that kind, flavor and brand under this regulation (even though he no longer sells that container type). From that container type he shall choose the nearest size, which is 50% or less larger, or if there is no such size, 50% or less smaller (even though he no longer sells those sizes). This will be the "base container". If there is no such smaller size, he shall go to the next most similar container type and proceed in the same manner to find the base container.

NOTE: In most cases "the most similar container type" will be merely the container type which the packer is adding to or replacing, like the tin which he may be replacing with glass. Where there has been only a size change, "the most similar container type" will, of course, be the same container type. This is also true in the reverse situation; where there has been a change only in container type, the "nearest size" will be the same size.

(ii) Find the base price. The packer shall take as the "base price" his maximum price for the kind, flavor and brand of fruit preserves, jams or jellies when packed in the base container. However, if this maximum price is a price delivered to the purchaser or to any point other than the packer's factory, the packer shall first convert it to a base price f. o. b. packer's factory by deducting whatever transportation charges were included in it.

(iii) Deduct the container cost. Taking his base price f. o. b. factory, the packer shall then subtract the direct cost of the base container. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the packer's factory, of the container, cap, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(iv) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(v) Add the new container cost to get the price f. o. b. factory. Next, the packer shall add to the adjusted figure the "direct cost of the container" in the new type and size. If his maximum price for the commodity in the base container is an f. o. b. factory price, the resulting figure is the packer's maximum price, f. o. b. factory.

(vi) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the packer's maximum price for the fruit preserves, jams or jellies in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows: The packer shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. If for any reason the fruit preserves, jams or jellies in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, the packer shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during March 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since March 31, 1942, shall not be taken into account. (Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of the transportation charge.) The packer shall then add these transportation charges to his f. o. b. factory price for the commodity in the new container. The resulting figure is the packer's maximum delivered price.

(2) If the packer has established a maximum price for any new item prior to January 25, 1943, under Section 1341.303, he may retain that maximum price, or, at his option, he may establish a maximum price under this paragraph.

§ 1341.309a Information which packers must give their customers—(a) Notice from packers to wholesalers. * * * If the packer has established a maximum price under paragraph (e) of § 1341.302, he is not required to notify his wholesalers under the provisions of this paragraph.

§ 1341.317 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(e) Amendment No. 4 (§§ 1341.302 (e), 1341.309a (a) and 1341.317 (e)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 226 shall become effective January 25, 1943.

[MPR 232,[1] Amendment 3]

APPLE BUTTER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment No. 3 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 232 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (e) of § 1341.452 is amended, and a new sentence is added to paragraph (a) of § 1341.459a after the phrase "calculated for his own wholesalers", all as shown below.

§ 1341.452 Packer's maximum prices for apple butter. * * *

(e) New container types and sizes. (1) The maximum price per dozen or other unit for a brand of apple butter packed in any container type or size which the packer did not sell during October and November 1941 shall be calculated as follows. He shall:

(i) Determine the base container. If the packer sold the same brand of apple butter during October and November 1941, but only in other container types or sizes, he shall first determine the most similar container type in which he is able to calculate a maximum price for that brand under this regulation (even though he no longer sells that container type). From that container type he shall choose the nearest size which is 50% or less larger, or if there is no such size, 50% or less smaller (even though he no longer sells those sizes). This will be the "base container." If there is no such smaller size, he shall go to the next most similar container type and proceed in the same manner to find the base container.

"Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the packer's factory, of the container, cap, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(iv) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(vi) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the packer's maximum price for the apple butter in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows: The packer shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. If for any reason the apple butter in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, the packer shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during March 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since March 31, 1942, shall not be taken into account. § 1341.459a Information which packers must give their customers. (a) Notice from packers to wholesalers. * * * If the packer has established a maximum price under paragraph (e) of § 1341.452, he is not required to notify his wholesalers under the provisions of this paragraph.

(e) Amendment No. 3 (§§ 1341.452 (e), 1341.459a (a) and 1341.466 (e)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 232 shall become effective January 25, 1943.

DRIED AND CANNED APPLES AND APPLE PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1341.411 is amended and § 1341.429 is added as set forth below.

§ 1341.411 Maximum prices for apple products in new container types and sizes. (a) The maximum price per dozen, f. o. b. factory, for a kind and grade of any of the apple products covered by this regulation packed in any container type or size of which the seller made no sales during the first 60 days after the beginning of the 1941 pack shall be calculated as follows. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the seller's factory, of the container, caps, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(4) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(6) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the seller's maximum price for the apple product in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows. The seller shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. If for any reason the apple product in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, the seller shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during March 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since March 31, 1942, shall not be taken into account. (Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of transportation charge.) The seller shall then add these transportation charges to his f. o. b. factory price for the commodity in the new container. The resulting figure is the seller's maximum delivered price.

(b) If the seller has established prior to January 25, 1943, a maximum price under the provisions of this regulation for a kind, grade, and container size of apple products, of which he made no sales during the first 60 days following the beginning of the 1941 pack, he may retain that maximum price, or, at his option, may establish a maximum price under this section.

PART 1358—TOBACCO

CONNECTICUT SHADE GROWN (TYPE NO. 61) TOBACCO

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco by a specific maximum price regulation.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. So far as practical, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

Therefore, under authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 308 is hereby issued

Sec.

1358.201 Prohibition of sales or deliveries and purchases or receipt of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco.
1358.202 Less than maximum prices.
1358.203 Export sales.
1358.204 Petitions for amendment.
1358.205 Evasion.
1358.206 Enforcement.
1358.207 Records.
1358.208 Definitions.
1358.209 Geographical applicability.
1358.210 Effective date.
1358.211 Appendix A: Maximum Prices for the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco.

AUTHORITY §§ 1358.201 to 1358.211, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1358.201 Prohibition of sales or deliveries and purchases or receipt of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco. On and after January 23, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation:

(a) No person shall sell or deliver any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco at a price in excess of his maximum price for the particular tobacco in question as set forth in § 1358.211, Appendix A.

(b) No person shall buy or receive any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco at a price in excess of the maximum price for the particular tobacco in question as set forth in § 1358.211, Appendix A.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1358.202 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1358.203 Export sales. The maximum prices at which a person may export any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Regulation[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1358.204 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any modification of this regulation, or exceptions not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1358.205 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco, either alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege or other trade understanding or otherwise.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices in the marketing of any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco are prohibited:

(1) Any sale or purchase of such tobacco other than as a grade or in a condition for which maximum prices are established under § 1358.211, Appendix A.

(2) In the case of a seller, the grading of any of the 1942 crop in a manner that constitutes an alteration of or deviation from the customary grading practices with respect to the 1941 crop, normal variations alone excepted.

(3) In the case of a sale by a seller to a particular purchaser, the elimination or reduction of the seller's discounts and/or initial credit terms allowed with respect to sales of the 1941 crop to such purchaser, or, if no sales of the 1941 crop were made by the particular seller to the particular purchaser, the elimination or reduction of customary discounts and/or initial credit terms allowed by such seller on his sales of the 1941 crop to purchasers of the same class.

(4) In the case of a sale of any of the 1942 crop, elimination or reduction of commissions, allowances, fees or other compensation customarily paid by a seller to a broker or agent with respect to similar sales of prior crops.

§ 1358.206 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any of the provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this regulation or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1358.207 Records. (a) Every person selling any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco shall preserve and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, all his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for any of the 1941 crop of such tobacco.

(b) Every person selling or purchasing any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco shall keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, records of the same kind as he customarily kept relating to the prices which he charged or paid for any of the 1942 crop of such tobacco after the effective date of this regulation.

§ 1358.208 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation, the term:

(1) "Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco" means United States Type No. 61 as specified in the Regulatory Announcement No. 118 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(2) "Person" includes individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons or a legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) "Grade" means a subdivision of the type of tobacco according to group and quality, and according to color when color is of sufficient importance to be treated as a separate factor.

(4) "Priming" means a picking of tobacco.

(5) "1942 crop" mean Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco grown during the 1942 growing season.

(6) "1941 crop" means Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco grown during the 1941 growing season.

(7) "Initial credit terms" means terms fixing the time for payment of the purchase price agreed to by a seller and purchaser at or prior to delivery of the tobacco in question.

(8) "Jobber" means any person who purchases tobacco and holds or offers such tobacco for resale.

(9) "Purchase price" when used with reference to the price paid by a jobber for any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco means the gross amount contracted to be paid by the jobber to his supplier, before allowance for discounts and exclusive of transportation charges.

(10) "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in setting different prices for commodities or services for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution, individual consumer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or grades or under different conditions of sale.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1358.209 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

not be determined under (i) or (ii), his maximum price therefor shall be the highest price charged for the most comparable grade of such tobacco of the 1941 crop by a seller of the same class to a purchaser of the same class, plus 20%.

(3) The maximum price of a grower and or packer for any priming of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco, assorted and unsized, or unassorted (whether sized or unsized) shall be:

(i) The highest price charged by such grower or packer to a purchaser of the same class for tobacco of the 1941 crop of the same priming sold in the same condition, plus 20%; or

(ii) If a grower's or packer's maximum price for any particular tobacco cannot be determined under (i), his maximum price therefor shall be the highest price charged for tobacco of the 1941 crop of the same priming sold in the same condition by a seller of the same class to a purchaser of the same class, plus 20%; or

(iii) If a grower's or packer's maximum price for any particular tobacco cannot be determined under (i), his maximum price therefor shall be the highest price charged for the most comparable tobacco of the 1941 crop of the same priming sold in the same condition by a seller of the same class to a purchaser of the same class plus 20%.

(4) Every grower and packer shall allow from his maximum prices established hereunder for the 1942 crop, his customary discounts and allowances with respect to sales of the 1941 crop to the particular purchaser in question. If a particular grower or packer made no sales of the 1941 crop to a particular purchaser, he shall allow from such maximum prices his customary discounts and allowances with respect to sales of the 1941 crop to purchasers of the same class.

(b) Maximum prices for jobbers. (1) The maximum price of a jobber for any of the 1942 crop of Connecticut Shade Grown (Type No. 61) Tobacco of a particular grade, sized, sorted and packed, or for tobacco of such crop of any priming sold assorted and unsized, or unassorted (whether sized or unsized) shall be determined as follows:

(i) Such jobber shall determine his highest price charged for tobacco of the same grade, or of the same priming and condition sold and delivered by him during the period from January 1, 1942, through December 31, 1942. He shall then add thereto 16⅔ per cent of his purchase price for the particular tobacco of the 1942 crop. The result of the addition shall be the jobber's maximum price for that tobacco of the 1942 crop.

(ii) If a jobber's maximum price for any particular tobacco cannot be determined under (i), he shall ascertain the highest price charged by a jobber for tobacco of the same grade, or of the same priming and condition sold and delivered during the period from January 1, 1942, through December 31, 1942. He shall then add thereto 16⅔% of his purchase price for the particular tobacco of the 1942 crop. The result of the addition shall be the jobber's maximum price for that tobacco of the 1942 crop.

(iii) If a jobber's maximum price for any particular tobacco cannot be determined under (i) or (ii), he shall ascertain the highest price charged by a jobber for the most comparable tobacco of the same grade, or of the same priming and condition sold and delivered during the period from January 1, 1942, through December 31, 1942. He shall then add thereto 16⅔ percent of his purchase price for the particular tobacco of the 1942 crop. The results of the addition shall be the jobber's maximum price for that tobacco of the 1942 crop.

(2) Every jobber shall allow from his maximum prices established hereunder for the 1942 crop his customary discounts and allowances with respect to sales of the 1941 crop to the particular purchaser in question. If a particular jobber made no sales of the 1941 crop to a particular purchaser, he shall allow from such maximum prices his customary discounts and allowances with respect to sales of the 1941 crop to purchasers of the same class.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 89 to Supp. Reg. 14[2] of GMPR[3]]

DALLAS AREA PRICES FOR FLUID MILK

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subdivision (vi) of § 1499.73 (a) (1) is redesignated subdivision (vii) of § 1499.73 (a) (1); and a new subdivision (vi) is added to § 1499.73 (a) (1), as set forth below.

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) * * *

(1) * * *

(vi) Maximum prices for approved fluid milk sold and delivered in the Dallas Regional area. This subdivision (vi) of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 establishes maximum prices for approved fluid milk delivered within the geographical boundaries of the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas. Specific maximum prices are established for out-of-store sales, home-delivery and all other sales in containers of one gallon or less. The prices are stated for three classes of areas in each of two zones. These areas and zones are described under "definitions" below. Specific maximum prices are also stated for approved milk in containers larger than one gallon sold to stores, hotels, restaurants, and institutions.

A formula is provided by which persons who sold premium milk during December 1942 may determine a premium to be added to the prices set out, provided they file a required report. No other person may add any premium for such milk unless he first obtains a price from the Dallas Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration. There is also a special method of determining maximum prices for deliveries of approved milk to the Army or Navy.

This subdivision takes the place of the seller's former ceiling prices as determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation, Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, relating to bulk sales of fluid milk to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions, supplementary and adjustment orders issued by the Office of Price Administration pertaining to the sale and delivery of approved milk in Region V, for all deliveries of approved fluid milk in the Dallas Regional area for which specific prices, or for which pricing formulae are provided by this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14. The listed maximum prices apply only to fluid sweet milk. They are not applicable to buttermilk and chocolate or other flavored milk, maximum prices for which remain as determined under the General Provision, General Maximum Price Regulation.

(a) Maximum prices: The maximum prices set forth below are the maximum prices for "approved fluid milk" delivered to the buyer in the respective size containers set forth below, in the respective areas therein set out, regardless of the quantities sold or delivered, the seller's classification of purchasers, or the material from which the container was made:

(1) Table of prices (on sales in containers larger than one gallon the price stated is per gallon. In all other instances the price stated is determined by the container used assuming that the container is full. Maximum prices for sales to Army and Navy are set forth in subdivision (6) below.)

(2) Premium milk. (i) A person who sold "premium milk" during December 1942 shall determine the maximum price for such milk as follows:

Take the highest price (before all discounts or quantity differentials have been deducted) at which he sold each different kind of premium milk during December 1942 in each size container for out-of-store-sale, home-delivery, and all other sales, respectively.

Next subtract from each of those prices the highest price (before discounts or quantity differentials have been deducted) at which he sold other approved milk during December 1942 in the respective size containers and for the respective out-of-store, home-delivery or other sale. The differentials thus obtained shall be the premium for each size container and type of sale. These premiums may then be added to the specific maximum prices set forth above in this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14: Provided, That the seller on or before February 17, 1943 files a report with the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration in Dallas, Texas, showing:

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(dd) The total quantity, expressed in quarts, of each type of premium milk which he sold during December 1942.

(ee) The Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Dallas, Texas, may correct any prices so reported and may revise any such prices if the differential reported is higher than the differential generally prevailing during December 1942 in that local market area or an adjoining area.

(ii) A seller of "approved fluid milk" who did not sell premium milk, or who sold only premium milk during December 1942, or who did not file the report provided for in inferior subdivision (a) (2) (i) above, may not add any premium to the maximum prices established above by inferior subdivision (a) (1) unless he first files an application in writing with the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Dallas, Texas, for permission to sell such premium milk at such prices, and is granted such permission.

Applications filed under inferior subdivision (a), (2), (ii), and (a), (2), (iii) of this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, shall contain the following:

(aa) If the application is made by a seller who sold premium milk during December, 1942, it shall contain the report required by inferior subdivision (a), (2), (i) above and the following:

A description of the different types of premium milk sold in the area in which applicant desires to establish maximum prices for premium milk, or in which the applicant desires to increase the volume of premium milk which he sells, as the case may be. If no premium milk is being sold in the area involved, the applicant shall so state.

The maximum prices of such premium milk established by this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, for other sellers in the particular area.

A description of the premium milk or milks concerning which the application is made.

A clear statement of the reasons applicant desires to sell premium milk or increase the volume of the sale of his premium milk, as the case may be.

A clear showing, substantiated by affirmative evidence, that a denial of the application would result in an undue hardship to the applicant, and a shortage or threatened shortage of a type of milk necessary to the health of the people of the area or to a standard of living consistent with the war effort.

(bb) If the applicant was not selling premium milk during December 1942, the application shall show the total quantity of fluid milk, expressed in quarts, sold by him in December 1942, together with the quantity of premium milk which the applicant desires to sell, and the premium, expressed in cents per quart, which he desires to add to the maximum price established by inferior subdivisions (a) (1) of this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14.

If the applicant was not selling any fluid milk during December 1942, then he shall show the total quantity of approved fluid milk, expressed in quarts, sold by him during the last calendar month preceding his application.

(3) Certain sales in territory adjoining Class 1 and Class 2 areas. Whenever "approved fluid milk" is sold and delivery is made within a radius of ten miles of any Class 1 area or within 5 miles of any Class 2 area, either in Zone I or Zone II, the maximum price for such sale shall be the maximum price established for that particular Class 1 or Class 2 area: Provided, That, such milk shall have been inspected by the appropriate authorities of such Class 1 or Class 2 area and shall have met all of the requirements of the particular area, both as to butterfat content and sanitary and health conditions. If a portion of a city or town lies within such ten or five mile radius, such city or town shall be treated as though the entire city or town lay within the ten or five mile radius. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the area of the City of St. Louis, Missouri, or to the area of the County of St. Louis, Missouri.

(4) Maximum Prices for Sales in West Memphis, Arkansas. The maximum prices for the sale of approved fluid milk in the City of West Memphis, Arkansas, shall be the maximum prices established by any regulation or order of the Office of Price Administration for any comparable seller of approved fluid milk in the City of Memphis, Tennessee.[3]

(5) Maximum prices for sales in New Orleans, Westwego and Gretna, Louisiana. (i) The Maximum prices for the sale of approved fluid milk in the cities of New Orleans Westwego and Gretna, Louisiana, shall be as follows:

Size of container	Out-of-store	Home delivery	All other sales including wholesale and retail (except Army and Navy)
	Cents per gallon	Cents per gallon	Cents
More than 1 gallon	46	46	----
1 gallon	52	56	48
½ gallon	27	29	25
1 quart	14	15	12½
1 pint	7	7½	6¼
½ quart	----	----	4½
½ pint	----	----	3½

[3] Sales in Memphis, Tenn. Maximum Prices for sales in the city of Memphis, Tenn., are not specifically provided for in this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14.

(ii) The maximum prices for sales to stores, hotels, restaurants, institutions, (except Army or Navy sales) in containers larger than one gallon shall be: 46¢ per gallon.

(6) Sales to Army and Navy. Unless the seller has entered into a contract prior to January 18, 1943,[4] and commenced deliveries under such contract prior to that date, the maximum price for sales or deliveries to the Army or Navy in the Dallas Regional area shall be:

(i) Where the plant of the seller is located within the Dallas Regional area: The maximum price shall be the maximum price established by inferior subdivisions (a) (1) (i) (bb) or (a) (1) (ii) (aa) of this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, for the area wherein such plant is situated, for the particular size container, plus a premium of ½¢ per quart, or a proportionate amount for a part of a quart; or, at the election of such seller, in lieu of the premium of ½¢ per quart the seller may add the actual transportation costs from such plant to destination not to exceed lowest common carrier rates: Provided, That, in the event the seller elects to add the transportation costs in lieu of the ½¢ premium he shall, within 10 days after entering into any contract with the Army or Navy or the making of the first delivery to a camp, post, or other Army or Navy destination, where no contract is entered into, file with the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Dallas, Texas, a statement showing the transportation charges which he proposes to add, together with the method of computing them, the location of his plant, and the destination of such milk.

(ii) Where the plant of the seller is located outside of the Dallas Regional area. The maximum price shall be the maximum wholesale price for sales to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions established for the particular seller by any applicable regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, plus ½¢ per quart; or, at the election of such seller, such wholesale price so established plus the actual transportation costs from the seller's plant to destination not to exceed the lowest common carrier rates: Provided, That, in the event the seller elects to use such wholesale price plus transportation costs, he shall, within 10 days after entering into any Army or Navy contract or making the first delivery to a particular camp, post or other Army or Navy destination, where no contract is entered into, file with the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Dallas, Texas, a statement showing such wholesale price, and the transportation charges which he proposes to add to such price, together with the method of computing them, the location of his plant, and the destination of such milk.

[4] Sales and deliveries to Army or Navy under contract entered into prior to January 18, 1943. Maximum prices for deliveries under such contracts are not affected by this subdivision.

(iii) The ½¢ per quart premium provided for Army or Navy sales shall apply to any type of container in which the "approved fluid milk" is delivered.

(iv) The Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Dallas, Texas, may correct any prices so determined.

(7) Fractional cents. On sales of one unit, wherein the price specified in this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, contains a fractional cent, the seller may adjust the price upward to the nearest cent. On sales of more than one unit, where the unit price is expressed in a fraction of a cent, the exact price established by this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, shall be multiplied by the number of units. If such computations result in a fractional cent, the total shall be adjusted up or down to the nearest cent; and in such adjustment, a half-cent may be adjusted upward to the nearest cent.

(i) Zone I shall include all of the area within the geographical limits of the following counties, cities, parishes and townships, except the cities of New Orleans, Westwego, and Gretna, Louisiana, within the geographical limits of the states of Louisiana, Missouri, and Texas:

(cc) Class 3, Zone II. shall include all of the area within the geographical boundaries of Zone II except the areas specifically mentioned as being in Class 1 or Class 2 or Zone II.

(iii) "Approved fluid milk" means fluid cow's milk, whether raw or pasteurized, meeting the minimum butter-fat content, sanitary and health requirements for fluid milk for human consumption in the particular area wherein it is delivered, including standards set by the Army or Navy purchasing officer making purchases for the Armed Forces of the United States.

(iv) "Premium milk" means certified milk, homogenized milk, milk which has been fortified with vitamins, and any other approved milk for which a premium in excess of the selling price for other approved milk was customarily charged by sellers in any local market area during December 1942.

(v) "Sales to the Army or Navy" shall include deliveries in the Dallas Regional area to the Armed Forces of the United States, including deliveries to Post Exchanges, Officers' Messes and Ship stores.

(vi) "Dallas Regional Area" means the territory lying within the geographical boundaries of the following states: Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Texas.

(vii) "City," "Town," "County," "Parish" and "Township" means all of and only the territory lying within the geographical boundaries of a named city, town, county, parish or township, as the case may be. "City, town" shall include incorporated and unincorporated cities, towns and villages.

(viii) "Area", unless the context manifestly otherwise requires, means the territory lying within the geographical boundaries of any Class 1, 2 or 3 city, town, or other locality, either Zone I or II.

(c) Exemptions. The maximum prices set by this subdivision do not apply to buttermilk and chocolate or other flavored milk. The listed maximum prices are applicable only to fluid sweet milk.

(d) Adjustment of maximum prices. The Regional Office of Region V of the Office of Price Administration, Dallas, Texas, may upon application of any seller or on its own motion, adjust any maximum price established under this subdivision of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 where it appears:

(i) That a shortage in the supply of approved fluid milk in a particular locality exists or threatens to exist;

(ii) That such a local shortage will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the maximum price of such seller and of like sellers; and

(iii) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a shortage or a need for increase in prices in another locality, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

Such applications shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(90) Amendment No. 89 (§ 1499.73 (a) (1)) to Supplementary Regulation No 14 shall become effective on January 18, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729; 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250; 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 16th day of January 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 96 to Supp Reg 14[1] to GMPR[2]]

MODIFICATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CERTAIN COMMODITIES, SERVICES AND TRANSACTIONS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment No. 96 to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subparagraph (7) of paragraph (a) of § 1499.73 is amended to read as shown below.

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided:

• • • • •

(7) Packer's maximum prices for food commodities packed in new container types and sizes—(i) Explanation. The purpose of the new method of pricing provided by this subparagraph (7) is to permit the packer who is now packing food commodities in containers of new types and sizes (that is, types and sizes which he did not deliver or offer for delivery during March 1942) to establish maximum prices for those items. The method permits him to account for differences in container costs, and for differences in transportation cost caused by the difference in container without permitting him to increase the price per unit of the commodity packed in the new container. The new method, however, applies only where a previous maximum price of the commodity has been set for a container size not more than 50% larger or smaller than the new size, and only in cases where both containers are of the nonreturnable, single-use type. Packers must refigure every maximum price set under the General Maximum Price Regulation for a food commodity packed in a new container type or size to which the rules of this subparagraph (7) are applicable. However, packers who before January 25, 1943, had figured the maximum price for a food commodity under §§ 1499.2 (b) or 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, or under the rules formerly provided in this subparagraph, may, if they wish, keep that price or instead figure a new maximum price using the new pricing method where it is applicable.

(ii) Pricing method. To figure the maximum price to any class of purchasers for the food commodity in the new container type or size, the packer shall:

(a) Determine the base container. The packer shall first determine the most similar container type in which he has already established a maximum price for the commodity to that class of purchasers without using the earlier provisions of this subparagraph (7) (even though he no longer sells that container type). From that container type he shall choose the nearest size which is 50% or less larger or, if there is no such size, 50% or less smaller (even though he no longer sells those sizes). This will be the "base container". If there is no such smaller size, he shall go to the next most similar container type and proceed in the same manner to find the base container.

NOTE: In most cases "the most similar container type" will be merely the container type which the packer is adding to or replacing, like the tin which he may be replacing with glass. Where there has been only a size change, "the most similar container type" will, of course, be the same container type. This is also true in the reverse situation; where there has been a change only in container type, the "nearest size" will be the same size.

(b) Find the base price. The packer shall take as the "base price" the maximum price which he may charge that class of purchasers for the commodity in the base container. However, if this maximum price is a price delivered to the purchaser or to any point other than the packer's factory, the packer shall first convert it to a base price f. o. b. packer's factory simply by deducting whatever transportation charges were included in it.

(c) Deduct the container cost. Taking his base price f. o. b. factory, the packer shall then subtract the direct cost of the base container. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the packer's factory, of the container, cap, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(d) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure gotten by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(f) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the packer's maximum price for the commodity in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows: The packer shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. However, if for any reason the commodity in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, he shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during March 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since March 31, 1942, shall not be taken into account. (Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of the transportation charge.) The packer shall then add these transportation charges to his f. o. b. factory price for the commodity in the new container. The resulting figure is the packer's maximum delivered price to that class of purchasers.

(iii) Units of sale and fractions of a cent. The packer shall figure each maximum price, and the costs that enter into it, in terms of the same general units (like pounds, dozens, etc.) in which he has customarily quoted prices for the commodity in the base container. If any maximum price includes a fraction of a cent, the packer shall adjust the price to the nearest fractional unit (like 1¢, ½¢, ¼¢, etc.) in which he has customarily quoted prices for the commodity in the base container.

(iv) Examples showing how the pricing method is to be applied.

CASE 1. The maximum price f. o. b. factory if the base container is the same in size as the new container but different in type. Assume the base container is a 16 oz. tin and the new container is a 16 oz. glass (pork and beans).

Maximum price per doz. f. o. b. factory in base container ("base price")	$0.55
Subtract "direct cost" of base container	−.20
	.35
Add "direct cost" of new container	+.34
New maximum price (f. o. b. factory)	.69 doz.

CASE 2. The maximum price f. o. b. factory if the base container is different in size from the new container and either the same or different in type. Assume the base container is a 10½ oz. tin and the new container is an 8 oz. tin or glass (spaghetti sauce).

Maximum price per doz. f. o. b. factory in base container ("base price")	$1.20
Subtract "direct cost" of base container	−.15
	1.05
Adjust to new container: Divide by number of ounces of commodity in base container $1.05 ÷ 10½	.10
Multiply by number of ounces of commodity in new container ×8	.80
Add "direct cost" of new container (glass)	.26
New maximum price (f. o. b. factory)	1.06 doz.

CASE 3. Maximum delivered price if the base container is the same in size as the new container but different in type. Assume the base container is a 16 oz. tin and the new container is a 16 oz. glass (pork and beans).

Maximum delivered price per dozen in base container (figured c. i.)	$.60
Subtract transportation charges	−.05
Price f. o. b. factory ("base price")	.55
Subtract "direct cost" of container	−.20
	.35
Add "direct cost" of new container	+.34
Add new transportation charges: .05 (old transp chges.) × 40 lb (new shpg wt/case) / 34 lb (old shpg wt/case)	.058
New maximum delivered price	$.75 doz.

CASE 4. Same, except that the new container type puts the commodity in a different freight tariff classification. Assume the base container is a 16 oz. tin and the new container is a 16 oz. glass (pork and beans).

Maximum delivered price per dozen in base container (figured l. c. l.)	$.60
Subtract transportation charges	−.05
Price f. o. b. factory ("base price")	.55
Subtract "direct cost" of container	−.20
	.35
Add "direct cost" of new container	+.34

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 230 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

BOSTON MOLASSES COMPANY

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1466 Authorization for sales of a new product consisting 66⅔% Hydrol and 33⅓% Porto Rican blackstrap molasses, made by the Boston Molasses Company. (a) On and after January 25, 1943, the Boston Molasses Company, 131 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts, may sell and deliver its new molasses mixture composed of 66⅔% Hydrol and 33⅓% Porto Rican blackstrap molasses at a maximum price of 22.72 cents per gallon net f. o. b. Boston, Massachusetts, in containers supplied by the buyer.

(b) Each seller of this new product shall allow to all purchasers the same allowances, discounts and price differentials established by it for Porto Rican blackstrap molasses. Specifically, established differentials for tank car sales or for sales where the seller supplies the container shall be maintained.

(c) Boston Molasses Company, shall mail or otherwise supply to purchasers from it, at the time of or prior to the first delivery of the new product, composed of 66⅔% Hydrol and 33⅓% Porto Rican blackstrap molasses, to such purchaser, a written statement as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration has authorized the Boston Molasses Company to make and sell a new product composed of 66⅔% Hydrol and 33⅓% Porto Rican blackstrap molasses, at a maximum price of 22.72 cents per gallon net f. o. b. Boston, Massachusetts, in containers supplied by the buyer. The Office of Price Administration has authorized dealers to fix their maximum price for this new product by adding to the net invoice cost of the new product an amount not more than the difference between the net invoice cost of Porto Rican blackstrap molasses supplied by the Applicant and the maximum price established by them pursuant to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 242 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

FINER FOODS PACKING CORP.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1478 Authorization of maximum prices for sales of "Garden City Red Beans" in 13½ ounce glass bottles by the Finer Foods Packing Corp., 430 North Third Street, Terre Haute, Indiana, by wholesalers and by retailers. (a) On and after January 23, 1943, the maximum price for sales by Finer Foods Packing Corp., 430 North Third Street, Terre Haute, Indiana of "Garden City Red Beans" packed 24 13½-ounce glass bottles to a shipping case, shall be 94 cents per dozen, f. o. b., Terre Haute, Indiana.

(b) Sellers at wholesale shall determine their maximum prices for "Garden City Red Beans" by application of the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 237, as amended.

(c) Sellers at retail shall determine their maximum prices for "Garden City Red Beans" by application of the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 238, as amended.

(d) Finer Foods Packing Corp. and wholesalers shall apply to their sales of "Garden City Red Beans" the same customary discounts, allowances and price differentials applying to their sales of comparable red bean items, unless a change in these customary discounts and allowances and price differentials shall result in lower selling prices.

(e) On and after January 23, 1943, Finer Foods Packing Corp. shall supply written notification to each wholesaler before or at the time of the first delivery of "Garden City Red Beans" to such wholesaler, and for a period of three months thereafter shall include with each shipping unit of "Garden City Red Beans" a written notification to retailers. If such retailer notification is enclosed in a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed". The written notifications for each type of purchaser shall include the following appropriate statements:

Notification From Finer Foods Packing Corp. to Wholesalers

> OPA has authorized us to charge wholesalers 94 cents per dozen 13½ ounce bottles of "Garden City Red Beans" subject to all customary allowances and discounts. Wholesalers are authorized to establish ceiling prices under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 237, as amended. (Adjusted and Fixed Markup Regulation for Sales of Certain Food Products at Wholesale). A copy of a notification to retailers is included in every shipping unit of these items. If the initial sale of any of these items to any retailer is a split case sale, wholesalers are required to provide such retailer with a copy of the retailer notification so enclosed. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

Notification From Finer Foods Packing Corp. to Retailers

> OPA authorizes retailers to establish ceiling prices for 13½ ounce bottles of "Garden City Red Beans" under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 238, as amended. (Adjusted and Fixed Markup Regulation for Sales of Certain Food Products at Retail). OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(f) This Order No. 242 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This Order No. 242 (§ 1499.1478) shall become effective as of January 23, 1943.

Chapter XIII—Petroleum Administration for War

PART 1515—PETROLEUM PRODUCTION OPERATIONS

[Petroleum Administrative Order 6]

GAS WELL DRILLING PROHIBITED IN CERTAIN PARTS OF KANSAS AND OKLAHOMA

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage of materials necessary for the production of petroleum for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary in the public interest, to promote the national defense, and to provide adequate supplies of petroleum for military and other essential purposes:

§ 1515.2 Petroleum Administrative Order No. 6—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(b) Prohibiting gas well drilling in portions of the states of Kansas and Oklahoma. Notwithstanding the provisions of Conservation Order M-68 as amended (§ 1047.1 of Chapter IX)[1] and Supplementary Order M-68-6 (§ 1047.11 of Chapter IX),[2] no person may use material to drill, complete or provide additions to any well in any discovered or undiscovered natural gas field in the counties of Kearney, Finney, Grant, Haskell, Morton, Stevens or Seward in the State of Kansas or in Texas County in the State of Oklahoma, except:

(1) In accordance with any exception issued pursuant to paragraph (c) (10 of

[1] 8 F.R. 104.
[2] 7 F.R. 6996.

Conservation Order M-68, as amended, subsequent to September 3, 1942; or

(2) In accordance with any authorization of the Petroleum Administrator for War issued subsequent to the effective date of this order.

(c) Applications. Application for authorization to drill, complete or provide additions to any well in accordance with paragraph (b) (2) of this order shall be made by filing a letter in quadruplicate or a telegram with the Director of the Natural Gas and Natural Gasoline Division, Petroleum Administration for War, South Interior Building, Washington, D. C., Ref: PAO 6.

(d) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may file an appeal setting forth the pertinent facts and reasons why he considers himself entitled to relief. All appeals shall be filed in quadruplicate and shall be addressed to the Director of the Natural Gas and Natural Gasoline Division, Petroleum Administration for War, South Interior Building, Washington, D. C. Ref: PAO 6.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, by any act or omission, falsifies records kept or information furnished in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment.

Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order may be prohibited from delivering or receiving any material under priority control, or such other action may be taken as is deemed appropriate.

(f) Effective date. This order shall take effect on the date of issuance.

Issued this 22d day of January 1943.

Chapter XV—Board of War Communications

[Order 26]

PART 1721—PRIORITY FOR URGENT TELETYPEWRITER EXCHANGE (TWX) MESSAGES ESSENTIAL TO THE WAR EFFORT AND PUBLIC SAFETY

PRIORITIES, RECORDS, REPORTS, ETC.

Whereas the Board of War Communications has determined that the national defense and security and the successful conduct of the war demand that certain teletypewriter exchange messages, hereinafter referred to as TWX messages, relating to the war effort or public safety, be given preferred handling;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Board by Executive Order No. 8964[1] of December 10, 1941, prescribing regulations governing the preference and priority of communications, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Board by Executive Order No. 9089[2] of March 6, 1942, prescribing regulations governing the use, control, supervision, and closing of stations and facilities for wire communications; It is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 1721.1 Priorities. On and after February 1, 1943, urgent TWX messages shall, upon request, be given priority over all other TWX messages in accordance with the provisions of and in the order set forth in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) below:

(a) Priority 1 shall be given to messages which require immediate transmission for war purposes or to safeguard life or property and which relate to one or more of the following matters:

(1) Arrangements for moving armed forces during combat operations.

(2) Extremely urgent orders to armed forces.

(3) Immediate dangers due to the presence of the enemy.

(4) Hurricane, flood, earthquake or other disaster materially affecting the war effort or public security.

(b) Priority 2 shall be given to extremely urgent messages which require immediate transmission for the national defense and security, the successful conduct of the war, or to safeguard life or property other than those specifically described in § 1721.1 (a).

(c) Priority 3 shall be given to messages which require prompt transmission for the national defense and security, the successful conduct of the war or to safeguard life or property and which involve matters of the following type:

(1) Important governmental functions; (2) Machinery, tools, or raw materials for war plants; (3) Production of essential supplies; (4) Maintenance of essential public services; (5) Supply or movement of food; (6) Civilian defense or public health and safety.

§ 1721.2 Relinquishment of circuit. Any subscriber having exercised the privilege of priority 1, 2, or 3 above shall immediately relinquish the circuit on completion of transmission of the priority message or messages concerned.

§ 1721.3 Records. A record shall be kept by all telephone carriers of each priority TWX message, which record shall include the priority given. Such record shall be kept by the telephone carrier for two years after the date of the priority message.

§ 1721.4 Reports. Within thirty days after the end of each calendar month, the American Telephone and Telegraph Company shall file with the Board a report for the Bell System Companies showing:

(a) The number of TWX messages during the preceding calendar month given priority 1, 2, or 3:

(b) Periods of time required to complete the circuits for each class of priority messages.

§ 1721.5 Violations. The TWX facilities of any subscriber who wilfully obtains or attempts to obtain priority for a TWX message by fraudulently designating such message as a priority message or by furnishing false information to any telephone carrier for the purpose of obtaining a priority, shall be subject to closure, removal, or other appropriate governmental action.

Subject to such further order as the Board may deem appropriate.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 120—ANNUAL, SPECIAL OR PERIODICAL REPORTS

FORM PRESCRIBED FOR LESSORS TO STEAM ROADS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of January, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of annual reports from lessors to steam railway companies, and the corresponding section of the Code of Federal Regulations, the following order was entered:

It is ordered. That the order of this Commission dated January 27, 1942,[1] in the matter of annual reports from lessors to steam railway companies be, and it is hereby, vacated and set aside effective January 1, 1943, and the following order shall become effective:

§ 120.14 Form prescribed for lessors to steam roads. (a) All lessors to steam railway companies within the scope of section 20, Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, are hereby required to file annual reports for the year ended December 31, 1942, and for each succeeding year until further order in accordance with Annual Report Form E (Railway Lessor Companies),[2] which is hereby approved and made a part of this order.

(b) The annual report shall be filed, in duplicate, in the Bureau of Transport Economics and Statistics, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., on or before March 31 of the year following the one to which it relates.

DISTRICT BOARD 11

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 11 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for slurry produced at Mine Index Nos. 63, 101, 108 and 112 in District No. 11.

A hearing in the above-entitled matter having been heretofore scheduled to be held on February 17, 1943, and it appearing appropriate that the said hearing should be postponed:

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter heretofore scheduled to be held on February 17, 1943, be and it hereby is postponed until 10 o'clock in the forenoon of March 8, 1943, at the place and before the officers heretofore designated.

Dated: January 21, 1943.

AMERICAN RIVER INVESTIGATIONS, CALIFORNIA

AMENDMENT TO FIRST FORM RECLAMATION WITHDRAWAL

DECEMBER 21, 1942.

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

SIR: By Departmental order of September 14, 1942, certain lands described therein were withdrawn from public entry under the first form of withdrawal, as provided in section 3 of the Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), in connection with the American River Investigations, California.

The said withdrawal order of September 14, 1942, inadvertently described the NW¼SE¼ Section 4, Township 10 North, Range 9 East, M. D. M., California, as the NE¼SE¼ Section 4, above township.

It is recommended, therefore, that said order be amended as of September 14, 1942, to the extent of properly describing the desired tract as the NW¼SE¼ Section 4, Township 10 North, Range 9 East, M. D. M., California.

Respectfully,

H. W. BASHORE,
Acting Commissioner.

I concur: December 28, 1942.

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The foregoing recommendation is hereby approved, as recommended, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office will cause the records of his office and the local land office to be noted accordingly.

TOWN SITE OF ARGUS, CALIF.

SALE OF TOWN LOTS

1. Statutory authority. The lots in the town site of Argus, California, will be disposed of under sections 2382 to 2386, Revised Statutes. The town site plat was accepted November 21, 1942.

2. Area and price. The area and minimum price of the lots which will be sold are shown by the attached schedule.

3. Public sale. On Friday, April 16, 1943, beginning at 10 o'clock A. M., a sale at public auction to the highest bidder will be held at the town site of all the unreserved lots for which preemption proof has not been made as provided for hereinafter. The sale will be continued from day to day as long as may be necessary under the supervision of the Commissioner of the General Land Office or his representative. No lot will be sold for less than the appraised price. The lots will be offered for sale for cash and must be paid for on the date of sale.

4. Manner of sale. Bids may be made either in person or by agent but not by mail or at any time or place other than the time and place at which the lots are offered for sale hereunder. Any person may purchase any number of lots for which he is the highest bidder. The bidders will be required to show that they are citizens of the United States or have declared their intention to become such. If bids are made by a corporation evidence must be furnished, including a certified copy of its articles of incorporation showing that it is a corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any state, territory or possession thereof and that it is authorized to acquire and hold real estate in the State of California. If any successful bidder fails to make the payment required on the date of sale, the lot awarded to him shall again be offered for sale.

5. Preemption claims. A person who has established settlement on any lot prior to the effective date of these regulations and maintained such settlement to the date of proof, is entitled to make a preemption entry at the minimum price for such lot and one other lot on which he has made substantial and permanent improvements. A preemption claim is not necessarily forfeited by the settler transferring his interest to another subsequent to accrual of the right, but patent, if issued, will be in the name of the settler and not to the transferee.

The notice of intention to make preemption proof must be made on Form 4-348, and should give the date of settlement and the value and character of the improvements. Claimants must file their notices of intention by March 1, 1943, in order that publication may be made and proof submitted prior to the date of public sale.

On the filing by the applicant of the notice of intention to make proof, the register will issue notice for publication which the applicant must have published at his expense in the Printer-Review, a weekly newspaper, published at Barstow, California, in four consecutive issues prior to the date set for the proof. Proof consisting of the affidavit of the applicant and of at least two of the advertised witnesses may be made before the register of the district land office, at Sacramento, California, or before any other officer authorized to take proofs under the homestead laws, and must show claimant's age, his citizenship and his actual residence upon one lot, and substantial improvements on a second lot where two lots are included in the application. Proof of publication must be shown by the affidavit of the publisher. The purchase price of the lot or lots must be paid to the register when the proof is made.

6. Removal of improvements. Owners of buildings who do not purchase the lots on which the buildings are located will be allowed six months from date of sale in which to remove their improvements.

7. Warning. All persons are warned against forming any combination or agreement which will prevent any lot from selling advantageously, or which will in any way hinder or embarass the sale. Any persons so offending will be prosecuted under section 59 of the Criminal Code (U. S. C., Title 18, section 113).

8. Authority of officer in charge. The officer conducting the sale is hereby authorized to reject any and all bids for any lot, and at any time to suspend, adjourn or postpone the sale of any lot or lots. If all the lots are not sold, the sale will not be closed but will be indefinitely postponed.

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner.

Approved: January 8, 1943.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Assistant Secretary.

LEARNER EMPLOYMENT CERTIFICATES

TENNESSEE TUFTING CO.

Notice of issuance of Special Certificates for the employment of learners under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Notice is hereby given that Special Certificates authorizing the employment of learners at hourly wages lower than the minimum rate applicable under section 6 of the Act are issued under section 14 thereof and § 522.5 (b) of the Regulations issued thereunder (August 16, 1940, 5 F.R. 2862) to the employers listed below effective January 25, 1943.

The employment of learners under these Certificates is limited to the terms and conditions as designated opposite the employer's name. These Certificates are issued upon the employer's representations and that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available for employment and that they are actually in need of learners at subminimum rates in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. The Certificates may be cancelled in the manner provided for in the Regulations and as indicated on the Certificate. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of these Certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof.

OFFICE OF ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN.

[Vesting Order 73, Amendment]

100 SHARES OF THE CAPITAL STOCK OF METRO STAMP CO., LTD., AND CERTAIN INDEBTEDNESS OWING BY IT

Whereas pursuant to Vesting Order Number 73 of July 30, 1942,[1] the undersigned intended to vest, among other things, all the right, title and interest of Vittorio LeBianco in and to that part of the outstanding capital stock of Metro Stamp Co., Ltd., beneficially owned by him (namely, 33⅓% of the outstanding capital stock of said company) and held in a voting trust;

Whereas the amount of such stock beneficially owned by said person and held in such voting trust was stated in said vesting order to be 100 shares; and

Whereas it has developed that said Vittorio LeBianco beneficially owned only 33⅓ shares of such stock held in such voting trust, which 33⅓ shares represents 33⅓% of the outstanding capital stock of said company;

Now, therefore, Vesting Order Number 73 of July 30, 1942, is hereby amended as follows and not otherwise:

By substituting the figure "33⅓" for the figure "100" appearing in subparagraph (a) of said order.

All other provisions of such Vesting Order Number 73 and all action taken on behalf of the undersigned in reliance thereon, pursuant thereto and under the authority thereof, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

[2] 7 F.R. 7053.

Wheras in describing such persons in said Vesting Order Number 92, the names were inadvertently designated as "S. Kuchi" and "H. Ichikawa";

Now, therefore, Vesting Order Number 92, of August 6, 1942, is hereby amended as follows and not otherwise:

By changing the names "S. Kuchi" and "H. Ichikawa" appearing therein to "Shungo Kutomi" and "Kokei Ichikawa", respectively.

All other provisions of such Vesting Order Number 92 and all action taken on behalf of the undersigned in reliance thereon, pursuant thereto and under the authority thereof are hereby ratified and confirmed.

ASSETS OF BANK OF JAPAN

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

All property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States and owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to Bank of Japan, Tokyo, Japan, including but not limited to all property of its American branch located at New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States.

is property of said business enterprise which is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan), and determining to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country, and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

DOMESTIC FUEL CORPORATION

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

(a) That the property described as follows:

375 shares (which constitute a substantial part, namely, 75%, of all outstanding shares) of $100 par value common stock of Domestic Fuel Corporation, a New York corporation, New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States, of which:

(1) 175 shares are owned by Franz Haniel & Cie., G. m. b. H., whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Duisburg-Ruhrort, Germany;

(2) 75 shares are owned by "Riberena del Plata" Sudamericana de Comercio, S. A., Buenos Aires, Argentina, which is presently on The Proclaimed List of Certain Blocked Nationals promulgated pursuant to Proclamation 2497 of the President of the United States of America of July 17, 1941, and is owned or controlled by Deutsches Kohlen Depot G. m. b. H., whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Hamburg, Germany; and is property of nationals, and represents control of said business enterprise which is a national, of a designated enemy country (Germany),

(3) 125 shares are owned by N. V. Handels-en-Transport Maatschappij "Vulcaan", Rotterdam, Holland, which is owned or controlled by members of the Thyssen family, nationals of Germany;

(b) That the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of said N. V. Handels-en-Transport Maatschappij "Vulcaan", and said Franz, Haniel & Cie., and each of them, in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to them and each of them by said Domestic Fuel Corporation, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, is an interest in the aforesaid business enterprise held by nationals of an enemy country, and is also property within the United States owned or controlled by nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby (i) vests the property described in subparagraphs (a) and (b) in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (ii) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national," "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

PAINTINGS OWNED BY, AND INDEBTEDNESS OWING TO, ROMUALDO LOCATELLI

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned after investigation:

1. Finding that Romualdo Locatelli, a citizen of Italy, is a national of a designated enemy country (Italy);

2. Finding that said Romualdo Locatelli, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being in enemy-occupied territory (Philippine Islands), is controlled by a designated enemy country (Japan), or a person within such country, and therefore is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

3. Finding that certain paintings owned by said Romualdo Locatelli and in the possession of Douthitt Galleries, Inc., New York, New York, are property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of designated enemy countries (Italy and Japan), which paintings are particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof;

4. Finding that all right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of said Romualdo Locatelli in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to him by said Douthitt Galleries, Inc., including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, and including particularly certain funds held by said Douthitt Galleries, Inc., representing the proceeds of the sale of certain other paintings owned by said Romualdo Locatelli and sold by Douthitt Galleries, Inc., as his agent, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of the aforesaid designated enemy countries (Italy and Japan);

5. Determining that the property described in subparagraph 4 hereof is necessary for the maintenance or safeguarding of other property (namely that hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3) belonging to the same national of the same designated enemy countries and subject to vesting (and in fact vested by this order) pursuant to Section 2 of said Executive Order;

6. Determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy countries (Italy and Japan);

7. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraphs 3 and 4, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

9. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such returns should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

4. Finding that said corporation is a business enterprise within the United States and that said 2,413 shares of stock constitute a substantial part (namely, 99%) of all the outstanding capital stock of said business enterprise and represent control thereof;

5. Finding, therefore, that said business enterprise is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

6. Determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan);

7. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby (i) vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in subparagraph 3 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (ii) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

8. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control, or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on December 30, 1942.

MILLWOOD SAND CO., ET AL.

In re: Interpleader Proceedings: Millwood Sand Company, Plaintiff v. Dorothy Miller et al. Defendants, No. 17154 filed in the Court of Common Pleas, Knox County, Ohio—File D-38-269; E. T. sec. 7.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests described in subparagraph (a) are property which is in process of administration by the Millwood Sand Company, Plaintiff, acting under the judicial supervision of the Court of Common Pleas, Knox County, Ohio, and also such property and interests are property which is in partition, libel, condemnation or other similar proceedings, by virtue of a decree of the said Court in the interpleader proceedings entitled, Millwood Sand Company, Plaintiff v. Dorothy Miller et al. Defendants, No. 17154;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Italy, namely,

National:	Last known address
Jessie Sanalcrappia or Sinlcrope	Italy

(3) The property and interests described in subparagraphs (a) and (b) are property within the United States owned or controlled by the aforesaid national of a designated enemy country, Italy; and

Determining that—

(4) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Italy; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

(a) All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Jessie Sanalcrappia or Sinicrope in and to an undivided One-twenty-first ($\frac{1}{21}$) interest in the rents and royalties issuing from real property described in a lease to the Millwood Sand Company from George Miller and Sophia Miller (both now deceased), dated November 15, 1932, and payable by the Millwood Sand Company pursuant to a decree entered in the above entitled proceedings by the said Court on July 23, 1942, and

(b) All right, title, interest, and estate, both legal and equitable of Jessie Sanalcrappia or Sinicrope in and to an undivided One-twenty-first ($\frac{1}{21}$) fee simple interest in the real property leased to the Millwood Sand Company by George Miller and Sophia Miller (both now deceased) dated November 15, 1932, situated in Knox County, Ohio, and described as follows:

FIRST PARCEL: All of that part or parcel of the southeast quarter of Section 25, Township 7 Range 10, in said county and state, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a stake on the west line of said southwest border, which stake notes 3½ degrees east, 49 rods from the southwest corner thereof, thence, on said line north 3½ degrees east 29 rods to a stake; thence, south 86½ degrees, east 81.66 rods to a stake; thence, south 3½ degrees, west 49 rods to a stake; thence, north 86½ degrees, west 81.66 rods to the place of beginning containing 25 acres and designated as lot #9, as shown on the plat of partition in the estate of Gilman Hawn, deceased, in case #4624 on the docket of the Common Pleas Court of Knox County, Ohio.

SECOND PARCEL: Situate in Knox County, Ohio, to-wit: The North part of the west half of the southeast Quarter of Section 25, Township 7, Range 10, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a stone at the northeast corner of said West half of the southeast Quarter of Section 25; thence, north 86½ degrees west 81.66 rods to the northwest corner thereof; thence, on the west line of said southeast Quarter Section S. 3½ degrees west 64.75 rods to a stake on said line; thence, south 86½ degrees east 81.66 rods to a stake; thence, north 3½ degrees east 64.75 rods to the place of beginning, containing 33.06 acres and designated as Lot No. 10, as shown on the plat of partition. The said premises having been heretofore conveyed to Peter Sedler and the said Peter Sedler and the said Peter Sedlar being one and the same person.

The plat above referred to being the one used in the case of Catherine Miller and Rebecca Smith vs Sarah E. Shroyer et al. in the Court of Common Pleas of Knox County, Ohio.

to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

[Vesting Order 460]

YAMASHITA SHIPPING COMPANY

Whereas, pursuant to Vesting Order Number 136 of August 28, 1942, the undersigned intended to vest the right, title and interest of all the holders of the capital stock of Yamashita Shipping Company in and to said company; and

Whereas, at the time of execution of said vesting order the undersigned was not aware of the fact that the company had theretofore been dissolved:

Now, therefore, in order to cure any defect in said vesting order arising by virtue of the failure to take into consideration the dissolution of such company, the following order is hereby issued:

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that all the capital stock of Yamashita Shipping Company, an Oregon corporation, which is a business enterprise within the United States, was, immediately prior to the issuance of the vesting order hereinafter mentioned, owned by nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan), which capital stock and nationals are more fully described in Vesting Order Number 136 of August 28, 1942.

2. Determining, therefore, that the aforesaid business enterprise is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

3. Finding that all property of whatsoever nature owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to, such business enterprise immediately prior to its dissolution, and all the right, title and interest of the owners of the capital stock of said business enterprise in and to such property, is property of nationals, and represents ownership of said business enterprise which is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

4. Determining that to the extent that such nationals, or any of them, are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons and each of them be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan);

5. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

6. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on December 11, 1942.

[SEAL] LEO T. CROWLEY,
Alien Property Custodian.

WASHINGTON RUBBER COMPANY, INC.

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Washington Rubber Company, Inc., Fourteenth and Belmont Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing was held in Washington, D. C., on November 27, 1942, and December 2, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station at Fourteenth and Belmont Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1502) in that on various occasions between July 22, 1942, and November 18, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers of gasoline permitted by the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503) in that on numerous occasions between July 22 and November 14, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles in exchange for twenty-six Class A, No. 3; thirteen Class A, No. 4; one Class A, No. 5; and four Class A, No. 6 gasoline ration coupons and further, between November 14 and November 18, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles in exchange for one Class A, No. 1; two Class A, No. 3; two Class A, No. 4; and three Class A, No. 5 gasoline ration coupons.

(d) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942, and November 18, 1942, respondent as a dealer transferred gasoline to itself as a consumer and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles operated by it without detaching coupons from ration books issued for such vehicles. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers permitted by Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of coupons.

(e) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that on numerous occasions between July 22 and November 18, 1942, respondent as a dealer, transferred gasoline to itself as a consumer for non-highway use without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons therefor.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in the District of Columbia, violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent have necessarily resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing from the evidence before him that further violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken, It is therefore ordered:

(f) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 195 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(g) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 194 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(h) This Suspension Order No. 194 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 28, 1943, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 a. m. March 29, 1943.

Issued this 23d day of January 1943.

SOUTH WEST SERVICE STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Horace D. Pach, doing business as South West Service Station, 529 Fourth Street, Southwest, Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Washington, D. C., on November 28, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station located at 529 Fourth Street, Southwest, Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502), in that on various occasions between July 22 and November 19, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers of gasoline permitted by the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that on numerous occasions between July 22 and November 19, 1942, respondent, as a dealer, transferred gasoline to himself, as a consumer, for non-highway use without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Washington, D. C., respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 196 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(e) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 196 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(f) This Suspension Order No. 196 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 28, 1943, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m. February 27, 1943.

Issued this 23d day of January 1943.

[Suspension Order 199]

DEAS SERVICE STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Henry B. Deas, doing business as Deas Esso Station, 2301 14th Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing was held in Washington, D. C. on November 25, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station at 2301 14th Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502), in that on various occasions between July 22 and November 17, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers of gasoline permitted by the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that on numerous occasions between July 22 and November 17, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles in exchange for forty-nine (49) Class A, No. 3 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in the District of Columbia, violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent have necessarily resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing from the evidence before him that further violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken, It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 199 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(e) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 199 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(f) This Suspension Order No. 199 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 28, 1943, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 a. m. February 12, 1943.

DIXIE CAB CENTER

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Robert Harlan, doing business as Dixie Cab Center, 1533-35 New Jersey Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Washington, D. C., on November 30, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station known as Dixie Cab Center at 1533-35 New Jersey Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1502) in that on various occasions between July 22, 1942, and November 17, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles, without receiving in exchange therefor at the time of such transfers any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within any of the classes of transfers permitted by Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in the District of Columbia, violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent necessarily have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing from the evidence before him that further violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken, It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 200 shall be in effect.

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly sell, transfer or deliver gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly accept any deliveries or transfers of gasoline for resale.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly deliver or transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 200 that are defined in Ration Order 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 200 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 28 1943, and shall remain in effect until 12:01 a. m. February 27, 1943.

Issued this 23d day of January 1943.

[Suspension Order 201]

CHRISTIAN'S ESSO STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Ronald E. Christian, doing business as Christian's Esso Station, 252 Main Street, Nashua, New Hampshire, and Arthur W. Christian, his employee, hereinafter called respondents, were duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing upon the charges was held in Concord, New Hampshire, on November 27, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondents. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent Ronald E. Christian is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station known as Christian's Esso Station at 252 Main Street, Nashua, New Hampshire.

(b) Respondent Arthur W. Christian is employed by respondent Ronald E. Christian as manager of said filling station.

(c) Respondent Ronald E. Christian has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503) in that between July 22, 1942, and September 16, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles in exchange for thirty-seven Class A, No. 2 and three Class A, No. 3 gasoline ration coupons which were not valid when such transfers were made.

(d) Respondent Arthur W. Christian has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503) in that between July 22, 1942, and September 16, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles in exchange for Class A, No. 2 and Class A, No. 3 gasoline ration coupons which were not valid when such transfers were made.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of rubber in the United States respondent's violation of Gasoline Rationing Regulations has resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses to non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondents are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken, It is therefore ordered:

(e) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 201 shall be in effect.

(1) Respondents shall not in any manner directly or indirectly sell, transfer or deliver any gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondents shall not in any manner directly or indirectly accept any deliveries or transfers of gasoline for resale.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly deliver or transfer any gasoline to respondents or either of them for resale.

(f) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 201 which are defined in the Gasoline Rationing Regulations shall have the meaning therein given them.

(g) This Suspension Order No. 201 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 30, 1943, and shall remain in effect until February 9, 1943.

Issued this 23d day of January 1943.

PARKVIEW FILLING STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Lawrence H. Peters, doing business as Parkview Filling Station, 1 Front Street, Waterville, Maine, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Augusta, Maine, on November 25, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1503) in that between July 22, 1942, and September 15, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles in exchange for 71 Class A, No. 2; 21 Class A, No. 3; 12 Class A, No. 4; 10 Class A, No. 5; and 10 Class A, No. 6 gasoline ration coupons, which were not valid when such transfers were made.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1503) in that on several occasions between July 22, 1942 and September 15, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles in exchange for gasoline ration coupons having an aggregate unit value less than the amount of gasoline transferred.

(d) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1606), in that, instead of keeping at his place of business seven 100 gallon gasoline inventory coupons, that were issued to him respondent, on or about July 25, 1942, loaned them to another gasoline dealer and permitted such dealer to take possession of said coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Maine respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(e) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 202 shall be in effect.

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly sell, transfer or deliver gasoline to any person: Provided, however, That subject to the prior approval and supervision by the Regional Administrator of Region I, Office of Price Administration, respondent may dispose of his stocks of gasoline on hand at the time this Order is served upon him.

(2) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly accept any deliveries or transfers of gasoline for resale.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly deliver or transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(f) Within three days from the effective date of this Order, respondent shall surrender to the War Price and Rationing Board with which he registered as a dealer all of the gasoline ration coupons in his possession on the effective date of this order except those issued to and held by him as a consumer.

(g) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 202 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(h) This Suspension Order No. 202 shall become effective 12:01 A. M., January 30, 1943 and shall remain in effect until 12:01 A. M. May 1, 1943, and thereafter until further order of the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, but in no event later than December 31, 1944.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); WPB Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216); Supplementary Directive 1Q (7 F.R. 9121))

SCHWARZMANN SERVICE STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

John N. Schwarzmann, doing business as Schwarzmann Service Station, Thirteenth and Pennsylvania Avenue SE., Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Washington, D. C., on December 1, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station located at Thirteenth and Pennsylvania Avenue, SE., Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502), in that on various occasions between July 22 and November 16, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers of gasoline permitted by the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that between July 22, and November 16, 1942, respondent transferred twenty-four gallons of gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles and accepted in exchange therefor Class A, No. 3; Class A, No. 4; and Class A, No. 5 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Washington, D. C., respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 203 shall be in effect.

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(e) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 203 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

This Suspension Order No. 203 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. January 28, 1943, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 A. M. February 12, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); WPB Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216); Supplementary Directive 10 (7 F.R. 9121))

[Suspension Order 204]

AMOCO FILLING STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Bennett Bickford, doing business as Amoco Filling Station, 210 Main Street, Oakland, Maine, hereinafter called respondent was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing upon the charges was held in Augusta, Maine, on November 23, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942 and October 26, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline, for which he received a price in excess of his regularly established price, to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within any of the classes of transfers permitted by Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of gasoline rationing coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, in that between July 22, 1942, and October 26, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles in exchange for Class A, No. 3 and Class A, No. 4 gasoline ration coupons which were not valid when such transfers were made.

(d) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, in that on or about September 2, 1942, respondent declared on OPA Form R-509 that nine 100-gallon unused and uncancelled bulk gasoline ration coupons issued to him for the operation of trucks were lost or stolen, whereas in fact respondent had exchanged such coupons for an equivalent amount of gasoline, as respondent then knew.

(e) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, in that on or about September 2, 1942, respondent declared on OPA Form R-537 that he required 936 gallons of gasoline for a six-month period, whereas in fact respondent actually required approximately 36 gallons for such purpose, as respondent then knew.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Maine respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(f) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 204 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly sell, transfer or deliver any gasoline to any person: Provided, however, That subject to the prior approval of and supervision by the Regional Administrator of Region I, Office of Price Administration, respondent may dispose of his stocks of gasoline on hand at the time this order is served upon him.

(2) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly accept any deliveries or transfers of gasoline for resale.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly deliver or transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(g) Within three days from the effective date of this Order, respondent shall surrender to the War Price and Rationing Board with which he registered as a dealer all of the gasoline ration coupons in his possession on the effective date of this Order except those issued to and held by him as a consumer.

(h) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 204 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(i) This Suspension Order No. 204 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 30, 1943, and shall remain in effect until further order by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); WPB Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216); Supplementary Directive 1Q (7 F.R. 9121))

[Suspension Order 206]

J. G. BONIFANT

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

J. G. Bonifant, 1820 Fourteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing was held on November 28, 1942, in Washington, D. C. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding Officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station known as Bonifant's Service Station at 1820 Fourteenth Street, Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1502) in that on various occasions between July 22, 1942 and November 17, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles in exchange for twenty Class A, No. 3 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in the District of Columbia, violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent have necessarily resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing from the evidence before him that further violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 206 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 206 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 206 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. January 28, 1943, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 a. m. February 7, 1943.

EVERGREEN MINES CO.

ORDER GRANTING PETITION FOR ADJUSTMENT

Order No. 2 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 113—Iron Ore Produced in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. Docket 3113-7

On December 5, 1942, Evergreen Mines Company, of Crosby, Minnesota, filed a petition for an adjustment pursuant to § 1369.9 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 113. Due consideration has been given to the petition, and an Opinion in support of this Order No. 2 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the opinion, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Evergreen Mines Company may sell and deliver, and agree, offer, solicit, and attempt to sell and deliver, iron ore produced from the Chataco mine located in the Northwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter (NW¼ of NE¼) of Section Twenty-eight (28), Township Fifty-eight (58), Range Twenty (20), Chisholm City, Mesabi Range, St. Louis County, Minnesota, at a base price not to exceed $4.45 per gross ton for 51.50% Mesabi Non-Bessemer ore delivered at Lower Lake ports, with adjustments for grade and analysis in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 113. Any person may buy or receive, and agree, offer, solicit, and attempt to buy and receive, such iron ore at such prices from Evergreen Mines Company.

(b) The permission herein granted to Evergreen Mines Company is subject to the condition that there be filed with the Iron and Steel Price Branch, Basic Materials Section, of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before the last day of January 1944, and of each January thereafter, so long as this Order No. 2 shall remain in force, an itemized statement in affidavit form of all costs incurred in connection with the production of ore from the said Chataco mine during the preceding year; also balance sheet and profit and loss statement of Evergreen Mines Company as of the last day of December in each year.

(c) All prayers of the petition not granted herein are denied.

(d) This Order No. 2 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1369.11 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 113 shall apply to terms used herein.

(f) This Order No. 2 shall become effective January 25, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

BELMONT UNCLE SAM MINING CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND DESIGNATING OFFICER TO TAKE TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 21st day of January A. D., 1943.

In the matter of proceeding under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to determine whether the registration of Belmont Uncle Sam Mining Company, Common Stock, 10¢ Par Value should be suspended or withdrawn.

I. It appearing to the Commission:

That Belmont Uncle Sam Mining Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Nevada, is the issuer of common stock, 10¢ par value; and

That said Belmont Uncle Sam Mining Company registered such common stock on the San Francisco Mining Exchange by filing with the exchange and with the Commission on or about December 7, 1935, an application on Form 10 pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule X-12B-1, as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, registration pursuant to such application having become effective June 1, 1936, and remaining in effect to and including the date hereof; and

It further appearing to the Commission:

That Rule X-13A-1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That Rule X-13A-2, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 10-K as the annual report form to be used for the annual reports of all corporations except those for which another form is specified, and that no other form was or is specified for use by Belmont Uncle Sam Mining Company; and

That said Rule X-13A-1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the instruction book applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 10-K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X-13A-1 the annual report must be filed within such period unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specified date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

That said Belmont Uncle Sam Mining Company has a fiscal year ended December 31, that the annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1941, was due to be filed not later than April 30, 1942; that the registrant made no request for extension of time within which to file such report; that the time for filing was not extended by the Commission; that the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was not filed within the time prescribed for filing said report or at any later date;

II. The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that:

Belmont Uncle Sam Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A-1 and X-13A-2 promulgated thereunder, in that (1) it has failed to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 1941, within the date prescribed for filing said report and (2) it has failed to file such annual report at any later date; and

III. It being the opinion of the Commission that the hearing herein ordered to be held is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended:

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (2) of said Act, that a public hearing be held to determine whether Belmont Uncle Sam Mining Company has failed to comply with section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules, Regulations and Forms promulgated by the Commission thereunder, in the respects set forth above; and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to withdraw the registration of the common stock, 10¢ par value of Belmont Uncle Sam Mining Company on said San Francisco Mining Exchange.

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that for the purpose of such hearing John G. Clarkson, an officer of the Commission, is hereby designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this hearing begin on the 12th day of February 1943, at 10:00 A. M. Pacific War Time at the Regional Office of the Securities Exchange Commission, 625 Market Street, San Francisco, California, and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinbefore designated may determine.

By the Commission.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY AND CONSOLIDATED NATURAL GAS COMPANY

ORDER EXTENDING EFFECTIVE DATE, ETC.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 20th day of January, 1943.

Order extending effective date of order denying exemption and extending time within which to file form U5B.

The Commission, on February 5, 1942 having issued its Findings, Opinion and Order denying the application of Standard Oil Company, pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for an exemption from the provisions of said Act, but having extended the effective date of said Order to August 4, 1942; and

Standard Oil Company having caused Consolidated Natural Gas Company (a) to be organized and file on July 31, 1942 pursuant to section 5 (a) of the Act, a notification of registration as a person purposing to become a holding company, and (b) to file applications and declarations regarding the proposed acquisition from Standard Oil Company of all the voting securities of certain natural gas utility companies concerning which hearings have been held and are not yet completed; and

The Commission, on August 3, 1942, having issued its order granting the application of Standard Oil Company for a further extension to February 4, 1943, of the effective date of the Order of February 5, 1942; and

Standard Oil Company having now requested that the effective date of the Commission's Order of February 5, 1942, as extended, be further extended for an additional period of six months from February 4, 1943, on the grounds that, although it has proceeded diligently in working out a program for the disposition of securities of the gas utility companies owned by it and has caused applications and declarations to be filed with respect thereto and has participated in hearings held thereon, which are still pending, it is the company's opinion that it will be impossible to complete its plans by February 4, 1943; and

Consolidated Natural Gas Company having now requested that the time within which it is required to file its registration statement on Form U5B pursuant to Rule U-1 (b), promulgated under the Act, be extended to August 4, 1943; and

It appearing to the Commission that such requests for further extensions are reasonable and are not detrimental to the public interests or the interests of investors and consumers;

It is hereby ordered, That the effective date of the order of the Commission dated February 5, 1942, denying the application of Standard Oil Company for exemption, pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, be, and the same hereby is, extended to August 4, 1943; and

It is further ordered, That the time within which Consolidated Natural Gas Company is required to file its registration statement on Form U5B pursuant to Rule U-1 (b), promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, be, and the same hereby is, extended to August 4, 1943, Provided, however, That in the event the contemplated transactions between Standard Oil Company and Consolidated Natural Gas Company, as set forth in the pending applications and declarations, be consummated before August 4, 1943, the extension herein granted Consolidated Natural Gas Company shall terminate on such date without further order of this Commission.

By the Commission.

SOUTHERN UNION GAS CO., ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 21st day of January, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of Southern Union Gas Company, Arkansas Western Gas Company, New Mexico Gas Company, New Mexico Eastern Gas Company, Texas Southwestern Gas Company, Quanah Water Company, Southern Union Production Company; File No. 54-45.

In the matter of Southern Union Gas Company, Arkansas Western Gas Company, New Mexico Gas Company, New Mexico Eastern Gas Company, Texas Southwestern Gas Company, Quanah Water Company, Southern Union Production Company, Angels Peak Oil Company, Congress Oil Company, Summit Oil Company; File No. 59-48.

Southern Union Gas Company, a registered holding company, and its principal subsidiaries, including Southern Union Production Company, having filed applications and declarations, and amendments thereto, pursuant to section 11 (e) and other sections of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and the Rules and Regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder, whereby said applicants and declarants requested approval of a plan submitted pursuant to said section 11 (e) and authorization for certain particular transactions, constituting component parts of such plan, and actions incidental thereto, including, among other things, the divestment by Texas Southwestern Gas Company, the surviving company under said plan, of all ownership and control over that certain oil well and the oil and gas lease upon which said oil well is situated, known as United States Oil and Gas Lease, Las Cruces Serial No. 058728, embracing the E½ of the NW¼.—T17S.R.32E.N.M.P.M. Lea County, New Mexico, and owned by Southern Union Production Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Southern Union Gas Company; and

The Commission having, on September 19, 1942, after having issued its notice of and order for hearing and held a hearing upon said applications and declarations for such plan, made and entered its order approving such plan, ordering Texas Southwestern Gas Company, the surviving company under said plan, to divest itself of all interest in, and of all ownership and control of said oil well owned by Southern Union Production Company; and

The Commission by its said order of September 19, 1942 having reserved jurisdiction to make such further and supplemental findings, to approve the terms and conditions, and to take such additional and further action as may be found by it to be appropriate in the premises, in connection with the dispositions of assets, by the surviving company and its subsidiaries; and

There having been filed on January 1, 1943, an amendment to the plan, by southern Union Gas Company (formerly Texas Southwestern Gas Company), and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Southern Union Production Company, requesting approval of the proposed sale of all interest in said oil well and the said lease upon which said oil well is located to a non-affiliate, the Kewanee Oil Company, a Delaware corporation, for the sum of $40,000, less a certain unpaid balance on drilling costs of said well of approximately the sum of $7,670, and the proposed application of the proceeds of the sale to the reduction of Southern Union Production Company's indebtedness to The Northern Trust Company; and

It appearing to the Commission that sale of said oil well and lease and the application of said proceeds, as proposed, are appropriate steps in accordance with the Commission's order of September 19, 1942, ordering the divestment of all ownership and control of said oil well within one year of said order, and that jurisdiction should be released with respect thereto:

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved to this Commission in respect to the disposition and sale of said oil well and the lease upon which it is located is hereby released.

It is further ordered, That in all other respects the provisions of the order of the Commission entered herein on September 19, 1942, are continued in full force and effect.

By the Commission.

STANLEY CLARKE, ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 21st day of January 1943.

In the matter of Stanley Clarke, Trustee of Associated Gas and Electric Company; Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation

Notice is hereby given that an application and declaration has been jointly filed by Stanley Clarke, Trustee of Associated Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, and Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, a registered holding company; and

All interested persons are referred to the said application-declaration, which is on file in the office of the said Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized below:

The applicants-declarants have entered into agreements to compromise their claims and those of their direct and indirect subsidiaries and affiliates against Daniel Starch and against Travis, Brownback & Paxson. As part of such agreements (1) Travis, Brownback & Paxson will deliver to applicants-declarants the following debentures of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation:

4½ percent debentures due 1973	$16,500.00
5 percent debentures due 1973	6,800.00
3¾ percent debentures due 1978	3,000.00

which are to be delivered to the Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation for cancellation; and the following Associated Gas and Electric Company stock:

64 shares original series preferred stock
5 shares $6.50 dividend series preferred stock.

13 shares common stock.
1 share class A stock which are to be delivered to said Trustee of Associated Gas and Electric Company for cancellation; and (2) Daniel Starch will deliver to applicants-declarants the following securities:

$1,000 principal amount of Associated Electric Company 4½% Gold Bonds, due 1953.
$3,000 principal amount of Associated Gas and Electric Company Gold Debenture Consolidated Refunding 4½% Series, due 1958.
$7,000 principal amount of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation 3¼% Income Debentures, due 1978

96 shares of Common Stock of Associated Gas and Electric Company.
13½ Optional Stock Purchase Warrants of Associated Gas and Electric Company.
40 shares of Common Stock, Class A, of General Gas & Electric Corporation

The foregoing securities of Associated Gas and Electric Company, Associated Gas and Electric Corporation and certain subsidiaries and affiliate companies, together with certain other assets, will be delivered to applicants-declarants. After payment therefrom of the expenses of investigation, negotiation, settlement, and distribution, applicants-declarants will, with the approval of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, having jurisdiction over the reorganization proceedings of Associated Gas and Electric Company and Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, and such regulatory bodies as have jurisdiction with respect thereto, allocate and distribute said securities and other assets to or among the Trustee of Associated Gas and Electric Company and the Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, and their subsidiaries and affiliates, in such proportions as may be determined by agreement, arbitration, judicial proceedings, or other appropriate method. The proposed transaction which is the subject matter of this application-declaration is the initial delivery to applicants-declarants of the securities referred to. Neither the subsequent determination of the persons for whose account, including their own, applicants-declarants will hold said securities, nor the eventual distribution thereof to such persons as may ultimately be determined to be entitled thereto, constitutes any part of the proposed transaction.

Applicants-declarants have indicated sections 9 (a), 9 (c) (3) and 12 (c) of the Act, and Rules U-42 and U-100 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, as possibly being applicable to the said transactions.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate and in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matter, that said application-declaration shall not be granted or become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is hereby ordered, That a hearing on such matters, under the applicable provisions of the said Act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on February 10, 1943, at 10:00 a. m. at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

At such hearing cause shall be shown why such application-declaration shall be granted or become effective. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named applicants-declarants and to all interested persons.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard in connection with the proceeding or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before February 8, 1943, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of this Commission.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said declaration, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed acquisition of securities complies with the requirements of the applicable provisions of section 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and more especially with the provisions of subsection 10 (c) (2).

2. What, if any, terms and conditions should be prescribed in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

3. Whether in any respect the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or to the interests of investors or consumers or will tend to circumvent any provisions of the Act or any rules, regulations or orders thereunder.

4. Whether the proposed transactions comply with the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 generally, together with the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

By the Commission.

REORGANIZED BOOTH MINING CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND DESIGNATING OFFICER TO TAKE TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 21st day of January, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of Proceeding under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, to determine whether the registration of Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield Capital Stock, $1.00 Par Value, Assessable, should be suspended or withdrawn.

I. It appearing to the Commission:

That Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Nevada, is the issuer of Capital Stock, $1.00 Par Value, Assessable; and

That said Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield registered such security on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing with the Exchange and with the Commission on or about May 21, 1936, an application on Form 10, pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule X-12B-1, as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, registration pursuant to such application having become effective on June 1, 1936, and remaining in effect to and including the date hereof; and

It further appearing to the Commission:

That Rule X-13A-1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That Rule X-13A-2, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 10-K as the annual report form to be used for the annual reports of all corporations except those for which another form is specified, and that no other form was or is specified for use by the said Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield; and

That said Rule X-13A-1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the instruction book applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 10-K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X-13A-1 the annual report must be filed within such period unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specified date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

That said Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield has a fiscal year ending December 31; that the annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was due to be filed not later than April 30, 1942; that the time for filing was extended to June 15, 1942; that the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was not filed either within such extended period or at any later date; and

II. The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that:

The said Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A-1 and X-13A-2 promulgated thereunder, in that (1) it has failed to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 1941 within the time prescribed for filing said report, and (2) it has failed to file such annual report at any later date; and

III. It being the opinion of the Commission that the hearing herein ordered to be held is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended:

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (2) of said Act, that a public hearing be held to determine whether Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield has failed to comply with section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules, Regulations and Forms promulgated by the Commission thereunder, in the respects set forth above; and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to withdraw the registration of the Capital Stock, $1.00 Par Value, Assessable, of said Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield on said San Francisco Mining Exchange.

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that for the purpose of such hearing, John G. Clarkson, an officer of the Commission, is hereby designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this hearing begin on the 12th day of February, 1943, at 2:00 P. M., Pacific War Time at the Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Room 1301, 625 Market Street, San Francisco, California, and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinbefore designated may determine.

By the Commission.

WALNUT ELECTRIC AND GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 22nd day of January, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of W. C. Gilman, as liquidating trustee of Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to section 5 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by W. C. Gilman, as Liquidating Trustee of Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation, for an order that he has ceased to be a holding company. The application states that, on December 31, 1942, said W. C. Gilman disposed of all of the common stock of Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation and that said stock constituted all of the assets held by him as liquidating trustee of such company. Previously, on December 28, 1942, this Commission permitted to become effective the declaration of said W. C. Gilman regarding this disposition. General Water Gas & Electric Company and W. C. Gilman, as liquidating Trustee of Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation, File No. 70-639, Holding Company Act Release No. 4022.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matter and that said application shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder be held on February 3, 1943 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause will be shown why such application shall be granted. Notice is hereby given to said above-named applicant and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said applicant by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted of the Commission designated by it for of said Act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

NEW ENGLAND INDUSTRIES, INC.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 21st day of January, 1943.

Notice is hereby given that an application or declaration (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by New England Industries, Inc. ("Industries"), a subsidiary of New England Public Service Company, a registered holding company, which in turn is a subsidiary of Northern New England Company, likewise a registered holding company; and

Notice is hereby given that any interested party may, not later than February 1, 1943, at 5:30 p. m., e. w. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Industries proposes, by an agreement between it and The First National Bank of Boston, to subordinate indebtedness in the sum of $1,922,075.28 due it from its subsidiary, Bates Manufacturing Company, to indebtedness of Bates Manufacturing Company owing to The First National Bank of Boston in the sum of $600,000, now represented by an overdue note which is to be renewed.

Industries also seeks present approval to subordinate the indebtedness owed to it by its subsidiaries, Androscoggin Mills, Bates Manufacturing Company, The Edwards Manufacturing Company, Hill Manufacturing Company and York Manufacturing Company, or any of them, in the event that any of such subsidiary companies shall issue promissory notes to any bank or trust company under the authority of an order of this Commission dated November 4, 1942 (File No. 70-599, Holding Company Act Release No. 3884), such subordination to be effected in any case by agreement between Industries and the lending bank or trust company, or by pledge of the note or notes from such issuer payable to Industries, with any lending bank or trust company.

BROUGHER DIVIDE MINING CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND DESIGNATING OFFICER TO TAKE TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 21st day of January, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of proceeding under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, to determine whether the registration of Brougher Divide Mining Company capital stock, par value $1.00, assessable, should be suspended or withdrawn.

I. It appearing to the Commission:

That Brougher Divide Mining Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Nevada, is the issuer of Capital Stock, Par Value $1.00, Assessable; and

That said Brougher Divide Mining Company registered such security on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing with the Exchange and with the Commission on or about April 6, 1936 an application on Form 10 pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule X-12B-1, as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, registration pursuant to such application having become in effect to and including the date hereof; and

It further appearing to the Commission:

That Rule X-13A-1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That Rule X-13A-2, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 10-K as the annual report form to be used for the annual reports of all corporations except those for which another form is specified, and that no other form was or is specified for use by the said Brougher Divide Mining Company; and

That said Rule X-13A-1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the instruction book applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 10-K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X-13A-1 the annual report must be filed within such period unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specified date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

That said Brougher Divide Mining Company has a fiscal year ending December 31; that the annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was due to be filed not later than April 30, 1942; that the time for filing was extended to July 15, 1942; that the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was not filed either within such extended period or at any later date; and

II. The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that:

The said Brougher Divide Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A-1 and X-13A-2 promulgated thereunder, in that (1) it has failed to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 1941 within the time prescribed for filing said report, and (2) it has failed to file such annual report at any later date; and

III. It being the opinion of the Commission that the hearing herein ordered to be held is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (2) of said Act, that a public hearing be held to determine whether Brougher Divide Mining Company has failed to comply with section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules, Regulations and Forms promulgated by the Commission thereunder in the respects set forth above; and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to withdraw the registration of the Capital Stock, Par Value $1.00, Assessable, of said Brougher Divide Mining Company on said San Francisco Mining Exchange:

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that for the purpose of such hearing, John G. Clarkson, an officer of the Commission, is hereby designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this hearing begin on the 10th day of February, 1943, at 10:00 A. M., Pacific War Time, at the Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 625 Market Street, San Francisco, California and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinbefore designated may determine.

CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC AND GAS CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 23rd day of January, 1943.

In the matter of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, Central Indiana Gas Company, and Hoosier Gas Corporation.

Notice is hereby given that applications or declarations (or both) pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 have been filed by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, a registered holding company, and its subsidiary companies, Central Indiana Gas Company and Hoosier Gas Corporation; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than February 5, 1943 at 5:30 P. M., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matters, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, such applications and declarations, as filed or as amended may be granted and permitted to become effective, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and 100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locusts Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said applications and declarations which are on file in the office of said Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Central Indiana Gas Company proposes to reduce its stock capital by $648,969.62 from $4,648,969.62 to $4,000,000, through reclassifying its outstanding stock, consisting of 54,000 common shares without par value, all of which is held by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, into 40,000 common shares of $100 par value. In accordance with the order of the Commission, In the Matter of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, et al., File No. 70-571, Holding Company Act Release No. 3939, December 2, 1942, Central Indiana Gas Company will eliminate a utility plant acquisition adjustment account of $2,238,527 from its property account and charge the same to earned surplus; the earned surplus deficit thus created will be eliminated by a charge to capital surplus, part of which will be created through the proposed reduction in capital.

Hoosier Gas Corporation proposes to reduce its stock capital by $35,199.96 from $535,199.96 to $500,000, through reclassifying its outstanding 18,257 shares of no par common stock and 400 shares of $100 par value preferred stock, all of which shares of common and preferred are held by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, into 10,000 shares of $50 par value common stock. This action is being taken to comply with an agreement contained in their applications and declarations filed in In the Matter of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, et al., supra.

The new common shares of Central Indiana Gas Company and Hoosier Gas Corporation to be received by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company in the reclassification will be pledged under the indenture securing the Collateral Trust Bonds of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, in substitution for the old shares of preferred and common stocks of Central Indiana Gas Company and Hoosier Gas Corporation which will be surrendered and cancelled.

No change will be made in the aggregate carrying value on the books of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company of its investment in Central Indiana Gas Company and Hoosier Gas Corporation as a result of the proposed transactions.

By the Commission.

ASSOCIATED ELECTRIC CO., ET AL.

ORDER RECONVENING HEARING

In the matter of Associated Electric Company, Metropolitan Edison Company and Staten Island Edison Corporation.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of January 1943.

Associated Electric Company, a registered holding company, and Staten Island Edison Corporation, a subsidiary of New York State Electric & Gas Corporation and an indirect subsidiary of NY PA NJ Utilities Company, a registered holding company, having filed a joint declaration pursuant to sections 12 (b), 12 (c) and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rules U-42, U-43 and U-45 promulgated thereunder, wherein Associated Electric Company proposes to acquire $2,222,000 principal amount of its own 4½% bonds, due January 1, 1953, from Staten Island Edison Corporation for a cash consideration of $955,460, plus accrued interest, and Staten Island Edison Corporation proposes to advance the sum of $1,050,000 to its subsidiary, Richmond Light and Railroad Company, to enable such company to have sufficient cash available to redeem, at the call price of 105, the entire outstanding issue of $1,000,000 principal amount of its First and Collateral Trust 4% 50-year Gold Bonds, due July 1, 1952; and

A hearing in the above entitled matter having been held, which hearing, on December 28, 1942, was continued subject to call; and

The Public Service Commission of the State of New York having requested that the hearing be reconvened; and

It appearing that the hearing should be reconvened;

It is ordered That the hearing in the above matter be reconvened under the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules of the Commission thereunder, on January 29, 1943, at 10 a. m., E. W. T., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the room designated on said day by the hearing room clerk in room 318.

It is further ordered That Willis E. Monty, who has heretofore been designated, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at any such hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

SOUTHERN-HENKE ICE & STORAGE COMPANY

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23rd day of January, A. D. 1943.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Southern-Henke Ice & Storage Company; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than February 8, 1943, at 5:30 p. m., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective or may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized below:

Southern-Henke Ice & Storage Company, a non-utility subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, proposes to issue and deliver its unsecured promissory note in the principal amount of $50,000 to be dated February 9, 1943, payable to the order of City National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago on or before nine months after the date thereof, and to bear interest at the rate of 4% per annum to maturity, and at the rate of 6% per annum after maturity; all or any part of the principal of such note may be prepaid prior to maturity without premium. The proposed note is to be issued for the purpose of refunding or renewing the outstanding unsecured promissory note of Southern-Henke Ice & Storage Company in the original principal amount of $125,000, dated February 9, 1942 and due February 9, 1943, held by said City National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, of which $50,000 principal amount is unpaid; such note is to be surrendered to Southern-Henke Ice & Storage Company for cancellation upon the issuance and delivery of the proposed new note.

NEW BRUNSWICK POWER COMPANY

NOTICE OF HEARING, ETC.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of January, A. D. 1943.

Notice of filing, order for hearing, and order temporarily extending exemption.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and particularly section 3 (b) thereof by New Brunswick Power Company for an extension of the effective date of a previous order of this Commission, and of an order supplemental thereto granting it a limited exemption as a subsidiary of Federal Light & Traction Company, Cities Service Power & Light Company, and Cities Service Company, each a registered holding company. All interested parties are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of this Commission.

On October 18, 1938 this Commission, after a public hearing, issued its order with respect to an application filed by New Brunswick Power Company, exempting it to the extent therein specified from certain provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 applicable to it as a subsidiary company of Federal Light & Traction Company and Cities Service Power & Light Company. On January 8, 1941 the Commission extended the time during which such order of exemption should be effective to January 31, 1943, without prejudice to the right of New Brunswick Power Company to apply for a further extension thereof.

On March 3, 1941, the Commission entered its supplemental order exempting the New Brunswick Power Company, as a subsidiary of Cities Service Company, to the same extent and for the same period of time and subject to the same conditions as provided in its original order of exemption of October 18, 1938 and the order of extension thereof of January 8, 1941.

The present application seeks an extension of the exemption heretofore granted from January 31, 1943 to January 31, 1945, or to such other date as to the Commission may seem proper.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matter and that said application shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on February 11, 1943 at 10 a. m., E. W. T., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

On said date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, cause shall be shown why such application should be granted. Notice of said hearing is hereby given to New Brunswick Power Company and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said applicant by registered mail and to all other interested persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That all persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate herein shall notify the Commission to that effect in the manner provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice, on or before February 5, 1943.

It appearing to the Commission that the issues raised herein will not be finally disposed of prior to January 31, 1943, after which date the present order granting the exemption will not be effective, and it appearing appropriate that a temporary extension of the time during which such order of exemption shall be effective will not be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers;

It is further ordered, That the time during which such order of exemption shall be effective be, and the same hereby is, temporarily extended pending final determination of the issues raised herein, subject to the same conditions as provided in the original order of exemption dated October 18, 1938 and the order of extension thereof dated January 8, 1941.

By the Commission.

OPERATOR CONSOLIDATED MINES CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING, ETC.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 23d day of January, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of proceeding under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, to determine whether the registration of Operator Consolidated Mines Company, Common Stock, 10¢ par value, should be suspended or withdrawn.

Order for hearing and designating officer to take testimony.

I

It appearing to the Commission:

That Operator Consolidated Mines Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Nevada, is the issuer of Common Stock, 10¢ par value; and

That said Operator Consolidated Mines Company registered such security on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing with the Exchange and with the Commission on or about November 13, 1935 an application on Form 10 pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, and Rule X-12B-1 as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, registration pursuant to such application having become effective on June 1, 1936 and remaining in effect to and including the date hereof; and

It further appearing to the Commission:

That Rule X-13A-1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That Rule X-13A-2, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 10-K as the annual report form to be used for the annual reports of all corporations except those for which another form is specified, and that no other form was or is specified for use by the said Operator Consolidated Mines Company; and

That said Rule X-13A-1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the instruction book applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 10-K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X-13A-1 the annual report must be filed within such period unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specified date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

That said Operator Consolidated Mines Company has a fiscal year ending December 31; that the annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was due to be filed not later than April 30, 1942; that the time for filing was extended to July 15, 1942; that the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was not filed either within such extended period or at any later date; and

II

The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that:

The said Operator Consolidated Mines Company has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A-1, and X-13A-2 promulgated thereunder, in that (1) it has failed to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 1941 within the time prescribed for filing said report; and (2) it has failed to file such annual report at any later date; and

III

It being the opinion of the Commission that the hearing herein ordered to be held is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (2) of said Act, that a public hearing be held to determine whether Operator Consolidated Mines Company has failed to comply with Section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules, Regulations and Forms promulgated by the Commission thereunder, in the respects set forth above; and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to withdraw the registration of the Common Stock, 10¢ par value, of said Operator Consolidated Mines Company on said San Francisco Mining Exchange;

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that for the purpose of such hearing, John G. Clarkson, an officer of the Commission, is hereby designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this hearing begin on the 11th day of February, 1943, at 10:00 A. M. Pacific War Time at the Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 625 Market Street, San Francisco, California, and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinbefore designated may determine.

By the Commission.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD.

[Preference Rating Order P-19-h, Serial 24077]

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF LOUISIANA, BATON ROUGE, LA.

REVOCATION OF SPECIAL DIRECTION

On December 8, 1942, the War Production Board issued a certain Special Direction supplementary to Preference Rating Orders P-19-h assigning urgency numbers to projects in the high octane gasoline and synthetic rubber facilities construction programs in the order of their importance, said special directions providing for delivery of materials and equipment at such times and in such amounts as provided.

The project of the Standard Oil Company of Louisiana to which Special Direction 17HH was assigned has been determined to be of less urgency in the high octane gasoline facilities construction program than other plants in said program to which higher urgency numbers have been assigned. Accordingly, the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense. It is therefore ordered:

1. Revocation of Special Direction No. 17HH. Special Direction No. 17HH supplementary to Preference Rating Order P-19-h Serial Number 24077 heretofore issued under date of December 8, 1942, to the above named builder is hereby revoked.

2. Effect of revocation. This revocation revokes said special direction wherever applied by the builder or any of his suppliers, except with respect to purchase orders and contracts which have been filled completely. Orders or contracts not completely filled shall have the status of orders or contracts rated by the Preference Rating Order P-19-h, Serial No. 24077 only and without regard to the provisions of the Special Direction hereby revoked.

3. Notice to suppliers. The builder shall promptly advise its suppliers of the terms of this revocation, and each supplier shall in turn notify his suppliers to whom a copy of the special direction hereby revoked has been delivered.

4. Application for exception. The builder or any supplier who considers that compliance with this order would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may apply to the Director General for Operations for an exception, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why he considers he is entitled to the relief so requested; Whereupon, the Director General for Operations may take such action as he deems appropriate. Applications for exception under this paragraph shall be addressed to The Integration and Scheduling Branch; Facilities Bureau; War Production Board; Room 3514, Social Security Building; Washington, D. C.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Agricultural Adjustment Agency

PART 722—COTTON

PROCLAMATION OF REFERENDUM RESULTS, 1943–44

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 347 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, the following proclamation is hereby issued:

§ 722.403 Results of cotton referendum.[1] (a) In the referendum of farmers who were engaged in production of the 1942 crop of cotton, conducted by the Secretary of Agriculture on December 12, 1942, to determine whether such farmers were in favor of or opposed to marketing quotas for cotton for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1943, the total number of votes cast were 762,856 and of the total number of votes so cast 657,452 votes, or 86.2 percent, were in favor of, and 105,404 votes, or 13.8 percent, were opposed to, such marketing quotas.

(b) The National marketing quota for cotton for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1943, proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture on November 6, 1942, will be in effect for such year.

(Sec. 347 of the Act, 52 Stat. 59; 7 U.S.C., Sup., 1347)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of January 1943. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Chapter XI—Food Distribution Administration

PART 1404—BAKERY PRODUCTS

MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF BREAD, ROLLS AND OTHER BAKERY PRODUCTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, Food Distribution Order No. 1, § 1404.1 (7 F.R. 11105), is amended by:

(a) Inserting at the end of paragraph (a) the following:

(11) "Bakery products" mean bread, rolls, sweet rolls, cakes, pies, cookies, doughnuts, biscuits, crackers, pretzels, ice cream cones and similar products prepared by bakers.

(b) Striking out paragraph (b) (2) and inserting in lieu thereof:

(2) No person shall make or sell any loaves of sliced bread or sliced rolls except that until March 18, 1943, sliced bread weighing one pound or more per loaf, may be sold and delivered in not less than 20 pound lots to restaurants, hotels, institutions, or commissaries for service with meals.

(c) Striking out in paragraph (b) (5) the words "bread or rolls", after the words "other seller of", and after the words "for sale any", and inserting in lieu thereof in both instances the words "bakery products".

(d) Striking out paragraph (b) (7) and renumbering paragraphs (b) (8) and (b) (9) as paragraphs (b) (7) and (b) (8) respectively.

Issued this 25th day of January 1943.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of January, A. D. 1943.

In the Matter of The Sherwin-Williams Co., a Corporation, The Lowe Brothers Company, a Corporation, and John Lucas & Company, Inc., a Corporation

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the joint answer of the respondents, and two stipulations as to the facts dated December 6, 1940, and October 20, 1942, respectively, signed by counsel for the Commission and counsel for the respondents, in which it is provided that the statement of facts contained therein may be accepted as the facts in this proceeding in lieu of testimony in support of the charges stated in the complaint and in opposition thereto, and the taking of testimony and all intervening procedure having been waived and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of section 2 (a) of an Act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes" (The Clayton Act), as amended by Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (The Robinson-Patman Act):

It is ordered, That the respondent The Sherwin-Williams Co., a corporation, its successors and assigns and its officers, directors, agents and employees, in connection with the distribution and sale of trade sale line paint products in commerce between the several states of the United States and in the District of Columbia, do forthwith cease and desist:

1. From continuing or resuming, under a per order discount plan providing a 6% discount from dealers list prices for an order of 24 to 48 gallons, an 8% discount for an order of 48 to 84 gallons and a 10% discount for an order of 84 gallons or more or under any plan substantially similar thereto, the practice of granting and allowing to purchasers operating a number or chain of retail distribution outlets, the 10%, 8% or 6% discounts based upon quantity per order, when the said order is split into several shipments to various of the said retail distribution outlets;

2. From continuing or resuming, under a per order discount plan providing a 6% discount from dealers list prices for an order of 24 to 48 gallons, an 8% discount for an order of 48 to 84 gallons and a 10% discount for an order of 84 gallons or more or under any plan substantially similar thereto, the practice of granting and allowing to purchasers operating a number or chain of retail distribution outlets, a 10% or other substantially similar flat discount from said dealers list prices, in lieu of the quantity per order discounts available thereunder;

3. From continuing or resuming, under a per order discount plan providing a 6% discount from dealers list prices for an order of 24 to 48 gallons, an 8% discount for an order of 48 to 84 gallons and a 10% discount for an order of 84 gallons or more or under any plan substantially similar thereto, the practice of granting and allowing to purchasers the 10%, 8% or 6% discounts based upon quantity per order, when the so-called "order" upon which said discounts are based is not in fact a single order but represents a number of orders from a single purchaser accumulated over a definite or indefinite period of time.

It is further ordered, That the respondent, The Lowe Bros. Company, a corporation, its successors and assigns and its officers, directors, agents and employees, in connection with the distribution and sale of trade sale line paint products in commerce between the several states of the United States and in the District of Columbia, do forthwith cease and desist:

1. From continuing or resuming, under a per order discount plan providing a 6% discount from dealers list prices for an order of 24 to 48 gallons, an 8% discount for an order of 48 to 84 gallons and a 10% discount for an order of 84 gallons or more or under any plan substantially similar thereto the practice of granting and allowing to purchasers operating a number or chain of retail distribution outlets, the 10%, 8% or 6% discounts based upon quantity per order, when the said order is split into several shipments to various of the said retail distribution outlets;

2. From continuing or resuming, under a per order discount plan providing a 6% discount from dealers list prices for an order of 24 to 48 gallons, an 8% discount for an order of 48 to 84 gallons, a 10% discount for an order of 84 gallons or more and a 14% discount on carload or truckload (20,000 lbs. or more) purchases for shipment direct from the factory, or under any plan substantially similar thereto, the granting and allowing to any of its dealer customers from whom it has or shall have purchased, leased or rented warehouse space any quantity per order discounts which are greater, different or other than the quantity per order discounts available thereunder to all dealer customers purchasing in the same per order quantities;

3. From granting and allowing under a discount plan providing a 5% discount from dealers list prices for annual purchases totalling less than $500, a 10% discount for annual purchases in excess of $500 and a 15% discount on carload or truckload (20,000 lbs. or more) purchases for shipment direct from the factory, or under any plan substantially similar thereto, to any of its dealer customers from whom it has or shall have purchased, leased or rented warehouse space, any carload discounts or any discounts in lieu of carload discounts, except with respect to the actual carload or truckload purchases of such dealers shipped direct from the factory;

4. From discriminating in price between dealer and dealer-distributor customers through the practice followed under present and prior discount plans of granting and allowing to some of its dealer-distributor customers discounts (in addition to the regular per order or volume discounts from dealers list prices

5. From discriminating in price between its customers through the practice followed under present and prior discount plans of granting and allowing to some of its customers in a particular locality special or additional discounts (in addition to the regular per order or volume discounts from dealers list prices in effect at the time and granted and allowed to all its customers) on purchases made by said favored customers which are not resold by them to other dealers, while not granting and allowing such special or additional discounts on such purchases to all of its customers in such locality.

It is further ordered, That the respondent, John Lucas and Company, Inc., a corporation, its successors and assigns and its officers, directors, agents and employees, in connection with the distribution and sale of trade sale line paint products in commerce between the several states of the United States and in the District of Columbia, do forthwith cease and desist:

1. From continuing or resuming, under a per order discount plan providing a 6% discount from dealers list prices for an order of 24 to 48 gallons, an 8% discount for an order of 48 to 84 gallons and a 10% discount for an order of 84 gallons or more or under any plan substantially similar thereto, the practice of granting and allowing to purchasers operating a number or chain or retail distribution outlets, the 10%, 8% or 6% discounts based upon quantity per order, when the said order is split into several shipments to various of the said retail distribution outlets;

2. From discriminating in price between dealer and dealer-distributor customers through the practice followed under present and prior discount plans of granting and allowing to some of its dealer-distributor customers discounts (in addition to the regular per order or volume discounts from dealers list prices in effect at the time and granted and allowed to all of its customers) on such portion of the purchases of said favored dealer-distributor customers as is sold at retail through the wholly owned and operated retail stores of said dealer-distributor customers;

3. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec., 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Parker-McCrory Manufacturing Company, Docket 4707, January 13, 1943]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of January, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent and a stipulation as to the facts entered into by and between counsel for the Commission and counsel for the respondent upon the record, which provides, among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondent herein findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Parker-McCrory Manufacturing Company, a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of its electric fence controller designated Parmak Electric Fencers, or any other device of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from representing, directly or indirectly;

1. That the use of a single wire with its electric fence controller will hold all livestock, including fence breakers; or that the use of its device is a positive, sure and certain method of confining livestock;

2. That the use of its said device cuts fencing costs to less than $10.00 per mile or results in a saving of 90%, or any other specific percentage of saving in excess of that ordinarily obtained; or that the cost of fencing through the use of said device and the savings resulting therefrom are other than is actually the fact;

3. That its said device will hold livestock as effectively as a steel or concrete enclosure;

4. That the use of said device will hold or confine animals, unless it is further clearly stated that prior and proper training of animals by causing them to come in contact with a wire or wires charged with electricity is necessary.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

and (c) by changing to § 208.1 the references in that section formerly numbered § 204.7, now renumbered § 208.2, which references are to that section formerly numbered § 204.6, now renumbered § 208.1; by changing to paragraph (a) of § 208.2 the references in those sections formerly numbered § 204.8, now renumbered § 208.3, and § 204.10, now renumbered § 208.5, which references are to paragraph (a) of that section formerly numbered § 204.7, now renumbered § 208.2; and by changing to § 208.4 the references in those sections formerly numbered § 204.11, now renumbered § 208.6, and § 204.12, now renumbered § 208.7, which references are to that section formerly numbered § 204.9, now renumbered § 208.4.

4. By adding to said rules and regulations the following new parts and sections thereunder:

PART 205—APPOINTMENT OF CONSERVATOR OF RECEIVER FOLLOWING REQUEST

Sec.

205.1 Request for appointment of conservator or receiver.
205.2 Possession by examiner.
205.3 Appointment by Federal Home Loan Bank Administration.

AUTHORITY: §§ 205.1 to 205.3, inclusive, issued under sec. 5 (a), (d), 48 Stat. 132, 133; 12 U.S.C. 1464 (a), (d); E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529.

§ 205.1 Request for appointment of conservator or receiver. The board of directors of any Federal association may request the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration to appoint a conservator or receiver, whichever the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall determine.

§ 205.2 Possession by examiner. Pending action on such request, the board of directors may, by resolution, with the consent of the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System or any Deputy or Assistant Governor, turn the association over to a Federal Home Loan Bank Administration examiner, who shall furnish bond in form and amount and with surety acceptable to said Governor, Deputy or Assistant Governor. If the association is turned over to an examiner, he shall forthwith post a notice in substantially the following form on the door of the home office of the association:

By request of the board of directors of this Association, the undersigned is temporarily in charge of _____ Federal Savings and Loan Association _____
(Date) (Examiner, Federal Home Loan Bank Administration)

No business shall be transacted by the association when in possession of an examiner, except that the examiner may take such action in his name or in the name of the association as, in his judgment, is necessary to protect the interests of the association or those of its creditors or members, and, for the period of his possession, all rights, powers and privileges of its officers and directors shall be suspended, except the right to address petitions to the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration. The expenses incurred by the examiner during such period, including the cost of his bond and the charges for his services as determined by the Governor, Deputy or Assistant Governor, shall be paid out of the assets of the association.

§ 205.3 Appointment by Federal Home Loan Bank Administration. The Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, upon receipt of request by the board of directors of an association, as provided in § 205.1 hereof, may, if it shall find cause for such appointment as stated in § 206.1 hereof, appoint a conservator or receiver, in its discretion, for such association. If an examiner shall be in possession of the association, the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration may order the examiner to turn the association over to the conservator or receiver, or, if the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall not appoint a conservator or receiver, may order the examiner to turn the association back to the board of directors.

PART 206—APPOINTMENT OF CONSERVATOR OR RECEIVER

Sec.

206.1 Receiver or conservator, appointment.
206.2 Hearing on appointment.
206.3 Costs of hearings.
206.4 Discharge of conservator or receiver.

AUTHORITY: §§ 206.1 to 206.4, inclusive, issued under sec. 5 (a), (d), 48 Stat. 132, 133; 12 U.S.C. 1464 (a), (d); E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529.

§ 206.1 Receiver or conservator, appointment. (a) Whenever, in the opinion of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, any Federal savings and loan association:

(1) Is conducting its business in an unlawful, unauthorized, or unsafe manner;

(2) Is in an unsound or unsafe condition, or has a management which is unsafe or unfit, or has a person or persons in a position or situation of dominance or control, or exercising dominance or control, who is or are an unsafe or improper person or persons to be in such position or situation or to exercise such dominance or control;

(3) Cannot with safety continue in business;

(4) Is impaired in that its assets do not have an aggregate value (in the judgment of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration) at least equal to the aggregate amount of its liabilities to its creditors, members, and all other persons;

(5) Is in imminent danger of becoming impaired;

(6) Is pursuing a course that is jeopardizing or injurious to the interests of its members, creditors, or the public;

(7) Has suspended payment of its obligations;

(8) Has refused to submit its books, papers, records, or affairs for inspection to any examiner or lawful agent appointed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration;

(9) Has refused by the refusal of any of its officers, directors, or employees to be examined upon oath by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or its representative concerning its affairs; or

(10) Has failed or refused to observe a lawful order of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration may appoint the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation receiver for such Federal association, which appointment shall be for the purpose of liquidation, or the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration may appoint a conservator for such Federal association to conserve the assets of the association pending further disposition of its affairs. The appointment shall be by order, which order shall state on which of the above causes the appointment is based. Any conservator so appointed shall furnish bond for himself and his employees, in form and amount and with surety acceptable to the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, or any Deputy or Assistant Governor, but no bond shall be required of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation as receiver. The conservator or receiver shall forthwith upon appointment take possession of the association and, at the time such conservator or receiver shall demand possession, such conservator or receiver shall notify the officer or employee of the association, if any, who shall be in the home office of the association and appear to be in charge of such office, of the action of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration. The Secretary of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall, forthwith upon adoption thereof, mail a certified copy of the order of appointment to the address of the association as it shall appear on the records of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration and to each director of the association, known by the Secretary to be such, at the last address of each as the same shall appear on the records of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration. If such certified copy of the order appointing the conservator or receiver is received at the offices of the association after the taking of possession by the conservator or receiver, such conservator or receiver shall hand the same to any officer or director of the association who may make demand therefor.

§ 206.2 Hearing on appointment. Within fourteen days (Sundays and holidays included) after the appointment of a conservator or receiver for a Federal association not at the time of such appointment in the hands of a conservator, such Federal association, which has not, by its board of directors, consented to or requested the appointment of a conservator or receiver, may file an answer and serve a written demand for a hearing, authorized by its board of directors, which demand shall state the address to which notice of hearing shall be sent. Upon receipt of such answer and written demand for a hearing the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall issue and serve a notice of hearing upon the institution by mailing a copy of the order of hearing to the address stated in the demand therefor and shall conduct a hearing, at which time and place the Federal association may appear and show cause why the conservator or receiver should not have been appointed and why an order should be entered by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration discharging the conservator or receiver. Such hearing shall be held either in the district of the Federal Home Loan Bank of which such Federal association is a member or in Washington, D. C., as the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall determine, unless the association otherwise consents in writing. Such hearing may be held before the Federal Home Loan Bank Commissioner or before a trial examiner or hearing officer, as the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall determine. Such Federal association, which has not, by its board of directors, consented to or requested the appointment of a conservator or receiver, may, within seven days (Sundays and holidays included) of such appointment, serve a written or telegraphic demand, authorized by its board of directors, upon the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration for a more definite statement of the cause or causes for the action. The time of service upon the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration for the purposes of this section shall be the time of receipt by the Secretary of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration.

§ 206.3 Costs of hearings. Costs, as determined by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, of hearings held pursuant to § 206.2 may be assessed against the association demanding the same upon the order of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration unless the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration finds upon such hearing that there is no cause for the appointment of a conservator or receiver.

§ 206.4 Discharge of conservator or receiver. An order of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration discharging a conservator and returning the association to its management shall restore to such Federal association all its rights, powers and privileges and shall restore the rights, powers and privileges of its officers and directors, all as of the time specified in such order, except as such order may otherwise provide. An order of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration discharging a receiver and returning the association to its management shall by operation of law and without any conveyance or other instrument, act or deed, restore to such Federal association all its rights, powers and privileges, revest in such Federal association the title to all its property, and restore the rights, powers and privileges of its officers and directors, all as of the time specified in such order, except as such order may otherwise provide.

PART 207—POWERS OF CONSERVATOR AND CONDUCT OF CONSERVATORSHIPS

Sec.
- 207.1 Take possession, when.
- 207.2 Procedure upon taking possession.
- 207.3 Succession.
- 207.4 Disposition.
- 207.5 Powers and duties of conservator.
- 207.6 Creditors.
- 207.7 Share interests.
- 207.8 Examinations, inventories, reports, costs and expenses.
- 207.9 Final discharge and release of conservator.
- 207.10 Inspection of reports.

AUTHORITY: §§ 207.1 to 207.10, inclusive, issued under sec. 5 (a), (d), 48 Stat. 132, 133; 12 U.S.C. 1464 (a), (d); E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529.

§ 207.1 Take possession, when. Upon appointment, the conservator for a Federal association shall forthwith take possession of the books, records and assets of every description of such association.

§ 207.2 Procedure upon taking possession. Upon taking possession, pursuant to § 207.1 of these rules and regulations, of such Federal association, the conservator shall forthwith:

(a) Post a notice in substantially the following form on the door of the home office of such association:

---------- Federal Savings and Loan Association ----------, ----------, ---------- is in the possession and charge of the undersigned as Conservator under appointment by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration.

(Date) (Conservator)

(b) Notify, by written notice served personally or by registered mail or telegraph, all banks, trust companies and all other individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations known to such conservator to be holding or in possession of any assets of such association, and

(c) File with the Secretary of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration a statement (1) that he has taken possession, pursuant to § 207.1 of these rules and regulations, of such Federal association and (2) of the posting and time of posting of the notice pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, together with a copy of such notice; and such statement shall be conclusive evidence of the posting and time of posting of such notice.

§ 207.3 Succession. Immediately upon the posting of the notice on the door of such Federal association as provided in paragraph (a) of § 207.2 of these rules and regulations, the conservator shall succeed to all the rights, powers and privileges of the Federal association, its officers and directors, or any of them. Such officers and directors, or any of them, shall not thereafter have, exercise, or act in connection with, any such rights, powers or privileges, or any asset or property of any nature of the association: Provided, however. That nothing herein shall deny to such officers and directors the right from time to time to address such petitions, authorized by the board of directors, as they may have to the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or its representatives designated to receive such petitions concerning such association, or to represent the association at hearings provided for in these rules and regulations.

§ 207.4 Disposition. Unless the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall otherwise order, the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System shall within twenty days of the appointment of the conservator recommend to the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration a plan for the reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation or other disposition of the association. If such plan shall provide for the ultimate restoration of the association to normal operations without an involuntary write-down in the association's share capital, the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration may order the conservator to carry such plan into effect. The Federal Home Loan Bank Administration may, at any time, order the association returned to its management and may, before returning the association to its management regardless of whether such association is subsequently returned to its management, order a meeting of the shareholders for any purpose, including, without any limitation on the generality of the foregoing, election of new directors, or of the board of directors for any purpose, including, without any limitation on the generality of the foregoing, the filling of vacancies on the board of directors or the election of new officers, or may order meetings of both members and directors. Each such election shall be supervised by a representative of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration. The Federal Home Loan Bank Administration may at any time, without further hearing as provided in § 206.2 of these rules and regulations, replace the conservator by appointing the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation as receiver for the purpose of liquidation.

§ 207.5 Powers and duties of conservator. The conservator, subject to the direction and supervision of the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, shall, after posting notice pursuant to paragraph (a) of § 207.2 of these rules and regulations, take such action as may be necessary to conserve the assets of the association pending further disposition of its affairs. The conservator shall forthwith in his name, in the name of the association, in the name of both, or otherwise, collect all obligations and money due the association, and in his name, in the name of the association, in the name of both, or otherwise

(a) May do all things desirable or expedient in his discretion to carry on the business of the association to an extent consistent with his appointment and to preserve and conserve the assets and property of every nature of such association;

(b) May exercise all the rights and powers of such association, including, without any limitation on the generality of the foregoing, any rights and powers under any mortgage, deed of trust, chose in action, option, collateral note, contract, judgment or decree, share or certificate of share of stock, or instrument of any nature;

(c) May, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or of said Governor, pay off and discharge any taxes, assessments, liens, claims, or charges of any nature against the association or the conservator or any asset or property of any nature of such association;

(d) May pay out and expend such sums as he shall deem necessary or advisable

(1) For or in connection with the preservation, maintenance, conservation or protection, or

(2) With the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or of said Governor for or in connection with the remodeling, repair, rehabilitation or improvement not necessary for such preservation, maintenance, conservation or protection of any asset or property of such association;

(e) May, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or of said Governor,

(1) Pay out and expend such sums as he shall deem necessary or advisable for or in connection with the preservation, maintenance, conservation or protection of, or any asset or property of any nature on which the association or conservator has a lien by way of mortgage, deed of trust, pledge or otherwise, or in which the association or conservator has an interest of value of any nature;

(2) Pay off and discharge any taxes, assessments, liens, claims or charges of any nature against,

(f) May, under the direction and supervision of the General Counsel of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, institute, prosecute, maintain, defend, intervene, and otherwise participate in any and all actions, suits, or other legal proceedings by and against the conservator or association or in which the conservator, the association, or its creditors or members, or any of them, shall have an interest, and in every way to represent such association, its members and creditors;

(g) (1) May, with the approval of said Governor, employ such assistants and employees as he may deem necessary for the proper administration of the conservatorship, and shall by bond cover all such assistants and employees in form satisfactory to such conservator and to the said Governor, the cost of the same and the cost of the conservator's bond to be paid out of the assets of the association in the possession of the conservator; and (2) shall employ any attorney or attorneys designated by the General Counsel of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, in connection with litigation or otherwise to give legal advice and assistance, for the conservatorship generally or in particular instances, and pay retainers and compensation of such attorney or attorneys, together with all expenses, including, but not limited to, the costs and expenses of any litigation, as approved by said General Counsel, out of the assets of the association;

(h) May execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all deeds, contracts, leases, assignments, bills of sale, releases, extensions, satisfactions, and other instruments necessary or proper for any purposes, including, without any limitation on the generality of the foregoing, the effectuation or termination of any sale, lease, or transfer of real, personal or mixed property. Any deed or other instrument executed pursuant to the authority hereby given shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes as if the same had been executed, as the act and deed of the association or otherwise, by the officers of such association by authority of its board of directors;

(i) Shall immediately transfer the depository bank balances of the association to Account "R" hereinafter provided for, or to the account with the Federal Home Loan Bank, of which the association is a member, hereinafter provided for, and, unless otherwise directed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or said Governor, shall open two accounts in banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, as follows:

(1) One of these accounts shall be known as Account "R" and the other shall be known as Account "D".

(2) All funds of the association coming into the possession of the conservator shall be forthwith deposited in Account "R".

(3) Disbursements shall be made from Account "R" only by transfer to an account with the Federal Home Loan Bank of which the association is a member, which transfer may be made by the conservator.

(4) Deposits shall be made in Account "D" only by order of or with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or the Governor.

(5) The conservator may make disbursements in connection with his duties as conservator from Account "D".

(6) All depository bank accounts of the conservator shall be carried as follows:

---------- Conservator
(Name of conservator) for ----------
(Name of association)

(j) (1) May, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or said Governor, sell for cash any mortgage, deed of trust, chose in action, bond, note, contract, judgment or decree, or share or certificate of share of stock or debt, owing to such association, at not less than the actual amount owing the association thereon or the face or par value thereof, and

(2) May, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, or on terms and conditions approved by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, sell for cash or on terms, or exchange or otherwise dispose of, at less than the amount owing the association thereon or the face or par value thereof, in whole or in part, any mortgage, deed of trust, chose in action, bond, note, contract, judgment or decree, share or certificate of share of stock or debt, owing to such association;

(k) (1) May lease on a month to month basis, or for a term of not to exceed one year, and (2) may, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, or on terms and conditions approved by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, sell for cash or on terms, lease for a period of more than one year, exchange or otherwise dispose of, in whole or in part, any or all of the assets and property of the association, real, personal, and mixed, tangible and intangible, of any nature;

(l) May, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or of said Governor, or on terms and conditions approved by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or said Governor, surrender, abandon, and release any choses in action, or other assets or property of any nature, whether the subject of pending litigation or not, and reject or repudiate any lease or contract which he considers burdensome;

(m) May, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, or on terms and conditions approved by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, settle, compromise, or obtain the release of, for cash or other considerations, claims and demands against such association or the conservator;

(n) May, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, or on terms and conditions approved by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, settle, compromise, or release, for cash or other considerations, claims and demands in favor of the association or the conservator;

(o) May, with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, and on terms and conditions approved by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, borrow money in any amount and from any source and in any manner, and execute, acknowledge and deliver notes, certificates, and other evidence of indebtedness therefor and secure the repayment thereof by the mortgage, pledge, assignment in trust or hypothecation of any or all of the property, whether real, personal, or mixed, of such association, and such borrowing may be for any purpose, including, without any limitation on the generality of the foregoing, protecting or preserving the assets in his possession, declaring and paying dividends to members and creditors, providing for the expense of administration, or aiding in the reopening or reorganization of such association;

(p) May pay out of the assets of the conservatorship all costs and expenses of the conservatorship and all costs of carrying out or exercising his rights, powers, privileges and duties as conservator, all as determined by him, except as otherwise provided herein; and

(q) May do such things, and have such rights, powers, privileges, immunities, and duties, whether or not otherwise granted in these rules and regulations, as shall be authorized, directed, conferred, or imposed from time to time in specific cases by order of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, or by amendment of these rules and regulations.

For the purposes of this section, (1) asset and property including any mortgage, deed of trust, chose in action, bond, note, contract, judgment or decree, share or certificate of share of stock, or debt of the association, and right and power of the association, shall include any such asset or property, right or power of the conservator, and (2), the terms "Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System" and "said Governor" shall include any Deputy or Assistant Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System.

§ 207.6 Creditors. The conservator may, after certification by the conservator to the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration that the assets of the association will be sufficient to meet all creditor obligations and that the condition of the association justifies, out of the assets in his possession,

(a) With the approval of the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, or any deputy or assistant governor, make disbursements which the association was obligated to make on loan commitments and other valid contracts,

(b) With the approval of said Governor, pay salaries due officers or employees of the association, permit the payment of outstanding checks given in connection with valid creditor obligations, and pay valid creditor obligations, or, in the absence of such certification or approval, may, out of the assets of the association in his possession, pay creditor obligations and make disbursements which the association was obligated to make on loan commitments, to the extent determined by said Governor to be compatible with the condition of the association and the proper conduct of its affairs.

§ 207.7 Share interests. The conservator shall not accept any payments on or purchases, or make any repurchases, of share accounts, unless the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall otherwise direct by order, which order, or orders, shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the principal office of the conservator for conducting the affairs of the association, and such payments or purchases shall be accepted, or such repurchases made, only to the extent and in the manner, and with segregation to the extent, that the same, if any, may be directed in such order or orders.

§ 207.8 Examinations, inventories, reports, costs and expenses—(a) Inventory. As soon as practicable after taking possession, the conservator shall make an inventory of the assets of such association as of the date of such taking possession, showing the value as carried on the books of the association, and the security therefor, if any, in whatever form the same shall exist, with a brief description of each such asset and such security. Such assets may be listed in such groups or classes as shall, to the satisfaction of the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, or any deputy or assistant governor, afford full information as to their character and book value, and the conservator shall include a record of the creditor and share liabilities of the association. One copy of such inventory shall promptly be filed with the Secretary to the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, one copy with the Office of the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, and one copy shall be retained in the principal office of the association, so long as such office is maintained by the conservator.

(b) Examinations and audits. Each Federal association for which a conservator has been appointed may be examined and/or audited (with appraisals when deemed advisable by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration) by the Examining Division of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration as directed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration. The cost, as determined by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, of examinations including office analysis thereof, audits, and any appraisals made in connection therewith, shall be paid from the assets of the association unless otherwise ordered by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration.

(c) Forms and reports. The conservator shall follow such accounting practices as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the Governor. The conservator shall make such reports as may be required by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or the Governor.

§ 207.9 Final discharge and release of conservator—(a) Final report. At such time as the conservator be relieved of his duties, the conservator shall file with the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration a detailed report in form satisfactory to the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration.

(b) Final discharge. Unless otherwise directed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, upon the completion of the duties of the conservator or at such time as the conservator shall be otherwise relieved of his duties, an examination and audit may be directed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration in connection with the report of the conservator hereinbefore required. The accounts of the conservator shall be approved or disapproved, and, if approved, the conservator shall thereupon be given a complete and final discharge and release.

§ 207.10 Inspection of reports. All inventories, statements and reports of the conservator shall be in at least four copies unless otherwise directed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or the Governor. One copy shall be filed with the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, the other copies with the Office of the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, and each of the inventories, statements, and reports shall constitute permanent records of each conservatorship open for inspection at such times and on such conditions as may be from time to time directed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration or, in the absence of such directions, whenever the office of the Secretary of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall be open for business.

5. By changing the number of § 204.16 to be § 206.5.

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

Chapter V—Federal Housing Administration

Subchapter I—War Rental Housing Insurance

PART 582—WAR RENTAL HOUSING INSURANCE APPLICABLE TO ALL MORTGAGES INSURED

Administrative regulations for war rental housing insurance under section 608 of the National Housing Act, applicable to all mortgages insured under section 608.

Section 582.8 (a) (7 F.R. 4265) is hereby amended by striking the first sentence and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

If the mortgagor fails to make any payment due under or provided to be paid by the terms of the mortgage, whether or not such failure to pay is caused by failure to perform some other covenant or obligation under the mortgage because of which the mortgagee has declared the full amount due and payable under an acceleration clause contained therein, and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days, the mortgage shall be considered in default and the mortgagee shall within thirty (30) days thereafter give notice in writing to the Commissioner of such default.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 23d day of January 1943.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division

PART 626—MINIMUM WAGE RATE IN THE GRAIN PRODUCTS INDUSTRY

In the matter of the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 42 for a minimum wage rate in the grain products industry.

Whereas on February 13, 1942, pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, herein referred to as the Act, the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor, by Administrative Order No. 141, appointed Industry Committee No. 42 for the grain products industry, herein called the committee, and directed the committee to recommend minimum wage rates for the grain products industry in accordance with section 8 of the Act; and

Whereas the committee included seven disinterested persons representing the public, a like number of persons representing employers in the grain products industry, and a like number of persons representing employees in the industry, and each group was appointed with due regard to the geographical regions in which the grain products industry is carried on; and

Whereas on March 12, 1942, the committee, after investigating economic and competitive conditions in the industry, filed with the Administrator a report containing its recommendation for a 40-cent minimum hourly wage rate in the grain products industry; and

Whereas after notice duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 4, 1942, Major Robert N. Campbell, the presiding officer designated by the Administrator, held a public hearing upon the committee's recommendation at Washington, D. C., on April 20, 1942, at which all interested persons were given an opportunity to be heard; and

Whereas the complete record of the proceeding before the presiding officer has been transmitted to the Administrator; and

Whereas by notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 5, 1942, opportunity to submit written briefs on or before June 17, 1942, was afforded all parties; and

Whereas no request for oral argument having been received, oral argument on the committee's recommendation was dispensed with in this proceeding; and

Whereas the Administrator, upon reviewing all the evidence adduced in this proceeding and giving consideration to the provisions of the Act with special reference to sections 5 and 8, has concluded that the committee's recommendation for the grain products industry, as defined in Administrative Order No. 141, is made in accordance with law, is supported by the evidence adduced at the hearing, and taking into consideration the same factors as are required to be considered by the committee, will carry out the purposes of the Act; and

Whereas the Administrator has set forth his decision in an opinion entitled "Findings and Opinion of the Administrator in the Matter of the Recommendation of Industry Committee No. 42 for a Minimum Wage Rate in the Grain Products Industry," dated this day, a copy of which may be had upon request addressed to the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, 165 West 46 Street, New York, New York.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That:

Sec.
626.1 Approval of recommendation of Industry Committee No. 42.
626.2 Wage rates.
626.3 Posting of notices.

Sec.
626.4 Definition of the grain products industry.
626.5 Scope of the definition.
626.6 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 626.1 to 626.6, inclusive, issued under sec. 8, 52 Stat. 1064; 29 U.S.C., Supp. IV, 208.

§ 626.1 Approval of recommendation of Industry Committee No. 42. The Committee's recommendation is hereby approved.

§ 626.2 Wage rates. Wages at a rate of not less than 40 cents per hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Act by every employer to each of his employees in the Grain Products Industry who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

§ 626.3 Posting of notices. Every employer employing any employees so engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the grain products industry shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in each department of his establishment where such employees are working such notices of this order as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.

§ 626.4 Definition of the grain products industry. For the purpose of this order the term "grain products industry" means the handling, warehousing, and storing of grain when performed in conjunction with milling operations, and the processing of grain or alfalfa into food products or feeds. It includes, but without limitation, the production of flour, prepared or blended flours, breakfast cereals, coffee substitutes, pearl barley, hominy, flakes, grits, rice, meal, feeds and prepared or mixed feeds, including those made wholly or in part from such products as cottonseed, soy beans, or peanuts (but not the crushing of such products), except those made principally from meat products. It does not include the production of bakery products such as bread, cakes, pastries, and macaroni.

§ 626.5 Scope of the definition. The definition of the grain products industry covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the products covered by the definition, including clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations, Provided, however, That such clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations when carried on in a wholesaling or selling department physically segregated from other departments of a manufacturing establishment, the greater part of the sales of which wholesaling or selling department are sales of articles which have been purchased for resale, shall not be deemed to be covered by this definition: And provided further, That where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.

Signed at New York, New York, this 22d day of January 1943.

PART 627—MINIMUM WAGE RATE IN THE CANDY AND RELATED PRODUCTS MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

In the matter of the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 47 for a minimum wage rate in the candy and related products manufacturing industry.

Whereas on August 14, 1942, pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, herein referred to as the Act, the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor, by Administrative Order No. 150, appointed Industry Committee No. 47 for the candy and related products manufacturing industry, herein called the committee, and directed the committee to recommend minimum wage rates for the candy and related products manufacturing industry in accordance with section 8 of the Act; and

Whereas the committee included five disinterested persons representing the public, a like number of persons representing employers in the candy and related products manufacturing industry, and a like number of persons representing employees in the industry, and each group was appointed with due regard to the geographical regions in which the candy and related products manufacturing industry is carried on; and

Whereas on September 16, 1942, the committee, after investigating economic and competitive conditions in the industry, filed with the Administrator a report containing its recommendations for 40-cent minimum hourly wage rates in the candy and related products manufacturing industry; and

Whereas after notice duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 22, 1942, Major Robert N. Campbell, the presiding officer designated by the Administrator, held a public hearing upon the committee's recommendations at Washington, D. C., on October 14, 1942, at which all interested persons were given an opportunity to be heard; and

Whereas the complete record of the proceeding before the presiding officer has been transmitted to the Administrator; and

Whereas no request for oral argument having been received, oral argument on the committee's recommendations was dispensed with in this proceeding; and

Whereas by notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 24, 1942, opportunity to submit written briefs was afforded all parties; and

Whereas the Administrator, upon reviewing all the evidence adduced in this proceeding and giving consideration to the provisions of the Act with special reference to sections 5 and 8, has concluded that the committee's recommendations for the candy and related products manufacturing industry as defined by Administrative Order No. 150, are made in accordance with law, are supported by the evidence adduced at the hearing, and taking into consideration the same factors as are required to be considered by the committee, will carry out the purposes of the Act; and

Whereas the Administrator has set forth his decision in an opinion entitled "Findings and Opinion of the Administrator in the Matter of the Recommendations of Industry Committee No. 47 for Minimum Wages Rates in the Candy and Related Products Manufacturing Industry," dated this day, a copy of which may be had upon request addressed to the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, 165 West 46 Street, New York, New York.

AUTHORITY: §§ 627.1 to 627.6, inclusive, issued under sec. 8, 52 Stat. 1064, 29 U.S.C., Supp. IV, 208.

§ 627.1 Approval of recommendations of Industry Committee No. 47. The Committee's recommendations are hereby approved.

§ 627.2 Wage rates. Wages at not less than the following rate per hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Act by every employer to each of his employees in the candy and related products manufacturing industry who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce:

(a) Forty cents to be paid for: the production of chocolate and cocoa products;

(b) Forty cents to be paid for: the production of candied, crystallized or glace fruits and fruit peels; and

(c) Forty cents to be paid for: the production of any other products of the candy and related products manufacturing industry.

§ 627.3 Posting of notices. Every employer employing any employees so engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the candy and related products manufacturing industry shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in each department of his establishment where such employees are working such notices of this order as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.

§ 627.4 Definition of the candy and related products manufacturing industry. For the purpose of this order the term "candy and related products manufacturing industry" means the production of candies and related products, including, but without limitation, stuffed fruits; candied, crystallized or glace fruits and fruit peels; candied popcorn; salted, sugared or roasted nuts; chocolate and cocoa products; marshmallow creme; and chewing gum: Provided, That the shelling and cleaning of nuts are excluded except where the operations are performed in plants also engaged in the further processing of nuts.

§ 627.5 Scope of the definition. The definition of the candy and related products manufacturing industry covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the articles specified in the definition including clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations: Provided, however, That such clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations when carried on in a wholesaling or selling department physically segregated from other departments of a manufacturing establishment, the greater part of the sales of which wholesaling or selling department are sales of articles which have been purchased for resale, shall not be deemed to be covered by this definition: And provided further, That where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.

PART 628—MINIMUM WAGE RATE IN THE HANDKERCHIEF MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

In the matter of the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 46 for a minimum wage rate in the Handkerchief Manufacturing Industry.

Whereas on July 23, 1942, by Administrative Order No. 149, the Acting Administrator, pursuant to sections 5 and 8 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, appointed Industry Committee No. 46 for the handkerchief manufacturing industry, and directed the committee to recommend minimum wage rates for the handkerchief manufacturing industry in accordance with section 8 of the Act; and

Whereas the committee included three disinterested persons representing the public, a like number of persons representing employers in the handkerchief manufacturing industry, and a like number of persons representing employees in the industry, and each group was appointed with due regard to the geographical regions in which the handkerchief manufacturing industry is carried on; and

Whereas Industry Committee No. 46 on August 14, 1942, after investigation of conditions in the industry, filed with the Administrator a report containing its recommendations for a minimum wage rate of 40 cents an hour in the handkerchief manufacturing industry; and

Whereas after notice duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 5, 1942, Major Robert N. Campbell, the presiding officer designated by the Administrator, held a public hearing on October 7, 1942 at New York, New York, upon the committee's recommendation and upon the question of what, if any, prohibition, restriction or regulation of home work is necessary to carry out the purposes of the wage order for the handkerchief manufacturing industry, to prevent the circumvention or evasion thereof and to safeguard the minimum wage rate established therein, in the event an order is issued approving the recommendations of the committee, at which all interested persons were given an opportunity to be heard; and

Whereas the complete record of the proceeding before the presiding officer was transmitted to the Administrator; and

Whereas all persons who appeared at the hearing were given leave to file briefs on or before November 4, 1942, and to present oral argument before the Administrator on November 12, 1942; and

Whereas the Administrator, upon reviewing all the evidence adduced in this proceeding and giving consideration to the provisions of the Act with special reference to sections 5 and 8, has concluded that the committee's recommendations for the handkerchief manufacturing industry as defined by Administrative Order No. 149, are made in accordance with law, are supported by the evidence adduced at the hearing, and taking into consideration the same factors as are required to be considered by the committee, will carry out the purposes of section 8 of the Act and that it is necessary to include terms and conditions in the wage order for this industry with respect to industrial home work to carry out the purpose of such order, to prevent the circumvention or evasion thereof and to safeguard the minimum wage rate established therein; and

Whereas the Administrator has set forth his decision in an opinion entitled "Findings and Opinion of the Administrator in the Matter of the Recommendation of Industry Committee No. 46 for a Minimum Wage Rate in the Handkerchief Manufacturing Industry and Industrial Home Work in the Handkerchief Manufacturing Industry" dated this day, a copy of which may be had upon request addressed to the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, 165 West 46th Street, New York, New York.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That:

Sec.
628.1 Approval of recommendation of Industry Committee No. 46.
628.2 Wage rate.
628.3 Restriction of home work.
628.4 Posting of notices.
628.5 Definition of the handkerchief manufacturing industry.
628.6 Scope of the definition.
628.7 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 628.1 to 628.7, inclusive issued under sec. 8, 52 Stat. 1064; 29 U.S.C., Supp. IV, 208.

§ 628.1 Approval of recommendation of Industry Committee No. 46. The committee's recommendation is hereby approved.

§ 628.2 Wage rate. (a) Wages at a rate of not less than 40 cents per hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Act by every employer to each of his employees in the handkerchief manufacturing industry who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

§ 628.3 Restriction of home work. No work in the handkerchief manufacturing industry, as defined herein, shall be done in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment after April 25, 1943, except by such persons as have obtained special homework certificates issued pursuant to applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division, authorizing industrial home work by any worker who was engaged in industrial home work in the handkerchief manufacturing industry prior to October 7, 1942, or is at any time engaged in such industrial home work under the supervision of a State vocational rehabilitation agency or of a sheltered workshop, as defined in § 525.1, Part 525, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, and is unable to adjust to factory work because of age, or physical or mental disability or is unable to leave home because his presence is required to care for an invalid in the home.

§ 628.4 Posting of notices. Every employer employing any employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the handkerchief manufacturing industry shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in each department of his establishment where such employees are working such notices of this order as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.

§ 628.5 Definition of the handkerchief manufacturing industry. For the purpose of this order the term "handkerchief manufacturing industry" means the manufacture of men's, women's and children's handkerchiefs, plain or ornamented, from any materials.

§ 628.6 Scope of the definition. The definition of the handkerchief manufacturing industry covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the articles specified in the definition including clerical, maintenance, shipping and selling occupations: Provided, however, That such clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations when carried on in a wholesaling or selling department physically segregated from other departments of a manufacturing establishment, the greater part of the sales of which wholesaling or selling department are sales of articles which have been purchased for resale, shall not be deemed to be covered by this definition: And provided further, That where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.

Signed at New York, New York this 22d day of January 1943.

L. METCALFE WALLING,
Administrator.

PART 628—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE EMPLOYMENT OF HOME WORKERS IN THE HANDKERCHIEF MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

The following regulations, §§ 628.100–628.112 applicable to the employment of industrial home workers in the handkerchief manufacturing industry are hereby issued pursuant to sections 8 (f) and 11 (c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, and § 628.3 of the Regulations of the Wage and Hour Division. These regulations shall become effective, April 26, 1943, and shall be in force and effect until repealed or modified by regulations hereafter made and published.

Whereas section 8 (f) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 provides as follows:

Orders issued under this section shall • • • contain such terms and conditions as the Administrator finds necessary to carry out the purpose of such orders, to prevent the circumvention or evasion thereof, and to safeguard the minimum wage rates established therein. • • •

And whereas § 628.3 of the wage order for the handkerchief manufacturing industry issued pursuant to section 8 (f) of the Act provides as follows:

No work in the handkerchief manufacturing industry, as defined herein, shall be done in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment after April 25, 1943, except by such persons as have obtained special home-work certificates issued pursuant to applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division, authorizing industrial home work by any worker who was engaged in industrial home work in the handkerchief manufacturing industry prior to October 7, 1942, or is at any time engaged in such industrial home work under the supervision of a State vocational rehabilitation agency or of a sheltered workshop as defined in § 525.1, Part 525, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, and is unable to adjust to factory work because of age, or physical or mental disability or is unable to leave home because his presence is required to care for an invalid in the home.

And whereas section 11 (c) of the Act provides as follows:

Every employer subject to any provision of this Act or of any order issued under this Act shall make, keep and preserve such records of the persons employed by him and of the wages, hours and other conditions and practices of employment maintained by him, and shall preserve such records for such periods of time, and shall make such reports therefrom to the Administrator as he shall prescribe by regulation or order as necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act or the regulations or orders thereunder.

Now, therefore, the following regulations are hereby issued. These regulations shall become effective on April 26, 1943, and shall be in force and effect until repealed or modified by regulations hereafter made and published.

Sec.
628.101 Definitions.
628.102 Application on official forms.
628.103 Terms and conditions for the issuance of certificates.
628.104 Investigation may be ordered to determine whether the facts justify the issuance of certificate.
628.105 Termination of certificates.
628.106 Revocation and cancellation.
628.107 Preservation of certificate.
628.108 Records and reports.
628.109 Wage rates.
628.110 Delegation of authority to grant, deny or cancel a certificate.
628.111 Petition for review.
628.112 Petition for amendment of regulations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 628.101 to 628.112, inclusive, issued under 29 C.F.R. 628.3; sec. 8 (f), 11 (c); 52 Stat. 1064, 1066; 29 U.S.C. 208 (f), 211 (c).

§ 628.101 Definitions. As used in these regulations, the term "industrial home work" means the production by any person in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment, for an employer, of goods from material furnished directly by or indirectly for such employer. As used in these regulations the term "handkerchief manufacturing industry" means the manufacture of men's, women's and children's handkerchiefs, plain or ornamented, from any materials.

§ 628.102 Application on official forms. Certificates authorizing the employment of industrial home workers in the handkerchief manufacturing industry may be issued upon the following terms and conditions upon application therefor on forms provided by the Wage and Hour Division. Such forms shall be signed by both the home worker and the employer.

§ 628.103 Terms and conditions for the issuance or certificates. If the application is in proper form and sets forth facts showing that the worker:

(a) (1) Was engaged in industrial home work in the handkerchief manufacturing industry prior to October 7, 1942.

(2) Is or will be engaged in such industrial home work under the supervision of a State vocational rehabilitation agency or of a sheltered workshop as defined in § 525.1, Part 525, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations.

(b) Is unable to adjust to factory work because of age or physical or mental disability.

(c) Is unable to leave home because the worker's presence is required to care for an invalid in the home.

a certificate may be issued authorizing the applicant employer to employ the worker in industrial home work in the handkerchief manufacturing industry.

No home worker shall perform industrial home work for more than one employer in the handkerchief manufacturing industry, but home work employment in another industry shall not be a bar to the issuance of a certificate for the handkerchief manufacturing industry.

§ 628.104 Investigation may be ordered to determine whether the facts justify the issuance of certificate. An investigation may be ordered in any case to obtain additional data or facts. A medical examination of the worker or invalid may be ordered or a certification of facts concerning eligibility for the certificate by designated officers of the State or Federal Government may be required.

§ 628.105 Termination of certificates. Certificates shall be valid under the terms set forth in the certificate for a period of not more than 12 months from the date of issuance or such shorter period as may be fixed in the certificate. Application for renewal of any certificate shall be filed in the same manner as an original application under these regulations.

§ 628.106 Revocation and cancellation. Any certificate may be revoked for cause at any time. Violation of any provision of the Fair Labor Standards Act shall be sufficient grounds for revocation of all certificates issued to an employer, in which event no certificates shall be issued to the offending employer for a period of one year. In any proceedings for the revocation or cancellation of a certificate, interested parties shall be provided an opportunity to be heard.

§ 628.107 Preservation of certificate. A copy of the certificate shall be sent to the home worker, who shall keep such certificate on the premises on which the work is performed.

A copy of the certificate shall be sent to the employer, who shall keep this copy on file in the same place at which the worker's employment records are maintained.

§ 628.108 Records and reports. The issuance of a certificate shall not relieve the employer of the duty of maintaining the records required by Regulations, Part 516, and failure to keep such records shall be sufficient cause for the cancellation of certificates issued to such an employer.

Each employer of industrial home workers in the handkerchief manufacturing industry shall submit to the regional office of the Wage and Hour Division for the region in which his place of business is located on April 1 and October 1 of each year, the home work handbooks of each employee employed by him during the preceding six month period in industrial home work in the handkerchief manufacturing industry. This report shall also include a list of the names, addresses, and certificate numbers of home workers for whom home work certificates have been obtained, but who were not employed in industrial home work in the handkerchief manufacturing industry during such period.

§ 628.109 Wage rates. Wages at a rate of not less than 40 cents per hour shall be paid by every employer to each of his home work employees except as subminimum employment of specific handcapped workers has been provided for by special certificates issued by the Wage and Hour Division pursuant to Regulations, Parts 524, and 525. All hours worked in excess of 40 in any workweek shall be compensated for at one and one-half times the regular rate of pay.

§ 628.110 Delegation of authority to grant, deny or cancel a certificate. The Administrator may from time to time designate and appoint members of his staff or State agencies as his authorized representatives with full power and authority to grant, deny or cancel home work certificates.

§ 628.111 Petition for review. Any person aggrieved by the action of an authorized representative of the Administrator in granting or denying a certificate may, within 15 days thereafter or within such additional time as the Administrator for cause shown may allow, file with the Administrator a petition for review of the action of such representative praying for such relief as is desired. Such petition for review, if duly filed, will be acted upon by the Administrator or an authorized representative of the Administrator who took no part in the proceeding being reviewed. All interested parties will be afforded an opportunity to present their views in support of or in opposition to the matters prayed for in the petition.

§ 628.112 Petition for amendment of regulations. Any person wishing a revision of any of the terms of the foregoing regulations may submit in writing to the Administrator a petition setting forth the changes desired and reasons for proposing them. If upon inspection of the petition the Administrator believes that reasonable cause for amendment of the rules and regulations set forth, the Administrator will either schedule a hearing with due notice to interested persons or will make other provisions to afford interested persons opportunity to present their views in support of or in opposition to the proposed changes.

Signed at New York, N. Y., this 22d day of January 1943.

PART 629—MINIMUM WAGE RATE IN THE SEAMLESS HOSIERY INDUSTRY

In the matter of the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 21 for a minimum wage rate in the seamless hosiery industry.

Whereas on September 23, 1942, pursuant to section 5 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, herein referred to as the Act, the Acting Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor, by Administrative Order No. 158, reconvened Industry Committee No. 21 for the seamless hosiery industry, which committee had been previously appointed by Administrative Order No. 84 dated February 17, 1941, herein called the committee, and directed the committee to recommend minimum wage rates for the seamless hosiery industry in accordance with section 8 of the Act; and

Whereas the committee included three disinterested persons representing the public, a like number of persons representing employers in the seamless hosiery industry, and a like number of persons representing employees in the industry, and each group was appointed with due regard to the geographical regions in which the seamless hosiery industry is carried on; and

Whereas on November 2, 1942, the committee, after investigating economic and competitive conditions in the seamless hosiery industry, filed with the Administrator a report containing its recommendation for a 40-cent minimum hourly wage rate in the seamless hosiery industry; and

Whereas after notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 5, 1942, Major Robert N. Campbell, the presiding officer designated by the Administrator, held a public hearing upon the committee's recommendation at New York, New York on November 24, 1942, at which all interested persons were given an opportunity to be heard; and

Whereas the complete record of the proceeding before the presiding officer has been transmitted to the Administrator; and

Whereas the Administrator, upon reviewing all the evidence adduced in this proceeding and giving consideration to the provisions of the Act, with special reference to sections 5 and 8, has concluded that the industry committee's recommendation for the seamless hosiery industry, as defined by Administrative Order No. 158, is made in accordance with law, is supported by the evidence adduced at the hearing, and, taking into consideration the same factors as are required to be considered by the industry committee, will carry out the purposes of the Act; and

Whereas the Administrator has set forth his decision in an opinion entitled "Findings and Opinion of the Administrator in the Matter of the Recommendation of Industry Committee No. 21 for a Minimum Wage Rate in the Seamless Hosiery Industry," dated this day, a copy of which may be had upon request addressed to the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, New York, New York;

629.3 Posting of notices.
629.4 Definition of the seamless hosiery industry.
629.5 Scope of the definition.
629.6 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 629.1 to 629.6, inclusive, issued under sec. 8, 52 Stat. 1064, 29 U.S.C. Supp. IV, sec. 208.

§ 629.1 Approval of recommendation of industry committee. The committee's recommendation is hereby approved.

§ 629.2 Wage rate. Wages at a rate of not less than 40 cents per hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Act by every employer to each of his employees who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the seamless hosiery industry.

§ 629.3 Posting of notices. Every employer employing any employees so engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the seamless hosiery industry shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in each department of his establishment where such employees are working such notices of this order as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.

§ 629.4 Definition of the seamless hosiery industry. For the purpose of this order the term "seamless hosiery industry" means: The manufacturing or processing of seamless hosiery, including among other processes the knitting, dyeing, clocking and all phases of finishing seamless hosiery, but not including the manufacturing or processing of yarn or thread.

§ 629.5 Scope of the definition. The definition of the seamless hosiery industry covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the articles specified in the definition, including clerical, maintenance, shipping and selling occupations: Provided, however, That this definition does not include employees of an independent wholesaler or employees of a manufacturer who are engaged exclusively in marketing and distributing products of the industry which have been purchased for resale; And provided further, That where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.

PART 630—MINIMUM WAGE RATES IN THE CONVERTED PAPER PRODUCTS INDUSTRY

In the matter of the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 48 for a minimum wage rate in the converted paper products industry.

Whereas on August 15, 1942, pursuant to section 5 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, hereinafter referred to as the Act, the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor, by Administrative Order No. 152 appointed Industry Committee No. 48 for the converted paper products industry, herein called the committee, and directed the committee to recommend minimum wage rates for the converted paper products industry in accordance with section 8 of the Act; and

Whereas the committee included seven disinterested persons representing the public, a like number of persons representing employers in the converted paper products industry, and a like number of persons representing employees in the industry, and each group was appointed with due regard to the geographical regions in which the converted paper products industry is carried on; and

Whereas on September 10, 1942, the committee, after investigating economic and competitive conditions in the industry, filed with the Administrator a report containing its recommendation for a 40 cent minimum hourly wage rate in the converted paper products industry; and

Whereas after notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 22, 1942, Major Robert N. Campbell, the presiding officer designated by the Administrator, held a public hearing upon the committee's recommendation at New York, New York, on October 21, 1942, at which all interested persons were given an opportunity to be heard; and

Whereas the complete record of the proceeding before the presiding officer has been transmitted to the Administrator; and

Whereas by notice given at the hearing, all persons who appeared at the hearing were given leave to file briefs on or before November 12, 1942; and

Whereas no request for oral argument having been received, oral argument on the committee's recommendation was dispensed with in this proceeding; and

Whereas the Administrator upon reviewing all the evidence adduced in this proceeding and giving consideration to the provisions of the Act with special reference to sections 5 and 8, has concluded that the industry committee's recommendation for the converted paper products industry as defined in Administrative Order No. 152 is made in accordance with law, is supported by the evidence adduced at the hearing, and, taking into consideration the same factors as are required to be considered by the industry committee, will carry out the purposes of section 8 of the Act; and

Whereas the Administrator has set forth his decision in an opinion entitled "Findings and Opinion of the Administrator in the Matter of the Recommendation of Industry Committee No. 48 for a Minimum Wage Rate in the Converted Paper Products Industry," dated this day, a copy of which may be had upon request addressed to the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, New York, New York;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That:

Sec.
630.1 Approval of recommendation of industry committee.
630.2 Wage rate.
630.3 Posting of notices.
630.4 Definition of the converted paper products industry.
630.5 Scope of the definition.
630.6 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 630.1 to 630.6, inclusive, issued under sec. 8, 52 Stat. 1064; 29 U.S.C. Sup. IV, 208.

§ 630.1 Approval of recommendation of industry committee. The Committee's recommendation is hereby approved.

§ 630.2 Wage rate. Wages at a rate of not less than 40 cents per hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Act by every employer to each of his employees in the converted paper industry as defined in Administrative Order No. 152 who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

§ 630.3 Posting of notices. Every employer employing any employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the converted paper products industry shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in each department of his establishment where such employees are working such notices of this order as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.

The manufacture of all products which have as a basic component pulp, paper or board (as those terms are used in Administrative Order No. 41 defining the pulp and primary paper industry) and the manufacture of all like products in which synthetic materials, such as cellophane, pliofilm or synthetic resin, used in sheet form, is a basic component: Provided, however, That the manufacture of the following shall not be included:

(a) Any product the manufacture of which is covered by a wage order of the Administrator relating to the textile, apparel, hat, millinery, shoe, pulp and primary paper, carpet and rug, portable lamp and shade, or luggage, leather goods and women's handbag industry.

(b) Any product, such as rayon, cellophane, etc., made from such pulp by a process which involves the destruction of the original fibrous structure of such pulp.

(c) Roofing paper, insulation board and products therefrom for use as building materials, or shingles.

(d) Newspapers, magazines, books, blueprints, photographs and other products in which graphic art is the exclusive medium through which the products function: Provided, however, That the production of printed forms, stationery, blank books, and tablets, other than the printing thereof in a job printing establishment, and the production of other products in the use of which graphic art is applied by the ultimate consumer of the products, shall be included within the converted paper products industry as herein defined.

§ 630.5 Scope of the definition. The definition of the converted paper products industry covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the products specified in the definition, including clerical, maintenance, shipping and selling occupations: Provided, however, That where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.

Signed at New York, New York, this 22d day of January 1943.

L. METCALFE WALLING,
Administrator.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 997—PRODUCTION AND DELIVERY OF MACHINE TOOLS

[General Preference Order E-1-b as Amended Jan. 26, 1943]

§ 997.2 General Preference Order E-1-b—(a) Definitions. (1) "Machine tools" include the products listed in schedule hereto attached and marked Exhibit A [1] and divided into two groups designated Group I and Group II for the purpose of this order as hereinafter specified. The term "tool" means a machine tool. Each machine tool includes not only the basic machine but also all fixtures, equipment and tooling covered by the original purchase order which are required to be delivered with the tool to make it usable in production for the purposes intended, but does not include any replacements, or spare parts or equipment, or extra tooling, ordered by the purchaser.

(2) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other form of enterprise engaged in producing any products listed in Exhibit A.

(3) "Service purchasers" means those whose preference rating certificates, or whose endorsed purchase orders, show that the preference rating applied to such delivery was assigned thereto by an original Preference Rating Certificate PD-3, PD-3A, or PD-4, or by Preference Rating Order P-19-h, calling for delivery to a supply arm or bureau of the Army or Navy, or to the United States Maritime Commission, or to one of their prime contractors, or to a subcontractor of such a prime contractor.

(4) "Foreign purchasers' means those whose purchase orders show that the tool is to be delivered to or for the account of a foreign country (other than Canada), or a subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof: Provided, That such purchase orders have been placed by the Ordnance Department (Army) or by the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, with or without a preference rating certificate; or, in the case of purchase orders placed prior to May 1, 1942 by a purchasing or procurement agent of a foreign country, where such purchase orders have been scheduled pursuant to a preference rating certificate, a Special Allocation Order No. 1, or General Preference Order No. E-3.

(5) "Other purchasers" means all purchasers other than service purchasers and foreign purchasers, to whose purchase orders a preference rating has been assigned, including Canadian.

(6) "Class" when used herein means one of the foregoing three classes of purchasers: namely, service purchasers, foreign purchasers, or other purchasers.

(7) "Size" as used herein may include all of those dimensions or variations of a particular type of tool which can be used interchangeably for production purposes.

(b) Revocation of previous order. General Preference Order No. E-1-a Revised, including the Numerical Master Preference List, Revision No. 1, is revoked as of May 1, 1942 as to machine tools, and shall thereafter be of no further force or effect with respect to machine tools except as present schedules and urgency standings are continued by paragraph (c) of this order. Makers of gages and chucks will continue to schedule their production according to General Preference Order No. E-1-a, Revised, until further order of the Director General for Operations.

(c) Production and delivery of machine tools during November 1942 and until further notice. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, each producer shall schedule 75 percent of his production and delivery of each size of each type of machine tool during the balance of the calendar month of November 1942 and each month thereafter as follows, until further notice:

(1) Each producer forthwith shall divide into two types all purchase orders placed by each of the seven groups of Service purchasers (Bureau of Ships, Bureau of Ordnance, Ordnance Department, Air Services, Miscellaneous Bureaus and Branches, Maritime Commission, and Signal Corps) which specify as the required delivery date the month being scheduled or a previous month, such types being designated as Type 1 orders and Type 2 orders. The "required delivery date" is the date specified on the endorsement accompanying the purchase order, as changed by any subsequent instruction given on Form WPB-27, Form WPB-1588, or otherwise, by the War Production Board, or by any postponement thereof by the purchaser.

Type 1 orders shall include the following:

(i) Any purchase order for delivery to any Service Purchaser in the "Air Services" group (called "Air Forces" in Exhibits A and B to General Preference Order E-1-b). "Air Services" includes the Army Air Forces, the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics, their respective prime contractors and subcontractors, and the U. S. Corps of Engineers with respect to purchases made for the account of the Army Air Forces; and in addition thereto,

(ii) Any purchase order for delivery to any prime contractor listed on the preferred customers list (Exhibit C attached to this order) or any subcontractor of such a prime contractor. No purchase order from a prime contractor on the preferred customers list, or from his subcontractors, shall be classed as a Type 1 order, however, unless the endorsement required by paragraph (h) of this order to be placed by such purchaser on his purchase order, or the preference rating certificate itself if transferred to the producer, shows that the machine tool ordered is for use on the prime contract specified opposite the prime contractor's name on such Preferred Customers List.

Type 2 orders shall include all other purchase orders placed by Service purchasers which do not fall in Type 1 orders.

(2) The producer shall total all Type 1 orders from Service purchasers for the size and type of tool being scheduled, which specify as the required delivery date the month being scheduled or a previous month. Where 75 percent of the production of the size and type of tool being scheduled for delivery in any month is greater than the total Type 1 orders received from all Service purchaser groups specifying that month or a previous month as the required delivery date, all such Type 1 orders shall be scheduled for delivery in that month regardless of the effect on any Type 2 orders. The residue of such 75 percent shall be scheduled for delivery against Type 2 orders from the remaining Service purchaser groups in accordance with the percentage quotas established by Exhibit A to this order, the "Air Services" quota becoming an unabsorbed quota distributable in accordance with paragraph (e) (5) of this order.

(3) Where 75 percent of the production of the size and type of tool being scheduled for delivery in any month is less than the total Type 1 orders received from all Service purchaser groups specifying that month or a previous month as the required delivery date, no Type 2 orders shall be scheduled for delivery in that month. Where the Type 1 orders in such case are from more than one Service purchaser group, the distribution of such 75 percent of production between the Type 1 orders from such groups shall be determined as follows: The percentage which 75 percent of the production for that month constitutes of the total Type 1 orders from all such Service purchaser groups shall be determined. Such percentage shall then be applied to the number of such Type 1 orders from each Service purchaser group involved, and the resultant number of Type 1 orders shall accordingly be scheduled for delivery to such group. The particular Type 1 orders to be scheduled for each such Service purchaser group and the sequence of their delivery shall be determined by the Numerical Master Preference List, as amended by Revision No. 4 and corrections and additions thereto, the operation of which is set forth in paragraph (i) of this order.

(4) 25 percent of each producer's production for each month of each size of each type of tool shall continue to be scheduled for delivery to foreign purchasers and other purchasers in accordance with the other provisions of this order.

(5) Immediately upon scheduling machines for delivery in accordance with paragraphs (c) (2), (c) (3), and (c) (4) of this order, each producer shall notify all purchasers of the new scheduled delivery dates which fall within the period ending February 28, 1943.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph (c), the War Production Board from time to time may issue specific scheduling instructions to any producer.

(7) The four months rule established by paragraphs (d) (4) and (e) (5) of this order shall not be applied to Type 1 orders. The sixty-day "frozen" period established by paragraph (i) of this order shall be applied to all deliveries of Type 1 orders as well as Type 2 orders. All Type 2 orders remain subject to the terms of this General Preference Order E-1-b except as the delivery dates on such orders may be extended by the rescheduling of Type 1 orders in accordance with this paragraph (c).

(8) All other provisions of this General Preference Order E-1-b not modified by this paragraph (c) shall remain in full force and effect.

(d) Allocation of production to service purchasers and to foreign and other purchasers. (1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, each producer shall schedule his production for each calendar month so as to deliver 75 per cent of his production of each size of each type of tool which he produces in that month to service purchasers.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, each producer shall schedule his production for each calendar month so as to deliver 25 per cent of his production of each size of each type of tool in the aggregate to foreign purchasers and other purchasers.

(3) A producer may schedule for delivery to service purchasers more than 75 per cent of his production of any size of a type of tool in a given month, to the extent that he has failed to receive purchase orders for foreign purchasers and rated purchase orders from other purchasers for tools of such size and type prior to the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery.

(4) A producer may likewise schedule for delivery to foreign purchasers and other purchasers more than 25 per cent of such production of any size of a type of tool in a given month, to the extent that he has failed to receive rated purchase orders from service purchasers for tools of such size and type, prior to the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery.

(5) In preparing his schedules as aforesaid, a producer shall fix the dates of his deliveries of tools to service purchasers, to foreign purchasers and to other purchasers within a given month so that each class will receive its percentage of tools equitably in point of time within the month.

(e) Distribution of 75 per cent of production among Service purchasers. (1) Service purchasers are hereby subdivided into seven groups consisting of the following, and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors: Bureau of Ships (Navy), Bureau of Ordnance (Navy), Ordnance Department (Army), Air Services, Miscellaneous Branches and Bureaus, the Maritime Commission, and the Signal Corps. The fourth group, designated "Air Services," includes the Army Air Forces and the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors. The fifth group, designated "Miscellaneous Branches and Bureaus," includes the Quartermaster Corps, the Corps of Engineers, the Army Medical Department, the Chemical Warfare Service, the Bureau of Yards and Docks, the Marine Corps, and the Transportation Service of the Services of Supply, together with any other corps, department, bureau or service of the Army and Navy not heretofore specifically designated as a separate group, and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors.

(2) Exhibit A specifies a percentage of each type of tool which is to be delivered each month to each different group of service purchasers. The aggregate of such percentages is 75 per cent.

(3) The stated percentage for each group where applied to a producer's production of each size of a given type of tool in a specified month, establishes the "quota" for that group of that size and type during that month.

(4) During each calendar month, each producer shall deliver to each group of service purchasers the number of tools of each size of a given type which equals the quota of the group for that size and type.

(5) If a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group equal to that group's quota of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group for the balance of the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group quota of that size and type for delivery during that month. Similarly, if the producer does not have orders on hand from the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group equal to its quota, he shall schedule purchase orders received from the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group for the balance of the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group's quota.

If a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from the Bureau of Ships group plus the Bureau of Ordnance group equal to their combined quotas of a size of a given type of tool for that month, or if he does not have on hand on such date rated purchase orders from any other single group of service purchasers equal to that group's quota of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from members of other groups of service purchasers for that size and type for delivery during that month. Where members of two or more other groups have placed purchase orders aggregating more than such unordered balance of the combined quotas of the Bureau of Ships and Bureau of Ordnance, or of any other single group's quota, the producer must first schedule the purchase orders of those purchasers who are members of the group having the greatest ratio of:

(i) Unfilled purchase orders, specifying required delivery dates in said month of delivery and in preceding months, but not scheduled for delivery in said months to;

(ii) The number of tools to which said group is entitled under its quota, until that ratio has been reduced to or below the ratio of another group or groups, after which the producer shall schedule the purchase orders of members of the group or groups which then have the greatest ratio, and shall continue to schedule in this manner until the unordered balance has been entirely distributed. Where several groups have the same ratio, and there are not sufficient undistributed tools to schedule one for each group, preference shall be given to the groups having the lower percentage quotas.

(6) Likewise, if a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from foreign and other purchasers equal to 25 percent of his production of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from service purchasers for that type and size for delivery during that month, in the manner provided in paragraph (e) (5) hereof.

(7) A purchase order which has been scheduled as provided in subparagraphs (5) and (6) hereof shall represent an addition to the quota of the group of which the service purchaser in question is a member, and such purchase order shall not thereafter be affected by the receipt of a purchase order from a member of any other group, irrespective of the urgency standing of the latter.

(8) In preparing his schedules of deliveries for a given month for service purchasers, a producer shall fix the dates of his deliveries to the different groups so that each group will receive its percentage of tools equitably in point of time within the month.

(f) Distribution of 25 per cent of machine tools among foreign and other purchasers. Foreign purchasers and other purchasers shall be treated as one group, and each producer shall schedule his orders for each size of each type for delivery each month within their aggregate 25 per cent of production for that month, in accordance with the sequence of deliveries determined as hereinafter specified in paragraph (i): Provided, however, That if the purchase orders from foreign purchasers and other purchasers with any producer with required delivery dates in any one month, aggregate more than 25 per cent of his production for any size of a given type during such month, such producer shall immediately file with the War Production Board a report stating the size and type of tool, showing all such purchase orders and designating for each order the required delivery date, the name of the purchaser, or the foreign country in the case of foreign purchasers, the purpose for which the tool is to be used in the case of other purchasers and the required delivery dates. The Director General for Operations, or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him, will thereupon examine such report and issue directions as to which purchase orders shall be eliminated in order to bring the aggregate within the 25 per cent allocation, or such other directions as he may deem necessary.

(g) Treatment of fractions. Where the number of tools which results from the use of a percentage to be applied under this order contains a fraction of more than one-half, the fraction shall be counted as a whole tool. A fraction under one-half shall be disregarded, except that where the computation results in a fraction only (less than one whole tool) for any one month, and such fraction is less than one-half it shall be counted in computing the next month's quota. Where each of the computations of two or more different quotas for the same month shows a fraction of one-half, and there is only one remaining tool to which such fractions can apply, such tool shall be allotted to the group having the highest percentage quota, and the other fractions of one-half shall be disregarded for that month, but shall be counted in computing the other quota or quotas for the next month.

(h) Necessity for preference ratings. (1) Except in the case of purchase orders of foreign purchasers, no purchase order for any machine tool shall be given priority standing in production schedules, and no machine tool shall be sold or delivered, unless a preference rating of A–10 or higher has been assigned thereto by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A, by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A, by a Preference Rating Certificate in the PD–408 series, or by a Preference Rating Order No. P–19–h.

In placing the endorsement required by Priorities Regulation No. 3 on the purchase order there must also be included therein or set forth in a separate endorsement on the purchase order:

(i) The urgency standing of the purchaser, if any;

(ii) The required delivery date of the tool;

(iii) A statement as to whether the purchaser is a "Service purchaser," a "foreign purchaser," or an "other purchaser," and

(iv) In the case of Service purchasers, the Supply Arm or Bureau of the Army or Navy, or the Maritime Commission, which placed the prime contract, the number of the prime contract, and the name of the prime contractor;

(v) In the case of foreign purchasers, the foreign country for which the tool is purchased; and

(vi) In the case of other purchasers, a statement as to the product or production program for which the tool is to be used.

In addition to making the endorsement upon his purchase order as required, any person placing such an order after December 25, 1942 shall furnish to the producer a photostatic copy (or another copy accompanied by his sworn statement that it is a true copy) of the Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A, PD–3A, PD–408, or Preference Rating Order P–19–h. Reproduction of any of the foregoing preference rating certificates or orders for the foregoing purposes is hereby permitted.

(i) Operation of Numerical Master Preference List, and preference ratings. (1) All purchase orders of foreign purchasers are hereby assigned a rating of A–1–a for the purposes of this General Preference Order E–1–b. The Numerical Master Preference List. (Exhibit B)[1] attached to this order, herein called "the list" shall determine the sequence of deliveries as between service purchasers as hereinafter set forth, but shall have no effect upon foreign purchasers or other purchasers.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this order, as amended, the sequence of deliveries of machine tools among each group of service purchasers within its respective percentage quota shall be determined without regard to preference ratings as follows:

(i) Deliveries to service purchasers who are either on the list or are subcontractors of persons on the list shall be preferred to and shall take precedence over deliveries to service purchasers who are not on the list.

(ii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates to be made to two or more service purchasers, both on the list, deliveries shall be made according to their respective urgency standings specified on such list. The highest urgency standing in each group is No. 1.

(iii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates to be made to two or more service purchasers, neither of whom is on the list, the sequence of deliveries shall be determined by the respective dates on which the producer receives the photostatic or certified copy of the preference rating certificate.

The delivery for which such photostatic or certified copy was first received takes precedence except that orders received prior to December 25, 1942 shall not be rescheduled according to such rule but shall be delivered in the sequence theretofore scheduled.

(iv) A delivery to a subcontractor who is not specifically named on the list shall take the urgency standing of his prime contractor; the urgency standing of the prime contractor must be endorsed in writing on the subcontractor's preference rating certificate by an officer designated for such purpose by the supply arm or bureau concerned.

(3) The sequence of deliveries of machine tools among foreign and other purchasers within the portion of production allocated to such purchasers shall be determined as follows:

(i) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates and which bear different preference ratings, delivery shall be made according to the preference ratings of the respective purchasers.

(ii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates and which bear the same preference rating, the sequence of deliveries shall be determined by the respective dates on which the producer received the photostatic or certified copy of the preference rating certificate. The delivery for which the preference rating certificate was first received, takes precedence except that orders received prior to December 25, 1942 shall not be rescheduled according to such rule but shall be delivered in the sequence theretofore scheduled.

(j) Additions to list. Additions to, withdrawals from, and other changes may be made in the Numerical Master Preference List from time to time by the Director General for Operations or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him. Where it is desired to assign an urgency standing between existing urgency standings, the new urgency standing will consist of a number including a decimal. Such an urgency standing will take a position in the sequence of deliveries as indicated by the following example: Urgency Standing 792.1 will be scheduled after 792 and before 793.

(k) Revision of scheduled deliveries. (1) On or before June 1, 1942, with respect to machine tools designated as Group I on Exhibit A and on or before July 1, 1942, with respect to machine tools designated as Group II on Exhibit A, each producer shall revise his schedule of deliveries for each type of tool to conform to the percentage allocations and quotas of the various classes and groups of purchasers and in accordance with the sequences determined by urgency standings and preference ratings, to the extent that he can do so without seriously delaying his production line, and without postponing the date of completion of any particular tool which was 50 per cent or more completed on May 1, 1942, beyond the earliest date when such tool can be 100 per cent completed.

(2) After the date specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the producer shall make deliveries of tools in accordance with his revised schedules.

(l) Postponement of new purchase orders. Unless the Director General for Operations specifically orders otherwise, and notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, no higher preference rating or urgency standing shall operate to postpone or in any way affect any delivery under a purchase order already scheduled where such delivery, in the case of all tools whether designated as Group I or Group II on Exhibit A, is to be made within sixty days of receipt of such higher preference rating or urgency standing.

(m) Specific modifications of schedules. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, the Director General for Operations, or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him, may allocate to another purchaser, or otherwise divert, any machine tool scheduled for production and delivery pursuant to this order. Except as expressly provided in this order, no one other than the Director General for Operations or his duly authorized representative, may give directions respecting sequences of deliveries. No interpretations, instructions, or directions respecting any of the provisions of this order shall be issued without the approval of the Director General for Operations or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him; and no producer shall accept or give effect to any interpretation, instruction, or direction, which is not issued in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order, and all transactions affected thereby, are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(p) Reports and other communications. All reports which may be required to be filed, and all other communications concerning this order, should be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: E–1–b.

Issued this 26th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

INTERPRETATION 1

The term "purchase order," as used in General Preference Order E–1–b, means a firm order for a machine tool which is accompanied either by specifications or by other description of the tool in sufficient detail to enable the producer to place the tool in his production schedules. (Issued May 15, 1942)

INTERPRETATION 4

An urgency standing should not be used in connection with a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A. General Preference Order E–1–b defines as service purchasers those whose preference rating certificates or whose endorsed purchase orders show that the preference rating was assigned by an original Preference Rating Certificate PD–3, PD–3A, or PD–4, or by Preference Rating Order P–19–h. Hence, the holder of a PD–1A Certificate cannot be a service purchaser as he is excluded from the definition.

Urgency standings govern the sequence of deliveries of machine tools as between service purchasers of the same group within their respective percentage quotas. If a person seeking to procure a machine tool is not a service purchaser he cannot be a member of one of the service purchasers groups, and the urgency standing therefore has no effect upon the delivery of the tool to him. The tool must come out of the 25 percent quota assigned to foreign and other purchasers, and the sequence of its delivery will be determined solely by its required delivery date and its preference rating, in the absence of a specific direction of the Director General for Operations. PART 1001—TIN

[Supplementary Order M–43–b]

USE OF TIN IN GAS METERS

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of tin for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1001.3 Supplementary Order M–43–b.—(a) Definition. For the purpose of this order:

"Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(b) Restriction on use of tin in certain gas meters. After February 15, 1943, notwithstanding the provisions of any state statute or governmental regulation, no person shall use tin-bearing solder or other tin-bearing material in the adjustment, internal repair, or resealing of any tin-cased gas meter having a rated capacity of less than 300 cu. ft. per hour except:

(1) A meter which is found not to be accurate within an accuracy range of plus or minus 4% when tested by standard meter prover tests; or

(2) A meter which has not been previously repaired internally for twelve years or more.

The restrictions of this paragraph (b) shall not apply to any such gas meter which was withdrawn prior to January 26, 1943, for the purpose of testing and returning it to service.

(c) Appeals and communications. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. Such appeals and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Tin and Lead Division, Washington, D. C., reference: M–43–b.

PART 1052—KITCHEN, HOUSEHOLD AND OTHER MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES

[Supplementary Limitation Order L–30–d as Amended Jan. 26, 1943]

MISCELLANEOUS COOKING UTENSILS AND OTHER ARTICLES

§ 1052.5 Supplementary Limitation Order L–30–d.—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Preferred order" means a purchase order, contract or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(2) "Miscellaneous cooking utensil" means any utensil containing more than 7½%, by weight, of metal, which is designed primarily for use in the preparation or cooking of food, whether for household, institutional, commercial, governmental or any other purpose, including but not limited to, glass and ceramic flameware, but excluding any utensil the production of which is governed by Supplementary Limitation Orders L–30–b or L–30–c, or expressly exempted from the provisions of those orders when produced pursuant to preferred orders.

(3) "Kitchen tools" means articles containing more than 5%, by weight, of metal, commonly known as kitchen tools, including, but not limited to, can openers, jar openers, bottle openers, strainers, flour sifters, food whips, food mills, dippers, scoops, choppers, slicers, corers, mashers, shapers, beaters, graters, grinders, cutters, sieves, cake turners, basting spoons, cork screws and skewers, but excluding cutlery (which is governed by Limitation Order L–140), electrical appliances (which are governed by Limitation Order L–65), gas appliances and power-driven equipment.

(4) "Household storage articles" means articles containing more than 5%, by weight, of metal, designed for the storage of food or household supplies, including but not limited to, vegetable bins, canisters, spice sets, cake covers or safes, holders for salt, soap or cleanser cartons, step-on cans, lunch boxes, vacuum jugs and bottles, and window boxes for the storage of food, but excluding:

(i) Pails, buckets and tubs;

(ii) Containers designed for the packing, shipment or delivery of materials or products of any kind, including but not limited to, cans as defined in Conservation Orders M–81 or M–136, glass containers or closures as defined in Limitation Order L–103, and drums as defined in Limitation Order L–197; and

(iii) Articles the production of which is governed by Supplementary Limitation Orders L–30–a, L–30–b or L–30–c, or expressly exempted from the provisions of those orders when produced pursuant to preferred orders.

(5) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of producing or assembling any miscellaneous cooking utensils, kitchen tools, household storage articles or any other products covered by this order, or any parts (including repair parts) for such utensils, kitchen tools, storage articles or products.

(6) "Put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which it is received by him.

(7) "Base period" means the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(8) "Black steel" means uncoated, polished or lacquered carbon steel. It does not include any steel which has a metal or vitreous-enameled coating.

(9) "Joining hardware" means nuts, screws, nails, bolts, clasps, rivets and other similar items of small hardware used for joining or other similar purposes.

(10) "Repair part" means any part for an article or product which is not produced for or used in a new article or product.

(b) Prohibition on production of miscellaneous articles. (1) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the kitchen, household and other miscellaneous articles listed on Schedule A attached to this Order (whether manufactured for household or for any other purpose), or parts for such articles (including repair parts), except for the minimum amount of iron and steel (not to exceed 5% of the weight of the article) contained in necessary joining hardware.

(2) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the production of clothes wringers (other than wringers which are integral parts of power-driven laundry equipment as covered by Limitation Orders L–6 and L–91) except that hand clothes wringers which weigh 18 pounds or less each and contain 50% or less of metal by weight may be produced, provided that during the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, no manufacturer shall put into process

(i) In the production of such wringers more than three times 30% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel by weight put into process by him during the base period in the production of such wringers and parts therefor;

(ii) In the production of repair parts for such wringers more than three times 5% of the iron and steel put into process by him during the base period in the production of such wringers and parts therefor.

(c) Restrictions on miscellaneous cooking utensils. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the production of any miscellaneous cooking utensils containing 20% or more of metal, by weight, or parts for such utensils, except

(i) Black steel frying pans having a bottom diameter of from 8 to 12 inches, inclusive;

(ii) Black steel heavy-duty roast pans without covers, having a capacity of from 675 cubic inches to 2600 cubic inches, inclusive, and having two or three reinforcing straps and wired edges; and

(iii) Black steel or tinned utensils, including liquid and dry measures, (other than black steel frying pans or heavy-duty roast pans), or stamped bakery equipment, when such utensils or equipment are produced pursuant to preferred orders.

(2) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, no manufacturer shall put into process more iron and steel, by weight, in the production of

(i) Black steel frying pans than three times 50% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of black steel frying pans;

(ii) Black steel heavy-duty roast pans than three times 35% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of black steel heavy-duty roast pans;

(iii) Miscellaneous cooking utensils containing more than 7½%, but less than 20%, of metal, by weight, and parts for such utensils (other than repair parts) than three times 100% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such cooking utensils and parts (including repair parts); or

(iv) Repair parts for miscellaneous cooking utensils containing more than 7½%, but less than 20%, of metal, by weight, than three times 5% of the monthly average amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such cooking utensils and parts for such utensils (including repair parts).

(d) Restrictions on kitchen tools. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the production of any kitchen tools, except

(i) The following kitchen tools:

Basting spoons, 14 to 21 inches, inclusive, in overall length.
Cake turners, 13 to 21 inches, inclusive, in overall length.
Can openers.
Egg beaters, rotary type, 10 inches or longer, including handle.
Food choppers and grinders.
Food mills.
Wire strainers.
Wire whips, commercial type, 12 inches or longer.

(ii) The following kitchen tools in fulfillment of preferred orders only:

Butter cutters.
Dippers.
French fry cutters.
Nutmeg graters.
Skimmers.
Sugar and flour scoops.
Vegetable graters.

(iii) Any other kitchen tool in fulfillment of preferred orders for use on board ship only.

(2) Except in fulfillment of preferred orders for use on board ship, during the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, no manufacturer shall put into process more iron and steel, by weight, in the production of

(i) Any kitchen tool listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (d), and parts for such tool (other than repair parts) than three times 35% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such kitchen tool and parts for such tool (including repair parts); or

(ii) Repair parts for any kitchen tool than three times 5% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such kitchen tool or parts for such tool (including repair parts).

(e) Restrictions on household storage articles. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron, steel or other metal for use in the production of any household storage articles, except vacuum bottles with a capacity of one quart or less and, pursuant to preferred orders, vacuum bottles and jugs with a capacity of more than one quart.

(2) During the period of three months beginning January 1, 1943, and during each succeeding period of three months, no manufacturer shall put into process more iron and steel, by weight, in the production of vacuum bottles with a capacity of one quart or less than three times 50% of the average monthly amount of iron and steel, by weight, put into process by him during the base period in the production of such vacuum bottles.

(f) Restrictions on pails, buckets and tubs. Except as provided in paragraph (g), on and after November 23, 1942, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any iron or steel for use in the production of any pails, buckets or tubs, except

(1) Pails or tubs designed expressly for use as packing or shipping containers;

(2) Pails or tubs which contain iron or steel only in hoops, bails, ears, handles and joining hardware, provided that the total weight of such iron and steel does not exceed 15% of the total weight of the pail or tub, and further provided that any such pail, or any such tub with a capacity of less than 15 gallons, does not have more than two hoops containing iron or steel;

(3) Dairy pails;

(4) Pails, buckets or tubs when made of black steel and produced pursuant to preferred orders; and

(5) Pails, buckets or tubs the production of which is governed by Supplementary Limitation Orders L–30–a or L–30–b, or expressly exempted from the provisions of those orders when produced pursuant to preferred orders.

(g) Exceptions. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (b) (2), (c) (1), (d) (1), (e) (1) and (f), a manufacturer may complete the fabrication and assembly of any article included in such paragraphs from iron or steel which, on November 17, 1942, had been cut, blanked or otherwise formed to size for such article by him or by any other person, provided that such article is completed on or before December 31, 1942, except for the application of a coating or finish or the attaching of handles, bails or ears, which may be done thereafter.

(h) Applicability of other orders. The provisions of this order shall supersede the provisions of Limitation Order L–30 in respect to all articles the production of which is governed by this order. In so far as any other order restricts the use of any material in the production of any articles to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(i) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(j) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order should be made on Form PD–500, directed to the War Production Board, Consumers' Durable Goods Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–30–d.

(k) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No manufacturer shall accumulate for use in the manufacture of articles the production of which is governed by this order, inventories of raw materials, semi-processed materials, or finished parts in quantities in excess of the minimum amount necessary to maintain production permitted by this order.

(l) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve, for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(m) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(n) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(o) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(p) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers' Durable Goods Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: L–30–d.

Issued this 26th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE A

The following articles are subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) of Order L–30–d, except for any such articles the production of which is governed by Supplementary Limitation Orders L–30–a or L–30–b, or expressly exempted from the provisions of those orders when produced pursuant to preferred orders:

Cake coolers.
Camp grids.
Candlesticks.
Carpet beaters.
Carpet sweepers.
Closet accessories, including, but not limited to, coat and garment hangers and hooks, tie racks and boot and shoe trees (except (a) coat hangers containing iron and steel in hooks only in fulfillment of preferred orders for use on board ship, and (b) garment bags containing iron and steel in hooks only).
Clothes pins.
Concrete garbage receptacles containing more than 5%, by weight, of metal, exclusive of the weight of separate bases or blocks.
Cup frames.
Curtain rods and fixtures and drapery attachments (except curtain rods and drapery hooks containing iron and steel in fulfillment of preferred orders for use on board ship).
Cuspidors and spittoons.
*Dish pans (except black steel dish pans in fulfillment of preferred orders).
*Dust pans, silent butlers and crumb sets.
Fire place equipment, all articles of.
Fly swatters.
*Funnels (except in fulfillment of preferred orders when constructed in accordance with Chemical Warfare Service Drawings Nos. B–18–41–2, revised January 27, 1942, E–81–5–6, dated September 11, 1941, or E–18–41–1, revised November 22, 1941, or any subsequent drawings designed for Chemical Warfare Service needs).
Picnic stoves.
Pot cover holders.
Pot chains.
*Sink accessories, including but not limited to, sink drainers, dish drainers, rinsing pans and pot scourers.
Soap dishes and soap savers.
Toilet paper holders (except when containing iron and steel in fulfillment of preferred orders for use on board ship) and other paper holders.
Tooth brush holders.
Towel bars and racks (except when containing iron and steel in fulfillment of preferred orders for use on board ship).
*Wash boards.

*The provisions of Order L–30–d do not prohibit a manufacturer from applying a coating or finish or from attaching handles, bails or ears to any of the articles marked with an asterisk which were otherwise completed on or before December 31, 1942.

PART 1153—FLUORESCENT LIGHTING FIXTURES

[Limitation Order L–78, as Amended Jan. 26, 1943]

Section 1153.1 General Limitation Order L–78 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1153.1 General Limitation Order L–78—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Fluorescent lighting fixture" means any equipment employing, or used in connection with an electric light source (but excluding an incandescent light source) in which (i) visible light for illuminating purposes is produced by the passage of electric current through vaporized mercury, or (ii) visible light, for illuminating purposes is produced due to the effects of ultra-violet radiation on substances exposed to such radiation, including, but not limited to the following: (a) a hot cathode fluorescent lighting fixture, (b) a cold cathode fluorescent lighting fixture, (c) a rectified fluorescent lighting fixture, (d) a Cooper-Hewitt type fixture, (e) a Mercury type fixture, and (f) a portable fluorescent lighting fixture known as a mechanic's lamp, and any other portable fluorescent lighting fixture designed for use in conjunction with any industrial machine, tool, assembly bench or other similar factory equipment.

"Fluorescent lighting fixture" does not include any tube, bulb, or replaceable fluorescent starter, or portable lamp, commonly known as bed lamps, floor lamps, wall lamps, table lamps and desk lamps.

(2) "Industrial fluorescent lighting fixture" means a fluorescent lighting fixture which fixture is designed and constructed to illuminate an area of a factory, workshop or similar plant in which area manufacturing, assembling or other industrial functions are performed. For the purpose of this order an office or a drafting room is not an area in which manufacturing, assembling or other industrial functions are performed.

(3) "Non-industrial fluorescent lighting fixture" means any fluorescent lighting fixture other than an industrial fluorescent lighting fixture.

(4) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to the continued and safe operation of any fluorescent lighting fixture.

(5) "Repair" means the restoration of any fluorescent lighting fixture to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of any part has made it unfit or unsafe for service.

(6) "Put in process" means the act by which a person first changes the form of material from that form in which it was received by him.

(7) "Reflector" means that part of a fluorescent lighting fixture which redirects the light emitted from the tube, bulb, tubes or bulbs in such fixture in a desired direction. Reflector does not include a wiring channel, wireway, raceway, or any locknuts, screws, bolts, washers or other devices for the purpose of connecting a reflector to such channel, wireway or raceway.

(8) "Top-housing" means a wiring channel, wireway or raceway specifically designed and constructed to support or hold any of the following component parts of a fluorescent lighting fixture, the ballast, the transformer, sockets, or reflector.

(b) Restrictions—(1) Manufacture. Notwithstanding any contract or agreement to the contrary, no person shall manufacture or assemble any fluorescent lighting fixture or any component part of any fluorescent lighting fixture, except:

(i) A fluorescent lighting fixture, other than a rectified fluorescent lighting fixture, or any component part of any fluorescent lighting fixture manufactured or assembled from:

(a) Materials which were acquired by him pursuant to orders or contracts bearing a preference rating of A–1–j or better, or bearing any preference rating assigned under the Production Requirements Plan, provided that copper, copper base alloy or copper products shall be used in accordance with the limitations established by General Conservation Order M–9–c; and provided further, however, that a non-industrial fluorescent lighting fixture may only be manufactured or assembled from such materials upon written authorization from the Director General for Operations; or

(b) Materials which have been put in process to manufacture fluorescent lighting fixtures and which materials were in his possession on April 20, 1942, pursuant to orders placed by him on or before April 2, 1942, provided that copper, copper base alloy or copper products shall be used in accordance with the limitations established by General Conservation Order M–9–c.

(c) Component parts of a fluorescent lighting fixture acquired by him from a person having possession of such component parts on April 20, 1942, pursuant to an order placed by such person having such physical possession on or before April 2, 1942.

(ii) Any component part of a rectified fluorescent lighting fixture, provided that such part is used for purposes of maintenance and repair and that copper, copper base alloy or copper products used in the manufacture or assembly of such component part shall be in accordance with the limitations established by General Conservation Order M–9–c.

(2) Manufacture of reflectors for industrial fluorescent lighting fixtures. No person shall manufacture or assemble for an industrial fluorescent lighting fixture a reflector containing any metal except:

(i) For use with a fluorescent lighting fixture of the type set forth in paragraph (a) (1) (ii) (f), or

(ii) For use with a fluorescent lighting fixture designed and constructed for the operation of a 400 watt or a 3,000 watt mercury vapor tube, bulb, tubes or bulbs, or

(iii) For use with a fluorescent lighting fixture employing a hot or cold cathode tube, bulb, tubes or bulbs, provided such fixture is specifically designed and constructed for use in hazardous locations as defined in paragraphs 5005 and 5006 of Article 500 of the National Electrical Code, 1940 Edition; or

(iv) To fill a specific purchase order or contract of the Navy of the United States for such reflector to be used on board a ship.

(3) On and after the 9th day of February 1943, no person, without specific authorization of the Director General for Operations, shall put in process any metal to close the end of a reflector or to be used in a shield, louver or baffle of a fluorescent lighting fixture except in the minimum amount required to join, attach or fasten such end, shield, louver or baffle to such fixture. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply or control the manufacture or assembly of a fluorescent lighting fixture employing a hot or cold cathode tube, bulb, tubes or bulbs, provided such fixture is specifically designed and constructed for use in hazardous locations as defined in paragraphs 5005 and 5006 of Article 500 of the National Electrical Code, 1940 Edition, or the manufacture or assembly of a fluorescent lighting fixture designed and constructed for the operation of a 400 watt or a 3000 watt mercury vapor tube, bulb, tubes or bulbs.

(4) On and after the 4th day of May 1943, no person shall put in process any ferrous metal for the manufacture of a fluorescent lighting fixture employing a hot cathode tube, bulb, tubes or bulbs, which fixture, exclusive of ballast, hanging or suspension devices, contains:

(i) More than three (3) pounds of ferrous metal and which fixture is designed and constructed for two or three 40 watt hot cathode tubes or bulbs; or

(ii) More than four (4) pounds of ferrous metal and which fixture is designed and constructed for two 100 watt hot cathode tubes or bulbs; or

(iii) More than three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) pounds of ferrous metal for each four linear feet of fluorescent lighting fixture (including top-housing) designed and constructed for two or three continuous parallel rows of 40 watt hot cathode tubes or bulbs; or

(iv) More than four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) pounds of ferrous metal for each five linear feet of fluorescent lighting fixture (including top-housing) designed and constructed for two parallel continuous rows of 100 watt hot cathode tubes or bulbs.

(5) Sale and delivery. Notwithstanding any contract or agreement to the contrary, no person shall sell or deliver any new fluorescent lighting fixture (that is any fluorescent lighting fixture which has never been used by an ultimate consumer) or any new component part of any fluorescent lighting fixture, except that:

(i) A person who regularly in the course of his business sells fluorescent lighting fixtures or component parts of fluorescent lighting fixtures, may sell and deliver:

(a) Any such fixture or component part to a manufacturer or assembler of fluorescent lighting fixtures, or to any other person who regularly in the course of his business sells fluorescent lighting fixtures or component parts thereof, but only for resale of such fixture, component part or component parts assembled by such other person into a fluorescent lighting fixture; or

(b) Any such fixture to any of the following governmental departments or agencies or to any person buying for the account of such departments or agencies: Maritime Commission, Navy Department, War Department, Metals Reserve Company, War Shipping Administration or any corporation organized under Section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended;

(ii) And any person may:

(a) Sell and deliver, pursuant to an order or contract bearing a preference rating of B–2 or better, a fluorescent lighting fixture, providing such fixture was manufactured on or before June 1, 1942, or was manufactured or assembled in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) (i) (b) and/or (c) of this order.

(b) Sell and deliver a fluorescent lighting fixture manufactured or assembled subsequent to June 1, 1942, pursuant to an order or contract bearing a preference rating of A–1–j or better;

(c) Sell and deliver any component part of any fluorescent lighting fixture, pursuant to an order or contract bearing a preference rating of A–1–j or better, or bearing any preference rating assigned under the Production Requirements Plan

(d) Sell and deliver a hot cathode fluorescent lighting fixture designed and constructed for the operation of a tube, bulb, tubes or bulbs, no individual tube or bulb to have a rated wattage in excess of 30 watts, which fixture is manufactured or assembled in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) (i) (b) and/or (c) of this order.

(e) Sell and deliver a cold cathode fluorescent lighting fixture which fixture is manufactured or assembled in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) (i) (b) and/or (b) (1) (i) (c) of this order.

(f) Sell and deliver any component part of any fluorescent lighting fixture: Provided, That such person is engaged in the business of the manufacture and assembly of fluorescent lighting fixtures, and that the person purchasing or receiving such fixture is also engaged in the same business, and any such sale and delivery shall be deemed to be permitted under the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13;

(g) Sell and deliver any component part of any fluorescent lighting fixture which is sold or delivered for the purposes of maintenance or repair;

(h) Deliver a fluorescent lighting fixture or any component part of any fluorescent lighting fixture to be used solely for purposes of demonstration, test or storage of such fluorescent lighting fixture or component part thereof; and a person having title to a fluorescent lighting fixture or component part thereof may deliver such fluorescent lighting fixture or component part thereof from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of such enterprise.

(j) Sell and deliver upon authorization of the Director General for Operations, fluorescent lighting fixtures reported by such person on Form PD–499 to be in his inventory as of June 2, 1942 (said form having been received by the War Production Board on or before August 1, 1942): Provided, That on such form the type of operation of such person was declared to be that of retailer: And provided further, That he shall make application to the War Production Board on Form PD–556 for permission to make such sale and delivery.

(c) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No person shall accumulate an inventory of any material (whether raw, semi-processed or processed) for manufacture into any fluorescent lighting fixture in excess of the minimum amount of such material necessary to maintain production of fluorescent lighting fixtures to the extent permitted by this order.

(d) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two (2) years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(e) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(f) Reports. Each person to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board.

(i) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order as amended and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(j) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued by the Director General for Operations, or to be issued by him hereafter, limits the use of any material to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern, unless otherwise specified therein.

(k) Routing of correspondence. Reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Building Materials Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–78.

PART 3046—LOW PRESSURE CAST IRON BOILERS

[Limitation Order L–187 as Amended Jan. 26, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of metals for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3046.1 General Limitation Order L–187—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Low pressure cast iron boiler" means any boiler designed for the purpose of heating water so as to provide heat for the interior of a building by means of circulating steam or hot water, which boiler:

(i) Operates at a maximum working pressure not exceeding fifteen pounds per square inch of steam pressure or thirty pounds per square inch of water pressure, and

(ii) Is composed preponderantly of cast iron.

(2) "Parts" includes all materials used as repair parts for low pressure cast iron boilers.

(3) "Military low pressure cast iron boiler" means any low pressure cast iron boiler which is manufactured for delivery to or for the account of the Army, Navy, War Shipping Administration or the Maritime Commission of the United States or the Defense Plant Corporation.

(4) "War housing low pressure cast iron boiler" means any low pressure cast iron boiler which is manufactured on a specific contract or order for use in a building rated under Preference Rating Order P–55, P–110, or any order in the P–19 series.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No person shall manufacture, fabricate or assemble any low pressure cast iron boiler, and no person shall manufacture or fabricate any component parts of such boilers, except that:

(i) The manufacture, fabrication or assembly of military or war housing low pressure cast iron boilers built to use solid fuel, or of low pressure cast iron boilers built to use solid fuel for use in a hospital constructed, to be constructed or under construction, may be specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations on Form PD–704; and

(ii) During each of the first two calendar quarters of 1943, any manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers may manufacture or fabricate such component parts as he can manufacture or fabricate by using an aggregate weight of iron and steel not in excess of $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the total weight of iron and steel which he put into process in the manufacture or fabrication of such component parts during the calendar year 1940; and

(iii) Any manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers may, in addition, manufacture or fabricate such component parts as may be necessary to replace in his inventory component parts manufactured pursuant to (ii) above which were used to manufacture low pressure cast iron boilers pursuant to (i) above; and

(iv) Any manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers who shall not have used the weight of iron and steel permitted under (ii) and (iii) above, or any portion thereof, during the first calendar quarter, may use that weight or such unused portion during the second calendar quarter of 1943; and

(v) Any person may assemble such boilers shipped or to be shipped in accordance with paragraphs (2) (ii) and (iii) below.

(2) No manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers may ship any low pressure cast iron boilers built to use solid fuel, whether assembled or in sets of component parts, except that:

(i) Any such manufacturer may ship any such boilers authorized under paragraph (b) (1) (i); and

(ii) Any such manufacturer may ship in each of the first two calendar quarters of 1943 a number of such boilers the total weight of iron and steel of which will not exceed $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the weight of iron and steel which he put into process in the manufacture, fabrication or assembly of component parts of low pressure cast iron boilers during the calendar year 1940; and

(iii) Any such manufacturer who shall not have shipped in any calendar quarter boilers permitted under (ii) above may ship those boilers or any unshipped number thereof during any succeeding calendar quarter of 1943.

(c) Manufacture of conversion parts. Nothing in this order shall restrict the use of iron and steel in the manufacture of parts designed for converting low pressure cast iron boilers to solid fuel burning from oil or gas burning.

(d) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No person shall accumulate, for use in the manufacture of low pressure cast iron boilers, inventories of any materials (whether raw, semi-processed or processed) in the excess of the minimum amounts necessary to maintain production at the rates permitted by this order.

(e) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(f) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(g) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board on or before the tenth day of each calendar month a report on Form PD-639, and shall keep a copy of such monthly report in their own files for a period not less than two years.

(h) Violations and false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(j) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(k) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued by the Director General for Operations, or to be issued by him hereafter, limits the use of any material to a greater extent than the limitations imposed by this order, the restriction of such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(l) Communications. All reports, to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this order, shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: L-187.

Issued this 26th day of January 1943.

PART 3072—PLUMBING & HEATING TANKS

[Interpretation 1 of General Limitation Order L-199]

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the Director General for Operations with respect to § 3072.1 General Limitation Order L-199:

Paragraph (b) (6) of General Limitation Order L-199 Plumbing and Heating Tanks reads as follows:

"(6) No person shall install any copper, copper base alloy, nonferrous metal, stainless steel, or monel metal tank unless such tank is for use as part of the equipment of any aircraft or vessel other than a pleasure craft."

This provision does not limit the installation of underfired storage water heaters containing tanks made of the metals specified, if the heaters were assembled prior to December 19, 1942. The manufacture of such underfired storage water heaters is covered by General Limitation Order L-185, and the latter order does not prohibit the installation of heaters already assembled on December 19, 1942.

Accordingly, distributors who have inventories of these heaters in which the tanks were installed prior to December 19, 1942, may dispose of them, and they may be installed, without regard to the provisions of General Limitation Order L-199.

Issued this 26th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3139—ASPHALT AND TARRED ROOFING PRODUCTS AND ASPHALT SHINGLES

[General Limitation Order L-228 as Amended Jan. 26, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a situation which will result in a shortage in the supply of materials and facilities used in the manufacture of asphalt and tarred roofing products and asphalt shingles for defense, for private account and for export, unless raw material, transportation facilities and manpower are conserved through the simplification and reductions of types of these products and shingles; and for those purposes the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national war effort.

(1) "Asphalt and tarred roofing products" means dry felt made of organic fiber impregnated with bitumen, designed and constructed to be applied to the exterior surface of a building or structure for the purpose of weatherproofing such surface. Asphalt and tarred roofing products may be coated with a more viscous bitumen than that used in impregnating the dry felt and may be surfaced with granular material such as, but not limited to, crushed rock, slate or quartz.

(2) "Asphalt shingles" means dry felt manufactured from organic fiber, impregnated with asphalt, coated with a more viscous asphalt than that used in the impregnation of such felt, and may be surfaced with granular material such as, but not limited to, crushed rock, slate, or quartz, which dry felt so treated is designed and shaped for application in the form of shingles to the exterior surface of a building or structure for the purpose of weatherproofing such surface.

(b) General restrictions. On and after the first day of January 1943 no person shall manufacture, fabricate, or process any asphalt and tarred roofing products or asphalt shingles except such as conform to the schedule of types, sizes and forms listed on Exhibit "A" hereto attached or as are specifically permitted by the terms of said Exhibit "A".

(c) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(d) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection, by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of appeal.

(h) Communications. Reports to be filed and all other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington, D. C., Ref. L-228.

Issued this 26th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

* Maximum.
[b] Optional.
[c] Dry felt weight not limited on this item.
[1] Represents approximate shipping weight, except where "Max." weight is stipulated, in which cases the figure designates the maximum weight permissible. The "Finished weight" includes packaging materials, and fixtures in the case of "Smooth finish roll-roofings" (all four types) and "Mineral surfaced roll-roofing" (Type 1 only.)
[2] Represents approximate area furnished in conformity with the given "Finished weight," except where "Max." area is stipulated, in which cases the figure designates the maximum area permissible.
[3] Represents the minimum weight in pounds per 480 sq. ft. of moisture-free felt
[4] Only one type and grade permissible; exterior finish optional.
[5] Nature, color and finish of "Mineral surfaced roll-roofings", "Asphalt sidings" and "Asphalt shingles" to be optional.
[6] May be made in any or all of the following varitions: (a) no selvage edge, (b) with 2" selvage edge; (c) with 4" selvage edge with sufficient area to cover 100 sq. ft.
[7] Coated on both sides and surfaced on one side with talc or other dusting finish.
[8] Manufacture of accessories for completing application, such as hip and ridge shingles, starter, valley or ridge strips, and corner pieces and soldier course for sidings, is permitted.
[9] Hexagonal strip shingle may be manufactured at each plant with either two or three tabs (but not both).

PART 3188—URANIUM

[Conservation Order M-285]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of uranium for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3188.1 Conservation Order M-285—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

"Uranium and uranium compounds" means uranium metal, uranium salts and other chemical compounds, and any alloy or mixture containing 1/10 of 1 per cent or more uranium by weight, including crude ores and residues and matte.

(b) Restrictions on sale and delivery. On and after January 26, 1943 no person shall sell or deliver (including deliveries under toll agreement) uranium or uranium compounds for use in the manufacture or decoration of glass, glassware, pottery, tile, or other ceramic product.

(c) Restrictions on purchase and receipt. On and after January 26, 1943, no person shall purchase or receive (including receipts under toll agreements) uranium or uranium compounds for use in the manufacture or decoration of glass, glassware, pottery, tile, or other ceramic product.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Reports. Every person affected by this order shall file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time prescribe.

(2) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(3) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(4) Routing of communications. All reports to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Miscellaneous Minerals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-285.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 3191—AIRCRAFT

[General Limitation Order L-262]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account, and for export, of aircraft; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3191.1 General Limitation Order L-262—(a) Restrictions on transfer of link trainers and certain aircraft. No single-engined aircraft of five hundred horsepower or less, nor any "link trainer", nor any interest therein, shall be sold, leased, traded, rented, given or delivered by any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation or any organized group of persons (whether incorporated or not), exclusive, however, of the Army or Navy of the United States, any United States Governmental agency, any air carrier holding a certificate of necessity from the Civil Aeronautics Board, or any manufacturer of aircraft, except pursuant to specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(b) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order, and all transactions affected thereby, are subject to the provisions of priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(c) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time prescribe.

(d) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priorities control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(e) Communications. All reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to War Production Board, Aircraft Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L-262.

PART 1340—FUEL

[RPS 88,[1] Amendment 62]

PETROLEUM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1340.159 (c) (6) subdivisions (iv), (v) and (vi) are revoked and a new subdivision (x) is added as set forth below:

§ 1340.159 Appendix A: Maximum prices for petroleum and petroleum products. • • •

(c) Specific prices. • • •

(6) Residual fuel oils. • • •

(x) The maximum prices of residual fuel oils and blends thereof with distillate fuel oils of the A. P. I. gravity ranges hereafter set forth for sales in bulk lots f. o. b. refineries in the areas hereafter enumerated, exclusive of taxes, shall be as follows:

[Dollars per 42-gallon barrel]

A. P. I. gravity range	Area A [1]	Area B [2]	Area C [3]
9.9 and below	0.85	0.80	0.71
10.0–12.9	.90	.85	.85
13.0–16.9	1.02	.97	.97
17.0–20.9	1.14	1.09	1.09
21.0–24.9	1.26	1.21	1.21
25.0 and above	1.32	1.27	1.27

[1] Area A comprises Kansas, excluding, however, refineries located within a radius of 25 miles of Kansas City, Mo.

[2] Area B comprises Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana (excluding, however, Gulf Coast ports and Mississippi River ports up to and including Baton Rouge), Texas (excluding, however, Gulf Coast ports and Panhandle which is defined hereby as the portion of Texas north of the southern boundaries of the counties of Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, and Childress).

[3] Area C comprises New Mexico and Texas Panhandle which is defined hereby as the portion of Texas north of the southern boundaries of the counties of Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall and Childress).

(jjj) Amendment No. 62 (§ 1340.159 (c) (6) (x)) to Revised Price Schedule No. 83 shall become effective January 25, 1943.

PART 1340—FUEL

[Rev. MPR 122,[1] Amendment 1]

SOLID FUELS SOLD AND DELIVERED BY DEALERS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, filed with the Division of the Federal Register,* has been issued simultaneously herewith.

Section 1340.260 is amended to read as set forth below:

§ 1340.260 Provision for specific ceiling prices. The Office of Price Administration, or any regional office thereof, may by order establish specific maximum prices in line with those established by this regulation for sales of solid fuels by a dealer or group of dealers in any area or locality.

However, in particular cases, the specific maximum prices established under this section may be such as to restore the December 1941 margins over delivered cost generally prevailing in the area or locality.

This amendment shall become effective January 25, 1943.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 237,[1] Amendment 8]

ADJUSTED AND FIXED MARK-UP REGULATION FOR SALES OF CERTAIN FOOD PRODUCTS AT WHOLESALE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The table in Appendix A, § 1351.518 is amended so that the date opposite the food products, "Vegetables, canned" under the column entitled "Last date for determining new maximum prices under this regulation" shall read "February 10, 1943," instead of "December 31, 1942," as it now reads.

The table in Appendix A, § 1351.518 is amended so that the date opposite the food product "Vegetables, canned" under the column entitled "Last date for filing new maximum prices with appropriate OPA District or State Offices" shall read "February 20, 1943", instead of "January 10, 1943," as it now reads.

The table in Appendix B, § 1351.519 is amended so that the dates opposite the food products "Fruit, dried", "Lard" and "Dry edible beans" under the column entitled "Last date for determining new maximum prices under this regulation" shall read "February 10, 1943" instead of "December 31, 1942", as it now reads for "Fruit, dried", and "Dry edible beans" and instead of "November 30, 1942" as it now reads for "Lard", and shall read "March 10, 1943" instead of "February 10, 1943" as it now reads for "Flour and flour mixes".

The table in Appendix B, § 1351.519 is amended so that the "Last date for filing new maximum prices with appropriate OPA District or State Offices", shall read "February 20, 1943" instead of "January 10, 1943," as it now reads for "Fruit, dried" and "Dry edible beans", and instead of "December 10, 1942" as it now reads for "Lard", and shall read "March 20, 1943" instead of "February 20, 1943" as it now reads for "Flour and flour mixes".

(h) Amendment No. 8 (§§ 1351.518 and 1351.519) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 237 shall become effective on January 25, 1943.

(i) Materials of less than 40 titre shall be deemed greases and shall be priced only on the basis of the maximum prices set forth above for greases; and materials of more than 39.9 titre shall be deemed tallows and shall be priced only on the basis of the maximum prices set forth above for tallows.

(ii) Each type or grade of tallow or grease must be designated by the name customarily applied to it by the trade prior to August 1, 1942, and must be priced on the basis of the specifications prescribed in this subparagraph (15) for such type or grade.

(iii) The usual or normal differentials for grades, or grades with specifications other than those listed above, shall continue to apply. Bleaching qualities of any material, however, do not constitute any better grade, and do not justify any premium.

(iv) When shipped in less than carload lots, the usual or normal premium shall continue to apply.

(v) The maximum prices of imported tallows and greases, with duties and taxes paid, f. o. b. port of entry, shall be the maximum prices set forth above for the nearest domestic grade at the producer's plant.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 4 to Supp. Reg. 15[1] to GMPR [2]]

SERVICES OF CARRIER OTHER THAN COMMON CARRIER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The text of subparagraph (3) and subdivisions (3) (i) and (3) (ii) of § 1499.75 (a) are amended and a new paragraph (c) is added to § 1499.75 to read as set forth below:

(3) Services of carrier other than common carrier and storage and terminal services. Any person supplying service as a carrier, or any person supplying storage or terminal service, may apply for adjustment of the maximum price established for him under the General Maximum Price Regulation. Such application shall show: (i) that such maximum price subjects him to substantial hardship; and (ii) that the adjustment requested is necessary to permit the continuance of an essential service for which there is no adequate substitute available at a price equal to or lower than the maximum price requested.

Applications for adjustment shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration in the region in which the service or services involved in the application are performed except that where an applicant supplies service in more than one region, or supplies service in interstate commerce as a carrier other than a common carrier, an application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

A list of the regional offices with an enumeration of the states included in each region is set forth in Appendix A, (c), to this regulation.

Applications for adjustment under this subparagraph (3) shall contain the following information: • • •

(b) Effective dates. • • •

(5) Amendment 4 (§ 1499.75) to Supplementary Regulation No. 15 shall become effective January 30, 1943.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 15]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In paragraph (b) of § 1394.8011 and in paragraphs (a) and (b) of §1394.8105, the words "and (e)" are inserted after the numeral "8161 (d)"; paragraph (d) of § 1394.8161 is amended; a new paragraph (e) is added to § 1394.8161, and a new paragraph (o) is added to § 1394.-8352, as set forth below:

Prohibited Acts

§ 1394.8161 General restrictions on use. • • •

(d) No person to whom a Basic ration has been issued may use or permit the use of such ration for any driving in the gasoline shortage area other than: (1) family or personal necessity driving for which no adequate alternative means of transportation are available, or, (2) occupational driving, or, (3) driving by naval or military personnel on leave or furlough, evidenced by duly issued leave or furlough authorization, for the purpose of visiting relatives or making social calls. Family or personal necessity driving shall be deemed to include (but shall not be limited to): driving for the purpose of essential shopping, procuring medical attention, attending religious services, attending funerals; or for the purpose of attending meetings of groups or organizations directly concerned with the occupation or profession of the person using the vehicle, if such attendance is essential to or a part of the occupation or profession of such person; or driving for the purpose of meeting an emergency involving a threat to life, health, or property, or for receiving instruction or training in meeting or preparing to meet such emergencies. No Basic ration may be used for non-essential or for pleasure driving, which shall include (but shall not be limited to): driving for the purpose of attending places of amusement, recreation or entertainment (such as theaters, amusement parks, concerts, dances, golf courses, skating rinks, bowling alleys or night clubs) or sporting or athletic events (such as races or games) or social club meetings, or for sightseeing, touring or vacation travel, or for making social calls, except that naval or military personnel on leave or furlough evidenced as specified above may use such a ration for the purpose of visiting relatives or making social calls.

(e) No person to whom a non-highway ration has been issued for use with a motorboat or outboard motor for a non-occupational purpose, may use or permit the use of such ration for the operation of any boat in the gasoline shortage area other than for (1) family or personal necessity purposes for which no adequate alternative means of transportation are available, or (2) travel by naval or military personnel on leave or furlough, evidenced by duly issued leave or furlough authorization, for the purpose of visiting relatives or making social calls. Family or personal necessity purposes shall include (but shall not be limited to) the purposes for which driving is permitted by paragraph (d) of this section and procuring and transporting essential food and supplies. No such ration may be used for non-essential or pleasure travel which shall include (but shall not be limited to) the purposes for which driving is prohibited by paragraph (d) of this section and pleasure cruising, guiding pleasure parties, and fishing, other than to procure fish as necessary food or for sale or processing: Provided, That if a boat is not otherwise operated, nothing in this paragraph shall restrict the use of such a ration to operate a boat in accordance with any requirements of the United States Coast Guard, the Coast Guard Auxiliary, or the United States Navy.

(o) Amendment No. 15 (§§ 1394.8011 (b), 1394.8105 (a) and (b) and 1394.8161 (d) and (e)) to Ration Order No. 5C shall become effective January 26, 1943.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 16]

MILEAGE RATIONING; GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (a) of § 1394.7805, and paragraph (a), the text of paragraph (b) and subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) and paragraph (c) of § 1394.7808 are amended and a new paragraph (p) to § 1394.8352 is added, as set forth below:

Transport Rations

§ 1394.7805 Issuance of transport ration. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, no transport ration shall be issued unless the applicant has presented to the Board, at the time of application, a currently valid single unit certificate or, in the case of a fleet, a fleet certificate issued for the fleet for which a ration is sought. Except as provided in § 1394.7806, no transport ration may be issued which will allow the applicant to acquire gasoline in excess of the maximum allowed by such certificate for the quarterly period for which the ration is sought and no transport ration shall be issued more than thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the quarterly period during which it is to be used: Provided, That transport rations issued for use prior to January 1, 1943, shall not allow an amount of gasoline (other than gasoline allowed pursuant to § 1394.7806) in excess of the maximum number of gallons of gasoline allowed by the certificate for the first quarter of 1943 plus eighty (80) per cent of the maximum number of gallons of gasoline allowed by the certificate for the remaining portion of the year 1942: Provided, further, That in the issuance of any transport ration for use in any one calendar quarter the Board shall deduct from the gallonage otherwise allowable for the whole quarter the number of gallons which have been allowed in that quarter by the issuance of any temporary transport ration for the use of the vehicle covered by the application, and: Provided, further, That during the first quarter of 1943 the Board upon issuing a transport ration on the basis of a Certificate of War Necessity will also issue the gallonage allowable for the second quarter.

• • • • •

§ 1394.7808 Temporary transport rations. (a) Any person requiring gasoline for the operation of a commercial motor vehicle who has made application for a Certificate of War Necessity but who has not received a Certificate of War Necessity or notice that the application has been denied, or who has appealed from a decision of the Office of Defense Transportation granting a Certificate of War Necessity allowing a ration insufficient to serve his requirements may, on and after November 23, 1942, apply for a temporary transport ration pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Any person, within the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, or his agent, may make application to the Board, in duplicate, on OPA Form R-536. The applicant shall state the mileage and gallonage required for the operation of such motor vehicle for a period of thirty (30) days or until the end of the calendar quarter, whichever is the shorter period of time, and shall state the following:

• • • • •

(2) If the Certificate of War Necessity issued allows insufficient gallonage for the applicant's needs, the applicant shall state that he has appealed for revision of such allowance and that such appeal has not been decided, and shall present to the Board a notice from the Office of Defense Transportation that the appeal is under consideration.

(c) If the Board is satisfied that the applicant has applied for a Certificate of War Necessity but has not received such Certificate or a notice of denial of his application, or that the applicant has pending an appeal to the Office of Defense Transportation for the revision of the amount of gallonage allowed, the Board shall determine the number of gallons of gasoline required for the operation of such motor vehicle for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of issuance of the ration or until the end of the calendar quarter, whichever is the shorter period of time. The Board shall then issue "T-1" or "T-2" books containing coupons in sufficient number to provide the gallonage so determined. Such books shall expire at the end of the calendar quarter in which they are issued.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 11,[1] Amendment 30]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new § 1394.5271 is added; § 1394.5452 (a) is amended; a new § 1394.5666 is added; and a new paragraph (dd) is added to § 1394.5902; as set forth below:

Heat and Hot Water Rations

§ 1394.5271 Heat or both heat and hot water emergency facilities. (a) The owner, or the person controlling the use, of oil burning equipment furnishing heat or hot water, or both, during emergency periods in premises where such heat or hot water, or both, is normally furnished by equipment using electricity, natural gas, manufactured gas, or mixed natural and manufactured gas, may obtain a ration for such purpose. An "emergency period" as used in this section is the time during which the equipment using electricity, natural gas, manufactured gas, or mixed natural and manufactured gas cannot be operated because of the temporary cessation of or reduction in the flow of such electric current or gas. Such rations may be obtained for three (3) month periods.

(b) Application for such ration shall be made to a Board on Form OPA R-1102, by the owner of the equipment, or by the person controlling the use of such equipment, or by the agent of either of them.

(c) The allowable ration shall be the amount of fuel oil requested for such purpose during the three (3) month period beginning with the date on which the ration is required: Provided, That the allowable ration shall not exceed the amount used for such purpose during the corresponding period of the preceding year, or the amount needed for ten (10) days, whichever is greater, unless the applicant shows good cause for the excess requested.

(d) After determining the allowable ration, the Board shall issue Class 3 coupon sheets containing coupons equal in gallonage value to the allowable ration less the amount of fuel oil on hand as of the date of the application for the purpose for which the ration is required.

(e) No ration issued pursuant to this section shall be used except during such emergency periods, and during any such period such ration shall not be used to heat such premises to a temperature in excess of sixty-five (65) degrees Fahrenheit except to the extent that it is impossible, for mechanical reasons, to maintain the temperature below sixty-five (65) degrees Fahrenheit.

General Provisions With Respect to Issuance of Rations

§ 1394.5452 Notations on coupon sheets: validating stamp. (a) At the time of issuing a coupon sheet, the Board shall enter thereon the name and address of the person to whom it is issued and the number and kind of coupons issued therewith. The Board shall also enter on such coupon sheet the date on which it becomes valid (or October 1, 1942, in the case of an application made prior to November 1, 1942) and the date on which it expires. Such dates shall be, respectively, the first and

Restrictions on Transfers to and by Consumers

§ 1394.5666 Emergency transfers. (a) Any consumer who requires a transfer of fuel oil for an emergency involving serious threat to life, health or valuable property, and who has no currently valid coupons at the time such transfer is required, may accept a transfer of fuel oil in an amount equivalent to ten (10%) percent of the gallonage value of the ration issued or applied for (if none has been issued) but in no case more than fifty (50) gallons, by signing an Emergency Receipt, on Form OPA R-555, in duplicate, and by stating thereon the emergency purpose for which such fuel oil is required. He shall deliver to the transferor at the time of the transfer his next period coupons equal in gallonage value to the fuel oil transferred or, if he has no coupons, he shall state on the Emergency Receipt the reasons why he is unable to deliver coupons in exchange for such fuel oil. He shall also state the address and number of the Board to which he applied for a ration: Provided, That no emergency transfer of fuel oil may be obtained for any use for which a ration has not been granted or applied for under Ration Order No. 11: Provided, further, That no consumer shall accept, and no dealer or supplier shall knowingly make to such consumer, more than one emergency transfer during the heating year.

(b) Any dealer or supplier who transfers fuel oil under paragraph (a) of this section shall at the time of such transfer revise the Emergency Receipt (in duplicate) by striking out the word "Gasoline" wherever it occurs and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Fuel Oil." He shall also insert on such Emergency Receipt (in duplicate) the number and kind of coupons, if any, detached by him, his name, address and registration number, and the address and number of the Board with which he is registered. The dealer or supplier shall deliver the Emergency Receipt, in duplicate, together with any coupons received by him from the consumer, to the Board which issued the ration to such consumer or to which the consumer stated he applied for a ration.

(c) The Board, if it is satisfied that such dealer or supplier made a transfer, in good faith, pursuant to paragraph (a) of this Section, shall issue to him, in exchange for the Emergency Receipt, (and coupons, if any) inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the amount of fuel oil so transferred. The Board shall retain one copy of such receipt for its files and shall forward the second copy to the Board with which the dealer or supplier is registered, as stated on the receipt. If no coupons equal in gallonage value to the fuel oil transferred accompanied the Emergency Receipt, the Board shall deduct from any ration thereafter issued to the consumer the gallonage value of the coupons which such consumer did not deliver. If the consumer made no application to the Board for a ration, or if no appeal from a denial of his application for a ration is pending or if an appeal has been determined against the consumer, the Board shall promptly send a report thereof to its State or District Office having jurisdiction. If the Board is not satisfied that the dealer made a transfer, in good faith, of the amount of fuel oil specified in such Emergency Receipt, it shall not issue to him any inventory coupons therefor. In such case, the Board shall return one copy of the Emergency Receipt to the dealer, and shall transmit the second copy of such Receipt to its State or District Office having jurisdiction.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 245 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

ALBA PHARMACEUTICAL COMPANY, INC.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1481 Approval of maximum prices for sales of "Pluravit"—(a) Sales by Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., of New York, New York—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., of "Pluravit" are established as set forth below:

Size of package	Maximum price per package
	To wholesalers	To retailers	To industrial purchasers
30 tablets	$ .47	$ .57
100 tablets	1.39	1.67
1000 tablets	13.89	16.67	$19.70

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. The Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., shall apply to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for its sales of "Pluravit" to wholesalers and to retailers all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, cash discounts, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of transportation costs, and any other customary allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on its sales of "Cream-Malin" Tablets.

The Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., shall apply to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for its sales of "Pluravit" to industrial purchasers all quantity discounts, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, cash discounts, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of transportation costs, and any other customary allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on its sales of "Roccal."

(b) Sales by wholesalers—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by wholesalers of "Pluravit" are established as set forth below:

Size of package:	Maximum price per package
30 tablets	$ .57
100 tablets	1.67
1000 tablets	16.67

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Any wholesaler making sales of "Pluravit" shall apply to the maximum prices set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, cash discounts, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of shipping charges, and other customary allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on sales by the wholesaler of "Unicap Vitamins" or on sales of the multiple vitamin product most nearly comparable to "Pluravit" if the wholesaler did not sell "Unicap Vitamins" in March, 1942.

(c) Sales by retailers—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by retailers of "Pluravit" except for sales on prescription as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, are established as set forth below:

Size of package:	Maximum price per package
30 tablets	$ .85
100 tablets	2.50
1000 tablets	25.00

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Any retailer making sales of "Pluravit" shall apply to the maximum prices set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all discounts for purchasers of different classes which were in effect in March, 1942, on sales by the retailer of "Unicap Vitamins" or on sale of the multiple vitamin product most nearly comparable to "Pluravit" if the retailer did not sell "Unicap Vitamins" in March, 1942.

(3) Sales on prescription. The maximum prices established by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply to sales on prescription of "Pluravit." The maximum price for a sale on prescription of "Pluravit" shall be determined by the person making the sale on prescription in accordance with the provisions of § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that no report of maximum price need be filed.

(d) Sales by industrial purchasers. The maximum prices for sales by industrial purchasers of "Pluravit" tablets individually wrapped in cellophane are established as set forth below:

Size of package:	Maximum price per package
1 tablet	$ .03
1000 tablets	25.00

(e) Marking package with retail ceiling price. The Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., shall mark each package of 30 tablets of "Pluravit" sold by it with the words "Ceiling Price 85 cents," each package of 100 tablets of "Pluravit" with the words "Ceiling Price $2.50," and each package of 1000 tablets of "Pluravit" with the words "Ceiling Price $25.00." These words shall be printed or stamped in letters clearly legible and at least one quarter as large as those used for the name of the product on the package in which "Pluravit" is customarily sold to the ultimate consumer on a non-prescription sale. No retailer, except a person making a sale on prescription, shall make sales of "Pluravit" unless the package in which the product is sold is marked with the retail ceiling price as required by this paragraph.

(f) Notification of maximum prices—(1) By the Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., to wholesalers. The Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., shall supply a written notification to each wholesaler before or at the time of its first delivery of "Pluravit" to such wholesaler. The written statement shall read as follows:

OPA has authorized us to charge wholesalers 47¢ for 30 tablets, $1.39 for 100 tablets, and $13.89 for 1000 tablets of "Pluravit", subject to all customary cash discounts and allowances.

Wholesalers are authorized to establish maximum prices of 57¢ for 30 tablets, $1.67 for 100 tablets, and $16.67 for 1000 tablets of "Pluravit", subject to all customary cash discounts and allowances.

(2) By the Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., to retailers via wholesalers. The Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., shall include a written notification with each shipping unit of "Pluravit" for a period of three months. If such notification is enclosed in a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed." If the initial sale by a wholesaler to a retailer is a split-case sale, the wholesaler is required to provide such retailer with a copy of this notice. The written notification shall read as follows:

OPA has authorized wholesalers to charge 57¢ for 30 tablets, $1.67 for 100 tablets, and $16.67 for 1000 tables of "Pluravit", subject to all customary cash discounts and allowances.

Retailers are authorized to establish ceiling prices of 85¢ for 30 tablets, $2.50 for 100 tablets, and $25.00 for 1000 tablets of "Pluravit", except for sales on prescription.

Maximum prices for sales on prescription must be determined under section 3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that no report of the maximum price need be filed.

If the initial sale by a wholesaler to a retailer is a split-case sale, the wholesaler is required to provide such retailer with a copy of this notice.

OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(3) By the Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., to retailers. The Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., shall supply a written notification to each retailer before or at the time of its first delivery of "Pluravit" to such retailer. The written statement shall read as follows:

OPA has authorized us to charge retailers 57¢ for 30 tablets, $1.67 for 100 tablets, and $16.67 for 1000 tablets of "Pluravit", subject to all customary cash discounts and allowances.

Your ceiling prices are authorized to be 85¢ for 30 tablets, $2.50 for 100 tablets, and $25.00 for 1000 tablets of "Pluravit", except for sales on prescription.

Maximum prices for sales on prescription must be determined under section 3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that no report of the maximum price need be filed.

OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(4) By the Alba Pharmaceutical Company to industrial purchasers. The Alba Pharmaceutical Company, Inc., shall supply a written notification to each industrial purchaser before or at the time of its first delivery of "Pluravit" to such industrial purchaser. The written statement shall read as follows:

OPA has authorized us to charge industrial purchasers $19.70 for 1000 tablets of "Pluravit", subject to all customary cash discounts and allowances.

Your ceiling prices are authorized to be 3¢ for one tablet individually wrapped in cellophane, and $25.00 for 1000 tablets of "Pluravit".

OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 6482]

THE GEORGE HARM STATION (KARM)

NOTICE FOR HEARING

In re application of KARM, The George Harm Station (KARM); dated April 24, 1942, for modification of license. Class of service, broadcast; class of station, broadcast; location, Fresno, California; operating assignment specified: Frequency, 1030 kc; power, 5 kw (DA—day and night); hours of operation, unlimited.

You are hereby notified that the Commission has examined the above-described application and has designated the matter for hearing for the following reasons:

1. To determine whether the granting of this application would be consistent with the policy announced by the Commission in its memorandum opinion, dated April 27, 1942, or as relaxed September 22, 1942.

2. To determine the extent of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of Station KARM, as proposed and Station KOB as licensed to operate on 1030 kc.

3. To determine the areas and populations which would be deprived of primary service, particularly from Station KOB (operating on 1030 kc) as a result of the operation of KARM as proposed, and what other broadcast service is available to those areas and populations.

4. To determine the areas and populations which might be expected to gain primary service should Station KARM operate as proposed, and what other broadcast service is available to those areas and populations.

5. To determine whether, in view of the facts adduced under the foregoing issues, public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by granting this application.

The application involved herein will not be granted by the Commission unless the issues listed above are determined in favor of the applicant on the basis of a record duly and properly made by means of a formal hearing.

The applicant is hereby given the opportunity to obtain a hearing on such issues by filing a written appearance in accordance with the provisions of §1.382 (b) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Persons other than the applicant who desire to be heard must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the provisions of § 1.102 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

The applicant's address is as follows: KARM, The George Harm Station, Radio Station KARM, 1333 Van Ness Avenue, Fresno, California.

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian all of the property hereinbefore described in subparagraphs 2 (a), 2 (b) and 2 (c), to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on November 19, 1942.

[Vesting Order 713]

FORTRA, INC.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that 63 shares of no par value common capital stock of Fortra Inc., a New York corporation, New York, New York, are registered in the names of and owned by the following individuals in the following respective amounts:

Names:	Number of shares
Rudolf T. Kessemeier	11
Hermann Muhlenbrock	26
Edward H. Dederick	26
Total	63

2. Finding that said corporation is a business enterprise within the United States and that said 63 shares constitute all the outstanding capital stock of said business enterprise and represent ownership thereof;

3. Determining that said Rudolf T. Kessemeier, Hermann Muhlenbrock and Edward H. Dederick are controlled by or acting for or on behalf of a designated enemy country (Germany) or a person within such country and are, therefore, nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

4. Determining that said Fortra, Inc. is controlled by or acting for or on behalf of a designated enemy country (Germany) or a person within such country and is, therefore, a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

5. Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

6. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

7. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby (i) vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in subparagraph 1 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (ii) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on January 18, 1943.

THE FERBO CO.

§ 3.6 (c) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Composition of goods: § 3.6 (n) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Nature—Product. In connection with offer, etc., of respondent's food flavoring product designated as "French Tang Vanilla Flavor" and as "Sun-Cu-Nilla", or any other similar product, disseminating, etc., any advertisements by means of the United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means, to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, purchase in commerce, etc., of said product, which advertisements (1) use the term "vanilla," "vanilla flavor," or "vanilla flavoring," or any other term of similar import, to designate or describe respondent's product, unless such term is immediately preceded by the word "Imitation" in equally conspicuous type; or (2) represent in any manner or by any means that respondent's product is genuine vanilla extract or flavoring; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, The Ferbo Co., Docket 4706, January 19, 1943]

In the Matter of Arthur H. Ferber an Individual, Trading and Doing Business as The Ferbo Co.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner upon the evidence, and brief in support of the complaint (no brief having been filed by respondent and oral argument not having been requested); and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Arthur H. Ferber, individually and trading as The Ferbo Co., or trading under any other name, and his agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of respondent's food flavoring product designated as "French Tang Vanilla Flavor" and as "Sun-Cu-Nilla," or any other product of substantially similar composition, whether sold under the same names or under any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement

(a) Uses the term "vanilla," "vanilla flavor," or "vanilla flavoring," or any other term of similar import, to designate or describe respondent's product, unless such term is immediately preceded by the word "Imitation" in equally conspicuous type; or

(b) Represents in any manner or by any means that respondent's product is genuine vanilla extract or flavoring.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of respondent's product, which advertisement contains any representation prohibited in paragraph 1 hereof.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

§ 3.99 (a) Using or selling lottery device—Devices for lottery selling. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of ice cream cups or other similar containers, (1) selling, etc., to jobbers or wholesale dealers or to retail dealers direct, ice cream cups, or other similar containers, so printed or assembled that sales of ice cream or other merchandise to the general public, when packed in said cups or other similar containers, are to be made or, due to the manner in which such cups or other similar containers are printed and assembled at the time they are sold by respondent, may be made by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme; (2) packing or assembling cup lids in packages or assortments of ice cream cups or other similar containers for sale with ice cream or other merchandise to the public at retail, which cup lids are printed for use, or which may be used, in distributing or selling ice cream cups or other similar containers together with ice cream or other merchandise by means of a lottery scheme, game of chance, or gift enterprise; and (3) furnishing to retail or wholesale dealers or jobbers, cup lids or containers, some of which are so printed as to be used in distributing extra cups or containers of ice cream or other merchandise to purchasers of cups or containers containing ice cream or other merchandise when the distribution of such extra cups or containers is determined by lot or chance; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Mono Service Company, Docket 4834, January 19, 1943]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and states that it waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent Mono Service Company, a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of ice cream cups or other similar containers in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Selling or distributing to jobbers or wholesale dealers or to retail dealers direct, ice cream cups, or other similar containers, so printed or assembled that sales of ice cream or other merchandise to the general public, when packed in said cups or other similar containers, are to be made or, due to the manner in which such cups or other similar containers are printed and assembled at the time they are sold by respondent, may be made by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme;

(2) Packing or assembling cup lids in packages or assortments of ice cream cups or other similar containers for sale with ice cream or other merchandise to the public at retail, which cup lids are printed for use, or which may be used, in distributing or selling ice cream cups or other similar containers together with ice cream or other merchandise by means of a lottery scheme, game of chance, or gift enterprise;

(3) Furnishing to retail or wholesale dealers or jobbers, cup lids or containers, some of which are so printed as to be used in distributing extra cups or containers of ice cream or other merchandise to purchasers of cups or containers containing ice cream or other merchandise when the distribution of such extra cups or containers is determined by lot or chance.

It is further ordered, That the respondent, Mono Service Company, a corporation, shall, within 60 days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist hereinabove set forth.

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 210—REGULATION S-X UNDER SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AND INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS UNDER SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934 AND INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, particularly sections 7 and 19 (a) thereof, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 12, 13, 15 (d) and 23 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it by said Acts, hereby amends Part 210 [Regulation S-X] as follows:

1. By adopting the following new § 210.4-13 [Rule 4-13]

§ 210.4-13 Special requirements as to public utility holding companies. In the consolidated balance sheet of a public utility holding company and its subsidiaries, tangible and intangible utility plant shall be segregated so as to show separately the original cost, plant acquisition adjustments, and the plant adjustments, as required by the systems of accounts prescribed by the applicable regulatory authorities. In addition, there shall be shown the differences between the amount at which the parent's investment is carried and the underlying book equity of subsidiaries as at the respective dates of acquisition. The above classification of utility plant, however, is not required of companies included in consolidation which are not otherwise required to make such a classification or which have not completed the necessary original cost studies. If such classification is not otherwise required or if such original cost studies have not been completed, an appropriate explanation of the circumstances shall be set forth in a footnote which shall include a specific statement as to the status of the original cost studies and, to the extent practicable, the results indicated thereby.

2. By amending caption 13 of § 210.5-02 [Rule 5-02], Balance Sheets, to read as follows:

13. Property, plant and equipment. Tangible and intangible utility plant of a public utility company shall be segregated so as to show separately the original cost, plant acquisition adjustments, and plant adjustments, as required by the systems of accounts prescribed by the applicable regulatory authorities. This rule shall not be applicable in respect of companies which are not otherwise required to make such a classification or have not completed the necessary original cost studies. If such classification is not otherwise required or if such original cost studies have not been completed, an appropriate explanation of the circumstances shall be set forth in a footnote which shall include a specific statement as to the status of the original cost studies and, to the extent practicable, the results indicated thereby.

Effective January 26, 1943.

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

SOLICITATION OF PURCHASES ON AN EXCHANGE TO FACILITATE DISTRIBUTION OF SECURITIES

The Securities and Exchange Commission, deeming it necessary for the exercise of the functions vested in it and necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors so to do, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 10 (b) and 23 (a) thereof, hereby

1. Amends paragraph (d) (3) of § 240.10b-2 [Rule X-10B-2][1] to read as follows:

§ 240.10b-2 Solicitation of purchases on an exchange to facilitate a distribution of securities. * * *

(d) * * *

(3) The provisions of this exemption shall terminate at the close of business on July 31, 1943, unless the Commission otherwise determines.

2. And declares the special offering plans of the New York Stock Exchange, New York Curb Exchange, and San Francisco Stock Exchange, as now effective, to be effective until the close of business on July 31, 1943, unless the Commission otherwise determines, on condition that if at any time it appears to the Commission necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors so to do, the Commission may send at least ten days' notice to any of said Exchanges terminating the effectiveness of their respective plans.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1392]

PART 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 8

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order amending order granting temporarily and conditionally final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 8 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 8.

On May 6, 1942, 7 F.R. 3872, an order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief was issued by the Bituminous Coal Division in the above-entitled matter in which, among other matters, price classifications and minimum prices were established for the New Cinderella Mine (Mine Index No. 5418) of the Cinderella Coal Corporation and for the Consolidation #207 Mine (Mine Index No. 5445) of Consolidation Coal Company for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments.

On June 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 4757, upon motion of District Board No. 8, an order amending order granting temporary and conditionally final relief was issued in this matter in which the order of May 6, 1942, was amended to provide that the relief granted to the New Cinderella Mine of Cinderella Coal Corporation and the Consolidation #207 Mine of Consolidation Coal Company should not become final until October 1, 1942.

A motion to modify order was filed in this matter with the Division on September 12, 1942, by District Board No. 8 requesting an amendment to the Order of May 6, 1942, to effect the following changes in the price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the New Cinderella Mine of the Cinderella Coal Corporation for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments:

FOR DESTINATIONS OTHER THAN GREAT LAKES

From "G" to "C" in Size Group 10
From "F" to "D" in Size Groups 11-17, incl.
From "M" to "K" in Size Groups 18-21, incl.
From "O" to "L" in Size Group 22.

FOR GREAT LAKES CARGO ONLY

From "G" to "C" in Size Group 10.
From "K" to "J" in Size Groups 16-17, incl.
From "M" to "K" in Size Groups 18-21, incl.
From "O" to "L" in Size Group 22

FOR TRUCK SHIPMENTS

From 2.10 to 2.20 in Size Group 3
From 2.00 to 2.10 in Size Group 6.
From 1.45 to 1.55 in Size Group 7.
From 1.40 to 1.50 in Size Group 8.

In the motion to modify order, District Board No. 8 represents that recent sampling of the coals produced from the New Cinderella Mine in the size groups for which revised price classifications and minimum prices are requested revealed that such coals are relatively low in ash content and comparable to and of equal market value with other coals produced from mines operating in the Winifrede Seam in the same subdistrict and that the price classifications and minimum prices requested are the same as those for such other coals in the Winifrede Seam.

A motion to reopen proceeding and modify order amending order granting temporary and conditionally final relief was filed with the Division on October 14, 1942, by District Board No. 8 requesting the same relief as the motion to modify order, filed September 12, 1942, with respect to the New Cinderella Mine of the Cinderella Coal Corporation, and, in addition, requesting that the order amending order granting temporary and conditionally final relief of June 24, 1942, be amended to provide that the final relief granted therein to Consolidation #207 Mine (Mine Index No. 5445) of Consolidation Coal Company be made temporary and that it shall not become final until February 1, 1943.

In its motion to reopen proceeding and modify order amending order granting temporary and conditionally final relief filed October 14, 1942, District Board No. 8 represents that on October 1, 1942, Consolidation #207 Mine had not entered into regular commercial production by reason of the fact that such mine had not then received all its equipment, and, therefore, petitioner was not in a position to inspect or sample the coals as loaded for purposes of analysis and for a determination of proper permanent classifications.

It appears that the motion to modify order and the motion to reopen proceeding and modify order amending order granting temporary and conditionally final relief have been duly served upon all interested persons, that no opposition to the requests for relief have been filed with the Division, and that good reason has been shown for granting the motions.

It is therefore ordered, That the motion to modify order be and it hereby is granted.

It is further ordered, That commencing forthwith § 328.11 (Alphabetical list of code members) and § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) are supplemented to include the following price classifications and minimum prices for the New Cinderella Mine (Mine Index No. 5418) of the Cinderella Coal Corporation in lieu of those established by Order of May 6, 1942:

FOR DESTINATIONS OTHER THAN GREAT LAKES

"C" in Size Group 10.
"D" in Size Groups 11-17, incl.
"K" in Size Groups 18-21, incl.
"L" in Size Group 22.

FOR GREAT LAKES CARGO ONLY

"C" in Size Group 10.
"J" in Size Groups 16-17, incl.
"K" in Size Groups 18-21, incl.
"L" in Size Group 22.

FOR TRUCK SHIPMENTS

2.40 in Size Group 3.
2.30 in Size Group 6.
1.75 in Size Group 7.
1.70 in Size Group 8.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted with respect to the New Cinderella Mine shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

It is further ordered, That the motion to reopen proceeding and modify order amending order granting temporary and conditionally final relief be and it hereby is granted to the extent indicated herein.

It is further ordered, That commencing forthwith, the schedules of effective minimum prices for District No. 8 for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments are modified to provide that the price classifications and minimum prices of the Consolidation #207 Mine (Mine Index No. 5445) of Consolidation Coal Company shall be temporary until March 1, 1943, at which time they shall become final, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the aforesaid motions in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That in all other respects the order of May 6, 1942, in the above-entitled matter be and the same shall remain in full force and effect.

Dated: January 23, 1943.

PART 330—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 10

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 10 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 10; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 330.25 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: January 9, 1943.

PART 332—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 12

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 12 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 12.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 12; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 322.2 (Alphabetical list of Code Members) is amended by adding thereto Supplemental R, and § 322.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Price classifications and minimum prices have not been established for the coals of the American Coal Company (Cleo K. Bennett), Mine Index No. 798 for truck shipments, as requested by District Board No. 12, for the reason that this mine was previously classified for truck shipments in Docket No. A-1733, 8 F.R. 258, under the name of the American Coal Company (T. D. Macksey).

Dated: January 14, 1943.

PART 938—SYNTHETIC RUBBER

[General Preference Order M-13 as Amended Jan. 22, 1943][2]

Whereas, the national defense requirements have created a shortage of synthetic rubber, as hereinafter defined, for defense, for private account and for export, and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 938.1 General Preference Order M-13—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Synthetic rubber" means all neoprenes; all butadiene types, such as the materials known by the trade names of Hycar, Perbunam, Chemigum, and Buna "S"; organic polysulphides known by the trade names of Thiokol; butyl rubber; poly iso butylene, such as the material known by the trade names of Vistanex and Synthetic "100"; and the material known by the trade name of Thiokol "RD."

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of synthetic rubber and includes any person who has synthetic rubber produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(b) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(c) Restrictions on deliveries. On and after January 1, 1942, no deliveries of synthetic rubber (not including poly iso butylene, such as the material known by the trade names of Vistanex and Synthetic "100," as to which the operative date shall be February 1, 1942) shall be made by any producer, except as may be specifically directed by the Director General for Operations; and no person shall accept delivery of synthetic rubber made in violation of the foregoing clause. At the beginning of each calendar month the Director General for Operations will issue to all producers specific directions covering deliveries of synthetic rubber which may be made by such producers during such month. Such directions will be made primarily to insure the satisfaction of all defense requirements and to provide an adequate supply for essential civilian uses, and they may be made at the discretion of the Director General for Operations without regard to any preference rating assigned to particular contracts or orders.

(d) Intra-company transactions. The prohibitions or restrictions contained in this order with respect to deliveries shall, in the absence of a contrary direction, apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise owned or controlled by the same person.

(e) Reports. Reports shall be made by producers at such times, on such forms and with respect to such matters as shall be prescribed by the Chemicals Division of the War Production Board. In addition persons who order or receive synthetic rubber from a producer shall furnish to the Chemicals Division of the War Production Board information with respect to requirements and use of such material at such times and on such forms as the said Chemicals Division shall prescribe. All persons shall furnish such other and further information as the Chemicals Division may deem necessary for the orderly and effective operation of this order.

(f) Notification of customers. Producers shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this order, but the failure to give such notice shall not excuse any person from the obligation of complying with the terms of this order.

(g) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this order, or who wilfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this order, or by the Director General for Operations, or otherwise wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations or to the War Production Board may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the Director General for Operations from obtaining further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The Director General for Operations may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(h) Any action which, under the terms of this order, is to be taken by the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, may be taken by either the Director General for Operations or the Rubber Director.

Issued this 22d day of January 1943.

PART 940—RUBBER AND BALATA AND PRODUCTS OF WHICH RUBBER OR BALATA IS A COMPONENT

[Supplementary Order M-15-e as Amended Jan. 22, 1943][1]

RESTRICTION OF TRANSACTIONS IN RUBBER LIFE SAVING SUITS

§ 940.7 Supplementary Order M-15-e—(a) Definitions. (1) "Life saving suit" means any buoyant water tight suit made in whole or in part of rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or any of the compositions generally known as synthetic rubber, designed for use by seamen as a device for rescuing or preserving the lives of seamen from wrecked vessels.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(b) General restriction on the purchase and sale of life saving suits. Except as provided in paragraph (c) hereof no person shall purchase any life saving suit except:

(1) To provide necessary equipment for ocean and coastwise cargo and tank vessels of over 1,000 gross tons for the purpose of providing one approved life saving suit for each person on board as required by regulations prescribed by the United States Coast Guard (Title 46, Chapter II, Subchapter O, § 153.12) and

(2) Only upon compliance with rules, regulations, instructions or directions concerning the purchase and sale of life saving suits to be issued from time to time by the United States Coast Guard. No person shall sell any life saving suit except pursuant to such rules, regulations, instructions or directions issued by the United States Coast Guard, or if he knows or has reason to believe that such life saving suit is being acquired or is to be used for any purpose other than is permitted by this order.

(c) Exceptions. The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not prohibit the purchase or sale of life saving suits in any case in which:

(1) Such purchase or sale has been expressly authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(2) Such purchase is made by or for the account of the United States Army, Navy or Coast Guard.

(3) Such purchase is made by any agency of the United States for the account of any foreign country under the provisions of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(4) Such purchase is made by a dealer in life saving suits for the purpose of resale.

(d) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, sales and products.

(e) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be required by said Board from time to time.

(f) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed be addressed to War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref: M-15-e.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision of this order may be inconsistent therewith, in which case such provision shall govern.

(i) Any action which, under the terms of this order, is to be taken by the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, may be taken by either the Director General for Operations or the Rubber Director.

PART 940—RUBBER AND BALATA AND PRODUCTS OF WHICH RUBBER OR BALATA IS A COMPONENT

[Supplementary Order M-15-f as Amended Jan. 22, 1943][1]

ORDER RESTRICTING THE USE OF RUBBER CEMENTS AND ADHESIVES

Whereas the fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of rubber for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 940.8 Supplementary Order M-15-f—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Rubber cement" means any type of cement, adhesive or coating made in whole or in part of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber.

(b) Restriction on the use of rubber cement. Except as otherwise permitted by general or special authorization of the Director General for Operations, no person who for compensation or profit engages in manufacturing, repairing, combining, laminating, coating, impregnating or otherwise treating any luggage, handbags, belts for wearing apparel, pocketbooks, wallets, key rings or cases, hats or other millinery, cosmetic appliances, cosmetic bags, tobacco pouches, furs or embroidered or other materials for emblems, pennants, chevrons, appliques or other similar decorative material, or in laminating, combining or treating any fabrics or materials, or in manufacturing shoes, shall use any rubber cement in manufacturing, repairing, combining, laminating, coating, impregnating or treating any such products or materials; except that rubber cement may be used (i) in the following operations only in the manufacture or repair of shoes: Cutting and fitting room operations, bed and side lasting, folding, gem duck, heel breasting, insole rib and lip, moccasin seam, prewelt, platform attaching (but only if no equipment for the use of another method is available), rand, soft box toe, sole attaching, semi-automatic toe lasting (but only if no equipment for the use of another method is available), unishank, leather welting, channelling McKay shoes and Littleway sewed shoes (but no others), and shoe repair, and (ii) in the manufacture, application or repair of any products for the manufacture of which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed under the provisions of § 940.3 (Supplementary Order No. M-15-b) as amended from time to time.

(c) Restriction on the purchase and sale of rubber cement. No person shall purchase rubber cement for the purpose of using such rubber cement for any of the purposes for which rubber cement may not be used under the provisions of paragraph (b) hereof; nor shall any person sell, trade, transfer or deliver, or offer to sell, trade, transfer or deliver, any rubber cement to any other person if he knows or has reason to believe such other person intends or proposes to use such rubber cement for any of the purposes prohibited by paragraph (b) hereof.

(d) Exceptions as to supplies on hand. Notwithstanding the restrictions imposed by paragraph (b) of this order, any person who on July 31, 1942, had in his possession any rubber cement which he purchased or was holding for his own use for any of the purposes prohibited by paragraph (b) may use in operations prohibited by paragraph (b) hereof an amount of rubber cement not exceeding five gallons.

(e) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales of rubber cement and the uses to which such persons put rubber cement now owned or hereafter acquired by them.

(3) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the Board shall from time to time require.

(4) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance with this order would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him or that it would result in a problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may apply for relief to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(7) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to: Rubber and Rubber Prod-

PART 980—RAYON YARN

[General Preference Order M–37–d]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of rayon yarn for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 980.5 General Preference Order M–37–d—(a) General effect of the order. This order shall on February 1, 1943, supersede Supplementary Order M–37–c.

(b) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(c) Additional definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Rayon yarn" means continuous filament rayon yarn made by the viscose, cuprammonium, or acetate process.

(2) "Fine rayon yarn" means rayon yarn of 300 deniers or finer.

(3) "Reserved domestic yarn" means the fine rayon yarn set aside for domestic consumption pursuant to the provisions of this order.

(4) "Yarn-dyed silk" means silk which was fast dyed before being woven or knitted.

(5) "Producer" means any person who produces rayon yarn.

(6) "Domestic manufacturer" means any person who consumed silk, nylon or rayon in the first six months of 1941.

(7) "Fabric converter" means any person who prior to July 26, 1941, bought silk, nylon or rayon, and caused it to be woven or knit for him on commission.

(8) "Basic monthly poundage" for any month means a poundage in terms of 100 denier rayon yarn equal to the monthly average number of pounds of raw silk (or its thrown silk equivalent) and/or nylon consumed by a person during the first six months of the year 1941. In applying the above definition to a domestic manufacturer, poundage consumed shall refer to the poundage consumed by the domestic manufacturer on his own machinery. In the case of a fabric converter, it shall refer to the poundage knit or woven by others for his account.

(9) "Current factor" for any month means a percentage which shall be established by the Director General for Operations. For the month of February, 1943, such factor shall be 100%. For the month of March, 1943, and for every month thereafter until such time as a different factor is established, such factor shall be 85%.

(10) "Current monthly eligibility" means a poundage calculated as follows: Multiply the basic monthly poundage by the current factor.

(11) "The equivalent of the current monthly eligibility" means a poundage calculated as follows: Divide the current monthly eligibility by 100 and multiply the result by the denier desired, but in no event by more than 200.

(d) Allocation of certain types of viscose rayon yarn. No producer shall sell or deliver any rayon yarn of the following types produced by him on or after March 1, 1943, except to persons authorized by the Director General for Operations to receive delivery of such yarn:

Viscose rayon yarn qualifying as yarn of 250 denier or coarser and having an average tenacity designation of 31 or higher in accordance with Table of Designations attached hereto, irrespective of elongation, in tests made under the following conditions:

(1) Yarns with three turns per inch twist shall be used.

(2) Yarn shall be conditioned until it reaches a regain equilibrium, approached from the dry side, in an atmosphere of 70 degrees Fahrenheit and 57% relative humidity.

(3) The loading rate on a constant-rate-of-loading machine shall be from 30 to 35, inclusive, grams per denier per minute. The loading rate on a pendulum type machine shall not exceed 35 grams per denier per minute.

(4) A denier tolerance of 3%, plus or minus, on deniers of 250 to 300 shall be allowed, based on the average denier of the lot tested. A denier tolerance of 2%, plus or minus, on deniers coarser than 300 shall be allowed, based on the average denier of the lot tested.

Any person desiring to receive deliveries of any such yarn from a producer or from the Defense Supplies Corporation in the month of March, 1943, shall file an application for an allocation for such month with the War Production Board on Form PD–739 not later than February 10, 1943. Any person desiring to receive deliveries on or after April 1, 1943, shall file an application for an allocation for the calendar quarter in which such deliveries are desired on Form PD–739 not later than the fifteenth day of the month preceding the month before the quarter in which such deliveries are desired.

(e) Allocations of amounts of rayon yarn for domestic manufacturers. Each producer shall, on and after February 1, 1943, each day set aside, to the extent that he possesses spindles capable of producing such fine rayon yarns,

(1) An amount of fine viscose or cuprammonium yarn equal to the production of 17% of the total number of his active spindles producing viscose or cuprammonium yarns of any denier, excluding from such total the number of spindles the production from which is equivalent to that required for filling rated orders, and for producing rayon yarn of the types specified in paragraph (d).

(2) An amount of fine acetate yarn equal to the production of 6% of the total number of his active spindles producing acetate yarns of any denier, excluding from such total the number of spindles the production from which is equivalent to that required for filling rated orders, and for producing rayon yarn of the types specified in paragraph (d).

The reserved domestic yarn thus set aside shall be selected in various denier sizes so as to yield an average denier equal to or less than the average denier of the fine rayon yarn set aside for silk replacement prior to April 1, 1942.

(f) Disposition of domestic allocation—(1) Specific allocations. (i) Amounts of reserved viscose, cuprammonium and acetate yarns equal to the production of 0.5% of the remaining spindles referred to in paragraph (e) shall be held by the producer for disposition according to specific allocations.

(ii) Persons desiring to participate in such amounts of reserved domestic yarn shall file application on Form PD–102. Any allocation made by the Director General for Operations will be evidenced by an order on Form PD–112, the original and two signed duplicates of which will be forwarded to the applicant. The applicant shall then, in order to secure the yarn, forward to the producer the two signed duplicates with his purchase order. Such order shall be accepted by the producer except under circumstances in which defense orders may be rejected pursuant to Section 944.2 of Priorities Regulation No. 1. If a purchaser's order is rejected, the provisions of Section 944.3 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 shall apply as if such order were a defense order, and the producer rejecting the order shall immediately notify the War Production Board, stating the reasons for his unwillingness to accept.

(2) General allocations. (i) To the extent and under the conditions set forth in (ii) below, amounts of reserved viscose and cuprammonium yarns equal to the production of 16.5% of the remaining spindles referred to in paragraph (e) (1) shall be made available, immediately and without further Governmental action, to domestic manufacturers and fabric converters for the manufacture of hosiery to replace their former consumption of silk and nylon, and for the manufacture of other products to replace their former consumption of yarn dyed silk, and amounts of reserved acetate yarn equal to the production of 5.5% of the remaining spindles referred to in paragraph (e) (2) shall be made available in the same manner to domestic manufacturers and fabric converters for the manufacture of any product to replace their former consumption of silk and nylon.

(ii) No producer shall deliver any reserved domestic yarn to any fabric converter or domestic manufacturer, and no fabric converter shall deliver any reserved domestic yarn to any domestic manufacturer, unless such purchaser shall have filed with the producer or fabric converter, as the case may be, a certificate, in duplicate, on Form PD–113 for each of the following capacities in which such yarn is to be received by him:

(a) As a domestic manufacturer replacing silk and nylon formerly consumed on his own machinery,

(b) As a fabric converter replacing silk and nylon formerly sent out by him for commission weaving or knitting, and, in case such purchaser is a fabric converter, unless he shall have also filed with the producer the certificates received by him from each commission weaver or knitter who has a current monthly eligibility and by whom such yarn is to be woven or knit.

(iii) No producer or fabric converter shall make delivery of any such reserved domestic yarn to any domestic manufacturer or fabric converter, as the case may be, which he knows, or has reason to believe, will result in the receipt by such domestic manufacturer or fabric converter in that calendar month of an amount of reserved domestic yarn in excess of such recipient's equivalent of the current monthly eligibility for that month, or, together with stocks on hand, will increase such recipient's inventory of reserved domestic yarn in the aggregate to above one and one-half times such equivalent. No domestic manufacturer or fabric converter shall order, purchase, or accept from all sources for delivery in any one calendar month an amount of reserved domestic yarn in excess of the equivalent of the current monthly eligibility for that month, or own, control or otherwise hold as inventory at any time an amount of reserved domestic yarn in excess of one and one-half times the equivalent of the current monthly eligibility. For the purposes of this subparagraph inventory shall include all reserved domestic yarn owned, controlled, or otherwise held by the domestic manufacturer or fabric converter up to the time that it is placed on the knitting machine, loom or other similar fabricating machine.

(iv) In making deliveries of such reserved domestic yarn pursuant to subparagraph (ii), hosiery manufacturers operating knitting machines of 51 gauge and finer producing full-fashioned hosiery, or machines of 360 needle and finer producing seamless hosiery, shall be given first preference in the 50 and 65 denier sizes, and those operating knitting machines of 45 gauge and finer, producing full-fashioned hosiery, or machines of 320 needle and finer, producing seamless hosiery, shall be given first preference in the 75 denier size, such preferences to be granted in the production of any one month on the basis of orders placed with the producer on or before the final date set by such producer for receiving orders to be filled out of such production for such month: Provided, however, That nothing in this subparagraph shall relieve the producers from reserving and disposing of the proper proportions of such denier sizes pursuant to paragraph (f) (1) above. Manufacturers claiming such preferences shall not use any reserved domestic yarn so obtained upon any machines other than those specified herein in granting such preferences.

(g) Prohibtions against discriminatory action by producers. In making sales or deliveries of any rayon yarn, no person shall make discriminatory cuts in amounts or quantities between former customers and new customers or between new customers, who meet such person's regularly established prices and terms, and, except as provided in paragraph (f) (2) (iv) no person shall discriminate between such former customers, new customers, and his own consumption of such rayon yarn in any capacity: Provided, however, That sales or deliveries of reserved domestic yarn to domestic manufacturers for the manufacture of hosiery pursuant to paragraph (f) (2) which are not in excess of quantities necessary to permit of economical operation by the manufacturer, taking into account the size of the manufacturer's plant and the equipment therein, shall in no case be considered as resulting in discriminatory acts to others. In determining the regular eligibility for rayon yarn other than reserved domestic yarn of customers of any producer (i. e., the amount of the residual supply, after providing for reserved domestic yarn which the producer will sell to such customer) in accordance with whatever method consistent with this paragraph is adopted by the producer, amounts of reserved domestic yarn to which any customer may be entitled shall not be considered in computing such regular eligibility nor shall such regular eligibility be diminished by the amounts of such reserved domestic yarn.

(h) Prohibitions against sale of reserved domestic yarn in yarn form. No reserved domestic yarn shall be resold or exchanged in yarn form by any domestic manufacturer or fabric converter except upon the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(i) Disposition of reserved yarn not delivered in any month. All reserved domestic yarn set aside for specific allocation or required to be made available for domestic consumption pursuant to Supplementary Order M–37–c, or set aside pursuant to the provisions of this order, shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of Supplementary Order M–37–c prior to February 1, 1943, or in accordance with the provisions of this order thereafter, or held by the producer until disposed of, specifically allocated or released by the Director General for Operations.

(j) Changes of machinery. In the event that knitting machines, looms or similar fabricating machines which consumed the basic monthly poundage of the domestic manufacturer in the first half of 1941, are, or have been, moved from one location to another, scrapped, their operation discontinued, or their ownership or operation changed, the person or persons concerned shall immediately advise the Director General for Operations, who shall thereupon take any necessary action in connection therewith, including any appropriate revisions of the basic monthly poundage, and the assignment of appropriate basic monthly poundages to any new owners or operators thereof.

(k) Doubtful cases. Whenever there is reasonable doubt as to the eligibility of any person to receive reserved domestic yarn hereunder, the matter should be referred for determination to the Director General for Operations.

(l) Reports and records. (1) Each producer with whom Forms PD–112 and PD–113 are filed in duplicate shall promptly forward to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Appeal Section, Washington, D. C., one duplicate of each such certificate endorsed as follows: "Supplied by our order No. ____" filling in the number of such supply order, together with a copy of his letter, or other form, accepting the purchaser's order.

(2) Each producer shall file with the War Production Board monthly allocation reports on Form PD–103, monthly production reports on Form PD–104, and such other reports as may hereafter be required, giving information on the yarn produced, when so required, in terms of the attached table of designations. Each fabric converter and domestic manufacturer shall also file with the War Production Board such reports as may hereafter be required.

(3) All persons operating under this order shall keep and preserve such certificates and records, including a complete file of invoices covering deliveries of rayon yarn, for not less than two years, as will clearly and adequately show their methods and rates of operation hereunder.

(m) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports, applications, forms or communications required under or referred to in this order, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–37–d.

(n) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(o) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 27th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

TABLE OF DESIGNATIONS

Tenacity designation	Range covered (grams per denier)	Elongation designation	Range covered (percent)
13	1.39 and lower.	10	10.5 and less.
15	1.40–1.59	12	10.6–12.9.
17	1.60–1.79	14	13.0–14.9.
19	1.80–1.99	16	15.0–16.9.
21	2.00–2.19	18	17.0–18.9.
23	2.20–2.39	20	19.0–20.9.
25	2.40–2.59	22	21.0–22.9.
27	2.60–2.79	24	23.0–24.9.
29	2.80–2.99	26	25.0 and over
31	3.00–3.19
33	3.20–3.39
35	3.40–3.59
39	3.80 and over

In designating yarn in accordance with the above table, the tenacity designation (an odd number) should be given first and the elongation designation (an even number) should be given next. For example, a yarn of a tenacity of 2.45 grams per denier and with an elongation of 13.6% would be referred to in terms of the above table as Type 25-14.

PART 1013—CHLORINATED RUBBER

[General Preference Order M-46 as Amended January 22, 1943[1]]

Whereas the national defense requirements have created a shortage of chlorinated rubber for defense, for private account and for export, and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1013.1 General Preference Order M-46—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Chlorinated rubber" means the reaction product of chlorine and crude rubber containing 55% to 75% of chlorine by weight, and includes the products known by the trade names of Parlon and Raolin.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of chlorinated rubber, and includes any person who has chlorinated rubber produced for him pursuant to toll agreement, or who has purchased or purchases chlorinated rubber for purposes of resale.

(b) Priorities Regulation 1. Control of the supply and direction of the distribution of chlorinated rubber is hereby taken by the Director General for Operations and all future transactions of any kind in chlorinated rubber are regulated and covered by the provisions and definitions contained in Priorities Regulation 1 (Part 944), as amended, except as otherwise specifically provided herein.

(c) Restrictions on deliveries. No producer shall, on or after November 1, 1941, make deliveries of any chlorinated rubber except as specifically directed by the Director General for Operations. At the beginning of each calendar month the Director General for Operations will issue to all producers specific directions covering deliveries of chlorinated rubber which may be made by such producers during such month.

(d) Records and reports. In addition to the records and reports required by Priorities Regulation 1, hereinabove referred to, any person who receives or orders chlorinated rubber from a producer at any time after November 1, 1941 shall furnish to the Director General for Operations, War Production Board, attention Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., information with respect to his requirements and use of such material at such times and on such forms as the Chemicals Division of the War Production Board shall prescribe, together with any other information which said Chemicals Division may deem necessary for the orderly and effective operation of this order.

(e) Revocation of previous directions. This order supersedes and revokes all previous orders, directions, and instructions heretofore issued by the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations and the Director General for Operations applicable to chlorinated rubber, to the extent that they may be inconsistent herewith: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall in any way affect or modify the order with respect to deliveries of chlorinated rubber heretofore on the 13th day of October 1941, issued by the Director of Priorities to Hercules Powder Company, Inc.

(f) Restrictions on use. Except as may be otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations, on and after February 23, 1942,

(1) No person shall use chlorinated rubber for a use not specified below:

(i) As a paint, for interior use (not including floor coating) in industrial plants where resistance to chemical corrosion is required. As a paint, for interior use in arsenals. For marine use in shipbottom and submarine paints.

(ii) For flame-proofing fabric for military use.

(iii) For tracer bullets.

(iv) For adhering natural and synthetic rubber articles to metal.

(v) For core binder cement for use in the manufacture of products by or for the Army or Navy of the United States or the United States Maritime Commission.

(2) No person shall knowingly deliver chlorinated rubber for a use not specified in paragraph (f) (1) above.

(3) The provisions of this paragraph (f) shall apply with respect to stocks of chlorinated rubber on hand on February 23, 1942. Persons who have stocks of chlorinated rubber on hand on February 23, 1942, the use of which said stocks is prohibited by provisions of this paragraph (f), shall forthwith report such fact and the details thereof to the Chemicals Division, War Production Board, and shall hold such chlorinated rubber for disposition by the Director General for Operations.

(g) Notification of consumers. Producers shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular consumers of the requirements and restrictions contained in this order, but the failure to give such notice shall not excuse any person for the obligation of complying with the terms of this order.

(h) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of chlorinated rubber conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, Reference: M-46, attention Chemicals Division, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(i) Any action which, under the terms of this order, is to be taken by the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, may be taken by either the Director General for Operations or the Rubber Director.

PART 1029—FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND ATTACHMENTS AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR

[Amendment 1 to Limitation Order L-170, as Amended Jan. 19, 1943]

Subdivision (ii) of paragraph (c) (1) of § 1029.10 Limitation Order L-170 as amended is hereby amended by deleting therefrom the quota percentage "130%" and inserting in lieu thereof the quota percentage "160%."

PART 1171—ELEVATORS

[General Conservation Order L-89, as Amended Jan. 27, 1943]

Section 1171.1 General Conservation Order L-89 as heretofore amended is further amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials used in the manufacture of elevators for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1171.1 General Conservation Order L-89—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Elevator" means any hoisting and lowering mechanism, equipped with a car or platform which moves in guides in a substantially vertical direction; including hydraulic, hydro-electric and hand power elevators, dumbwaiters, home-lifts, elevettes; but excluding mine material hoists and portable elevators. The term shall also mean inclinators, and electrically operated passenger elevating devices appurtenant to stationary stairways.

(3) "Essential hardware" means metal fastenings, reinforcing angles and plates, gate guides and shoes, recess panels, interlocks, pulleys, gate counterweights and car light fixtures, used in the manufacture or repair of elevators.

(4) "Manufacture" means the production or construction of an elevator, or the production of any parts, equipment or accessories to be attached to or incorporated in any elevator; or the assembly of any parts, equipment or accessories for the purpose of producing or constructing an elevator or any portion thereof; but does not include assembly or installation of the finished sections or portions of an elevator at the site of ultimate use of the elevator.

(5) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures any new elevator or any parts, equipment, or accessories to be attached to or incorporated in any elevator, and includes any sales or distribution outlets controlled by any such person.

(6) "Dealer" means any person who purchases new elevator parts, equipment or accessories for resale but does not include any sales or distribution outlets controlled by any manufacturer.

(7) "Order" means any commitment or other arrangement for the delivery of an elevator or parts or accessories therefor; and includes any group of purchase orders for equipment planned or anticipated for related deliveries, or to serve a common purpose, with respect to an elevator.

(8) "Restricted order" means any order (i) for a new elevator; or (ii) for changing the method of operation or control of any elevator then existing; or (iii) for parts, equipment, or accessories of any kind to be incorporated in, or installed on, any elevator then existing. For purposes of this paragraph, "operation" means the method of actuating the controller; and "control" means the system of regulation by which the starting, stopping, direction of motion, acceleration, speed, and retardation of an elevator are governed.

(b) Restrictions on acceptance of orders for and manufacture of elevator and parts. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph or in paragraph (e) no person shall (i) accept any restricted order, or (ii) commence the manufacture of any elevator or any elevator parts, equipment or accessories in fulfillment of any restricted order; unless the order has been authorized by the Director General for Operations as provided in paragraph (c). An authorization granted by the Director General for Operations under paragraph (c) shall meet the requirements of this paragraph, whether such authorization was issued before or after January 27, 1943.

(2) The limitations and restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply; (i) to any order for parts, equipment or accessories (other than for maintenance and repair, as defined in paragraph (e)) in an aggregate amount not in excess of $25.00, for installation on any single elevator; or (ii) to any order (or to manufacture in fulfillment of any order) placed with a supplier by a manufacturer or dealer for any elevator or parts to be delivered to the latter for resale or further manufacture, but such limitations and restrictions shall apply to any resale of such elevator or parts, or of the elevator into which any such parts shall be incorporated. For the purposes of this subparagraph, delivery by any such supplier to the purchaser designated by any such manufacturer or dealer shall be deemed delivery to the manufacturer or dealer and resale by him.

(c) Procedure for securing authorization for restricted orders. The authorization of the Director General for Operations required by paragraph (b) shall be obtained by the purchaser who may make application therefor on Form PD-411. The Director General for Operations may grant any such application upon such conditions, if any, as he shall specify. The authorizations of the Director General for Operations on Form PD-411 may also grant to the order, if theretofore unrated, a preference rating.

(d) Restrictions on use of materials. (1) No non-ferrous metals, or stainless or alloy steel shall be used in the manufacture of hoistway doors, car doors or gates, car or landing thresholds, face plates of operating or signal fixtures; or in the manufacture of parts therefor.

(2) No non-ferrous metals or steel shall be used in the manufacture of hanger cover plates, facias, passenger cabs (not including gates or doors), or freight elevator side guards or car gates; or in the manufacture of parts therefor; except that this restriction shall not apply to essential hardware.

(3) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to manufacture of the items specified above from material which was fabricated on January 27, 1943, to the point where use for other purposes would be impracticable.

(e) Non-applicability to maintenance and repair. The limitations and restrictions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to any order (1) for maintenance and repair parts in an aggregate amount not exceeding $500 for any single elevator to be repaired or maintained, or (2) for repair parts in any amount for any elevator when, and only when, there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations of the elevator because of the necessity for repair and the essential repair parts are not otherwise available. As used in this paragraph "maintenance" shall mean the upkeep of an elevator or elevator structure in sound working condition; and "repair" shall mean the restoration, without change of design, of any portion of an elevator or elevator structure to sound working condition, when such portion has been rendered inoperative or unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts, or other similar causes.

(f) Schedules. (1) On or before the 10th day of February, 1943, and of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board a report on Form PD-562, giving such information as shall be required by said form. (2) Regardless of the terms of any other order, rule or regulation of the War Production Board, the Director General for Operations may at any time prescribe a production or delivery schedule for any manufacturer; direct the delivery of any elevator or elevator parts, equipment, or accessories, in production or completed to any person; or direct the cancellation of any order held by any manufacturer. In the event that the Director General for Operations shall prescribe a schedule, as above provided, the manufacturer shall, to the extent possible, produce and deliver in accordance therewith, and shall make no changes therein without the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions — (1) Exemptions. The limitations and restrictions of paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this order shall not apply to any elevator or elevator parts, equipment or accessories to be installed and used aboard any ship owned or operated by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

(2) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than 2 years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the Director General for Operations shall from time to time request.

(3) Other limitation orders. Where the limitations imposed by any other L or M Order are applicable to the subject matter of this order, the most restrictive limitation shall apply, unless otherwise specifically provided herein.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(6) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L-89.

PART 1184—QUININE AND OTHER DRUGS EXTRACTED FROM CINCHONA BARK

[Conservation Order M-131, as Amended Jan. 27, 1943]

§ 1184.1 Conservation Order M-131—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Quinine" means quinine alkaloid extracted from Cinchona bark, and the quinine salts derived from quinine alkaloid.

(2) "Cinchona bark" means the bark obtained from Cinchona Succirubra P. et K. Calisaya W; C. Ledgeriana N. et T., also known as Calisaya, Peruvian or Jesuit's bark, and from its hybrids.

(3) "Totaquine" means a mixture of alkaloids from the bark of Cinchona Succirubra Pavon and other species of Cinchona, which mixture meets the standards of the United States Pharmacopeia.

(4) "Anti-malarial agent" means any product or material which according to modern medical opinion, is recognized as a specific for suppression, alleviation or cure of malarial infections.

(b) Restrictions on the purchase, sale and use of quinine, totaquine and cinchona bark. (1) No person shall sell, transfer or deliver, or purchase or accept any transfer or delivery of, or process or combine with other materials:

(i) Any quinine, except for use as an anti-malarial agent, and then only in ampoule form, uncombined with ingredients other than necessary solvent and preservative, or in powder, 5-grain tablet, or 5-grain capsule form, uncombined with ingredients other than necessary fillers and excipients: Provided, however, That licensed pharmacists may compound quinine in any form, upon individual prescriptions written by licensed physicians for quinine as an anti-malarial agent;

(ii) Any totaquine, except for use as an anti-malarial agent;

(iii) Any cinchona bark, except for primary use for the manufacture of quinine sulphate USP, quinine hydrochloride USP, quinine dihydrochloride USP, or totaquine USP.

(2) Except in the case of a sale, transfer or delivery to an ultimate consumer, no person shall sell, transfer or deliver any quinine, totaquine or cinchona bark, except upon receipt of a certificate manually signed by the person purchasing or accepting transfer or delivery or a duly authorized official, in substantially the following form, and specifying on the reverse side the quantity involved in the transaction:

(In the case of quinine)

I hereby certify that the quinine ordered hereby (specify quantity on reverse side) is for use as an anti-malarial agent, and will not be sold, transferred or delivered by me for any other purpose. This certification is made in accordance with the terms of Conservation Order M-131, as amended, with which I am familiar.

Such certification shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board and the seller or supplier of the facts stated therein. The seller or supplier shall be entitled to rely on such representation unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Any person making such certification shall use such quinine, totaquine or cinchona bark only for the purposes permitted by this order. Such certificates shall be filed with the person making delivery and not with the War Production Board.

(c) Applicability of order. The restrictions and provisions of this order shall not apply to:

(1) Any stock of cinchona bark consisting of less than 50 pounds, physically located at any one place on April 30, 1942.

(2) Purchases by importers of quinine, totaquine, or cinchona bark to be delivered from outside the continental United States: Provided, That any subsequent dealing in such materials after their importation is governed by this order.

(3) Any transaction affecting, or any use of, any quinine which on April 4, 1942, or totaquine or cinchona bark which on April 30, 1942, had been combined or compounded with other medicinal agents; but any transaction affecting or any use of, any quinine, totaquine, or cinchona bark, which has been combined or compounded with other medicinal agents after said dates is governed by this order.

(4) Any transaction affecting, or any use of, any quinine and urea hydrochloride (U.S.P.) or quinine hydrochloride and urethane which had been compounded on January 9, 1943.

(5) Any transaction affecting, or any use of, any anti-malarial agent manufactured on or before January 9, 1943, pursuant to the provisions of this order M-131 as in effect prior to January 9, 1943: Provided, however, That a certificate in the form and in the manner prescribed by paragraph (b) (2) hereof, shall be filed for each sale, transfer or delivery pursuant to this paragraph (c) (5). The word "quinine" in such certificate shall be construed to include any such quinine anti-malarial agent.

(d) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall file such reports as may be required from time to time by the Director General for Operations.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Drugs and Cosmetics Section, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-131.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1306—IRON AND STEEL

[MPR 310]

REUSABLE STRUCTURAL STEEL SHAPES AND PLATES, AND SHAFTING

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of reusable structural steel shapes and plates, and reusable steel shafting, by a separate maximum price regulation. Heretofore, maximum prices for these products have been established by Revised Price Schedule No. 49—Resale of Iron and Steel Products.[1] The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of such reusable products prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Maximum Price Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 310 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1306.551 to 1306.562, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1306.551 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Reusable structural steel shape" means any used I-beam, H-column, wide flange section, channel, angle, Z-bar, tee, rod, flat, strip, structural steel bar or other used structural steel shape; it also includes crop ends of unused shapes originating in shipbuilders' or in other fabricators' yards or plants; all of suitable size and quality without further reconditioning for use for the purposes for which new structural steel shapes are customarily used, and meeting all of the following specifications: they must be commercially straight, free from excessive rust, detrimental attachments, and pits deeper than twenty percent of the original theoretical thickness; must weigh within seven and one-half percent of the theoretical weight of new shapes of the same dimensions; and must not have been damaged by heat or fire; and the theoretical cross-sectional area at any point shall not have been reduced by more than twenty percent, nor shall the total area of the repaired surface of any piece exceed ten percent of the total surface area of that piece.

(3) "Reusable structural steel plate" means any used structural steel plate, one-eighth of an inch or thicker, including unused crop ends originating in shipbuilders' or other fabricators' yards or plants, of suitable size and quality without further reconditioning for use for the purposes for which new structural steel plates are customarily used, and meeting all of the following specifications: they must be reasonably true to line, free from excessive rust, detrimental attachments, and pits deeper than twenty percent of the original theoretical thickness, must weigh within seven and one-half percent of the theoretical weight of new plate of the same dimensions, and must not have been damaged by heat or fire, and the total area of the repaired surface must not exceed ten percent of the total area of that piece.

(4) "Reusable steel shafting" means used steel shafting of any size and length, and unused crop ends originating in shipbuilders' or other fabricators' yards or plants, meeting all of the following specifications: they must be commercially straight, free from excessive rust, pits and abrasions, and must not have been damaged by heat or fire.

(5) "Consumer" means a person who purchases reusable structural steel shapes or reusable structural steel plates, or reusable steel shafting for his own use or for use as an integral part of a fabricated unit.

(6) "Shipping point" means, in the case of a shipment wholly or partially by rail, vessel, or combination thereof, the point at which such shipment has been placed on a railroad car or a vessel for shipment to the consumer; in the case of shipment solely by motor vehicle, the point at which such shipment has been loaded on such vehicle for shipment to the consumer; and in a case in which movement by motor vehicle precedes rail or vessel movement the point at which the shipment has been placed on a railroad car or a vessel for shipment to the consumer.

§ 1306.552 Maximum prices—(a) Maximum shipping point price. On and after February 1, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver reusable structural steel shapes, reusable structural steel plates, or reusable steel shafting (herein sometimes collectively referred to as "such reusable products") to a consumer, and no consumer shall buy or accept delivery of any such reusable products at a price higher than 2.75 cents per pound, at shipping point, and no such person or consumer shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the above. The provisions of this section shall not apply to sales or deliveries of such reusable products to a consumer if prior to February 1, 1943, such products had been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller for shipment to the consumer.

(b) Maximum extras for services. Whenever, at the specific request of the consumer, one or more pieces are cut, or drilled, an extra charge may be made for each such service: Provided, That the total of these charges shall not exceed one-fourth cent per pound. The extra charge may be added only to the price for the piece or pieces on which the service or services are performed.

(c) Maximum charges for delivery. The maximum delivery charge shall be the established charge from the shipping point to the point of delivery by the mode of transportation employed: Provided, That no charge may be made for delivery within the seller's customary free delivery area. Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery includes water movement and if no established charge exists for such movement, then the actual charge incurred in such movement may be included in the delivery charge. Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery includes water movement and there are no established dock charges the actual charges incurred at the dock may be included in the delivery charge. For the purposes of this regulation, such reusable products are at their point of delivery when they have arrived for unloading at the point designated by the buyer: Provided, That if the buyer designates a point away from a railroad siding and delivery is by rail, they are at their point of delivery when they have arrived for unloading at the rail siding nearest the point designated by the buyer.

(d) Maximum delivered prices. The maximum delivered prices for such reusable products sold to a consumer shall not exceed the sum of the maximum shipping point price, maximum extra charges when applicable and the maximum delivery charges.

(e) Maximum prices for export. Maximum prices at which a person may sell such reusable products to any person, whether or not a consumer, for export may not exceed the maximum prices established by this regulation for sales to consumers.

(f) Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery and, where a petition for amendment has been made pursuant to § 1306.560 of this regulation, may offer or agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1306.553 Taxes. As to any tax upon, or incidental to, the sale or delivery of such reusable products imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, if the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1306.554 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1306.555 Geographical application. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1306.556 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded by direct or indirect methods.

§ 1306.557 Records and reports. (a) Every person making a sale of such reusable products after January 31, 1943, shall render an invoice to the consumer for each such sale, showing separately the date; name and address of the consumer; a description of each item (indicating whether I-beam, H-column, channel, angle, steel plate, shafting, etc.), including the measurements (length, width and thickness, or length and diameter in the case of shafting), and the total quantity in lineal feet (or square feet) and the total weight; the shipping point price per pound; the total price; the delivery charge (if any); and the charge (if any) for extras; the city or town and state nearest the shipping point; the city or town and state nearest the point of delivery; and the mode of transportation used to deliver the product; except that in the case of the bulk sales a public scale receipt may be substituted for the description of each item. The seller must also show on each invoice by the word "used" that each such reusable product is not new or of new quality, and the invoice must bear the words "sold subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 310." Such invoice shall be retained by the consumer, and a copy shall be retained by the seller, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for a period of not less than two years, or as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall be in effect, whichever is shorter.

(b) Persons affected by this regulation shall submit such other or further reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

§ 1306.558 Licensing order applicable. The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 17,[1] licensing persons subject to Revised Price Schedules 46[2] and 49,[3] and Maximum Price Regulation 159[4] are applicable to every person selling such reusable products for which maximum prices are established by this regulation. That order provides in substance that a license is required of every person selling, such reusable products for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, that every person subject to this regulation is granted a license as a condition of selling such reusable products hereunder, and that every such person may in the future be required to register with the Office of Price Administration at such time and in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe. Licensees violating any of the provisions of this regulation or of said license are subject to the license suspension proceedings provided in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1306.559 Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1306.560 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[5]

§ 1306.561 Applicability of other maximum price regulations or revised price schedules—(a) Revised Price Schedule No. 49.[6] This regulation supersedes § 1306.159 (l) of Revised Price Schedule No. 49 as to sales for which maximum prices are established by this Regulation.

(b) Revised Price Schedule No. 4.[7] Maximum prices for used structural steel shapes and plates and shafting, and crop ends from structural steel shapes and plates and shafting, which do not meet the specifications described in §1306.551 (a)(2), (3) and (4), are established by Revised Price Schedule No. 4—Iron and Steel Scrap. Revised Price Schedule No. 4 established maximum prices only on sales to consumers as defined therein.

Issued this 26th day of January 1943.

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 137,[1] Amendment 19]

PETROLEUM PRODUCTS SOLD AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1340.86 a new paragraph (e) is added, in § 1340.90 (a) subparagraph (12) is amended, and in § 1340.91 a new paragraph (l) is added as set forth below:

§ 1340.86 Statement and posting of maximum prices of motor fuels sold at retail establishments. * * *

(e) (1) Any person subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 selling naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oil as anti-freeze preparations at retail establishments shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board within 5 days after February 1, 1943, or the initial sale, whichever is later, a written statement setting forth the following with respect to such petroleum fractions:

(i) The seller's maximum price as determined by 1340.91 (l),

(ii) The delivered cost at the particular retail establishment, and

(iii) A description thereof by reference to trade name and type, such as naphtha type or kerosene type.

(2) Any change in delivered cost of naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oil sold as an anti-freeze preparation shall be reported in writing to the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board within 5 days after such change occurs.

§ 1340.90 Definitions. (a) * * *

(12) "Petroleum products" means motor fuel as defined in § 1340.90 (a) (2), kerosene, range oil, No. 1 fuel oil, cleaner's or other naphthas, motor lubricating oil and solvents, mineral spirits, and all distillate fuel oils and other petroleum fractions when sold as anti-freeze preparations.

* * * * *

(l) (1) The maximum price at a retail establishment for naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil or heavier distillate fuel oil shall be the sum of the delivered cost per gallon thereof at the retail establishment and 3¢ per gallon. The maximum price for the particular product at the particular retail establishment shall be automatically adjustable as the delivered cost thereof at the particular retail establishment changes. For the purposes of this paragraph (l) the delivered cost shall be deemed to change only after the seller has sold an amount equal to the volume on hand at the time the change in delivered cost occurs.

(2) In connection with each sale at a retail establishment of naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil or heavier distillate fuel oil as an anti-freeze preparation, the seller shall notify the purchaser that the anti-freeze preparation is a petroleum fraction describing it by reference to type such as naphtha type or kerosene type and that the preparation may cause overheating and rubber deterioration.

§ 1340.93a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(c) Amendment No. 19 (§§ 1340.86 (e), 1340.90 (a) (12), 1340.91 (l)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall become effective February 1, 1943, and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire on March 1, 1943.

(xiii) Petroleum fractions sold as anti-freeze preparations in 1-gallon glass jars. (a) The maximum price of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oils when sold as anti-freeze preparations in 1-gallon glass jars shall be 30¢ a gallon f. o. b. manufacturer's plant: Provided, however, That in the States of Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming the maximum price for kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oils when sold as anti-freeze preparations in 1-gallon glass jars shall be 33¢ a gallon f. o. b. manufacturer's plant.

(b) The maximum price of naphthas, solvents and mineral spirits, when sold as anti-freeze preparations in 1-gallon glass jars shall be 35¢ a gallon, f. o. b. manufacturer's plant: Provided, however, That in the States of Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming the maximum price for naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits and other petroleum fractions lighter than kerosene when sold as anti-freeze perparations in 1-gallon glass jars shall be 38¢ a gallon f. o. b. manufacturer's plant.

(c) The maximum price of a petroleum fraction when sold by the manufacturer thereof as an anti-freeze preparation in bulk or in any container other than a 1-gallon glass jar shall be a price f. o. b. the manufacturer's plant determined in accordance with § 1340.159 (b) (7) of this Revised Price Schedule No. 88.

(d) There shall be placed on each 1-gallon glass jar or other container of naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oil sold as an anti-freeze preparation by the manufacturer thereof a label immediately below the brand name of the product containing a statement in 12 point bold face or larger type setting forth the following: "Type—(Kerosene or Naphtha)—May cause overheating and rubber deterioration."

(e) The maximum price delivered to a retail establishment which any jobber or distributor of naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oil sold as an anti-freeze preparation may charge shall be the sum of the maximum price thereof f. o. b. the manufacturer's plant, the cost per gallon of transportation from the manufacturer's plant to the storage facilities of the jobber or distributor, and 2¢ per gallon. The maximum price of the jobber or distributor shall be automatically adjustable as the cost of transportation from manufacturer's plant to the storage facilities of the jobber or distributor changes. For the purposes of this provision the cost of transportation shall not be deemed to change until the seller has sold an amount equal to the volume on hand at the time the change in transportation cost occurs.

(f) The maximum price delivered to a retail establishment which any reseller having no storage facilities may charge for naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oil sold as an anti-freeze preparation shall be the sum of the maximum price thereof f. o. b. the manufacturer's plant and 2 cents.

PART 1412—SOLVENTS

[MPR 170,[1] Amendment 2]

ANTI-FREEZE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Sections 1412.6 (a) (1) (i), (a) (1) (iii), (a) (2), the first sentence in § 1412.6 (b) (1), and § 1412.12 (a) (2) are amended; a new subparagraph (17) is added to § 1412.12 (a) and new paragraphs (g) and (h) are added to § 1412.13 as set forth below:

§ 1412.6 Marking and posting. (a) * * *

(1) * * *

(i) The type of anti-freeze contained therein, that is, "Type N", "Type S", "Type P", or "Type C", as the case may be, the trade name in the case of "Zerone," and in the case of Type C anti-freeze, the following additional statement: "This anti-freeze contains as its principal ingredient (Insert here the common name of the inorganic salt used in preparing the solution)."

* * * * *

(iii) The applicable maximum retail price as established by Appendix A (§ 1412.13) for the anti-freeze contained therein. Such price shall be designated as follows: "OPA Retail Ceiling Price $_____." The blank in the quoted phrase shall be filled in with the applicable maximum retail price as established by Appendix A (§ 1412.13) by the packager in the case of Type S, Type N and Type C anti-freeze and by the retailer in the case of Type P anti-freeze, but in the latter case the packager shall supply the retailer with instructions as to the manner of determining the maximum retail price under the provisions of Appendix A (§ 1412.13).

(2) The type ("N", "S", "P", or "C") and the applicable maximum retail price established by Appendix A (§ 1412.13) shall be printed in letters at least two inches high on containers of more than five gallons, and in letters at least as large as any other printed matter thereon other than the trade mark or trade name on containers of five gallons or less.

* * * * * *

(b) * * *

(1) Every person selling anti-freeze at retail shall post the maximum price of each type (N, S, P or C), strength (standard or substandard), and brand of anti-freeze sold by him, in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

* * * * *

§ 1412.12 Definitions. (a) * * *

(2) "Anti-freeze" means any alcohol, alcohol formulation, or solution of an inorganic salt such as calcium, magnesium, or sodium chloride, sold for use as a depressant of the freezing point of water.

* * * * * *

(17) "Type C" anti-freeze means an anti-freeze which has as its principal component an inorganic salt such as calcium, magnesium, or sodium chloride.

* * * * * *

§ 1412.13 Appendix A: Maximum prices for anti-freeze. * * *

(g) Standard strength anti-freeze, Type C. Maximum prices for standard strength Type C anti-freeze are established as follows:

(1) Sales to retailers by any person.

[Per gallon delivered, containers included]

	Calcium chloride, sodium chloride, or mixed salt base	Magnesium chloride base
Over 5 gallons	$ .40	$ .47
1-5 gallons	.46	.53
Less than 1 gallon	.51	.58

(2) Sales at retail. Delivered, including installation in automobile cooling system where buyer so requests and where anti-freeze is customarily so installed by the seller without charge:

	Calcium chloride, sodium chloride, or mixed salt base	Magnesium chloride base
In quantities of 1 gallon or more	Per gallon $0.75	Per gallon $0.82
In quantities of less than 1 gallon	Per quart .20	Per quart .23

Provided, That until February 15, 1943, any seller of any Type C anti-freeze other than a manufacturer, who prior to February 1, 1943 had purchased Type C anti-freeze and had it in his possession or in the custody of a carrier or warehouse other than a carrier or warehouse owned or controlled by the person from whom such anti-freeze was acquired, may sell such anti-freeze at the maximum price established in this section or at his cost of acquisition, whichever is higher.

(h) Substandard strength anti-freeze, Type C. For sales covered by subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (g) above, the maximum price for any quantity of substandard strength Type C anti-freeze in any kind of container shall be the maximum price, as determined under whichever one of said subparagraphs (1) or (2) is applicable, for that quantity of standard strength Type C anti-freeze in like containers, which would produce an anti-freeze effect equal to that produced by the quantity of substandard strength Type C anti-freeze being priced. Such maximum price shall not exceed the price determined by computation under the following formula: subtract 25% from the maximum price for a quantity of standard strength Type C anti-freeze (in like containers) equal to the quantity of substandard strength Type C anti-freeze being priced, and divide the result by the number of gallons of such substandard strength Type C anti-freeze which must be added to one gallon of water to reduce the freezing point of the resulting mixture to ten degrees below zero Fahrenheit.

PART 1437—PLATINUM

[MPR 309]

PLATINUM GROUP METALS AND THEIR PRODUCTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for the platinum group metals and their products by a specific maximum price regulation.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 is hereby issued.

Sec.

1437.1 Maximum prices for platinum group metals, products, and waste materials.
1437.2 Less than maximum prices.
1437.3 Credit charges.
1437.4 Packaging and transportation charges and practices.
1437.5 Import sales.
1437.6 Export sales.
1437.7 Adjustable pricing.
1437.8 Evasion.
1437.9 Records and reports.
1437.10 Enforcement.
1437.11 Petitions for amendment.
1437.12 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.
1437.13 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1437.1 to 1437.13, inclusive, issued pursuant to Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; and E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1437.1 Maximum prices for platinum group metals, products, and waste materials. On and after February 1, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person shall sell, deliver or exchange any platinum group metal, product, or waste material, and no person shall buy or receive any platinum group metal, product or waste material in the course of trade or business from any seller, at a price in excess of the following, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing prohibited acts:

(a) Platinum group metals of commercial purity. (1) A seller's maximum price for any of the platinum group metals of commercial purity of at least 99.5% in the form specified below shall be the price set forth in the following table less any discounts, differentials, or allowances which the seller had in effect in the period from January 1 to March 31, 1942, for the sale of such metal to a purchaser of the same class:

Metal	Minimum commercial purity	Form of metal to which prices apply	Maximum price per troy ounce
	Per cent
Platinum	99.5	Ingots, bars, sheets, plates or wire not less than ⅛th inch thick and sponge	$35
Palladium	99.5	Ingots, bars, sheets, plates or wire not less than ⅛th inch thick	24
Ruthenium	99.5	Powder, sponge or granules	35
Rhodium	99.5	Powder, sponge or granules	125
Iridium	99.5	Powder, sponge or granules	165
Osmium	99.5	Powder or sponge	50

(2) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309, the term:

(i) "Had in effect" as applied to discounts, differentials, allowances, and prices, means the dollar-and-cents discount, differential, allowance, or price per troy ounce at which the seller sold or, if no sale was made, at which the seller would have sold.

(ii) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(iii) "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller of setting different prices for commodities or services for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, producer, refiner, smelter, dealer, fabricator, government agency, individual consumer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or under different conditions of sale. Customary differentials in discounts on price list goods shall be among the criteria which establish differences among classes of purchasers.

(iv) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale," "selling," "sold," "seller," "buy," "purchase," and "purchaser," shall be construed accordingly.

(3) Examples. (i) A sale of ten ounces of platinum of commercial purity ⅛" thick to a consumer. The maximum selling price is $35.00 per ounce.

(ii) A sale of ten ounces of platinum of commercial purity ⅛" thick to a refiner. The seller has determined that his minimum discount on sales to refiners for resale was fifty cents during the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942. His maximum selling price for this sale now is $34.50 per ounce.

(iii) A sale of one hundred ounces of platinum of commercial purity ⅛" thick to a consumer. The seller has determined that his minimum discount on sales of this quantity to a certain industry was fifty cents during the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942. His maximum selling price on this sale to the same industry now is $34.50 per ounce.

(b) Platinum group metal products. (1) A seller's maximum price for any semi-fabricated or fabricated platinum group metal product shall not exceed the highest net price which he had in effect in the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, for the sale of such product to a purchaser of the same class, adjusted so that the value given to the platinum group metal content of such product in the calculation of such net price shall not exceed the maximum net price for such metal as computed under paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 the term:

(i) "Semi-fabricated or fabricated platinum group metal product" means any commodity, other than those specified in paragraph (a) or (c) of § 1437.1, and other than jewelry, in which the weight or value of the platinum group metal content thereof exceeds 25% of the weight or value respectively of the commodity.

(ii) "Jewelry" means any ornamental article or accessory of personal adornment, including but not limited to rings, brooches, bracelets, initials, tie pins, collar pins, atomizers (except medical), cosmetic containers, lighters, napkin rings, picture frames, smokers' accessories, souvenirs, or any other similar ware and ornaments which are finished and ready for use by the ultimate consumer.

(iii) "Net price" means the price actually charged by the seller; i. e., the list or quoted price less all discounts, allowances, and differentials.

(3) Examples. (i) A sale of an alloy of ten ounces containing 20% iridium—80% platinum in sheet ⅛" thick to a consumer. The seller has determined that his maximum alloying, melting and working charge during the period from January 1 to March 31, 1942, for this alloy was $2. His maximum selling price per ounce is figured as follows:

80% Platinum	@ $35.00	----	$28 00
20% Iridium	@ $165.00	----	33 00
Working charge			2.00

(ii) A sale of an alloy of ten ounces containing 20% iridium—80% platinum in sheet ⅛" thick to a refiner. The seller has determined, as in the previous example, that his maximum alloying, melting and working charge during the period from January 1 to March 31, 1942, for this alloy was $2. He has also determined that his minimum discount on sales to refiners for resale was $1 during the period from January 1 to March 31, 1942. His maximum selling price per ounce is figured as follows:

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 8961.

80% Platinum	@	$35.00	$28.00
20% Iridium	@	$165.00	33.00
Working charge			2.00
			63.00
Discount			−1.00
Maximum price			62.00

(iii) A sale of an alloy of one hundred ounces containing 20% iridium—80% platinum in sheet $\frac{1}{8}$" thick to a consumer. The seller has determined that his minimum discount on sales of this quantity to a certain industry was $1. an ounce during the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942. His maximum selling price now is $62. per ounce.

(iv) A sale of an alloy of ten ounces containing 20% iridium—80% platinum drawn into wire .010" in diameter to a consumer. The seller has determined that he made an additional charge of $1. during the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, for drawing this alloy into wire of this size. His maximum selling price then is $64. per ounce.

(v) A sale of ten ounces of platinum of thermocouple purity in wire .025" in diameter to a manufacturer of pyrometers. The seller has determined that his maximum charge for refining this type of platinum and drawing it into wire during the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, was $40. per ounce. His maximum selling price for this sale now is $75. per ounce.

(vi) A sale of five ounces of platinum dental foil .001" thick to a consumer. The seller has determined that his maximum charge for working 5 ounces of platinum into dental foil during the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, was $6. per ounce. His maximum price for this sale now is $41. per ounce.

(vii) A sale of contact points made of steel screws with a disc of 20% iridium—80% platinum. This iridium-platinum alloy was purchased in a 100 ounce lot. The seller has determined that his cost of the iridium-platinum is $62. per ounce as shown in Example (iii). He must use this price as the basis of his calculation. The other factors in determining the selling price must be no higher than the highest values of those factors during the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942. A hypothetical cost sheet per 1000 finished points should read as follows:

Cost of the platinum-iridium alloy @ $62 per ounce	$500.00
Overhead and loss	25.00
Cost of screws	25.00
Labor cost	50.00
Set-up price	10.00
Percent profit mark-up	50.00
Present maximum selling price	660.00

(c) Platinum group metals of less than 99.5% purity and platinum group metal scrap, sweeps, or other waste products. (1) A seller's maximum price for platinum group metals of less than 99.5% purity and for the platinum group metal content of scrap, sweeps, or other waste products shall not exceed the highest net price which the seller had in effect in the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class for the sale of such metals or waste products adjusted so that the value given to such platinum group metal content in the calculation of such net price shall not exceed the maximum net price for such metal as computed under paragraph (a) of this Section. The value of any other material contained in such metal or waste products shall not exceed the maximum price established therefor under the applicable regulations of the Office of Price Administration.

(2) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309, the term "scrap, sweeps, and other waste products" includes all materials containing any of the platinum group metals, whether in metallic form or not, which are the waste or by-product of metal working of any kind, or of any use of the platinum group metals in industry or the arts; it also includes all articles containing any of the platinum group metals, whether in metallic form or not, which have been discarded from their original use because of obsolescence, failure or other reasons, provided that the weight or value of the platinum group metal content of any such article exceeds 25% of the weight or value, respectively, of the article. It does not include articles which are still useful in their existing state for their original purpose if such articles are bought and sold for re-use in their existing state for their original purpose.

(d) Any seller of a platinum group metal, product, or waste material who is unable to determine his maximum price or prices under paragraph (a), (b), or (c), shall file his selling price for that commodity with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for approval. Such selling price shall be determined, whenever feasible, by the use of the pricing formula or method of calculating prices used by the seller in the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, to determine the price of similarly priced platinum group metals, products, or waste material for which he had prices in effect at that time. The values given to the factors used in such formula or method shall be no higher than the highest values given to the same factors in the determination of his prices in the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, adjusted so that the value given to the platinum group metal content shall not exceed the maximum net price for such metal as computed under paragraph (a) of this section.

Pending approval by the Price Administrator of prices submitted for approval under this subdivision, any seller may sell, deliver, exchange, or offer to sell, deliver or exchange, and any person may buy, offer to buy or receive from the seller, such metal, product, or waste material at the price submitted for approval. If, however, the Price Administrator disapproves the price submitted, the selling price shall be revised downward to the maximum price which the Price Administrator may approve, and any payment made in excess of the price so approved shall be refunded to the buyer within fifteen days after the date of the letter, order, or other written instrument informing the seller of such revision. In the absence of notice to the contrary from the Office of Price Administration within thirty days after a seller files such a selling price with the Office of Price Administration, the price filed shall stand approved and shall be the maximum price applicable.

When filing such a price with the Office of Price Administration, the seller shall set forth, in addition to the net price, his list price, and all discounts, allowances, and differentials for all classes of buyers, a description and identification of the commodity, a statement of facts differentiating such commodity from the other commodities sold by the seller, and a statement setting forth the method used in calculating the price therefor.

§ 1437.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1437.1 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1437.3 Credit charges. A charge for the extension of credit may be added to the maximum prices set forth in § 1437.1: Provided, Such credit charge does not exceed one ($1.00) dollar per troy ounce: And provided further, That the period of credit shall exceed thirty days.

§ 1437.4 Packaging and transportation charges and practices. A seller may not change the packaging and transportation charges and practices which he had in effect in the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, if such change would result in higher prices to his customers

§ 1437.5 Import sales. The maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 apply to all imports into the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia of the platinum group metals, their products and waste materials.

§ 1437.7 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation where a petition for amendment requires extended consideration, the Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1437.8 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to platinum group metals and their products, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1437.9 Records and reports. (a) Every person making sales or deliveries of platinum group metals and their products, and every person making purchases or accepting delivery of platinum group metals and their products in the course of trade or business, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long a period as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale, purchase, or delivery showing the date thereof, the name of the purchaser or seller, the quantity and grade of platinum group metals and their products sold, purchased, or delivered, and the price received or paid therefor, and each such seller shall keep a record of all discounts, differentials, and allowances which the seller had in effect in the period from January 1, to March 31, 1942, with a proper identification of each such discount, differential and allowance.

(b) Such person shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration, and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1437.10 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309, or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1437.11 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 may file a petition for an amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1437.12 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation. [2] The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 does not supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries of ores and ore concentrates of the platinum group metals which are at the present time exempt from the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation under section 9 (a) (10) thereof.

§ 1437.13 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 309 (§§ 1437.1 to 1437.13, inclusive) shall become effective February 1, 1943, for the District of Columbia and the forty-eight states of the United States, and shall become effective February 11, 1943, for the territories and possessions of the United States.

Issued this 26th day of January 1943.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 11,[1] Amendment 32]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1394.5151 (c) is revoked: the headnotes to §§ 1394.5266 and 1394.5267 are amended by substituting the phrase "Late applications" for the phrase "Applications made on or after November 1, 1942" in each; paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) of § 1394.5266, and §§ 1394.5267 (b) and 1394.5355 (b) are revoked; § 1394.5402 (g) is amended; §§ 1394.5461 and 1394.5462 are revoked; § 1394.5603 (a) is amended; in paragraph (b) of § 1394.5701, the phrase "Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section" is deleted, and paragraph (c) of said section is revoked; § 1394.5731 (c) is revoked; and a new paragraph (ff) is added to § 1394.5902; as set forth below:

Miscellaneous Uses

§ 1394.5402 Rations for miscellaneous uses. * * *

(g) Each commercial, industrial or governmental consumer whose current allowable ration is more than nine thousand (9,000) gallons of fuel oil for an operation or operations in the area mentioned in paragraph (f) of this section and was not adjusted as provided in said paragraph (f) shall, if the fuel oil is not for use exclusively in any operation or operations listed on Schedule "A" of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3, issued by the Petroleum Administration of War, surrender (personally or by mail), on January 25, 26, or 27, 1943, to such Board or to such State, District or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration as shall be designated for such purpose by the Regional Administrator for the region in which the consumer's Board is located, all coupon sheets, other evidences, and delivery receipts evidencing the ration issued to him. The Board or Office to which such surrender is made shall adjust the consumer's current allowable ration in accordance with paragraph (f) of this section, and shall detach from the consumer's coupon sheets coupons equal in gallonage value to the amount by which the allowable ration exceeds such allowable ration as adjusted by the operation of paragraph (f) of this section. The Board or Office detaching such coupons shall enter under the register of deliveries on the coupon sheet the date, the number and value of the coupons detached, the number of the Board or the designation of the Office and the name of the person making the entries. If a delivery receipt is surrendered, the deduction pursuant to paragraph (f) shall be entered on the stub, together with the date, the number of the Board or designation of the Office and the name of the person making the entries.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 246 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

LAMBERT VITAMINS COMPANY

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1482 Approval of maximum prices for sales of "Nutri-Mins"—(a) Sales by the Lambert Vitamins Company—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by the Lambert Vitamins Company of New York, New York, of "Nutri-Mins" are established as set forth below:

Size of package	Maximum price per package
	To wholesalers	To retailers
24 tablets	$ .27	$ .32
200 tablets	1.94	2.33

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. The Lambert Vitamins Company shall apply to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for its sales of "Nutri-Mins" all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, cash discounts, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of transportation costs, and any other customary allowances which were in effect in March 1942 on sales of "Listerine" by the Lambert Pharmacal Company.

(b) Sales by wholesalers—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by wholesalers of "Nutri-Mins" are established as set forth below:

Size of package:	Maximum price per package
24 tablets	$ .32
200 tablets	2.33

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Any wholesaler making sales of "Nutri-Mins" shall apply to the maximum prices set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, cash discounts, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of shipping charges, and other customary allowances which were in effect in March 1942 on sales by the wholesaler of "Vimms" or on sales of the multiple vitamin product most nearly comparable to "Nutri-Mins" if the wholesaler did not sell "Vimms" in March 1942.

(c) Sales by retailers—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by retailers of "Nutri-Mins" are established as set forth below:

Size of package:	Maximum price per package
24 tablets	$ .48

(2) Discounts for purchasers of different classes. Any retailer making sales of "Nutri-Mins" shall apply to the maximum prices set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all discounts for purchasers of different classes which were in effect in March 1942 on sales by the retailer of "Vimms" or on sales of the multiple vitamin product most nearly comparable to "Nutri-Mins" if the retailer did not sell "Vimms" in March 1942.

(d) Marking package with retail ceiling price. The Lambert Vitamins Company shall mark each package of 24 tablets of "Nutri-Mins" sold by it after March 1, 1943, with the words "Ceiling Price 48¢", and each package of 200 tablets of "Nutri-Mins" sold by it after March 1, 1943, with the words "Ceiling Price $3.50." These words shall be printed or stamped in letters clearly legible and at least one quarter as large as those used for the name of the product on the package in which "Nutri-Mins" is customarily sold to the ultimate consumer. No retailer shall make sales of "Nutri-Mins" after May 1, 1943, unless the package in which the product is sold is marked with the retail ceiling price as required by this paragraph.

(e) Notification of maximum prices—(1) By the Lambert Vitamins Company to wholesalers. The Lambert Vitamins Company shall supply a written notification to each wholesaler before or at the time of its first delivery of "Nutri-Mins" to such wholesaler. The written statement shall read as follows:

OPA has authorized us to charge wholesalers 27¢ for 24 "Nutri-Mins" tablets and $1.94 for 200 "Nutri-Mins" tablets, subject to all cash discounts and customary allowances.

Wholesalers are authorized to establish maximum prices of 32¢ for 24 "Nutri-Mins" tablets and $2.33 for 200 "Nutri-Mins" tablets, subject to all cash discounts and customary allowances.

(2) By the Lambert Vitamins Company to retailers via wholesalers. The Lambert Vitamins Company shall include a written notification with each shipping unit of "Nutri-Mins" for a period of three months. If such notification is enclosed in a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed." If the initial sale by a wholesaler to a retailer is a split-case sale, the wholesaler is required to provide such retailer with a copy of this notice. The written notification shall read as follows:

OPA has authorized wholesalers to charge 32¢ for 24 "Nutri-Mins" tablets and $2.33 for 200 "Nutri-Mins" tablets, subject to all cash discounts and customary allowances.

Retailers are authorized to establish ceiling prices of 48¢ for 24 "Nutri-Mins" tablets and $3.50 for 200 "Nutri-Mins" tablets.

If the initial sale by a wholesaler to a retailer is a split-case sale, the wholesaler is required to provide such retailer with a copy of this notice.

OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(3) By the Lambert Vitamins Company to retailers. The Lambert Vitamins Company shall supply a written notification to each retailer before or at the time of its first delivery of "Nutri-Mins" to such retailer. The written statement shall read as follows:

OPA has authorized us to charge retailers 32¢ for 24 "Nutri-Mins" tablets and $2.33 for 200 "Nutri-Mins" tablets, subject to all cash discounts and customary allowances.

Your ceiling prices are authorized to be 48¢ for 24 "Nutri-Mins" tablets and $3.50 for 200 "Nutri-Mins" tablets.

OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(f) Definitions. When used in this order the term:

(1) "'Nutri-Mins'" means a vitamin preparation manufactured by the Lambert Vitamins Company, each tablet of which contains the following amounts of specific vitamin substances:

Vitamin A	2,000 U.S.P. units

PART 1306—IRON AND STEEL

[RPS 10—Including Amdts. 1 through 4]

PIG IRON [1]

The Office of Price Administration is charged with maintenance of price stability and the prevention of undue price rises and price dislocations. Iron and steel scrap and pig iron are basic materials for the production of iron and steel products. By Price Schedule No. 4, revised [2] and Price Schedule No. 6, revised, respectively, price ceilings have been placed on iron and steel scrap and on iron and steel products. Recent wage increases and the increased demand for pig iron resulting from the national defense emergency have been exerting pressure upon the price structure, causing the prices of certain grades and kinds of pig iron to be increased. In the interest of national defense and the public interest a price ceiling is necessary. On the basis of information secured by independent investigation by this Office, and upon information furnished by the trade, I find that the maximum ("ceiling") prices as set forth below constitute reasonable limitations on prices for pig iron.

[1] 7 F.R. 1230.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734 it is hereby directed that:

Sec.

1306.51 Definitions
1306.52 Maximum ("ceiling") prices on sales of pig iron.
1306.53 Records.
1306.54 Supplement.
1306.55 Petitions for amendment, adjustment or exception.
1306.56 Appendix A: Basing point base prices for pig iron.
1306.58 Geographical application.
1306.59 Effective dates of amendments.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1306.51 to 1306.59, inclusive, issued under E.O. Nos. 8734, 8875; 6 F.R. 1917, 4483. Executive authority superseded by Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; and E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1306.51 Definitions. When used in Price Schedule No. 10:

(a) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing. ((a) amended by Supplementary Order No. 12, 7 F.R. 6385).

(b) The term "pig iron", includes all pig iron such as basic, foundry, malleable, bessemer, low-phosphorus, high-silicon or silvery, gray forge, charcoal, etc., commonly produced in blast furnaces.

(c) The term "basing point base price" means the prices for pig iron as listed in § 1306.56, Appendix A.

(d) The term "differential" means those provided in § 1306.56, Appendix A, otherwise the charges in effect June 24, 1941, prescribing additions or deductions from the base price to make adjustment for various analyses of the product sold from the product governed by the base price, which variations may be in chemical analysis, or other quality of the product.

(e) The term "governing basing point" means that basing point the use of which results in the lowest delivered price at the place of delivery; in the case of exports it may also mean the established basing point at or nearest the place of production.

(f) The term "usual market area" of any plant with respect to a shipment of pig iron means that area into which it was customary for such plant to ship pig iron in quantities comparable to the shipments being made before the emergency conditions arising from the present war. ((f) added by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 2841)

§ 1306.52 Maximum ("ceiling") prices on sales of pig iron. On and after June 24, 1941, regardless of any commitment theretofore entered into, no person who produces pig iron shall sell or deliver or offer to sell or deliver any such product, and no purchaser shall buy or accept delivery or offer to buy or accept delivery from such person of any such product, at a price exceeding the maximum ("ceiling") price: Provided, That with respect to any sale of pig iron for future delivery, a contract may provide for the payment of an adjusted price not to exceed the maximum ("ceiling") price in effect at the time of shipment.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that the prohibition contained in any price regulation against buying or receiving any commodity or service at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by such regulation shall not apply to any war procurement agency, or government whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States.]

A lower price than the ceiling price may be charged, demanded, offered, or paid. The price limitations set forth in Price Schedule No. 10 shall not be evaded by additional charges for prompt or early delivery, or by other direct, or indirect methods, nor shall the other terms and conditions of sale be made more onerous to the purchasers than those available or in effect on June 24, 1941.

(a) The domestic ceiling price for any grade or kind of pig iron for which there are basing point base prices shall be the aggregate of: (1) the basing point base price at the governing basing point; (2) differentials; (3) transportation charges from the governing basing point to the place of delivery as customarily computed.

(b) The export ceiling price for any grade or kind of pig iron for which there are basing point base prices shall be the aggregate of: (1) the basing point base price at the governing basing point; (2) differentials; (3) export transportation charges from the governing basing point to the place of delivery as customarily computed.

For all special kinds or grades of pig iron for which there are no differentials, the ceiling prices shall be the basing point base prices and the special differentials which were or would have been charged by the seller on June 24, 1941 (upon the basis of the prices, discounts, charges, or special differentials then listed or quoted by the seller), for such kinds or grades of pig iron, exclusive of any premium or charge for advanced delivery or any other inducement offered by the buyer or demanded by the seller to negotiate the sale.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, in any case in which the Office of Price Administration shall find that by reason of priority or preference ratings, allocation orders, or similar orders or requests of the War Production Board or other authorized Government agencies, a shipment of pig iron is made to a place which is not within the usual market area of the plant from which shipment is made, the Office of Price Administration may authorize the person selling such pig iron, to charge a price therefor not to exceed the aggregate of: (1) the basing point base price at the established basing point at or nearest the place of origin of shipment; (2) differentials; (3) transportation charges from the established basing point at or nearest the place of origin of shipment to the place of delivery as customarily computed, less $1.00 per gross ton. ((c) added by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 2841.)

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section, in any case in which the Price Administrator shall find that by reason of priority or preference ratings, allocation orders, or similar orders or requests of the War Production Board or other authorized Government agency, a shipment of pig iron is made from the Buffalo, New York, area to a place within the usual market area of the plant from which shipment is made and to which the customary method of shipment before the emergency conditions arising from the present war was by barge or by barge and rail, the Price Administrator may authorize the person selling such pig iron to charge, if barge transportation is not used for such shipment, a price therefor not to exceed the aggregate of: (1) the basing point base price at the governing basing point; (2) differentials; (3) transportation charges from the governing basing point to the place of delivery as customarily computed; (4) the difference between the charges for all-rail transportation and the charges for barge or barge and rail transportation from Buffalo to the place of delivery, calculated at the established rates in effect during the barge shipping season of 1941. ((d) added by Amendment 2, 7 F.R. 6474.)

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price.]

§ 1306.53 Records. (a) Every person who produces pig iron shall retain copies of all invoices, dated January 1, 1941, or later, relating to sales of such products, including sales to exporters, brokers and all other persons purchasing for resale. Reports on such sales, in such form as may be determined, will be required by supplements issued under Price Schedule No. 10.

(b) Every person who produces and sells pig iron shall file a copy of his price schedules, including differentials, stating the prices, charges and discounts in effect on June 24, 1941. Such materials shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before July 10, 1941.

§ 1306.54 Supplement. In order to facilitate the application of Price Schedule No. 10, supplements further stating its scope will be issued from time to time as may be necessary, or appropriate.

§ 1306.55 Petitions for amendment, adjustment or exception. (a) Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Revised Price Schedule No. 10 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[1] ((a) amended by Supplementary Order 26, 7 F.R. 8948).

(b) Any person, who is prepared to show that (1) its costs of production of pig iron is above its furnace net realization at maximum prices or (2) its furnace net realization is inadequate in view of its high operating costs for continued operations at maximum prices, may file a petition for an adjustment of or exception to the maximum prices established by Revised Price Schedule No. 10. In such cases the petitioner should submit, and the Office of Price Administration will consider, all relevant data, including the relation of the current, requested, and projected realization on the pig iron or on the furnace, to the total over-all return of the petitioner, and the necessity, in terms of the war effort, for the granting of such adjustment or exception. The Office of Price Administration may require, in connection with any such petition, full data on costs, profits, and other relevant factors. Petitions for adjustment pursuant to this section shall be filed in the manner stated in §§ 1300.39 through 1300.41 of Procedural Regulation No. 1[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration. ((b) amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 2841)

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Supplementary Order No. 9 (F.R. 5444) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, with the exception of those on scrap, waste, and salvage materials.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

Chapter XV—Board of War Communications

[Order 27]

PART 1722—PRECEDENCE FOR TELEGRAPH MESSAGES ESSENTIAL TO THE WAR EFFORT OR PUBLIC SAFETY

Whereas the Board of War Communications has determined that the national defense and security and the successful conduct of the war demand that certain telegraph messages relating to the war effort and public safety be given preferred handling;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Board by Executive Order No. 8964[1] of December 10, 1941, prescribing regulations governing the preference and priority of communications, and by Executive Order No. 9089[2] of March 6, 1942, prescribing regulations governing the use, control, supervision and closing of stations and facilities for wire communications; It is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 1722.1 Precedence. Effective February 15, 1943, all wire-line telegraph, cable and radiotelegraph carriers shall upon specific designation by the sender give precedence in the handling of telegraph, cable, and radiotelegraph messages in accordance with the provisions of and in the order set forth below:

(a) US Urgent. To apply to domestic and international messages filed only by the State, War, and Navy Departments.

(b) OP Priority. To apply to domestic and international messages filed only by the War and Navy Departments.

(c) Priority. To apply to any domestic or international message filed by the State, War or Navy Departments and to any other domestic message requiring immediate transmission for war purposes or to safeguard life or property and which relates to one or more of the following matters:

Immediate dangers due to the presence of the enemy.

Emergency communications in connection with actual military or naval requirements.

Hurricane, flood, earthquake, or other disaster.

Messages designated "US Urgent," "OP Priority," and "Priority" shall interrupt the transmission of all telegraph messages of lower precedence.

(d) Rapid. To apply to any domestic message which requires prompt transmission and delivery for the national defense and security, the successful conduct of the war, or to safeguard life or property and which involves matters of the following type:

Important governmental functions

Machinery, tools, or raw materials for war plants.

Production, movement, and diversion of essential supplies.

Maintenance of essential public services.

Supply, movement, and diversion of food.

Civilian defense or public health and safety

§ 1722.2 Procedure for indicating priorities. The priority indicators "US Urgent," "OP Priority," "Priority," and "Rapid" should be written by the sender in the "To" space immediately before the address on messages being transmitted over commercial circuits. They are to be transmitted in plain language.

§ 1722.3 Other messages. Messages not designated with one of the foregoing priorities shall be handled in accordance with legally established classifications and tariffs on file with the Federal Communications Commission.

§ 1722.4 Definition of domestic message. As used in this order, domestic message means any telegraph message originating in the Continental United States and destined to a point in the Continental United States, Canada, or Mexico.

§ 1722.5 Priorities procedures. The Federal Communications Commission is hereby requested and authorized in cooperation with the carriers concerned to evolve procedures and routines to effectuate the precedence and requirements set forth in this order.

§ 1722.6 Violations. Any sender of a telegraph message who wilfully obtains or attempts to obtain priority for a telegraph message by fraudulently designating such message as a priority message or by furnishing false information to any telegraph carrier for the purpose of obtaining a priority, shall be subject to appropriate governmental action.

Subject to such further order as the Board may deem appropriate.

PART 1723—TELEGRAPH SERVICE

FRANKS, DEADHEAD MESSAGE, ETC.

Whereas, the Board of War Communications, on December 17, 1942, by its Order No. 25-C,[1] directed that the Federal Communications Commission develop a plan for the curtailment of the use of franks and deadhead messages and the elimination of "free service" messages and report its specific recommendations to the Board; and

Whereas the Federal Communications Commission has submitted its report and recommendations to the Board;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Board by Executive Order No. 8964[2] of December 10, 1941, prescribing regulations governing the preference and priority of communications, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Board by Executive Order No. 9089[3] of March 6, 1942, prescribing regulations governing the use, control, supervision, and closing of stations and facilities for wire communications; It is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 1723.1 Franks. All domestic telegraph carriers shall limit and restrict the issuance, exchange, and use of franks, and shall accord all messages submitted under franks the status of "night letters".

§ 1723.2 Deadhead messages. All domestic telegraph carriers shall restrict the use of deadhead messages on company business, and shall designate responsible employees to authorize all such deadhead messages before transmittal. The carriers shall so far as practicable handle such deadhead messages as deferred traffic.

§ 1723.3 Limitations upon free service messages. No domestic telegraph carrier shall transmit any free service message for a sender or addressee of a message already filed, Provided, however, That a telegraph carrier may transmit messages correcting errors or other faults of a carrier participating in the transmission of the original message.

§ 1723.4 Filing of instructions issued by carriers. Copies of all instructions issued pursuant to this Order shall be filed with the Federal Communications Commission within 30 days after the date hereof; copies of all amendments or additions to such instructions shall be filed upon issuance.

Subject to such further order as the Board may deem appropriate.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 2—ADJUDICATION: VETERANS' CLAIMS

DETERMINATIONS AS TO BASIC ENTITLEMENT

§ 2.1066 "Line of duty" under §§ 35.011 and 35.012.[1] Sections 35.011 and 35.012 require that a disabling condition for which pension or compensation is claimed shall have been incurred in line of duty, except in cases where a right to pension or compensation is preserved by § 35.04. The records of service departments will be accepted in determining "line of duty" status of diseases and injuries, unless considerations set forth in § 35.10, paragraph VIII, may warrant a different finding. Any evidence which is properly admissible or acceptable according to the practice of the Veterans' Administration, and which is of a nature competent to demonstrate that the incurrence of disability was or was not in line of duty, according to conditions specified in § 35.10, paragraph VIII, may be used as a basis for adjudications, despite any official military or naval record with respect to manner of incurrence. These determinations will be made by the officials of the Veterans' Administration charged with the responsibility of deciding claims for monetary or other benefits in the administration of laws in which line of duty is a factor. Such determinations will be final, subject to appeal procedure, except when the determination of the service department with respect to line of duty in the case of a living or deceased veteran is not concurred in by those having the foregoing responsibility and the file shows that the service department's determination was approved personally by the Secretary of the Navy, Secretary of War, The Adjutant General of the Army or by the Secretary of the Treasury. Such excepted cases will be forwarded to the director of the service concerned together with a full statement of the reasons why the line of duty decision as made by the Department Secretary or the Adjutant General should not be accepted. If the decision of the Department Secretary or the Adjutant General is concurred in by the director of the service concerned the case will be returned to the agency of original jurisdiction for adjudication accordingly. But if such determination is not concurred in the case will be forwarded to the assistant administrator. If the assistant administrator concurs in the Department's determination the file will be returned to the office having jurisdiction for adjudication accordingly. But if he does not concur the case will be referred to the Administrator for his determination. Whenever a decision is rendered by the board of veterans' appeals in which that board does not concur in a decision as to line of duty approved personally by the Secretary of

[1] Section 2.1066 is being revised.

War, Navy or Treasury or by The Adjutant General of the Army, such decision will be referred to the Administrator for his determination. For the purpose of ascertaining "line of duty" status for periods of time prior to June 16, 1938, continuous periods of leave will be considered as one extended leave in determining whether a leave of absence is of such duration as to interfere materially with the routine performance of duty. The provisions of § 35.10, paragraph VIII will be observed carefully in effecting all adjudication where a question of incurrence of disease or injury in line of duty is pertinent: Provided, That on or after June 16, 1938, the date of approval of Public No. 648, 75th Congress, the fact that the injury was suffered or the disease was contracted while the person on whose account benefits are claimed was on authorized leave (irrespective of the duration of such leave) will not of itself bar a finding that the disability or death resulting therefrom was incurred in line of duty. If the injury was suffered or the disease was contracted while the person who served was away from camp or his post of duty, the burden is upon the claimant to establish line of duty. If, however, the injury was suffered or the disease was contracted while the person who served was at camp or his post of duty, even though in a leave status, the burden is upon the Government to show that the disability or death resulting therefrom was not in line of duty. TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Service Order 105]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

BACK-HAULING COMPANY MATERIAL

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of January, A. D. 1943.

It appearing that certain railroads are transporting coal or other material used by such railroads in their operations, usually referred to as "company material," through the point or points at which such material is to be used or stored to a more distant point, and back-hauling such material to the point or points of use or storage, which practice results in wasteful transportation; and that an emergency exists requiring immediate action to prevent shortage of railroad equipment and congestion of traffic: It is ordered, That:

§ 95.5 Back-hauling company material. The operation of the practice of common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act of transporting coal or other material used by such railroads in their operations, usually referred to as "company material," in carloads, through the point or points at which such material is to be used or stored, to a more distant point, and back-hauling such material to the point or points of use or storage, is hereby suspended and prohibited. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)–(17))

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective immediately and shall remain in force until further order of the Commission; that copies of this order and direction shall be served upon all common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

By the Commission, Division 3.

ESTATE OF J. H. P. IOANNU

In re: Estate of J. H. P. Ioannu, deceased—File D–30–71; E. T. sec. 1311.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by The Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities as Executor acting under the judicial supervision of the Orphans' Court of Philadelphia County, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania;

(2) Nicos H. Papa Ioannu, whose last known address is Athens, Greece, is a person controlled by or acting for or on behalf of a designated enemy country, Germany, and therefore is a national of a designated enemy country, Germany;

(3) Such property and interests are payable to or claimed by a national of a designated enemy country, Germany,

And determining that—

(4) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Nicos H. Papa Ioannu in and to the estate of J. H. P. Ioannu, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

ELECTRIC BOND AND SHARE CO., ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 22nd day of January A. D. 1943.

In the matter of Electric Bond and Share Company; American & Foreign Power Company, Inc., Ebasco Services Incorporated, and Ebasco International Corporation.

Electric Bond and Share Company ("Bond and Share"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary companies, American & Foreign Power Company, Inc. ("Foreign Power"), also a registered holding company, Ebasco Services Incorporated ("Ebasco"), a wholly-owned service company, and Ebasco International Corporation ("International"), a presently inactive subsidiary of Foreign Power, having filed a joint application and declaration, and amendments thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 12 thereof and the rules promulgated thereunder, with respect to the following transactions:

1. Ebasco to transfer to International all the assets, including cash, employed by the international division of Ebasco in rendering services to client companies operating outside the United States, in consideration for the payment by International to Ebasco of $398,576.49 in cash and its assumption of all liabilities arising out of or in connection with the operations of the international division.

2. Foreign Power to purchase from International 1,990 shares of its capital stock for $199,000 and to advance to it on open account the sum of $199,576.49.

3. Ebasco to reacquire 4,000 shares of its capital stock from Bond and Share for $400,000 cash and to cancel such shares, reducing its capital stock by that amount; and

International having further applied under section 13 for exemption of its proposed operations; and

A public hearing having been held after due notice, and the Commission having considered the record of the proceeding and having entered its findings and opinion herein:

It is hereby ordered, That the said joint application and declaration as amended be and the same hereby is granted and permitted to become effective, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated under said Act, and to the further term and condition that any pension plan proposed to be established by International be submitted to this Commission for approval.

It is further ordered, That the application of International for exemption of its proposed operations be and the same hereby is granted, subject to the condition that International file with this Commission an annual report on Form U-13–60; And provided further, That jurisdiction is expressly reserved to modify or terminate the exemption if the Commission shall determine that the circumstances which gave rise to the order no longer exist or it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers that said exemption be modified or terminated.

Carib Syndicate Limited having filed an application pursuant to the provisions of section 6 (c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order of temporary exemption until February 28, 1943 from the provisions of section 30 (d) of the Act and Rule N-30D-1 promulgated thereunder insofar as the said section and rule require applicant to transmit a semi-annual report to stockholders within thirty days after the date as of which the report is made.

It is ordered, That a hearing on the matter of the aforesaid application be held on February 5, 1943, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day in Room 318 of the Securities and Exchange Commission Building, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder Esq., shall preside at the hearing on such application. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under sections 41 and 42 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and to Trial Examiners under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to the applicant and to any other persons whose participation in such proceedings may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

By the Commission.

ALABAMA UNITED ICE COMPANY

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 26th day of January 1943.

Notice is hereby given that an application or declaration (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Alabama United Ice Company, a subsidiary of United Public Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company; and

Notice is hereby given that any interested party may, not later than February 1, 1943 at 5:30 p. m., e. w. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Alabama United Ice Company proposes, by agreement between it and four other non-affiliated ice manufacturing companies located in Mobile, Alabama, to acquire for $15,000 in cash a 20% interest in the Polar Ice Company, Inc., which is to be organized in Mobile, Alabama, with a total paid-in capital of $75,000; the remaining 80% of the capital of said new ice company is to be subscribed and paid for by the four other ice companies of Mobile, Alabama, in equal amounts.

The application states that the formation of the new ice company is solely for the purpose of fulfilling a temporary shortage, caused by the war emergency, of ice tonnage which is necessary to supply railroads and ships which load at the port of Mobile.

Applicant has requested that the approval of the application be accelerated because of the emergency nature of the transactions involved so that the order will issue not later than February 2, 1943.

United Public Utilities Corporation, the parent registered holding company of the applicant, has stipulated that the approval of this application by the Commission will not in any way be claimed as a change of conditions or circumstances which will constitute grounds for modification or revocation of the order entered by this Commission In the Matter of United Public Utilities Corporation and its Subsidiary Companies (File No. 59-38) pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Act on March 4, 1942, or which will affect the ability of said registered holding company to comply with said order.

By the Commission.

LOUISVILLE TRANSMISSION CORP. (KY.)

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular meeting of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 26th day of January, A. D. 1943,

Louisville Transmission Corporation (Kentucky), an indirect subsidiary of Louisville Gas and Electric Company (Delaware), a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to sections 6 and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 regarding a proposal to amend section 3.05 of its First Mortgage and Deed of Trust to the Harris Trust and Savings Bank, Trustee, dated March 1, 1942, so as to permit the release of certain funds from the construction fund on deposit with the trustee before the full completion of the original project as described in said indenture; and

Said declaration having been filed on the 7th day of January, 1942, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the manner and form prescribed by Rule U-23 under said Act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in such notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

It appearing to the Commission that the released funds will be used to the extent necessary for the payment of a 50,000 kw. transformer and that the remainder of such funds will be transferred to the sinking fund and used for the retirement of bonds issued under the indenture; that the original project described in said indenture has been substantially completed and is in service, but that due to the inabilty of the declarant to obtain certain auxiliary equipment it is unable to make the certificate which, as the indenture now stands, is a condition precedent to the release of monies from the construction fund; and that The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, the owner of all of the bonds outstanding under the indenture, has executed the proposed amendment; and

The Commission finding that all applicable statutory requirements are met and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration to become effective;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to said Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 that the aforesaid declaration be and the same hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Food Distribution Administration

PART 930—MILK IN THE TOLEDO, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

HANDLING OF MILK

It is provided in Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), that the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") shall, subject to the provisions of the act, issue orders regulating such handling of certain agricultural commodities (including milk and its products) as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodities.

Findings and Determinations

Findings upon the basis of hearing record. Pursuant to the act and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR 900.1-900.17; 6 F.R. 6570, 7 F.R. 3350), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found that:

1. The aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

2. The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices set forth in the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

3. The aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, the aforesaid tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order, and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings herein set forth.

Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping milk covered by the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended) of at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, which is marketed within the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area, refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area; and it is further determined that:

1. The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

2. The issuance of this order further amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area; and

Order Relative to Handling

It is, therefore, ordered, That, from and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended in the following respects:

1. Delete § 930.1 (a) (1) and substitute therefor the following:

(1) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

2. Delete the proviso of § 930.5 (a) (4) and substitute therefor the following:

• • • Provided, That if the price so determined is less than the price computed by the market administrator in accordance with the following formula, such formula price shall be used in lieu thereof: Multiply by 3.5 the average price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago wholesale market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, add 20 percent thereof, and add or subtract $3\frac{1}{2}$ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk is above or below, respectively, $7\frac{1}{2}$ cents per pound. The price per pound of dry skim milk to be used in this proviso shall be the arithmetical average of the carlot prices for both spray and roller process dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, as published by the United States Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, including also in such average the quotations published for any fractional part of the previous delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such dry skim milk for the previous delivery period.

3. Delete from § 930.7 (c) the phrase "Over 45 cents.....5.5" and substitute therefor:

Over 45 cents, but not over 50 cents.... 5 5
Over 50 cents, but not over 55 cents.... 6 0
Over 55 cents..... 6 5

4. Add as § 930.11 the following:

§ 930.11 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

(48 Stat. 31, 670, 675; 49 Stat. 750; 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.)

PART 941—MILK IN THE CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, MARKETING AREA

HANDLING OF MILK

It is provided in Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), that the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") shall, subject to the provisions of the act, issue orders regulating such handling of certain agricultural commodities, including milk and its products) as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodities.

Findings and Determinations

Findings upon the basis of hearing record. Pursuant to the act and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR 900.1–900.17; 6 F.R. 6570, 7 F.R. 3350), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found that:

1. The aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

2. The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices set forth in the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

3. The aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, the aforesaid tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order, and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings herein set forth.

Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping milk covered by the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended) of at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, which is marketed within the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area, refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Ill., marketing area; and it is further determined that:

1. The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

2. The issuance of this order further amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area; and

3. The issuance of this order, further amending the aforesaid order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum on the question of the approval of this order and who, during the determined representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said Chicago, Illinois, marketing area.

Order Relative to Handling

It is, therefore, ordered, That, from and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended in the following respects:

1. Delete § 941.1 (a) (11) and substitute therefor the following:

(11) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

2. Delete § 941.4 (b) (3) and substitute therefor the following:

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which is used to produce a milk product other than one of those specified in Class II and Class IV, and all bulk milk and bulk cream disposed of to bakeries, soup companies, and candy manufacturing establishments.

3. Delete § 941.5 (a) (4) and substitute therefor the following:

(4) Class III milk—The price per hundredweight for milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat during each delivery period shall be the average computed by the market administrator of prices, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, paid during such delivery period to farmers at each of the manufacturing plants or places listed in this subparagraph for which prices are reported, but in no event shall such price be less than the price computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of this paragraph.

4. Delete § 941.5 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Basic formula price to be used in determining Class I and Class II prices. The basic formula price to be used in determining the prices per hundredweight of Class I and Class II milk, set forth in this section, shall be the price for Class III milk determined pursuant to paragraph (a) (4) of this section, the price for Class IV milk determined pursuant to paragraph (a) (5) of this section, or that derived from the following formula, whichever is the highest:

(1) Multiply the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter at Chicago for the delivery period as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, by six (6);

(2) Add 2.4 times the average weekly prevailing price per pound of "Twins" during the delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin: Provided, That if the price of "Twins" is not quoted on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange the weekly prevailing price of "Cheddars" shall be deemed to be the prevailing price for "Twins" and shall be used in determining the price pursuant to this formula;

(3) Divide by seven (7), the sum so determined being hereafter referred to in this paragraph as the "combined butter and cheese value";

(4) To the combined butter and cheese value add 30 percent thereof; and

(5) Multiply the sum computed in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph by 3.5.

5. Delete § 941.8 (c) and substitute therefor the following:

(c) Butterfat differential to producers. For each one-tenth of 1 percent above or below 3.5 percent in average butterfat content of milk delivered by any producer during any delivery period, the uniform price paid to such producer shall be plus or minus, as the case may be, an amount computed as follows: To the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which the milk was received, add 20 percent and divide the result obtained by 10.

6. Add as § 941.13 the following:

§ 941.13 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

Chapter X—Food Production Administration

[Food Production Order 7]

PART 1210—ANIMAL FOODS

RESTRICTIONS ON MANUFACTURE OF PET FOODS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate production of food to meet war and civilian needs, It it hereby ordered, That:

§ 1210.1 Restrictions on manufacture of pet foods—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Manufacturer of pet foods" means any person who is engaged in commercially manufacturing, processing, making or preparing pet foods.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other organized group of "persons" and shall include any agent, agency, or any "person" acting for or on behalf of any of the foregoing. The term "person" shall also include the United States or any agency thereof, and a State or any political subdivision or agency thereof.

(3) "Pet food" means any mixed foodstuffs, rations or other substances intended for consumption by dogs, cats or any other fur-bearing animals used as pets.

(4) "Animal protein" means protein from any animal source.

(5) "Dry weight" means the weight of the ingredients in pet food expressed in terms of a water content of 8 per centum by weight.

(6) "Director" means the Director of Food Production or in his absence the Acting Director of Food Production.

(b) Restrictions. (1) Notwithstanding the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, whenever made, (i) no manufacturer of pet foods shall, prior to July 1, 1943, manufacture, process, make or prepare any pet food containing animal protein in excess of 8 per centum by dry weight, and (ii) no such manufacturer shall, prior to such date, manufacture, process, make or prepare any pet food containing protein in excess of 24 per centum by dry weight: Provided, That, the provisions of this subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (b) shall not apply to any pet food made pursuant to a contract of any such manufacturer entered into with the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard.

(2) Notwithstanding the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, whenever made, no manufacturer of pet food shall during the semiannual period January to June, inclusive, 1943, manufacture, process, make or prepare pet foods in a quantity greater than 50 per centum of the quantity by dry weight of pet foods manufactured, processed, made or prepared by him during the calendar year 1941 or 50 per centum of four times the quantity by dry weight of pet foods manufactured, processed, made or prepared by him during the quarterly calendar period October to December, inclusive, 1942, whichever is greater.

(c) Reports. Each person to whom this order is applicable shall, on or before March 15, 1943, execute and file with the Department of Agriculture a report showing the quantity by dry weight of pet foods manufactured, processed, made or prepared by him during the calendar period upon which he elects to base his production, as provided in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) of this order, and each such person shall execute and file with the Department such other reports as the Department may from time to time require.

(d) Records. Persons to whom this order is applicable shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales of pet foods and the animal and other protein ingredients thereof.

(e) Audits and inspections. Every manufacturer of pet foods, or any other person to whom this order applies, shall, upon request, submit for audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Department of Agriculture his books, records, and accounts, and shall permit inspections of his place of business and plant by such representatives.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, or whoever with another conspires to perform any of such acts, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine and imprisonment. In addition, any such person may by administrative suspension order be prohibited from receiving any deliveries of or selling or otherwise disposing of or using any animal or other protein material or any other material now or hereafter authorized to be rationed or allocated by, or subject to the priority control of, the Secretary of Agriculture, and may be deprived of any priority assistance. Further, the Director may recommend to the Office of Price Administration or to the War Production Board that any person who violates any provision of this order or any amendment or supplement thereto be denied the privilege to receive, use, sell or otherwise dispose of any other materials which now are or in the future may be under allocation.

(g) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply in writing for relief to the Director, setting forth in such petition all pertinent facts and information. The Director may, upon the basis of such application and other information, take such action as he deems appropriate. The decision of the Director shall be in writing and shall be final and conclusive.

(h) Delegation of authority. The administration of this Food Production Order No. 7 and the powers conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Executive Order No. 9280, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director of Food Production or in his absence to the Acting Director of Food Production. The Director shall be assisted in the administration of this order by such employees of the Department of Agriculture as he may designate, and said employees are hereby authorized to administer the provisions of this order.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless instructions to the contrary are issued, be addressed to the United States Department of Agriculture, Food Production Administration, Washington, D. C., Ref. FPA 7.

(j) Effective date. This order shall become effective 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., January 29, 1943.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1787]

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines and for changes in shipping points for the coals of certain other mines.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1 and requesting changes in shipping points for the coals of certain other mines also located in District No. 1, and requesting a change in seam designation for the coals of the Getch Coal Co. Mine, Mine Index No. 746 of Ellinger & Getch; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplements R–I and R–II, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof:

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

PART 329—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 9

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 9 for establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 9.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 9; and the revision of the minimum prices applicable to the coals produced at the Colyer Mine, Mine Index No. 516 of I. J. Lloyd; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 329.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 329.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate, or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

No relief is granted for the coals produced at the Colyer Mine, Mine Index No. 516, of I. J. Lloyd as requested by petitioner for the reasons set forth in an order severing that portion of Docket No. 1789 which relates to such mine and designating such portion as Docket No. A-1789 Part II.

Dated: January 6, 1943.

[Docket No. A-1763]

PART 334—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 14

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of the Panama Vein Coal Company, code member in District No. 14, for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Panama Vein Coal Co., No. 1 mine, when produced by the machine cut method of operation.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Panama Vein Coal Company No. 1 Mine, (Mine Index No. 73) of the Panama Vein Coal Company in Subdistrict 7 in District No. 14 for All Shipments Except Truck and for Truck Shipments; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 334.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 334.24 (General prices for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof: Provided, however, That, in view of the circumstances hereinafter set forth, the price classifications and minimum prices provided in said Supplement R and Supplement T for the coals of Mine Index No. 73 shall not become effective until ten days from the date of this order.

Petitioner analogizes the coals of its Panama Vein Coal Company No. 1 Mine (Mine Index No. 73), when produced by the machine cut method of operation, to the coals of Mine Index No. 59, operated by the Kenner Mining Company and the coals of Mine Index No. 42, operated by the Gillie Coal Company, both such mines being located in Subdistrict 7 in District No. 14. However, for the coals of the Panama Vein Coal Company No. 1 Mine in Size Group 18 for all shipments except truck, petitioner proposes a classification of "A" whereas Mine Index No. 59 and Mine Index No. 42 are classified "K" in that size group for all shipments except truck. The price classification established herein for the coal of the Panama Vein Coal Company No. 1 Mine in Size Group 18 for all shipments except truck has accordingly been conformed with the price classification heretofore established for the coals produced from Mine Index Nos. 59 and 42 in Subdistrict 7 in District No. 14.

Petitioner requests the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of its Panama Vein Coal No. 1 Mine (Mine Index No. 73) when produced by the machine cut method of operation. Price classifications and minimum prices have heretofore been established for the coals of that mine when produced by the solid shot method of operation. Inasmuch as petitioner, in the operation of Mine Index No. 73, has changed from a solid shot to a machine cut method of operation and has complied with Order No. 341 in reporting such change to District Board No. 14 and to the Division, there appears no necessity for the continued existence of solid shot price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of petitioner's mine. Accordingly, Supplements R and T annexed hereto, provide price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 73 as produced by the machine cut method of operation, which classifications and prices however, as previously set forth herein, do not become effective until ten days from the date of this order.

It is further ordered, That effective ten days from the date of this order the price classifications and minimum prices heretofore established in General Docket No. 15, § 334.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) and § 334.24 (General prices for shipment into all market areas), for the coals of Mine Index No. 73, when produced by the solid shot method of operation be, and the same hereby are, canceled and deleted from the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 14 for All Shipments Except Truck and for Truck Shipments.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: January 8, 1943.

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-220]

VENETIAN PRODUCTS COMPANY

Sara D. Cohen, doing business under the name of Venetian Products Company, Syracuse, New York, is a manufacturer of Venetian blinds which are classified as metal household furniture under Limitation Order L-62. Her husband, Sidney M. Cohen, is the manager of the business and in reality runs the company. From July 23, 1942, through September 17, 1942, the company used substantial quantities of steel in the manufacture of venetian blinds in wilful violation of Limitation Order L-62.

This violation of Limitation Order L-62 has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.220 Suspension Order No. S-220. (a) Sara D. Cohen and Sidney Cohen, doing business as Venetian Products Company or otherwise, their successors and assigns, shall not sell, transfer, deliver, process, assemble or produce any metal household furniture as the same is defined in Limitation Order L-62 whether in semifinished or finished form or any parts therefor, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) For a period of six months from the effective date of this order deliveries of material to Sara D. Cohen and Sidney Cohen, doing business as Venetian Products Company or otherwise, their successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) This order shall take effect on January 30th, 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-221]

FRIEDMAN BAG CO.

Friedman Bag Company, Los Angeles, California, is a partnership engaged in manufacturing burlap bags and in importing burlap. During the months of May, June, and July, 1942, the Company made deliveries of burlap bags to numerous users of agricultural bags in excess of the quantity that each such user was entitled to receive under its quota as established by Conservation Order M-47. During this period, the Company was familiar with the provisions of Conservation Order M-47 but acted in reckless disregard of the restrictions contained therein. The excess deliveries amounted to approximately 237,000 burlap bags.

This violation of Conservation Order M-47 has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.221 Suspension Order S-221. (a) Friedman Bag Company, its successors and assigns, shall not manufacture, sell, deliver, rent, accept delivery of, purchase or otherwise deal in any textile bags as defined in Conservation Order M-221, whether new or used, except as specifically authorized by the Regional Compliance Chief, San Francisco Regional Office, War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Friedman Bag Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect February 1, 1943, and shall expire on March 31, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-222]

PARAMOUNT FLAG CO.

Paramount Flag Company, 626 Fourth Street, San Francisco, California, is a partnership composed of H. W. Pollock and W. J. Kunedt engaged in the business of manufacturing flags. On or about June 8, 1942, the Company received a purchase order from the United States Treasury Department assigning a preference rating of A-1-a for the purchase of 1288 flags, and on or about July 13, 1942, the Company received a purchase order from the United States Maritime Commission assigning a preference rating of A-1-a for the purchase of 839 flags. The Company applied these preference ratings to purchase materials greatly in excess of the specific quantities and kinds of materials required for those two orders.

The application by the Company of these preference ratings to obtain deliveries of materials in excess of the specific quantities and kinds authorized, which materials were not used for the purpose specified in connection with the issuance of the preference ratings, constituted wilful violations of Priorities Regulation No. 1 and Priorities Regulation No. 3 which have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.222 Suspension Order S-222. (a) Deliveries of material to H. W. Pollock and W. J. PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-224]

BERG MANUFACTURING AND SALES CO.

Berg Manufacturing and Sales Company, Chicago, Illinois, a partnership composed of Art Berg and Joe Berg, is a warehouse as defined in General Preference Order M-9-a. From February 6, 1942, to June 30, 1942, the Company sold copper wire and copper tubing on orders which either did not bear any preference ratings or did not bear the preference ratings required by General Preference Order M-9-a. During this period the Company was aware of the restrictions imposed by General Preference Order M-9-a and its sales constituted wilful violations of that order which have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.224 Suspension Order No. S-224. (a) Art Berg and Joe Berg, individually or doing business as Berg Manufacturing and Sales Company or otherwise, their successors and assigns, shall not accept delivery of, sell, transfer, deliver, or otherwise deal in any copper or copper base alloy wire or tubing, except with the written approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Chicago Regional Office, War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Art Berg and Joe Berg, individually or doing business as Berg Manufacturing and Sales Company or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on January 30, 1943, and shall expire on April 30, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 312]

MAPLE SYRUP

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper that maximum prices be established for sales of maple syrup by producers and packers by a specific maximum price regulation.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 312 are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which reflect to producers of maple syrup prices for their product equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250.

Therefore, with the concurrence of the Secretary of Agriculture, and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 312 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1351.1601 Prohibition.
1351.1602 Exempt sales.
1351.1603 Less than maximum prices.
1351.1604 Records and reports.
1351.1605 Evasion.
1351.1606 Enforcement.
1351.1607 Export sales.
1351.1608 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.
1351.1609 Geographical applicability.
1351.1610 Transfers of business or stock in trade.
1351.1611 Petitions for amendment.
1351.1612 Adjustable pricing.
1351.1613 Taxes.
1351.1614 Definitions.
1351.1615 Maximum prices for maple syrup.
1351.1616 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1351.1601 to 1351.1616, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., E.O. No. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1351.1601 Prohibition. On and after February 2, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation:

[1] 7 F.R. 8961.

(a) No person shall sell or deliver any maple syrup at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1351.1615 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 312.

(b) No person shall buy or receive any maple syrup in the course of trade or business at higher prices than the maximum prices set forth in § 1351.1615 of this regulation.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of maple syrup to a purchaser, if prior to February 2, 1943, such maple syrup has been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller for shipment to such purchaser.

§ 1351.1602 Exempt sales. (a) The provisions of this regulation shall not be applicable to sales by wholesalers and sales by retailers, except that wholesale sales and retail sales by packers and producers shall be governed by the provisions of this regulation. Sales by wholesalers and sales by retailers shall be governed by the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation Nos. 237 and 238, respectively.

§ 1351.1603 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1351.1604 Records and reports. (a) Every producer and packer who makes sales of maple syrup after the effective date of this regulation shall make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for any of such items sold after the effective date of this regulation.

(b) Every person making sales of maple syrup pursuant to this regulation shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration, and such other records as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

(c) Every packer who sells an item of "flavoring" maple syrup shall within ten days after calculating his maximum price for each such item submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement showing his "base prices" and his maximum prices as computed under paragraph (e) of § 1351.1615, and shall include in such statement, the figures which were the basis of the required computations.

§ 1351.1605 Evasion. Price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to the commodities whose prices are herein regulated alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1351.1606 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this regulation or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1351.1607 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export maple syrup shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Regulation[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1608 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[3] (a) The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 312 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries of maple syrup for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

(b) The following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation, and amendments thereto, and Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4[4] thereof shall be applicable to every person making sales and deliveries covered by this regulation.

(1) § 1499.14 Sales slips and receipts.
(2) § 1499.16 Licensing.
(3) § 1499.29 (a) (5) Developmental contracts.
(4) § 1499.29 (a) (6) Secret contracts.
(5) § 1499.29 (a) (7) Emergency purchases.
(6) § 1499.29 (a) (15) Sales or deliveries of the War Department or the Department of the Navy through such Departments sales stores.

§ 1351.1609 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable only to the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1351.1610 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any seller are sold or otherwise transferred on or after February 2, 1943, and the transferee carries on the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify those prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer, which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this regulation.

§ 1351.1611 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition therefor in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1612 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to and at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In appropriate situations where a petition for amendment requires extended considerations, the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1351.1613 Taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale or delivery of maple syrup imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such commodity and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect prior to the effective date of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 312. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price prior to the effective date for such item the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such a case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this regulation.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this regulation.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after the effective date of this regulation. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1351.1614 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 312, the terms:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Domestic consumer" means a person who buys maple syrup for personal use. The term does not include any industrial, commercial, governmental or institutional consumer.

(3) "Wholesaler" means a person engaged in the grocery distributing business who buys maple syrup and resells it to any person other than a "domestic consumer". The term includes chain store warehouses but does not include producers and packers even though part of their sales are at wholesale.

(4) "Retailer" means a person who buys maple syrup and resells it to a "domestic consumer". The term does not include producers and packers even though part of their sales are at retail.

(5) "Producer" means a person who obtains maple sap by tapping maple trees and converts the sap into maple syrup by evaporating or other means.

(6) "Packer" means a person who customarily purchases maple syrup from producers and packages it in containers for sale and may or may not also engage in reselling maple syrup in bulk to others with or without further processing it. The term includes persons who are acting in the capacity of selling agents for producers or packers regardless of whether their selling compensation results from a commission, or from buying at a discount below the packer's price.

(7) "Maple syrup" means syrup made by the evaporation of pure maple sap or from a solution of maple concrete (maple sugar). It contains not more than 35% of water, and weighs not less than 11 pounds to the gallon (231 cubic inches). However, solely for the purposes of this regulation, the term "maple syrup" shall include maple sap of 33°, 34°, and 35° density for which prices are provided in § 1351.1615 (a) (1) below.

(8) "Flavoring maple syrup" means maple syrup which is extremely dark in color, sold only for flavoring or blending purposes and is too strong in taste to be suitable for table use.

§ 1351.1615 Maximum prices for maple syrup—(a) Producer's maximum prices for maple syrup sold to packers. (1) The producer's maximum price per pound, f. o. b. point of production, for the following grades of maple syrup sold to packers, shall be as follows:

Grades	Baumé
	33°	34°	35°	36°	37°	38°
				Standard
Fancy AA	$0.17	$0.18	$0.185	$0.19	$0.1925	$0.195
A	.16	.17	.175	.18	.1825	.185
B	.15	.16	.165	.17	.1725	.175
C	.14	.15	.155	.16	.1625	.165

(2) Producers are prohibited from receiving and packers from paying bonuses whether or not such bonuses result in prices higher than those listed in subparagraph (1) immediately above.

(3) The grades set out in this paragraph (a) shall be determined in accordance with all the criteria, except the density criterion, set forth in the U. S. Standards For Maple Syrup For Reprocessing issued by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(4) The above prices are the maximum prices irrespective of the terms of payment. However, discounts and allowances may always be given when they result in less than the maximum prices.

(b) Producer's maximum prices for maple syrup sold to persons other than packers. (1) The producer's maximum price, f.o.b. point of production for sales other than sales made to packers shall be the same as those established for packers' in paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) below.

(c) Packer's maximum prices for sales of Grade A or better and B maple syrup when sold with the container. (1) The packer's maximum prices f.o.b. plant for Grades A or better, and B maple syrup sold in the following size containers shall be as follows:

PACKERS' CEILING PRICES

(2) The grades set forth in this paragraph (c) shall be determined in accordance with all the criteria set forth in the U. S. Standards For Table Maple Syrup issued by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(3) The prices set forth for packers in this paragraph (c) include the container, and shall apply to all types of containers irrespective of their shape or composition. The prices are cash prices for the quantities and class of purchaser set forth. Packers may charge an additional 1% on those sales where credit for ten days or longer is extended.

(d) Packer's maximum prices for "bulk sales" of maple syrup. (1) The packer's maximum prices, f. o. b. plant, for "bulk sales" of the following grades of maple syrup shall be as follows:

Grades	Maximum price per pound

(2) "Bulk sales" means (i) Sales where the purchaser furnishes the drum or other container in which the maple syrup is received; or (ii) Sales where the seller furnishes the drum or container but the sale is made on a returnable drum or container basis.

(3) The grades set forth in this paragraph (c) shall be determined in accordance with all the criteria set forth in the U. S. Standards for Maple Syrup for Reprocessing issued by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) Packer's maximum prices for "flavoring" maple syrup. (1) The packer's maximum price, f. o. b. packing plant for each item that is for each type and container size of "flavoring" maple syrup for each class of purchaser shall be his "base price" plus 66¢ per gallon.

(i) The "base price" shall be calculated by dividing the total dollars charged each class of purchaser for such item during the period comprising the months of April, May and June, 1941, hereinafter called the "base period," by the number of such items sold such class of purchasers during the "base period."

Example: X packer seeks the maximum price of a 5-gallon tin of type Q "flavoring" maple syrup. In determining his "base price", he ascertains that he sold during the "base period" a total of 1000 5-gallon tins for which he received $5000. The maximum price would be computed as follows:

$5,000 ÷ 1,000 5-gallon tins =	[1] $5.00
5 gal. × $.66 =	[2] 3.30
	[3] 8.30

[1] "Base price" for one 5-gallon tin.
[2] "Permitted increase" on a 5-gallon tin.
[3] Maximum price on a 5-gallon tin of "flavoring" maple syrup.

(2) Packers seeking to price "flavoring" maple syrup which is to be sold without the container or on a returnable container basis, shall use the same method provided for in subparagraph (1) immediately above, except that their "base price" shall be computed by using only sales that were made on a returnable container basis during the "base period."

(f) Imports. (1) The maximum prices for maple syrup which is imported into the United States shall apply f. o. b. point of entry and shall include duty.

(g) Delivered prices. The delivered price for any commodity subject to the provisions of this regulation shall in no case exceed the established maximum f. o. b. price plus the actual transportation charges incurred from the seller's shipping point to the place of destination.

(h) Maximum prices for "maple syrup" items on which no price has been established. (1) The maximum price for any item of maple syrup subject to the provisions of this regulation which is to be sold, and for which a maximum price is not established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 312, shall be determined after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on application setting forth (i) a description of the grade of syrup and size of the container of the item upon which a price is sought; and (ii) the factory door cost of such item. The "factory door cost" shall include all direct and indirect costs and expenses chargeable to the production of the item, but shall not include costs and expenses chargeable to the administration, selling, advertising or transportation; and (iii) the factory door costs and maximum selling prices of the three most comparable items together with their description.

(2) Until the Office of Price Administration shall fix a price upon such item of "maple syrup," the applicant's maximum prices shall be those which have been established pursuant to the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

§ 1351.1616 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 312 (§§ 1351.1601 to 1351.1616, inclusive), shall become effective February 2, 1943.

Issued this 27th day of January 1943.

PRENTISS M. BROWN,
Administrator.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED, AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH PRODUCTS

[MPR 311]

SALES BY CANNERS OF SHRIMP

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of canned shrimp have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of canned shrimp prevailing between October 1, 1941 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable, and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The maximum prices established herein are not below the average prices of such commodities in the year 1941.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 311 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1364.751 to 1364.763 inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E O 9250, 7 F.R. 7371.

§ 1364.751 Prohibition against dealing in canned shrimp at prices above the maximum. On or after February 2, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no canner, or agent or other person acting on behalf, or under control, of such canner shall sell or deliver any canned shrimp, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive from a canner any shrimp at prices higher than those set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1364.763; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of canned shrimp to a purchaser if prior to February 2, 1943, such shrimp has been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

§ 1364.752 Conditional agreement. No canner of shrimp shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by § 1364.763 in the event that this Maximum Price Regulation No. 311 is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment.

§ 1364.753 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export canned shrimp shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation [1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.754 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1364.763 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1364.755 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 311 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to canned shrimp, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by changing the selection or style of processing or the canning, wrapping, or packaging of shrimp.

§ 1364.756 Records and reports. (a) Every person making a purchase or sale of canned shrimp in the course of trade or business, or otherwise dealing therein, after February 1, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and of the seller, the prices contracted for or received, the quantity and a description of the grade or brand, style of pack, and container size of shrimp.

(b) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1364.757 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 311 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damage provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 311 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any act or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1364.758 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment to any provision of this Regulation No. 311 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 [1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.759 Applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 311 shall be applicable to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1364.760 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 311 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, and Amendment 28 [3] to Supplementary Regulation No. 14, issued by the Office of Price Administration with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1364.761 Definitions. (a) When used in this maximum price regulation the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of the foregoing: Provided, That no punishment provided by this regulation shall apply to the United States or to any such government, political subdivision, or agency.

(2) "Canner" means a person who preserves shrimp by processing and packing in a hermetically sealed container.

(3) "Shrimp" means any canned shrimp of the genus peneus setiferus or peneus brasiliensis where the same are caught off the coast of the United States in the regions of the southeastern Atlantic Ocean and the Gulf of Mexico.

(4) "Price per dozen" means the price for 12 cans of shrimp packed for shipment in the usual container.

(5) "Dry pack" means shrimp packed in a hermetically sealed container without liquid.

(6) "Wet pack" means shrimp packed in brine in a hermetically sealed container.

(7) "Veined shrimp" means shrimp which have had the dark veins removed from the backs prior to packing.

(8) "Can" means a can 211 x 400 packed to a net content of 7 ozs. for wet pack and 6½ ozs. for dry pack.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in Section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1364.762 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 311 (§§ 1364.751 to 1356.763, inclusive) shall become effective February 2, 1943.

Grade	Wet pack per dozen	Dry pack per dozen
Broken, regular	$2.45	$2.55
Small, regular	2.70	2.80
Medium, regular	2.80	2.90
Large, regular	2.95	3.05
Jumbo, regular	3.05	3.15

(b) For varieties and container sizes of shrimp and styles of pack not listed in paragraph (a) the price shall be a price determined by the Office of Price Administration to be in line with the prices listed in paragraph (a). Such determination shall be made upon written request, addressed to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and accompanied by sworn statements showing costs and usual differentials.

Issued this 27th day of January 1943.

PRENTISS M. BROWN,
Administrator.

PART 1393—ICE

[MPR 154, as Amended,[1] Amendment 3]

ICE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) are added to § 1393.8; paragraph (e) is added to § 1393.11; and paragraph (e) is added to § 1393.12, Appendix A.

§ 1398.8 Applications for adjustment. * * *

(e) Any regional office of the Office of Price Administration or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office may, either on application or its own motion, adjust, by order, the maximum prices of ice established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 154, as amended, for any seller or group of sellers of the commodity whenever it appears:

(1) That a shortage in the supply of ice available to the seller's locality exists or threatens to occur;

(2) That such local shortage will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the maximum prices of ice for such seller and of like sellers; and

(3) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a shortage, or a need for an increase in prices in another locality, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(f) Such adjustment shall be made in relation (1) to increased production and delivery costs which the seller of ice in the locality affected must incur in order to produce and deliver such ice as compared with production and delivery costs in April, 1942, or, for natural ice, as compared with the nearest earlier month in which such ice was harvested and packed in such locality; and (2) to such other circumstances as may be pertinent to the procurement of sufficient supplies of ice to meet the requirements of the locality affected.

(g) In making application for adjustment, any manufacturer of ice who sells ice at retail and also sells ice to distributors and peddlers for resale at retail may make application for adjustment on behalf of those distributors and peddlers who customarily purchased ice from him. If an adjustment of the manufacturer's maximum price is granted upon such application, a like adjustment of the maximum prices of the distributors and peddlers included in the application may be granted. In any such case the manufacturer's prices to such distributors and peddlers may be, but are not required to be, increased by an amount not in excess of the adjustment granted with respect to retail prices.

§ 1393.11 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(e) Amendment No. 3 (§§ 1393.8 (e), (f), (g); 1393.11 (e); 1393.12, Appendix A, (e)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 154, as amended, shall become effective February 2, 1943.

§ 1393.12 Appendix A: Maximum prices for ice * * *

(e) Maximum prices for natural ice—(1) Generally. The seller's maximum price for natural ice shall be the maximum price determined by the seller under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section as the case may be.

(2) Harvester's maximum prices determined by reference to highest price charged during the harvest period. If the harvester's maximum price for natural ice cannot be determined under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, the harvester's maximum delivered price and the harvester's maximum platform price for any form, quantity and quality of such ice shall be the highest price charged by the harvester for such form, quantity and quality of natural ice during the month or months of harvest of such seller in the period from December 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942 on a delivered sale or platform sale respectively to a purchaser of the same class.

(3) Transportation and special service charges. (i) No harvester of natural ice who determines his maximum price under subparagraph (2) shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or supply of natural ice than the harvester required purchasers of the same class to pay during the month or months of harvest of such seller in the period from December 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942; and

(ii) The charges made for any special service rendered by such harvester shall not exceed the charge made during the month or months of harvest of such seller in the period from December 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942 for such special service to purchasers of the same class.

PART 1395—NONFERROUS FOUNDRY PRODUCTS

[Rev. MPR 125 [1]]

NONFERROUS FOUNDRY PRODUCTS

The title, preamble, and §§ 1395.1 to 1395.11, inclusive, as heretofore amended, are renumbered and amended to read as set forth below. "Revised Maximum Price Regulation 125—Nonferrous Castings."

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of nonferrous castings have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of nonferrous castings prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 125 (referred to herein as "this regulation") are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 [2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, this regulation is hereby issued.

1395.19 Appendix B: Form OPA 677:115a—Report on net sales for foundries with sales of less than $12,500 in preceding quarter year.
1395.20 Appendix C: Form OPA 677:115b—Application for adjustment of maximum prices of an individual casting or a group of castings sold at the same price.
1395.21 Appendix D: Form OPA 677:115c—Buyer's report on above application.
1395.22 Appendix E: Form OPA 677:115d—Application for adjustment of maximum prices of all castings.
1395.23 Appendix F: Form OPA 677:115e—Buyer's report on above application.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1395.1 to 1395.23, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong. and E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1395.1 Exclusions. (a) This regulation shall not apply to sales or deliveries of nonferrous castings if, before February 1, 1943, such castings have been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the buyer.

(b) Nothing in this regulation or in the General Maximum Price Regulation [3] shall apply to any sale, contract to sell, or delivery of nonferrous castings by any person whose total sales of nonferrous castings were less than $12,500 for the preceding three months period ending on the last day of December, March, June or September, as the case may be, (here called "calendar quarter year") except that a report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., by the seller on Form OPA-677:115a (set forth as § 1395.19 of this regulation) on the twentieth day of January, April, July and October of each year, stating (1) total dollar net sales, with the best available estimate of net sales of nonferrous castings covered by this regulation, in dollars and pounds, for the preceding calendar quarter year and (2) number of employees in the foundry for the last week of the preceding calendar quarter year.

(c) This regulation shall not apply to sales, contracts to sell or deliveries of:

(1) Products listed in Appendix A, § 1499.166 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, as amended,[4] or

(2) Products covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 261 [5] as defined in subparagraph (2), § 1346.215 of that regulation, or

(3) Type used for printing, or

(4) Nonferrous castings machined to such extent that the cost of machining (all price elements other than profit) is more than 25% of the total cost (all price elements other than profit) of the rough casting plus the cost of machining, when (i) the castings are subject to a price regulation other than the General Maximum Price Regulation, and/or (ii) the castings are sold by a person who does not produce the rough casting and who, further, is not a subsidiary or affiliate of the producer of the rough casting, or

(5) Nonferrous castings machined to such extent that cost of machining is more than 50% of the total cost, as provided in the preceding subparagraph (4) where the casting is a component part or subassembly of (i) aircraft, ammunition, armored trains, artillery, balloon barrage equipment, bombs, bomb sights, caissons, fire control equipment, gas masks, grenades, gun sights, military bridges, mines, mortars, projectiles, pyrotechnics, small arms, ships and boats and torpedoes; and (ii) amphibians, armored vehicles, automobiles, tanks, trailers and trucks, for military purposes, sold, contracted to be sold or delivered to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States," or any agency of any such government. The term "component parts and subassemblies" includes all metallic and nonmetallic component parts, adjuncts, and accessories which have been machined or fabricated. The term does not include raw or unfinished materials or any other materials which are in such form as to permit their use in the manufacture of products other than those set forth in this subparagraph, or

(6) Bushings and bearings machined to such extent that the cost of machining is more than 25% of the total cost, as provided in the preceding subparagraph (4), irrespective of whether such bushings and bearings are subject to a price regulation other than the General Maximum Price Regulation. Where percentage of machining cost is referred to in this or the preceding subparagraphs (4) and (5) and a toll or conversion agreement is involved in which the seller does not buy or sell the material used for the casting, the metal cost shall nevertheless be included at current maximum prices in figuring whether the 25% or 50% has been exceeded, or

(7) Finished replacement parts sold as finished replacement parts by a person who does not produce the parts, or who further, is not a subsidiary or affiliate of the producer of the parts.

§ 1395.2 Prohibition against sales of nonferrous castings at prices higher than maximum prices. On and after February 1, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation:

(a) No person shall sell or deliver any nonferrous casting at a price higher than the maximum price established by this regulation. (See § 1395.15 (a) for what is meant by a "person" and a "nonferrous casting" under this regulation.)

(b) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any nonferrous casting at a price higher than the maximum price. However, if the buyer obtains from the seller a written statement sworn to by the seller or a responsible official of the seller, that to the best of the seller's knowledge, information and belief, the price charged is not higher than the maximum price established by this regulation, and if in such case the buyer has no knowledge of the maximum price and no reason to doubt the accuracy of the statement, the buyer will be considered to have complied with this paragraph. Further, the buyer will be considered to have obtained this statement if:

(1) He obtains a letter or other written statement to the buyer sworn to by the seller or a responsible official of the seller, to the effect that the prices on all invoices to be issued will not be higher than the applicable maximum prices established by this regulation and that the seller's method of figuring prices has been so established as to achieve this result, and

(2) The seller stamps an appropriate statement on each invoice or bill.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the acts prohibited in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section.

(d) Where the contract of sale has been entered into before February 1, 1943, the parties to the contract, until March 1, 1943, may make and accept deliveries of the castings required or specified in the contract and the seller may render bills or invoices for the castings to the buyer at the contract price, but the price shall be adjusted in accordance with the maximum prices established by this regulation within a period not to exceed 30 days after the billing or invoicing.

§ 1395.3 Maximum prices and report requirements for nonferrous castings sold or delivered on or after February 1, 1943—Castings the same, or of the same class, as those sold or contracted to be sold by the seller during the period from October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive, or sold, contracted to be sold or delivered by the seller during the period from May 11, 1942 (the effective date of Maximum Price Regulation No. 125) to January 31, 1943, inclusive. (See § 1395.15 (a) (4) for what is meant by "the same class" of castings). The maximum price shall be figured as follows:

(a) First, take as the base the most recent net price at which the seller sold or contracted to sell the castings or class of castings (if the most recent price was established during October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive) or sold, contracted to sell or delivered the castings or class of castings (if the most recent price was established during May 11, 1942 to January 31, 1943, inclusive). "Net price" here means the price after the seller's usual adjustment for rate of delivery, extra charges, cash discounts or other allowances.

(1) If the sale or delivery is to the same buyer who bought or contracted to buy the casting or a casting of the same class between October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive, or who bought, contracted to buy or obtained delivery of the casting or a casting of the same class between May 11, 1942, and January 31 1943, inclusive, then the base price must be the most recent net price to that specific buyer, rather than the most recent net price to any other buyer of the same casting or casting of the same class.

(2) This base price must be a price which fully meets the requirements of Maximum Price Regulation No. 125 as in effect at the time of the sale, contract to sell or delivery, as the case may be. For convenience in checking the requirements, there is included in this regulation, as § 1395.18, a statement of the maximum prices in effect before February 1, 1943. If the most recent price was not figured as required at the time by Maximum Price Regulation No. 125, the price shall be corrected to arrive at the proper base price.

(b) Second, reduce the base price by the amounts stated below:

	Reductions per pound (cents)
(1) If the casting is made from copper or copper base alloys	1½
(2) If the casting is made from aluminum or aluminum base alloys	3
(3) If the casting is made from magnesium or magnesium base alloys	3

However, if the base price already reflects reductions made because of reductions in the maximum prices of metals or alloys since September 30, 1941, and full showing is first made to the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., of that fact, the above specified reductions need only be made to the extent that the previous reductions are less than the amounts set forth above. The showing may be made by letter, or the Office of Price Administration may provide a form for the purpose. Unless and until the above showing is disapproved, the reductions need not be made. However, in the event of disapproval and within ten days after the disapproval, refund must be made of the amount of the reductions. In the case of a "toll", "conversion", or "service" agreement, in which the metal or part of the metal for the casting is required to be sold or otherwise furnished to the seller by the buyer or any person on the buyer's behalf, the reductions under subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) above need only be made to the extent of metal furnished by the seller.

(c) Third, if, after January 31, 1943, a change in alloy between types within one of the groups of alloys listed below is imposed either by the buyer or by order of a government agency then the difference in price of metal as of the date of re-pricing, plus thirty percent of the amount of such difference, shall be deducted from or added (as the case may be) to the base price of the casting to arrive at the maximum price per pound in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) above.

§ 1395.4 Maximum prices and report requirements for nonferrous castings sold or delivered on or after February 1, 1943—Castings of a class different from any casting sold or contracted to be sold by the seller during the period from October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive, and different from any casting sold, contracted to be sold or delivered by the seller during the period from May 11, 1942 to January 31, 1943, inclusive—(a) How maximum price is figured on the first sale, contract to sell or delivery of each such casting on or after February 1, 1943. The maximum price for such castings shall be a net price (after the seller's usual adjustment for rate of delivery, extra charges, cash discounts or other allowances) not higher than that figured by using the pricing formulas or methods of figuring the price that were used on October 15, 1941, by the seller, or if the formulas were not used on that date, then the formulas used on the most recent date before October 15, 1941, on which the formulas were used. If the seller was not in business on or before October 15, 1941, and is not a transferee under § 1395.6 of this regulation, or if for any other reason the seller had no formula, or is unable to reduce it to writing or formulate it as required in this regulation, then the seller shall prepare a formula and proceed with filing and obtaining approval as generally required under paragraph (c) of this section. The pricing formula shall be applied, in figuring the maximum price of each casting, as follows:

(1) Direct labor cost. To the extent that the seller's pricing formulas include or are based on direct labor costs, the seller shall use labor costs figured and applied as follows:

(i) The seller shall use no more than the identical straight time and overtime labor rates used in his pricing formula on October 15, 1941, for each class of labor. Examples of classes of labor are molders, coremakers, or cleaners.

(ii) If the seller employs labor of a particular class not employed in the foundry on October 15, 1941, the seller shall apply no more than the straight time and overtime rates prevailing on that date for that class of labor in the locality in which the casting is produced.

(iii) If, on October 15, 1941, machine hour, piece or average rates were used, no more than the identical machine hour, piece or average rates must be used; for example, if the rate was $1.00 per hour on a standard squeezer machine, then that rate must be used now.

(iv) In deciding whether items of labor cost are direct or indirect, the seller shall employ the same classes and considerations that he used on October 15, 1941. For example, if the seller treated cleaning labor as indirect labor on October 15, 1941, he must treat it as indirect labor for this figuring of the price.

(v) The labor rates as limited by the preceding subdivisions (i) to (iv) shall be applied to the number of hours estimated to be required on the basis of previous production experience.

(2) Cost of metals. To the extent that the pricing formulas include, or are based on prices paid for metals the seller shall apply no more than the current metal prices (not in excess of the current maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration) for the metal used in the casting being priced to the quantities of metals estimated to be required on the basis of previous production experience.

(3) Overhead (burden) rates. To the extent that the pricing formulas include overhead or burden, the seller shall use no overhead or burden higher than that used in his pricing formulas on October 15, 1941, applied in the identical manner that he used on that date. For example, if the seller used 2¢ per pound for overhead on October 15, 1941, he shall use no more than 2¢ per pound today; or if the seller added 50% to direct labor for burden on October 15, 1941, he shall add no more than 50% to direct labor for burden today.

(4) Other factors. To the extent that the pricing formulas include or are based on other elements or costs, the seller shall use the same elements or costs in effect on October 15, 1941, applied in the same manner as applied on that date, except that the seller may use additional or different elements or costs or applications thereof so long as a higher price does not result.

(5) Mark-up, margin or profit. The seller shall use no more than the mark-up, margin, or profit which he used on October 15, 1941, applied in the identical manner which he used on that date. For example, if the seller added to total costs 2¢ per pound for profit on October 15, 1941, he shall add no more than 2¢ per pound today; if the seller added 6% to total costs on October 15, 1941, for profit, he shall add no more than 6% to total costs for profit today.

(b) Subsequent sales, contracts to sell, or deliveries of such castings or castings of the same class. The price at which the first sale, contract to sell or delivery is made shall be the seller's maximum price for all subsequent sales, contracts to sell or deliveries of the same casting or casting of the same class, except that:

(1) If the price was in excess of the maximum price permitted under this regulation, the price shall be reduced to arrive at the proper maximum price.

(2) The seller may re-figure the maximum price for clerical errors but only upon first making proper showing by letter or other writing, of the details of such errors to the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., and obtaining approval of the corrections from that Office; and

(3) Adjustment shall be made for changes in alloy as set forth in § 1395.3 (c) of this regulation.

(c) Filing and approval of pricing formulas and prices. (1) Each person selling nonferrous castings on or after February 1, 1943, shall, (to the extent he has not already done so) file, on or before March 1, 1943, with the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., his pricing formulas or methods of calculating price. These formulas or methods shall be in such detail as is satisfactory to the Office of Price Administration. The formulas must conform exactly to the seller's practice on October 15, 1941, or on the most recent date before October 15, 1941, on which the formulas were used. If the seller was not in business on or before October 15, 1941, and is not a transferee under § 1395.6 of this regulation, or if for any other reason the seller had no formula or is unable to reduce the formula to writing or formulate it as required by this regulation, then the formula to be filed shall be the formula that, in the opinion of the Office of Price Administration, would have been used on October 15, 1941, had the seller conducted business on that date. The formulas must, further, be in such detail that if the Office of Price Administration is furnished the factors peculiar to the individual casting (such as the time required for the different kinds of labor, the alloy, the quantity ordered, etc.), the Office can arrive at the same maximum price as the seller.

(2) The factors to be included in the formulas may include those listed below and such other factors as were employed. The factors may be included singly, or several factors may be combined if that was the seller's practice; for example, it may have been the seller's practice in some cases to figure all factors except metal cost at a flat amount per pound or per day. As further examples, the seller may have figured all burden and overhead at a flat amount per pound or as a single percentage of all direct labor combined, or as a single percentage of the direct molding labor. If different combinations are used in figuring prices of different alloys or of different types of castings, all the combinations should be listed with an explanation of how and when they are applied. It is essential that every factor or every combination of factors which was used by the seller in establishing the price for any casting, be stated exactly:

(i) Metal costs—(a) Price of the metal. The formula should specify whether purchase price, delivered price, or delivered price plus handling charges was used.

(b) Metal loss. This can be stated as an allowance in cents per pound or percentage for each alloy separately, or as an average, if an average was used.

(c) Melting cost. The particular allowance shall be given for each alloy, or the average if an average allowance was used.

(d) Yield. If this factor was used, an explanation should be given of how it was employed.

(ii) Direct labor. State for each class, such as molders, coremakers, cleaners, inspectors, machine operators, etc.

(a) Wage rates. Give standard and overtime separately; state the average rate, if an average was used, or all individual rates within each class, with the type of casting or production to which each rate applied.

(b) Burden. State in percentage of labor costs or cents per pound or per machine hour; if an average rate was used, it should be so stated; if individual rates were used, the type of casting or production to which applied should be stated.

(iii) Defectives. State the individual allowances, with method of application and group to which it applied; if average allowance was used, that average should be stated.

(iv) Shop overhead. Furnish this item, if used separately from burden (ii) (b) or to cover burden or burden and direct labor or total foundry cost up to this point; state flat amount in cents per pound, dollar per hour, or dollar per day or percentage, and where applied.

(v) Administrative and selling overhead if used separately from burden (ii) (b) and shop overhead (iv). State percentage or flat amount and where applied.

(vi) Other costs. For example, amount charged for heat treating, X-rays, delivery, etc. These should be specified and a statement included as to how and where applied

(vii) Adjustments for rate of delivery, extra charges, cash discounts or other allowances.

(viii) Rate of profit. State the flat amount or percentage and how applied.

(3) If a seller commenced sales of nonferrous castings on or after February 1, 1943, he shall file a report similar to the report required by the preceding subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) within 30 days after his first quotation of prices.

(4) When a formula is filed and rates are reported by a seller who was not in business on or before October 15, 1941, and who is not a transferee under § 1395.6 below, or by any other person who had no formula on or before October 15, 1941, or who is unable to reduce his formula to writing in a manner that clearly describes the method of pricing to the satisfaction of the Office of Price Administration, prices calculated in accordance with the formula and rates may be quoted or charged unless and until the Office of Price Administration disapproves the formula or rates or requires a new filing of formula or rates.

(5) The Office of Price Administration may disapprove, in writing, the formula filed or the rates reported in the cases mentioned in subparagraph (4) above, and the prices resulting from their use. Upon such disapproval the seller shall file a revised formula or rates in accordance with directions which the Office of Price Administration shall state at the time of the disapproval. In disapproving any proposed formula or rates, the Office of Price Administration may require refunds on all deliveries made at prices calculated by the use of the formula or rates. The disapproval of the formula or rates, or the requirement of refunds shall, upon request of the seller, be embodied in an order.

§ 1395.5 Developmental contract and subcontract. (a) No developmental contract or subcontract shall be exempt from any provisions of this regulation except upon full compliance with the provisions of, and to the extent provided in, this paragraph. For the purposes of this paragraph a contract or subcontract is considered to be "developmental" only during the period required for the selection of a suitable casting by the buyer or for the accumulation of sufficient production experience by the seller to permit a fair estimate of the manufacturing costs, or both.

(b) The contract or subcontract must be certified in writing to the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., by the United States or an agency thereof or by the buyer and seller, as being developmental, and a report must be filed as required in paragraph (d) of this section. This regulation shall not apply to any nonferrous casting produced pursuant to such contract or subcontract.

(c) After the Office of Price Administration has determined, upon consultation or communication with the appropriate government agency or with the buyer or seller, that the period necessary for development has expired, and has in writing so notified such agency or the buyer and seller, as the case may be, this regulation shall apply to all subsequent sales and deliveries of the nonferrous castings.

(d) Within ten days after entering into any developmental contract or subcontract, the seller shall file a report, verified by the buyer, with the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., containing a description of the nonferrous casting to be manufactured, a summary of the terms of the contract or subcontract, including all pricing provisions, a short statement of the production plans of which the contract is a part and an estimate of the expected duration of such developmental work. For any such contract or subcontract in effect on February 1, 1943, the report shall be filed before February 20, 1943. This paragraph is subject to the exception, however, that in the case of a contract or subcontract classified as "secret" and certified as a "secret" contract to the Office of Price Administration by the United States or any agency thereof, or by the government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States" or any agency of any such government, there need be reported only that portion of the required information, if any, that is not classified "secret".

(e) No contract based on cost plus a percentage of cost, or cost plus a fixed fee, which results in a price higher than the applicable maximum price, is permitted under this regulation unless the contract qualifies as a developmental contract under the provisions of this § 1395.5. For example, the first sale or delivery of a casting under a cost-plus contract other than a developmental contract, where the maximum price for the casting is established by § 1395.4 (a), will fix the maximum price for all subsequent sales, contracts to sell or deliveries of the casting, even though the cost-plus contract provides for a series of transactions.

§ 1395.6 Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any business dealing in nonferrous castings were or are sold or otherwise transferred after October 15, 1941, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in nonferrous castings in the same competitive area and in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by the transferee, the transferee shall be subject to the same maximum prices as those to which the transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and the transferee's obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same as that of the transferor. The transferor in such cases shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee all records of transactions that are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the provisions of this regulation.

§ 1395.7 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those provided in this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1395.8 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export a nonferrous casting shall be figured in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation [1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1395.9 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon or incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use of a nonferrous casting, imposed by any statute of the United States or any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in figuring the seller's maximum price for such casting, except that the tax on the transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942, shall, for purposes of figuring the applicable maximum price, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire:

(a) As to a tax in effect between October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive or between May 11, 1942 to January 31, 1943, inclusive. (1) If the seller paid the tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior seller irrespective of whether the amount was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during the period from October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive or between May 11, 1942, to January 31, 1943, inclusive, the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his seller, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in figuring the maximum price under this regulation.

(2) In all other cases if, at the time the seller figures his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior seller and separately stated and collected from the seller by the seller from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in figuring the maximum price under this regulation.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective on or after February 1, 1943. If the statute or ordinance imposing the tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior seller and separately stated and collected from the seller by the seller from whom he purchased.

§ 1395.10 Adjustable pricing. It is permitted under this regulation to provide in a contract that the price shall be adjustable to a price not higher than the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1395.11 Prohibited evasion practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to obtain the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Obtaining the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices or cash discounts from what they were during the base period or on the base date. This includes reducing the cash discount period, decreasing credit periods, or making greater charges for extension of credit.

(2) Obtaining the effect of a higher price by refusing to sell on a delivered basis and insisting on selling on an f. o. b. shipping point basis, or vice versa.

(3) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price even if accompanied by a discount the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum price.

(4) Obtaining the effect of a higher price by making minor changes in castings having established prices; by requiring a buyer to furnish material for processing not in accordance with previous practice; by entering into a joint venture with any other person subject to this Regulation, for cross-selling or cross-purchasing; by reducing the period of any guaranty or warranty; by undervaluing commodities received in connection with the sale; by distorting estimates of time, material, defectives or other factors in figuring a price; or by making any other change in terms or conditions of sale or contract.

§ 1395.12 Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Applications for adjustment—(1) When available. The Office of Price Administration may by order adjust any maximum price established by this regulation, whenever it finds, from an application for adjustment or on its own motion, that the price impedes or threatens to impede production of one or more nonferrous castings:

(i) The production of which, in the opinion of the Office of Price Administration, aids directly in the war program or is necessary to a standard of living consistent with the prosecution of the war, both because of (a) the type of casting produced, and (b) the necessity of continued production of the casting by the particular seller, or

(ii) The maximum prices of which, after adjustment, are as low as, or lower than, the prices which buyers would be required to pay to the seller's competitors if the seller ceased to produce the castings. Note, however, that not only the conditions of either this subdivision (ii) or the preceding subdivision (i) must be met; those of the following subparagraphs commencing with subparagraph (2) must also be met.

(2) Principal consideration. In deciding whether production is impeded or threatens to be impeded, principal consideration will be given to the overall profit or loss of the seller before income and excess profits taxes. Wherever possible, this consideration will be based on the seller's future annual earnings (here called "projected profit") as estimated by the Office of Price Administration on the basis of the actual current earnings. The projected profit will be compared with the seller's average profit or loss for his fiscal years beginning between January 1, 1936 and December 31, 1939, adjusted for changes in invested capital. This average will be used as the base profit, except in those instances where the seller was not in business during a part or all of the base period, or where the average is lower than the earnings which the Office of Price Administration considers adequate for foundries of comparable size, in either of which cases a base profit which the Office of Price Administration considers adequate will be used.

(3) Other considerations. The relation of projected profit to base profit will be the principal consideration in determining whether production is impeded or threatens to be impeded, but other factors may be taken into consideration where relevant.

(4) Amounts of adjustment. Increases in price may be permitted in an amount considered sufficient by the Office of Price Administration to avoid the impeding of the production, or the threat to it.

(5) Prices pending disposition of application. Upon the filing of an application for adjustment or within five days prior thereto, and until final disposition of the application, contracts may be entered into or proposed and deliveries made at the prices requested in the application, except that the seller may not receive and the buyer may not pay the amount by which the price exceeds the maximum price until an order granting the requested adjustment has been issued. Any sale, contract to sell or offer to sell at the price requested in an application shall include the following:

(i) The maximum price established for the casting in question.

(ii) A statement that the quoted price is subject to approval by the Office of Price Administration.

(iii) A statement that an appropriate application has been filed or will be filed within five days with the Office of Price Administration.

(6) Form of application. An application for adjustment shall be made on the applicable Forms OPA 677:115b and 677:115c or OPA 677:115d and 677:115e, as the case may be, set forth as §§ 1395.20 to 1395.23, inclusive, of this regulation. Such forms may be obtained from any regional office of the Office of Price Administration or may be copied by the applicant from this regulation. Every application for adjustment shall contain a statement, signed by the seller, that the statements made in the application are known by the seller or a duly authorized officer or partner of the seller to be true and complete.

(7) Place for filing application and number of copies. An original and one copy of an application for adjustment must be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

(8) Supplementary Order No. 9 [2] and Procedural Regulation No. 6 [3] apply. Supplementary Order No. 9 issued by the Office of Price Administration dealing with applications for adjustment under Procedural Regulation No. 6, of maximum prices of sales pursuant to Government contracts or subcontracts shall not apply to applications for the adjustment of the maximum price of a nonferrous casting.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1395.13 Records and reports. (a) Every person making a sale of nonferrous castings or a purchase in the course of trade or business shall keep available for inspection by representatives of the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, or any applicable part, amendment or supplement remains in effect:

(1) Complete and accurate records of each sale, showing (i) the date of the sale, (ii) the name and address of the other party to the sale, (iii) the net price received or paid after adjustment for all extra charges, discounts, or other allowances, (iv) the quantity and description of each type of nonferrous casting sold, and (v) in the case of the seller, a summary of the calculations made in figuring the price charged (the summary of calculations may, when necessary, cover groups of castings sold at the same price); and

(2) All available records concerning sales and production, including costs, for the period after October 1, 1940.

(b) Such persons shall keep such other records and submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require or permit, either in addition to or in substitution for records and reports required by this regulation.

§ 1395.14 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1395.15 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Nonferrous castings" include all rough and machined castings poured from metal at less than seventy-five pounds of pressure per square inch in any type of mold, (as for example, molds of sand, plaster, cement, metal or any other substance) and made from aluminum, antimony, beryllium, bismuth, cadmium, cobalt, copper, lead, magnesium, nickel (other than heat resisting or corrosion resistant alloys to the extent subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 214 [*]) tin, zinc, and their alloys where any one or any combination of the above metals equals or exceeds fifty per centum (50%) by weight of the total metal content and where use can be made of the casting without remelting, absorption in a chemical or plating process, extruding, drawing, rolling or forging into another form. The term "nonferrous casting" is also used to include a group of castings sold at the same price.

(3) "Sell or deliver any nonferrous casting" shall include a transaction in which the material for the casting is required to be sold or otherwise furnished to the seller by the buyer or any person on the buyer's behalf. In such case, the "price" under this regulation is the differential above the agreed cost of, or charge for the material, the intent here being to include under this regulation the so-called "toll", "conversion" or "service" agreements.

(4) An individual casting is considered to be "of the same class" as another casting unless differences in design or specification, including quantity, imposed by the customer or by order of government agencies result in differences in size, weight, intricacy of design, tolerances, inspection requirements or process of production, involving differences in total cost of manufacture per pound of 5% or more (figured on the basis provided in § 1395.4). A group of castings sold at a flat price is considered to be "of the same class" as another group of castings unless on the average for the group as a whole differences in individual castings or changes in the relative proportions of the individual castings result in differences in weight or size per casting, intricacy of design, tolerances, inspection requirements, or process of production involving differences in total cost of manufacture per pound of the group of castings of 5% or more (figured on the basis provided in § 1395.4). A difference in alloy between the major groups of alloys listed in § 1395.3 (c) shall be considered to be a difference in process, but a difference within any such major group of alloys shall not be so considered, even though involving differences in total cost per pound of 5% or more (figured on the basis provided in § 1395.4).

(5) "This regulation" means this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 125.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1395.16 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall apply to the forty-eight states of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

§ 1395.17 Effective date. This regulation (§§ 1395.1 to 1395.23, inclusive) shall become effective February 1, 1943.

§ 1395.18 Appendix A: Former maximum prices for non-ferrous castings sold during the period May 11, 1942 to February 1, 1943, inclusive—(a) Castings the same or substantially the same as those sold or contracted to be sold to a purchaser of the same class during the period from October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive. The applicable maximum price for such castings was the highest net price (after adjustment for all applicable extra charges; quantity discounts, cash discounts or other allowances) at which the seller sold or contracted to sell such castings to a purchaser of the same class during the period from October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive.

(b) Castings substantially different from those sold or contracted to be sold during the period from October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive, or castings the same or substantially the same as those sold or contracted to be sold during said period, but sold to a purchaser not of the same class. The applicable maximum price for such castings was a net price (after adjustment for all applicable extra charges, quantity discounts, cash discounts or other allowances) not in excess of that at which the seller would have sold such castings to a purchaser of the same class on October 15, 1941, under the pricing formula or method of calculating price that would have been used by the seller on October 15, 1941 employing the same cost factors (wage rates, prices of materials and overhead) and profit margins which the seller or the seller's transferor would have used on October 15, 1941, even though the seller's cost or profit margins might have increased since that date.

(c) Permission to certain sellers heretofore designated to sell certain castings at prices specified in paragraphs (a) to (k), inclusive of § 1395.2 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 125 (prior to this revision) and entitled "Exceptions" terminate on January 31, 1943. On and after February 1, 1943, such prices may, however, be used as the base price in figuring prices under § 1395.3 (a) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 125

APPLICATION FOR ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES OF AN INDIVIDUAL CASTING OR A GROUP OF CASTINGS SOLD AT THE SAME PRICE

If adjustment is requested for all castings use Form OPA 677-115d

NOTE: The term "casting" refers to all castings of a particular design and specifications or a group of dissimilar castings to be sold at the same price per pound.

Fill out two copies of pages one and four for each application and two copies of pages two and three for each casting for which adjustment in price is requested.

Have each customer who buys the castings for which adjustment is sought fill in one copy of form OPA 677-115c and return it directly to the Washington office of OPA.

Instructions for C—Reasons for requesting price adjustment.

Item

(1) a. Column 1:

Enter the purchase price used in arriving at your maximum price of one pound of metal. Insert in the note at the bottom of the table the date at which the metal price used actually prevailed in the market.

If the casting was sold or contracted to be sold October 1–15, 1941, or sold contracted to be sold or delivered May 11, 1942 to January 31, 1943, enter the price of the metal you then used in calculating the price of the casting.

If the casting was made prior to February 1, 1943, and remade on or after February 1, 1943, and the alloy of which the casting was made was changed to another alloy within the same group of alloys as defined in Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 125, enter the price of the alloy originally used and fill in Question A (b). If the alloy was changed to an alloy (8) and in another group, the casting may become a casting of a different class. See Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 125.

If the casting was first made on or after February 1, 1943, enter the current price of the metal as in Column 2 (12) (see below).

Column 2:

Enter current purchase price of one pound of metal. If a composition of various metals or of scrap, virgin and ingot, or any combination thereof is now used, compute the current cost of the actual combination at present prices. (14)

All other items in column 1—costs as of October 15, 1941; column 2—current costs. (15)

(1) b. If you made separate allowance for metal loss on October 15, 1941, include here; otherwise, omit this item and include in melting cost (Item (1) c).

(1) c. Include cost of direct labor, fuel, crucibles, etc., used directly in melting and pouring. If this cost was not segregated on October 15, 1941, include this cost in General Foundry Overhead (Item 6).

(2) a. State cost of direct or production
(3) a. labor; do not include indirect labor.
(4) a. If wage rates of men actually em-and ployed on the job were used in calcu-
(7) a. lating prices on October 15, 1941, for Column 2 use current wage rates of men now actually employed on the job. If departmental or shop average wage rates were used on October 15, 1941, use department or shop average at current rates for Column 2. Overtime pay may be included in the average in Column 1 only if it was the foundry's practice to include such pay on October 15, 1941, but overtime pay may be included in figures in Column 2 in any case so that the average may reflect current costs accurately. If Item (4) a was not segregated on October 15, 1941, include this cost in General Foundry Overhead (Item 6).

(7) a. If you figure machining on a ma-
(7) b. chine-hour basis, combine Items (7) a and b.

(2) b. Overhead should include indirect
(3) b. labor, incidental materials, and mis-
(4) b. cellaneous shop expenses. This form
(7) b. provides for the allocation of shop and overhead costs on the basis of (A) a percentage of direct labor cost for each department, (B) a percentage of total direct labor costs of the entire foundry, and (C) for companies with accounts for foundry and machine shop combined, for the entire shop. The method which reflects most nearly the established practice of the foundry on October 15, 1941, should be used. If, for example, it was the practice to allocate overhead in whole or in part on the basis of (A), any or all of the items (2) b, (3) b, (4) b, and (7) b should be stated. On the other hand, if it was the practice to allocate all or some of the overhead on the basis of (B) or (C), Items (6) and (11) should be used.

If you do not allocate overhead on a percentage basis but use a flat rate per hour or per day, cross out the percentages under "Items of Cost." Enter the rates per hour or per day, the poundage to which the rate applies and put the corresponding cost per pound in Columns 1 and 2.

Include here any other shop costs which you considered separately on October 15, 1941, for example, pattern making, special rigging, special finishing, heat treating, x-raying, etc. Indicate what the items are.

Enter here an allowance for imperfect castings, or indicate where else this item would be figured, as for instance, included in General Foundry Overhead (Item 6).

This item should cover the administrative and selling overhead applicable to the production of non-ferrous castings covered by this Regulation. It should not include any allowance for profit or for income or excess profits taxes.

Include cost of services purchased outside the company, such as pattern making, machining, etc., at their purchase cost plus whatever charges were added on October 15, 1941.

If it was customary to sell at a delivered price on October 15, 1941, include an allowance for delivery charges here, if separately calculated.

Profit at the rate provided on October 15, 1941—Do not include provision for Federal and State income and excess profits taxes.

Column 1 only:

If the casting was first made prior to February 1, 1943, enter 1½ cents per pound for copper base alloys, 3 cents per pound for aluminum base alloys, and 3 cents per pound for magnesium base alloys, and subtract these amounts to arrive at the maximum price.

C. Reasons for requesting price adjustment:

In the following form fill in the factors entering into the pricing of the casting for which you are requesting price adjustment. In Column 1 give the cost factors as they are figured under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 125, that is, on the basis of costs on October 15, 1941, except for metal cost (see instructions); in Column 2 give the cost factors as you now figure them. Append a detailed explanation of any differences between Columns 1 and 2. If you are now certain that any of your costs will be different during the remainder of the current fiscal year, state these facts and give an estimate of the effect on pricing. If you have firm orders for this casting extending into the next fiscal year, state amount of those orders which will be delivered in the next year.

D. Financial data for the company:

If Financial Report Forms A and B have been submitted to OPA by the company for 1941 and any of the quarters of 1942, no information which duplicates material contained in these financial reports need be submitted; but a statement should be attached that, "Financial Report Form A (or B) has been submitted to OPA for ----------[give fiscal period covered]."

(1) If the company sells only non-ferrous castings—

Submit balance sheets and related statements of profit and loss and surplus for each year 1936 through the most recent fiscal year and quarterly reports from the end of the last fiscal year through the most recent accounting period. Income statements should show the following items separately:

(a) net sales of non-ferrous castings in dollars and in pounds
(b) costs of sales
(i) wages
(ii) direct metal costs
(iii) other manufacturing costs
(c) general selling and administrative expenses—State compensation of all officers and directors separately.
(d) amounts charged for depreciation (other than amounts included in (b)), amortization, contingencies and other reserves
(e) net income before Federal and State income and excess profits taxes.
(f) net income after Federal and State income and excess profits taxes.

(2) If the company sells other products besides non-ferrous castings—

Submit for the periods stated in (1) balance sheets for the company as a whole; and related statements of profit and loss and surplus as follows:

(a) If the accounts are segregated for the foundry alone, give the statements for the foundry, and

(b) if the accounts are not segregated, present the statements for the company as a whole, showing thereon an allocation of the items listed in (1) for the foundry alone with the basis of allocation.

Give in addition the net book value of the plant devoted to foundry operations at each of the indicated periods.

The statements of fact in this report are known to the undersigned to be true and complete, and the estimates given are believed to be correct.

[Amendment 97 to Supp. Reg. 14[2] to GMPR[3]]

SALES BY INDEPENDENT COLLECTORS TO GREASE RENDERERS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Inferior subdivision (d) of § 1499.73 (a) (3) (ii) of Supplementary Regulation 14 to General Maximum Price Regulation, is amended to read as set forth below:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) * * *

(3) * * *

(ii) * * *

(d) Five cents per pound on sales by an independent collector to a renderer, except that on sales by an independent collector to a renderer of grease collected in those areas in which no independent collector or renderer collected fat bearing or oil bearing waste materials during the period from May 1, 1942, to July 6, 1942, inclusive, the maximum price shall be seven cents per pound. If the grease is not picked up by the renderer at the place of business of the independent collector but is shipped to the renderer with the cost of transportation being paid by the independent collector, the actual cost of transportation may be added to the maximum prices herein specified.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 248 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

DOUBLE-MIX, INC.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1484 Authorization of maximum prices for sales of "Double-Mix", a reagent compound in tablet form used with milk and butter to produce a butterlike spread, packed eight 35 grain tablets to an envelope, 50 envelopes to the carton, by Double-Mix, Inc., Kansas City, Missouri. (a) On and after January 28, 1943, the maximum selling price for "Double-Mix" for sale by Double-Mix, Inc., Kansas City, Missouri, shall be:

Per carton of 50 envelopes, eight 35 grain tablets per envelope $1.44

The maximum price established herein applies on a delivered basis to the purchasers' stations, and shall be subject to a discount of 2% for prompt payment.

(b) Sellers at wholesale are authorized a selling price per carton for "Double-Mix" of not more than $1.80 per carton of 50 envelopes delivered to the purchasers' customary receiving points.

(c) Sellers at retail are authorized maximum delivered selling prices per envelope of eight 35 grain tablets of "Double-Mix" as follows:

If the retailer's customary supplier is a wholesaler, such retail price shall in no case exceed five cents per envelope of eight 35 grain tables.

If the retailer's customary supplier is the manufacturer (Double-Mix, Inc.,) the retail price shall in no case exceed four cents per envelope of eight tablets.

(d) Sellers at wholesale shall apply their customary allowances, discounts, and/or trade practices to the sale of "Double-Mix" as apply to comparable commodities of this type and classification unless a change in these customary allowances, discounts and/or trade practices results in a lower selling price.

(e) On and after January 28, 1943, Double-Mix, Inc., shall supply to each of its purchasers before or at the time of the first delivery of "Double-Mix" to such purchasers a written notification for each type of purchaser, and for a period of three months thereafter shall include with each carton of "Double-Mix" a written notification to retailers. If such retailer notification is enclosed in the carton, a legend shall be affixed to the outside of such carton to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed". The written notifications, for each type of purchaser, shall include the following appropriate statements:

Notification From Double-Mix, Inc., to Purchasers

The Office of Price Administration has authorized us to charge the following price for "Double-Mix": $1.44 per carton of 50 envelopes, each envelope containing eight 35 grain tablets. Sellers at wholesale are authorized a maximum delivered selling price per carton of 50 envelopes of "Double-Mix" of $1.80.

Sellers at retail who customarily purchase "Double-Mix" from wholesalers are authorized a maximum selling price of 5¢ per envelope of eight 35 grain tablets.

Sellers at retail who customarily purchase "Double-Mix" directly from us are authorized a maximum selling price of 4¢ per envelope of eight 35 grain tablets.

A copy of notification to retailers is included in or on every shipping unit of this item. If the initial sale of this item is a split carton sale, i. e., less than one carton of 50 envelopes, wholesalers are required to provide such retailers with a copy of the retail notification so enclosed. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

Notification From Double-Mix, Inc., to Retailers

The Office of Price Administration has authorized maximum selling prices for retail sellers of "Double-Mix" as follows: Retail sellers who customarily purchase this product from wholesalers are authorized a maximum selling price of 5¢ per envelope of eight 35 grain tablets. Retail sellers who customarily purchase this product directly from us are authorized a maximum selling price of 4¢ per envelope of eight 35 grain tablets.

(f) This Order No. 248 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This Order No. 248 (§ 1499.1484) shall become effective as of January 28, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 27th day of January 1943.

Definitions

§ 1394.7551 Definitions. (a) When used in Ration Order No. 5C:

* * * * *

(45) "Account" means a gasoline ration bank account carried by a bank, in which the bank keeps a record of deposits of gasoline evidences and of transfers of gasoline ration credits.

(46) "Bank" means a bank or bank branch which participates in ration banking by opening an account in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3.

(47) "Check" means a gasoline ration check, in the form prescribed by the Office of Price Administration, drawn by a depositor against his account and made payable to the account of a named person.

(48) "Depositor" means a person who has a ration bank account. A person shall be deemed a separate depositor with respect to each of his accounts.

(49) "Issue", when used with respect to a check, means the delivery of a completed check to the person to whose account the check is made payable.

(50) "Ration credits" means the credits in an account reflecting deposits of gasoline evidences.

Replenishment and Audit

Registration of Place of Business

§ 1394.8206 Restriction on use of inventory coupons. * * *

(b) Every dealer and intermediate distributor shall clearly write in ink or stamp in ink on the reverse side of each inventory coupon issued to him the name and address of his establishment as shown on his certificate of registration, and no inventory coupon shall be deposited in a bank or used in exchange for gasoline, and no gasoline may be transferred in exchange for inventory coupons, unless such notations appear on such coupons.

Ration Banking

§ 1394.8206a Who opens an account. (a) Every licensed distributor shall, on and after January 27, 1943, open at least one account, in the manner provided by General Ration Order No. 3A, in each state to which he is required to account for motor fuel taxes, for all his places of business and operations in that state. If a licensed distributor has more than one place of business in any one state, he may open a separate account for each place of business or any group of places in the state. A licensed distributor who is required to account for motor fuel taxes to more than one state and who claims that having a ration bank account in any state to which he is required to account would work great and undue hardship on him may apply to the Gasoline Rationing Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for permission to do business in such a state without having an account there and to account to such state by issuing a check drawn on an account in a bank which is in another state. The application shall be in writing, in duplicate, and shall show the applicant's name, business name and address, the nature of his operations within such state, the name and address of the bank carrying the account on which he will draw a check when making his monthly report to such state, and the reasons why having an account in such state would work great and undue hardship on him. If the Office of Price Administration is satisfied that his having an account in that state would work great and undue hardship on him it may grant him permission to do business as a licensed distributor in that state without having an account there, and to account to such a state by issuing a check drawn on an account in a bank which is in another state. The Gasoline Rationing Branch will retain the original of the application and will send the duplicate to the state tax administration in the state in which the applicant is permitted to do business without an account.

(b) Every intermediate distributor shall, on and after January 27, 1943, open a separate account for each place of business as to which he is registered as an intermediate distributor.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of Ration Order No. 50, a facility of the armed forces, such as a Military or Naval Post or Station, a Post Exchange or a Ship's Service Store, which operated in the same manner as a licensed distributor, may, but is not required to, open an account. Such a facility electing to open an account shall make deposits and be subject to the same provisions with respect to ration banking as a licensed distributor.

(d) A place of business of a distributor shall be deemed to be an establishment for the purposes of General Ration Order No. 3A.

§ 1394.8206b Deposits. (a) Every distributor shall deposit in his account all gasoline coupons or other evidences (including checks) received by him: Provided, That a distributor shall not deposit:

(1) Any Class S coupon;

(2) Any Class A coupon before it has become valid or more than fifteen (15) days after the date of expiration of such coupon;

(3) Any bulk coupon printed on Forms OPA R-553 or Forms OPA R-554 (that is, a bulk coupon not bearing the printed word "gasoline" on its face) after February 5, 1943.

(4) Any coupon not bearing the notations required by paragraphs (d) and (e) of § 1394.8004, paragraph (c) of § 1394.8006 and paragraph (b) of § 1394.8206.

(b) Every depositor shall, before depositing any coupon sheet not bearing his name and address on the face thereof, or any evidence not affixed to a coupon sheet, endorse his name and address on the reverse side thereof.

(c) A licensed distributor who acquires gasoline solely for use shall, immediately after receiving his ration from the Board, deposit all the coupons or other evidences so received by him whether or not he has used the gasoline for which the coupons were issued. Any distributor who transfers and also uses gasoline shall not deposit coupons received by him from a Board as a ration: Provided, That if he obtains gasoline for use from his own storage facilities, he shall, at the time that he obtains the gasoline, deposit coupons or other evidences representing the amount of gasoline obtained.

§ 1394.8206c Issuance of checks. A depositor may not issue a check except to the following persons:

(a) To a person who transfers gasoline to him, in exchange for the transfer of the gasoline.

(b) To a person from whom he has received evidences, to make an adjustment between the amount of evidences received and the amount of gasoline transferred to such person in exchange for such evidences.

(c) To the Office of Price Administration or to any office or Board thereof.

(d) To his own account for the purpose of transferring ration credits from one of his accounts as a licensed distributor to another of his accounts as a licensed distributor in the same state.

§ 1394.8206d Termination of Temporary Ration Banking Plan. (a) Sections 1394.8326 through 1394.8338, inclusive (Temporary Ration Banking Plan), are revoked as of 12:01 a. m. February 9, 1943; and §§ 1394.8325, 1394.8339 and 1394.8340 remain in full force and effect: Provided, That between January 27, 1943, and February 8, 1943, inclusive, the definitions contained in § 1394.8325 shall apply only to this section and to §§ 1394.8325 through 1394.8340 inclusive, and after February 8, 1943, to this section and to §§ 1394.8339 and 1394.8340: And provided further, That on and after January 27, 1943, no person may open an account pursuant to §§ 1394.8325 through 1394.8340 inclusive, and any person who opened an account pursuant to such sections on or before January 26, 1943, must close it on or before February 8, 1943. A voucher may be drawn on an account maintained under §§ 1394.8325 through 1394.8340 only until the depositor closes such account, but no later than February 8, 1943. Such a voucher may be deposited, by the person to whom it is issued, only within fifteen (15) days from the date appearing on it and only in an account maintained at a Listed Bank, whether the account is maintained pursuant to §§ 1394.8325 through 1394.8340 or to General Ration Order No. 3A.

(b) A person closing a temporary account pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section and opening a new account in the same bank shall do so by returning to the bank all unused vouchers, requesting the bank to close the temporary account and opening his new account, at the same time, in the manner prescribed by General Ration Order No. 3A. The bank will credit the new account with any ration credits in the temporary account. Vouchers drawn by such person on the temporary account before it is closed and received by the bank after the new account is opened will be charged to the new account.

(c) A person closing such a temporary account without opening a new account in the same bank shall do so by issuing to a Listed Board a voucher payable to the Board in an amount equal to any balance on hand in the temporary account to be closed, less the total amount of all vouchers outstanding. The Board shall, in exchange for the voucher issued to it, give the person who issued the voucher inventory coupons or an exchange certificate in an amount equal to the face amount of the voucher. The Board shall then write the word "closing" on the reverse side of the voucher, shall endorse it and shall send it to the drawee bank. After issuing such a voucher to a Board, a depositor may neither make a deposit in, nor draw a voucher on, the discontinued account, and must return to the bank all of his unused vouchers. The drawee bank will debit the voucher received from the Board to the account on which it is drawn and will close the account if no balance remains after the voucher has been debited. If a balance remains, the bank will debit to such account only vouchers which bear the same date as, or an earlier date than, the voucher received from the Board, and will close the account whenever no balance remains. If a balance remains in the account twenty (20) days after the bank has received the voucher from the Board, the bank shall close the account and notify the depositor in writing, of the unused credit. The depositor may secure inventory coupons or an exchange certificate in the amount of the unused credit from a Listed Board in exchange for the written notification from the bank. The Board shall return the notification to the bank which wrote it. If the person closing the account has no balance on deposit in the account he may close it by returning his unused vouchers to the bank and requesting the bank to close the account.

Restrictions on Transfers Between Dealers and Distributors

§ 1394.8207 Restriction on transfers to dealers. (a) (1) Except as provided in § 1394.8209, no dealer or distributor shall transfer or offer to transfer gasoline to a dealer, and no dealer shall receive a transfer of gasoline, except in exchange for a quantity of coupons or other evidences at the time of the actual delivery of the gasoline or in advance thereof, equal in gallonage value to the quantity of the gasoline transferred, or, in cases in which gasoline is regularly transferred to him on a temperature adjustment basis, equal in gallonage value to the adjusted quantity of gasoline transferred: Provided, That transfers of gasoline may be made only in exchange for coupons bearing the notations required by paragraphs (d) and (e) of § 1394.8004, paragraph (c) of § 1394.8006 and paragraph (b) of § 1394.8206.

(2) Except as provided in § 1394.8209, no dealer or distributor shall transfer or offer to transfer gasoline to a distributor, and no distributor shall receive a transfer of gasoline, except in exchange for his check, at the time of the actual delivery of the gasoline or in advance thereof, payable to the transferor of the gasoline in an amount equal to the gallonage value of the quantity of gasoline transferred, or, in cases in which gasoline is regularly transferred to him on a temperature adjustment basis, equal to the gallonage value of the adjusted quantity of gasoline transferred: Provided, however, That such a transfer made on or before February 8, 1943, shall be accompanied by an exchange of coupons or other evidences (other than checks) if the distributor has not opened an account at the time of the transfer: Provided, further, That a check or coupons or other evidences need not be exchanged for a transfer of gasoline between licensed distributors unless in the course of transit between such licensed distributors the gasoline is delivered to a dealer or intermediate distributor for re-delivery to the transferee.

* * * * *

§ 1394.8209 Absentee deliveries; third party deliveries. Where a distributor elects to make delivery of gasoline during hours when the transferee is not open for business, the transferee shall, where the exact amount of delivery is known in advance, mail or deliver coupons or other evidences (or, if he is a depositor, issue his check) in advance to the distributor, or, at the discretion of the distributor, within twenty-four (24) hours of delivery, equal in gallonage value to the amount, or adjusted amount, of the delivery. Where delivery of gasoline to a dealer or intermediate distributor is made by a common or contract carrier or by pipe line, or where the billing for gasoline transferred is not received by the transferee at the same time as or prior to receipt of the transfer by him, the transferee shall, where the exact amount of the delivery is known in advance, mail or deliver in advance coupons or other evidences (or, if he is a depositor, issue his check) to his distributor equal in gallonage value to the amount, or adjusted amount, of the delivery or may, at the discretion of the transferor, forward such coupons or other evidences, or issue such check, within five (5) days after receipt of such delivery.

§ 1394.8210 Upstream transfers. (a) Any distributor who receives a transfer or return of gasoline from a dealer or intermediate distributor, other than in connection with a transfer to him of the place of business of such dealer or intermediate distributor, shall issue to such dealer or intermediate distributor his check equal in gallonage value to the amount of gasoline so transferred or returned.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, any dealer or distributor who receives a transfer or return of gasoline from a consumer, other than in connection with a transfer to him of the place of business of such consumer, shall deliver to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which the place of business of such dealer or distributor is located a quantity of coupons or other evidences (or, in the case of a transfer or return to a distributor, shall issue his certified check payable to the Office of Price Administration) equal in gallonage value to the quantity of gasoline so transferred or returned, together with a signed statement in duplicate setting forth the name and address of the consumer from whom the gasoline was acquired, and the quantity of gasoline so acquired. The Board shall retain the original of such statement in its files, and shall forward the duplicate thereof, through the State Director, to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which such consumer is located, as shown on such statement. Any consumer who transfers or returns gasoline to a dealer or distributor may, if the gasoline so transferred or returned represents all or part of a ration issued to such consumer, apply, on the appropriate form, to the Board for reissuance of such ration or part thereof. Such application shall contain a statement of the nature and quantity of the ration originally issued, the name and address of the dealer or distributor to whom gasoline was transferred or returned, the quantity of gasoline so transferred or returned, and a certification as to the truth of such statements. If the Board finds that the consumer transferred or returned to a dealer or distributor gasoline originally issued to the consumer as a ration, that such ration has not yet expired, and that the consumer still requires such ration, it shall issue to the consumer coupon books or coupons of the same type as the ration originally issued equal in gallonage value to the quantity of gasoline so transferred or returned. The Board, at the time of issuance of such coupon books or coupons shall, in addition to such other notations as may be required, note on the face of the coupon books issued, and on the application, the expiration date of the ration, which shall be the same expiration date as that applicable to the ration originally issued.

(c) If gasoline is transferred between a Military or Naval Post or Station and a facility such as a Post Exchange or Ships' Service Store, the transferee of the gasoline need not surrender coupons or other evidences or issue his check to a Board as required in paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 1394.8211 Preservation of coupons; coupon sheets. Each dealer and distributor shall affix all coupons received by him to a coupon sheet (Form OPA R–120) in the manner directed thereon, prior to deposit in a bank or to any transfer of such coupons. Separate coupon sheets shall be maintained for coupons of each separate type, only coupons of the same class and gallonage value being attached to any one such sheet.

§ 1394.8213 Summary of coupons. Each dealer shall, prior to every delivery by him of coupons or other evidences to a transferor of gasoline, prepare in duplicate, on Form OPA R–541, a summary of coupons and other evidences in the manner directed thereon, certifying the number of each type of coupon or other evidences to be delivered. The original of this summary shall be delivered to the transferor attached to the coupons and other evidences. The copy shall be retained by him at his place of business for a period of not less than one year. A distributor who receives such a summary shall retain it at his place of business for a period of not less than one year.

§ 1394.8215 Transfer and surrender of expired coupons. * * *

(c) On and after December 11, 1942, but not later than December 15, 1942, in the case of Class S ration coupons, and on and after ten (10) days but not later than fifteen (15) days after the expiration dates of Class A ration coupons, each dealer who has in his possession or control Class S or expired Class A ration coupons shall surrender such coupons, summarized on Form OPA R–541, to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which his place of business is located. The Board shall issue to a dealer in exchange for such coupons inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the coupons so surrendered. After December 15, 1942, in the case of Class S ration coupons, and after fifteen (15) days from the expiration date of any Class A ration coupons, such coupons are void, and no gasoline may be transferred in exchange therefor, and no inventory coupons or other evidence may be issued to a dealer in exchange for Class S or expired Class A ration coupons.

Records and Audits

§ 1394.8218 Reports by licensed distributors. (a) Every licensed distributor shall prepare an additional copy of each of his monthly State motor fuel tax reports (and supporting schedules), which he shall submit to the State motor fuel tax administration at the time and in the manner required by such administration for the usual monthly report. He shall at the same time issue his check, payable to the Office of Price Administration and certified or confirmed by the bank carrying the account on which the check is drawn, in an amount equal to the total gallonage value of coupons or other evidences for which he is required to account for the period for which such return is made and he shall attach this check to the copy of the report submitted. Gasoline which has been shipped and billed in exact amount to a transferee during a calendar month, and which is included by the licensed distributor in the State motor fuel tax report for such month, shall be treated both by the transferor and transferee as gasoline transferred during such month, even though actual receipt of such gasoline by the transferee may take place during the following calendar month.

* * * * *

(d) Every licensed distributor shall be accountable for all gasoline, coupons and other evidences received by him. He shall at all times have in his possession or control coupons or other evidences in a gallonage value which, when added to the gallonage represented by exchange certificates which have been transmitted to the State motor fuel tax administration pursuant to § 1394.8218 and the gallonage represented by the total of all coupons or other evidences deposited in his ration bank accounts, shall be equivalent in gallonage value to the number of gallons of gasoline which he has transferred on or after December 1, 1942, (or on or after July 22, 1942 in the limitation area) and for which the receipt by him of coupons or other evidences is required by Ration Order No. 5C, except such coupons or other evidences as may be accounted for by theft or unavoidable loss.

New Registrations

§ 1394.8221 Cessation of business. Any dealer or intermediate distributor who ceases to operate as such, disposes of his stocks of gasoline, and closes his place of business without transferring it to another for continued operation, shall, at the time of final closing, deliver to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which his place of business is located the certificate of registration of such place of business and a quantity of coupons or other evidences (or, if he is an intermediate distributor, shall issue to the Board his certified check) equal in gallonage value to the total capacity of the gasoline storage facilities of such place of business plus the gallonage value of any other coupons or other evidences deposited or on hand (except those issued to him as a ration by a Board).

§ 1394.8223 Acquisition of dealer's or intermediate distributor's place of business. Any person who acquires for continued operation for the transfer of gasoline a place of business from a dealer or intermediate distributor may accept a transfer of all gasoline on hand at such place of business. The transferee of such place of business shall, at the time of acquisition, obtain from such dealer or intermediate distributor, and such dealer or intermediate distributor shall furnish, the certificate of registration of such place of business and coupons or other evidences (or, if the transferor is an intermediate distributor, the transferor's certified check payable to the Office of Price Administration), equal in gallonage value to the unfilled gasoline storage capacity as of the time of transfer of such place of business. The transferee of such place of business shall, immediately after the transfer, deliver to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which the place of business is located, the certificate of registration so delivered, and, if the transferee is a licensed distributor, shall also deliver at such time the coupons or other evidences (if the transferor was a dealer) or the check (if the transferor was an intermediate distributor) received by him from such dealer or intermediate distributor, and shall endorse his name and address on such certificate of registration and the duplicate thereof on file with the Board. Such endorsement shall constitute a certification by the transferee that he has acquired from the transferor the place of business described in such certificate, the total quantity of gasoline on hand at such place of business, and coupons or other evidences (or, if the transferor was a distributor, a check), equal in gallonage value to the unfilled gasoline storage capacity of such place of business as of the time of transfer. The place of business so acquired shall be registered by the transferee in accordance with the provisions of §§ 1394.8201 to 1394.8205, inclusive.

§ 1394.8225 Newly licensed distributor. Any dealer or intermediate distributor who becomes a licensed distributor shall forthwith deliver to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which such place of business is located the certificate of registration as a dealer or intermediate distributor of such place of business, and coupons or other evidences (or, if he is an intermediate distributor, he shall issue to the Board his certified check payable to the Office of Price Administration) equal in gallonage value to the total unfilled capacity of the gasoline storage facilities at such place of business, plus the gallonage value of any other coupons or other evidences deposited or on hand (except those issued to him as a ration by a Board) as of the date on which he commenced operations as a licensed distributor, and shall register as a licensed distributor in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of § 1394.8201.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Ration Order No. 12,[1] Amendment 12]

COFFEE RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (d) of § 1407.1023 is revoked; paragraph (w) of § 1407.952, § 1407.956, paragraphs (b) and (d) of § 1407.1020, paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of § 1407.1023, § 1407.1026, paragraph (a) of § 1407.1042, paragraph (c) of § 1407.1052, paragraph (c) of § 1407.1053, paragraph (b) of § 1407.1071, and § 1407.1072 are amended to read as follows: new paragraphs (y) to (ff), inclusive, are added to § 1407.952, new §§ 1407.992 and 1407.1032 are added, new paragraphs (c) and (d) are added to § 1407.1042, and new paragraph (l) is added to § 1407.1090a, as set forth below:

Definitions

§ 1407.952 Definitions. When used in Ration Order No. 12 the term: • • •

(w) "Weight value" means the amount of coffee authorized to be transferred by a coffee stamp, certificate, purchase warrant, or check.

• • • • •

(y) "Account" means a coffee ration bank account carried by a bank, in which the bank keeps a record of deposits of coffee stamps, certificates, and checks and of transfers of coffee ration credits.

(z) "Bank" means a bank or bank branch which participates in ration banking by opening an account in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3.

(aa) "Check" means a coffee ration check, in the form prescribed by the Office of Price Administration, drawn by a depositor against his account and made payable to the account of a named person.

(bb) "Depositor" means a person who has a ration bank account. A person shall be deemed a separate depositor with respect to each of his accounts.

(cc) "District Office" means the District Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which the bank carrying the account for a depositor is located, or, if there is no such District Office, the State Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over that area.

(dd) "Evidences" means coffee stamps, certificates, and checks.

(ee) "Issue", when used with respect to a check, means the delivery of a completed check to the person to whose account the check is made payable.

(ff) "Ration credits" means the credits in an account reflecting the deposit of coffee stamps, certificates, or checks.

Restriction of Transfers

§ 1407.956 Transfer of roasted coffee must be accompanied by surrender or issuance of evidences. Except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 12, a transfer of roasted coffee shall be made only upon the surrender or issuance of appropriate evidences authorizing such transfer.

Retailers and Wholesalers

§ 1407.992 Ration banking by retailers and wholesalers. (a) Each retailer who owns:

(1) More than one retail establishment;

(2) A single retail establishment whose gross sales of all meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables, and similar products made from such establishment during December 1942 were $5,000 or more; or

(3) A retail establishment at which green coffee is roasted, shall open at least one account for all such establishments and each wholesaler shall open at least one account for all his wholesale establishments.

(b) Any other retailer may open an account for his establishment.

(c) Any retailer or wholesaler described in paragraph (a) of this section may, at his option, open a separate account for each establishment or for any group of retail or group of wholesale establishments described in such paragraph.

(d) Each account shall be carried in the name of the retailer or wholesaler who shall designate the establishment or establishments for which the account is opened. All accounts shall be opened in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3A.

(e) A retailer may transfer ration credits from one of his retail accounts to another of his retail accounts, and a wholesaler from one of his wholesale accounts to another of his wholesale accounts by the issuance of a check without the transfer of coffee.

(f) No certificate received by an institutional user in connection with his institutional allotment or required to be retained by him as an institutional user roaster shall be deposited by him in any account.

Certificates and Coffee Stamps

§ 1407.1020 Nature and validity of certificates and coffee stamps. • • •

(b) Each coffee stamp authorizes the transfer of one pound of roasted coffee to a consumer only during the ration period assigned to that coffee stamp in § 1407.1091. A coffee stamp received in accordance with Ration Order No. 12, by a retailer, who is not and is not required to be a depositor, and against which such retailer has transferred roasted coffee, authorizes such retailer to acquire roasted coffee therewith from another retailer or wholesaler, if such stamp is surrendered to such other retailer or wholesaler within 10 days of the close of the ration period assigned to such coffee stamp. Coffee stamps surrendered to a depositor shall be valid for deposit in his account for a period of 20 days after the close of the ration period assigned to such coffee stamp, and, except as provided in paragraph (f) of § 1407.1032, he may issue checks at any time against credits created by the deposit of a stamp: Provided, however, That notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Ration Order No. 12, on or before February 15, 1943, coffee stamp No. 27 may be deposited, or may be surrendered in order to authorize the transfer of roasted coffee to a retailer who is not and is not required to be a depositor.

• • • • •

(d) A certificate authorizes the person to whom it is issued, if he is not and is not required to be a depositor, to acquire roasted coffee therewith within 60 days of the date of issuance of the certificate. A certificate surrendered by endorsement to a retailer who is not and is not required to be a depositor, authorizes the transfer of roasted coffee to such retailer within 80 days of the date of issuance of the certificate. A certificate issued or surrendered to a depositor shall be valid for deposit in the account of such depositor only within 80 days of the date of issuance of the certificate. A certificate issued before January 27, 1943, which is surrendered by endorsement to another person, authorizes the transfer of roasted coffee, and may be deposited within 60 days after the date of issuance of such certificate or within 30 days after the date contained in the endorsement to such person, whichever is later. A depositor may, except as provided in paragraph (f) of § 1407.1032, issue checks at any time against credits created by the deposit of a certificate. Certificates which, on or prior to January 27, 1943, cease to authorize the transfer of roasted coffee, shall not be valid for deposit.

• • • • •

§ 1407.1023 War ration stamp cards. (a) A person to whom coffee stamps are surrendered by a consumer shall affix the coffee stamps to a war ration stamp card (OPA Form R-304) or to a similar card. Only coffee stamps bearing the same number may be affixed to a card. Not all the spaces on a card need be filled. Subject to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the card may be surrendered by a depositor to a bank for deposit, or by a retailer who is not and is not required to be a depositor to another retailer or wholesaler for the purpose of acquiring an amount of roasted coffee equivalent to the aggregate weight value of the coffee stamps affixed thereto.

(b) When a retailer who is not and is not required to be a depositor surrenders a card for the purpose of authorizing a transfer of roasted coffee to him, the name and address of such retailer and the name and address of the retailer or wholesaler to whom the card is being surrendered shall be written on the face or back of the card by the retailer surrendering the card. Before a card may be surrendered for the purpose of deposit, the person surrendering the card shall, if he affixed the stamps to the card, endorse it by writing his name and address on its face, or shall, if he received the card with stamps affixed, endorse it by writing his name on its back.

(c) Coffee stamps affixed to a card shall have no greater period of validity and no greater value than coffee stamps not so affixed.

• • • • •

§ 1407.1026 Exchange of certificates. Any person who is not and is not required to be a depositor may surrender to the board a valid certificate or valid certificates which he is entitled to use to acquire roasted coffee and obtain a certificate or certificates in different denominations in exchange therefor. The board shall issue a certificate or certificates to such person, dated as of the date of their issuance, in such reasonable denominations as he may require, but in no event shall the aggregate weight value of the newly-issued certificate or certificates exceed the weight value of the surrendered certificate or certificates.

§ 1407.1032 Use of checks by depositors and non-depositors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Ration Order No. 12:

(a) No depositor and, on and after February 8, 1943, no person required to be a depositor, shall, except in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3A, surrender evidences which are valid for deposit.

(b) Whenever Ration Order No. 12 requires or authorizes the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates to a person, other than a bank for deposit, and such stamps or certificates are valid for deposit, a depositor shall not surrender such stamps or certificates, but shall instead, under the same circumstances and with the same effect, issue to such person a check, valid for deposit, in weight value equal to such stamps or certificates.

(c) Whenever Ration Order No. 12 authorizes the transfer of roasted coffee upon the surrender of coffee stamps or certificates, such transfer may be made to a depositor only upon receipt, by the person making the transfer, of a check, valid for deposit, issued to him by the depositor and equal in weight value to such coffee stamps or certificates.

(d) A person to whom a check is issued who is not and is not required to be a depositor must endorse the check and surrender it to the board. He will receive in exchange a certificate of the same weight value minus the weight value of any stamps or certificates which he is required to surrender to the board for cancellation.

(e) A depositor who has received coffee stamps, certificates, or checks from a retailer, wholesaler, or institutional user may issue to him a check in weight value equal to the roasted coffee which he has not transferred against such coffee stamps, certificates, or checks, but which he is then authorized to transfer to such retailer, wholesaler, or institutional user against such coffee stamps, certificates, or checks.

(f) A depositor who has received coffee stamps, certificates, or checks as authorization for the transfer of roasted coffee by him may not, except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, issue a check against any part of the credit created by their deposit except to the extent that he has transferred roasted coffee against them.

(g) Whenever Ration Order No. 12 refers to the transfer or acquisition of roasted coffee (including the replenishment of inventory), upon or without the receipt or surrender of coffee stamps or certificates, the issuance of checks shall be deemed to be included in such reference, unless the context shall otherwise require.

Transfer and Acquisition of Green Coffee

§ 1407.1042 Disposition of purchase warrants, certain certificates, and ration credits by roasters. (a) Every retailer or wholesaler who roasts green coffee shall retain in his possession, until further order by the Office of Price Administration, all certificates which, on or prior to January 27, 1943, cease to authorize the acquisition of roasted coffee, and purchase warrants surrendered to him, for coffee roasted by him and transferred by him. In February 1943 each such retailer and wholesaler shall forward to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., together with the report required to be made by him by § 1407.1071 (b), (1) a statement specifying the number of pounds of roasted coffee roasted by him that he has transferred against the certificates and purchase warrants so retained by him, and (2) a check in a weight value which, when added to the weight value of the certificates and purchase warrants retained by him pursuant to this section, shall be equal to 84 per cent of the weight of the green coffee roasted by him and transferred by him between November 22, 1942, and January 31, 1943, inclusive. In every month subsequent to February 1943 each such retailer and wholesaler shall forward to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., together with the report required to be made by him by § 1407.1071 (b), a check equal in weight value to 84 per cent of the weight of the green coffee roasted by him and transferred by him during the month for which such report is made.

(c) When the ration credits in the account of a person are insufficient to permit him to issue a check in the weight value required by this section, such person shall instead issue to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a check in weight value equal to the then balance of ration credits in his account less the weight value of all checks then outstanding against his account, and accompany such check with a reconciliation statement stating the reasons why the ration credits in his account are insufficient.

(d) If a person issues a check to the Office of Price Administration pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, he shall, within three months thereafter, issue to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a check equal in weight value to the difference in weight value between the check he was required to issue pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, and the check he actually issued: Provided, however, That no such additional check need be issued on account of any deficiency in the weight value of a check due to the surrender or issuance of evidences to the board pursuant to § 1407.985.

Transfers Permitted Without the Surrender of Coffee Stamps, Certificates, or Purchase Warrants, and Irrespective of Restrictions on the Acquisition of Green Coffee

§ 1407.1052 Transfer of coffee for carriage. • • •

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to relieve any person who delivers roasted coffee to a carrier from the obligation to receive evidences from the consignee or other person to whom a transfer is made as a result of such delivery or from any other obligation imposed by Ration Order No. 12.

§ 1407.1053 Transfer of coffee for storage. • • •

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to relieve any person who delivers roasted coffee for storage from the obligation to receive evidences from any person other than the warehouseman to whom such roasted coffee is transferred or from any other obligation imposed by Ration Order No. 12.

Reports and Records

§ 1407.1071 By persons transferring or acquiring green coffee. • • •

(b) Every person other than the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and Commodity Credit Corporation, who transfers or acquires green coffee shall monthly, beginning in January 1943, prepare a report in triplicate, showing, with respect to the previous month, (1) the names and addresses of the persons to whom green coffee was transferred and from whom green coffee was acquired together with the dates and amounts of such transfers and acquisitions, and (2) his inventory of green and roasted coffee as of the first day of the month in which the report is prepared. Every person who roasts coffee shall, in addition, include in such report a statement of the weight value of all coffee stamps, certificates, checks, and purchase warrants received by him and against which he transferred, during the preceding month, roasted coffee which was roasted by him. • • •

§ 1407.1072 Miscellaneous records. Any person required to make a report pursuant to §§ 1407.1056 or 1407.1058 shall preserve at his principal business office records of all coffee acquired or transferred by him pursuant to those sections, the persons by or to whom such transfers were made and the amounts thereof, the weight value of all coffee

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 3[1], Amendment 38]

SUGAR RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subparagraphs (24) through (30), inclusive, are added to paragraph (c) of § 1407.21; four §§ 1407.109a, 1407.120, 1407.140, and 1407.260 are added; subparagraph (22) of paragraph (c) of § 1407.21, paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 1407.141, paragraph (b) of § 1407.142, § 1407.121, and § 1407.265a are amended; in paragraph (a) of § 1407.265 the date "January 26, 1943" is deleted and the date "February 8, 1943" is substituted therefor and §§ 1407.262 through 1407.265, inclusive, and §§ 1407.266 through 1407.273, inclusive, are revoked subject to the provisions of § 1407.260; as set forth below:

Definitions

§ 1407.21 Meaning of terms used in Rationing Order No. 3. • • •

(c) Definitions. • • •

(22) "Weight value" means the amount of sugar authorized to be delivered by a stamp, certificate or check.

• • • • •

(24) "Account" means a sugar ration bank account carried by a bank, in which the bank keeps a record of deposits of stamps, certificates and checks and of transfers of sugar ration credits.

(25) "Bank" means a bank or bank branch which participates in ration banking by opening an account in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3.

(26) "Check" means a sugar ration check, in the form prescribed by the Office of Price Administration, drawn by a depositor against his account and made payable to the account of a named person.

(27) "Depositor" means a person who has a ration bank account. A person shall be deemed a separate depositor with respect to each of his accounts.

(28) "District Office" means the District Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which the bank carrying the account for a depositor is located or, if there is no such District Office, the State Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over that area.

(29) "Issue", when used with respect to a check, means the delivery of a completed check to the person to whose account the check is made payable.

(30) "Ration credits" means the credits in an account reflecting deposits of stamps, certificate or checks.

Retailers and Wholesalers

§ 1407.109a Ration banking by retailers and wholesalers. (a) Each owner of a registering unit which includes or is composed of one or more wholesale establishments, more than one retail establishment or a single retail establishment whose gross sales of all meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables and similar products were $5,000 or more during December, 1942, shall open at least one account for all the component establishments of such registering unit.

(b) The owner of any other registering unit composed of only one retail establishment may open an account for that registering unit.

(c) The owner of a registering unit described in paragraph (a) of this section may, at his option, open a separate account for each establishment, or for any group of establishments, in such registering unit.

(d) Each account shall be opened in the name of the owner, who shall designate the establishment or establishments to be served. All accounts shall be opened in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3A.

(e) An owner of a registering unit may transfer ration credits from one account to another by the issuance of a check without the delivery of sugar, if these accounts are carried for establishments in the same registering unit.

Primary Distributors

§ 1407.120 Ration banking by primary distributors. (a) On or before February 8, 1943, each primary distributor shall open at least one account for all his establishments, other than institutional or industrial user establishments. If the primary distributor has more than one establishment he may, at his option, open a separate account for each establishment or group of establishments. Each account shall be opened in the name of the owner, who shall designate the establishment or establishments to be served. All accounts shall be opened in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3A.[2] The primary distributor shall notify the Washington Office of the Office of Price Administration of the opening of such account or accounts and the name and address of the establishment or establishments to be served by each such account. If a person becomes a primary distributor on or after February 8, 1943, he shall, within one week thereafter, open such account or accounts and shall notify the Washington Office of the Office of Price Administration of the opening of such account or accounts, and the name and address of each establishment to be served by each such account.

(b) Each primary distributor shall deposit all stamps and certificates received by him within the periods specified in § 1407.141, and each check issued to him within twenty (20) days of the date appearing on its face. Stamps numbered one (1) through nine (9) and certificates received by him in accordance with Rationing Order No. 3, prior to February 8, 1943, which are dated before December 10, 1942, and which bear no endorsement later than January 9, 1943, may not be deposited, but shall be sent by the primary distributor to the State Director in the state in which the principal office of such primary distributor is located.

(c) A primary distributor may issue checks against ration credits in his account only as provided in paragraph (e) of § 1407.140.

§ 1407.121 Deliveries by primary distributors. Except as is otherwise provided herein, a primary distributor may deliver sugar to persons not primary distributors, on and after April 28, 1942, only upon receipt of stamps or certificates in the manner set forth in Rationing Order No. 3.

Sugar Purchase Certificates, War Ration Books, War Ration Stamps and Sugar Ration Checks

§ 1407.140 Use of checks by depositors and non-depositors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Rationing Order No. 3:

(a) No depositor, and, on and after February 8, 1943, no person required to be a depositor, shall, except in accordance with General Ration Order No. 3A, surrender or transfer Stamps or Certificates which are valid for deposit.

(b) Whenever Rationing Order No. 3 requires or authorizes the surrender or transfer of stamps or certificates to a person, other than a bank for deposit, and such stamps or certificates are valid for deposit, a depositor shall not surrender or transfer such Stamps or Certificates but shall instead, under the same circumstances and with the same effect, issue to such person a check, valid for deposit, in weight value equal to such stamps or certificates.

(c) Whenever Rationing Order No. 3 authorizes the delivery of sugar upon the surrender or transfer of stamps or certificates, such delivery may be made to a depositor only upon receipt, by the person making the delivery, of a check valid for deposit, issued to him by the depositor and equal in weight value to such stamps or certificates.

(d) A person to whom a check is issued and who neither is nor is required to be a depositor must endorse the check and surrender it to the Board. He will receive in exchange a certificate of the same weight value minus the weight value of any stamp or certificate which he is required to surrender to the Board for cancellation.

(e) A depositor who has received stamps, certificates or checks from a registering unit may issue to it a check in weight value equal to the sugar which he has not delivered against such stamps, certificates or checks, but which he is then authorized to deliver to such registering unit against such stamps, certificates or checks.

(f) A depositor who has received stamps, certificates or checks as authorization for the delivery of sugar by him may not, except as provided in paragraph (e), issue a check against any part of the credit created by their deposit except to the extent that he has delivered sugar against them.

(g) Whenever Rationing Order No. 3 refers to the delivery or acquisition of sugar (including the replenishment of inventory), upon or without the receipt or surrender of stamps or certificates, the issuance of checks shall be deemed to be included in such reference, unless the context shall otherwise require.

§ 1407.141 Nature and validity of certificates and stamps. • • •

(b) Each stamp authorizes delivery of sugar to a consumer only during the ration period assigned to such stamp in § 1407.243. A stamp received in accordance with Rationing Order No. 3 by a registering unit, which is neither a depositor nor required to be one, authorizes the registering unit to take delivery of sugar, in an amount equal to the weight value of the stamp within twenty (20) days from the close of the ration period assigned to the stamp if it is surrendered to another registering unit or a primary distributor within ten (10) days after the close of such ration period. A stamp surrendered to a depositor shall be valid for deposit in the account of such depositor for a period of twenty (20) days after the close of the ration period assigned to such stamp, and except as provided in paragraph (f) of § 1407.140, he may issue checks at any time, against credits created by the deposit of a stamp. Stamps numbered one (1) through nine (9) shall not be valid for deposit.

(c) A certificate authorizes the person to whom it is issued, if he is not a depositor nor required to be one, to take delivery of sugar within sixty (60) days from the valid date of the certificate. A certificate duly transferred by endorsement to a registering unit that is neither a depositor nor required to be one, authorizes the delivery of sugar to such registering unit within eighty (80) days from the valid date of the certificate. A certificate duly transferred or issued to a depositor shall be valid for deposit in the account of such depositor for a period of eighty (80) days from the valid date of the certificate. A certificate issued before January 27, 1943, which is duly transferred to a registering unit by endorsement authorizes the delivery of sugar and may be deposited within sixty (60) days from the valid date of the certificate or within thirty (30) days from the date contained in the endorsement to such registering unit, whichever is later. A depositor may, except as provided in paragraph (f) of § 1407.140, issue checks at any time, against credits created by the deposit of a certificate. Certificates which before January 27, 1943, ceased to authorize the delivery of sugar shall not be valid for deposit.

§ 1407.142 Surrender of certificates and stamps. • • •

(b) A registering unit or primary distributor to which Stamps are surrendered by a consumer must paste the Stamps on OPA Form No. R–304 (War Ration Stamp Card), or upon a similar card; only stamps bearing the same number may be affixed to the card. When a registering unit surrenders a card for the purpose of authorizing a delivery of sugar to it, the name and address of the registering unit surrendering the card and the name and address of the registering unit or primary distributor to whom the card is being surrendered shall be written on the face or back of the card by the one surrendering the card. Before a card may be surrendered for the purpose of deposit, the person surrendering the card shall, if he affixed the stamps to the card, endorse it by writing his name and address on its face or shall, if he received the card with stamps affixed, endorse it by writing his name on its back.

Sugar Ration Bank Accounts

§ 1407.260 Termination of Temporary Ration Banking Plan. (a) Sections 1407.262 through 1407.265, inclusive, and §§ 1407.266 through 1407.273, inclusive, (Temporary Ration Banking Plan), are revoked as of 12.01 a. m., February 9, 1943; and §§ 1407.261, 1407.265a, 1407.274 and 1407.275 shall remain in full force and effect: Provided, That between January 27, 1943, and February 8, 1943, inclusive, the definitions contained in § 1407.261 shall apply only to this section and §§ 1407.261 through 1407.275, inclusive, and after February 8, 1943, shall apply only to this section and to §§ 1407.261, 1407.265a, 1407.274 and 1407.275: And provided further, That on and after January 27, 1943, no person may open an account pursuant to §§ 1407.261 through 1407.275, inclusive (Temporary Ration Banking Plan) and any person who opened an account pursuant to such sections before January 27, 1943, must close it on or before February 8, 1943. Vouchers may be drawn on an account maintained under §§ 1407.261 through 1407.275, inclusive, until the depositor closes such account, but in no event later than February 8, 1943. Such a voucher may be deposited only within fifteen (15) days of the date appearing on its face and only in an account maintained at a listed bank, pursuant either to §§ 1407.261 through 1407.275, inclusive, or to General Ration Order 3A, by the person to whom the voucher is issued.

(b) A person closing a temporary account as provided in paragraph (a) and opening a new account in the same bank shall do so by returning to the bank all his unused vouchers, requesting the bank to close the temporary account and opening his new account, at the same time, in the manner prescribed by General Ration Order No. 3A. The bank will credit the new account with any ration credits in the temporary account. Vouchers drawn by such person on the temporary account before it is closed and received by the bank after the new account is opened will be charged to the new account.

(c) A person closing a temporary account as provided in paragraph (a) without opening a new account in the same bank shall do so in the manner provided in § 1407.265a.

§ 1407.265a Closing accounts. A person closing a temporary account without opening a new account in the same bank shall do so by issuing to a Listed Board a voucher payable to the Board in an amount equal to any balance on hand in the temporary account to be closed, less the total amount of all vouchers outstanding. The Board shall, in exchange for the voucher issued to it, give the person who issued the voucher a certificate in an amount equal to the face amount of the voucher. The Board shall then write the word "closing" on the reverse side of the voucher, shall endorse it and shall send it to the drawee bank. After issuing such a voucher to a Board, a depositor may neither make a deposit in, nor draw a voucher on, the discontinued account, and must return to the bank all of his unused vouchers. The drawee bank will debit the voucher received from the Board to the account on which it is drawn and will close the account if no balance remains after the voucher has been debited. If a balance remains, the bank will debit to such account only vouchers which bear the same date as, or an earlier date than, the voucher received from the Board; and will close the account whenever no balance remains. If a balance remains in the account twenty (20) days after the bank has received the voucher from the Board, the bank shall close the account and notify the depositor, in writing, of the unused credit. The depositor may secure a certificate in the amount of the unused credit from a Listed Board in exchange for the written notification from the bank. The Board shall return the notification to the bank which wrote it. If the person closing the account has no balance on deposit in the account, he may close it by returning all his unused vouchers to the bank and requesting the bank, in writing, to close the account.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter II—Coast Guard: Inspection and Navigation

Subchapter F—Marine Engineering

AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS; APPROVAL OF EQUIPMENT

PART 57—SUPPLEMENTARY DATA AND REQUIREMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by R.S. 4405, 4417a, 4418, 4426, 4433, 4479, 4488, 4491, as amended, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 1028 (46 U.S.C. 375, 391a, 392, 404, 411, 472, 481, 489, 367, 463a), and Executive Order 9083 (7 F.R. 1609), the following amendments to the Inspection and Navigation Regulations and approval of miscellaneous items of equipment for the better security of life at sea are prescribed:

Sections 57.21-21 and 57.21-22 are amended to read as follows:

§ 57.21-21 Detail requirements. Longitudinal joints may be of the lap type for material not exceeding $\frac{3}{8}$ inch and for heavier material the double butt strap joint shall be used. The width of the overlap in a lap joint shall be at least equal to 8 times the thickness of the plate and an aggregate of 16 times the thickness in the double butt strap construction, one-half on each side of the abutting plate edges. The laps or straps shall be held closely in position, metal to metal, by stitch riveting or other efficient means. The brazing material used shall be such as to produce a shearing strength in the joint of at least 10,000 psi.

§ 57.21-22 Head joints. Heads shall be fitted into the shells with a light driving fit, the overlap being at least equal to 4 times the thickness of the shell plate.

Subchapter O—Regulations Applicable to Certain Vessels and Shipping During Emergency

PART 153—BOATS, RAFTS, AND LIFESAVING APPLIANCES; REGULATIONS DURING EMERGENCY

Section 153.6 (s) is amended to read as follows:

§ 153.6 Additional equipment for lifeboats on ocean and coastwise vessels.

(s) Fishing kit. On every ocean vessel of over 3,000 gross tons there shall be provided in each lifeboat one approved fishing kit consisting of the following equipment:

1 pair, gloves, cotton, commercial grade.

1 knife, 2 in. high carbon steel blade, thickness of blade 0.060 in., tempered to test .56 to .60, well riveted into a wooden handle 6 in. long, $\frac{3}{4}$ in. wide by $\frac{1}{2}$ in. in thickness. Handle to be smooth and shaped, with a $\frac{1}{4}$ in. hole in end for attaching 3 ft. of 10-pound cord. Knife must be able to float. Blade to be guarded with a water-proofed paper tube $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. long by $\frac{5}{8}$ in. inside diameter.

1 package containing the following items:

1 sinker, egg-shaped, with 7/64 in. hole in center, weight 2 ounces, with 3 ft. of 10-pound cord attached to wooden handle containing the abrasive stone.

1 dozen pork rinds, dehydrated strips 4 in. long, $\frac{1}{2}$ in. wide, ends tapered to approximately $\frac{1}{8}$ in. and rounded, one end to have two hook-holds cut $\frac{3}{8}$ in. and $\frac{7}{8}$ in. from end respectively.

1 ≠1/0 O'Shaughnessy hook, attached to 6 in. of ≠9 stainless steel wire, other end attached to a ≠5 barrel swivel.

1 ≠3/0 O'Shaughnessy hook attached to 6 in. of ≠9 stainless steel wire, other end attached to ≠5 barrel swivel.

1 ≠7/0 O'Shaughnessy hook attached to 6 in. of ≠9 stainless steel wire, other end attached to a ≠2 barrel swivel.

1 ≠2 O'Shaughnessy hook attached to 6 in. of ≠5 stainless steel wire, other end attached to a ≠5 barrel swivel.

1 ≠6 O'Shaughnessy hook equipped with 3 in. of ≠5 stainless steel wire, other end attached to a ≠5 barrel swivel.

1 abrasive stone, size $\frac{3}{4}$ in. x $1\frac{7}{8}$ in x $\frac{1}{4}$ in., firmly cemented with waterproof cement into a wooden handle of sufficient size to make the unit buoyant. A $\frac{1}{4}$-in. hole shall be in the end of the wooden handle, with 3 ft. of 10-pound cord attached.

NOTE: All of the hooks in this package shall be firmly attached to a piece of tapered cork, 1 in x $\frac{3}{4}$-in. diameter maximum and attached to the wooden handle containing the abrasive stone.

1 set of instructions shall be printed on PAR-A-PAR paper.

1 dip net, 12 in. deep by approximately 16 in. across the top and bottom when folded flat. Cotton mosquito netting mounted on 12 gauge galvanized market wire. Ends of wire to be securely fastened in a round wooden handle 4 in. long by 1 in. in diameter, tapered both ends. Over-all length of net folded not over 16 in., to be folded once to approximate packing length of 8 in.

3 ft. of 10-pound cord to be attached to the handle and the front end of net.

1 fishing rig ≠1, $\frac{1}{4}$ in. winder, pressed wood or equivalent, containing 100 ft. of Ashaway 15-pound nylon line or equivalent; 1 ≠6 O'Shaughnessy hook rigged with 3 in. ≠5 stainless steel wire and a ≠5 barrel swivel attached. A split buck shot mounted on line about 6 in. above hook.

1 fishing rig ≠2, $\frac{1}{8}$ in. winder, pressed wood or equivalent, with 100 ft. of ≠12 Ashaway white cotton shore line, or equivalent. Equipped with a stubbed mackerel squid jig mounted on a 1/0 O'Shaughnessy hook equipped with 6 in. of ≠5 stainless steel wire with a ≠5 barrel swivel attached (NOTE: Hook on this line should be light colored.)

1 fishing rig ≠3, $\frac{1}{8}$ in. winder, pressed wood or equivalent, with 100 ft. of ≠24 Ashaway white shore line, or equivalent. Equipped with a 1-ounce feather jig with white rubber skirts, chrome plated head, rigged with a 3/0 O'Shaughnessy hook with 24 in. of ≠9 stainless wire leader and a ≠5 barrel swivel attached.

1 fishing rig ≠4 $\frac{1}{8}$ in. winder, pressed wood or equivalent, with 100 ft. of ≠24 Ashaway white cotton shore line, or equivalent; equipped with a ≠1/0 O'Shaughnessy hook on 5 in. ≠9 stainless steel wire with ≠5 barrel swivel attached. A 2-ounce egg-shaped lead sinker with a 7/64 in. hole mounted on a line about 18 in. above hook with knot tied above and below lead.

1 fishing rig ≠5, $\frac{1}{8}$ in. winder, pressed wood or equivalent, with 100 ft. of ≠24 Ashaway white cotton shore line, or equivalent. Equipped with a ≠7/0 gang hook and a 1-ounce egg-shaped sinker, with 7/64 in. hole. Mounted on the line so that this sinker lies directly under the hooks.

1 fishing rig ≠6, $\frac{1}{8}$ in winder, pressed wood or equivalent, with 100 ft. ≠48 Ashaway white cotton shore line, or equivalent, equipped with $1\frac{1}{2}$-ounce feather jig rigged with a 6/0 O'Shaughnessy hook on 2 ft. of ≠9 stainless steel wire and ≠2 barrel swivel.

1 fishing rig ≠7, $\frac{1}{8}$ in. winder, pressed wood or equivalent, with 100 ft. of ≠48 Ashaway white cotton shore line, or equivalent. Equipped with a specially constructed spear of approximately 7 in. over-all in length, special constructed barb on one end with an open eye on the other end, and a "U"-shaped attachment brazed to the side of the spear to accommodate blade of oar or paddle. This item should be constructed of a good grade of commercial steel, the barb to be rounded at the end and back to be concave; protected with a water-proofed paper tube to be $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. long and $\frac{5}{8}$ in. inside diameter.

1 bib, width across bottom 28 in., width from end of flap to end of flap, 36 in. Width across the top 30 in. Length from top of bib to bottom, 15 in. Bib shall contain 12 pockets in which each of the items shall be inserted. All of the edges shall be hemmed and double stitched. Fastened to the end of the left-hand flap shall be a rayon tape 18 in. long by $\frac{1}{8}$ in., securely sewn. Fastened to the right-hand flap shall be 2 rayon tapes, 18 in. long by $\frac{1}{8}$ in., securely sewn. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. from each corner of the top of the bib shall be firmly sewn a rayon tape 24 in. long by $\frac{1}{8}$ in. The bib shall be made of olive drab cotton cloth, herring-bone twill, weight per square yard 8.5, minimum thread count per inch in warp 72, in filling 46; breaking strength in warp 125 pounds, in filling 85 pounds. The test to be made by 1 x 1 x 3 Grab Method.

All material shall be packed in a metal waterproof key opening can. A $\frac{3}{4}$ in. ring which shall hinge back flat shall be soldered on the bottom of the container.

NOTE: Each rig shall be marked with saw-cuts on both sides of winder for identification. All hooks and swivels to be attached with at least 6 turns of the wire. All lines attached to swivels with a surfman's hitch with three wraps. All fishing hooks to be bound to rigs with scotch tape. (Approximate weight of kit, packed, $3\frac{1}{2}$ pounds.)

The container shall bear the manufacturer's name or trademark, together with the following inscription:

EMERGENCY FISHING KIT
OPEN ONLY FOR ACTUAL EMERGENCY USE

§ 153.7 Additional equipment for life rafts on ocean and coastwise vessels.

(j) Fishing kit. On every ocean vessel of over 3,000 gross tons there shall be provided in each life raft one approved fishing kit consisting of the following equipment:

(The number and kind of items are the same as contained in § 153.6 (s).)

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS OF EQUIPMENT APPROVED

The following miscellaneous items of equipment for the better security of life at sea are approved:

Safety Valves

Consolidated Type 1415-W welded safety valve (Dwg. No. S-6335, dated 2 December 1942) (Maximum temperature of 850° F.), manufactured by Consolidated Safety Valve Division, Manning, Maxwell & Moore, Inc., Bridgeport, Conn.

Davits

Schat low type sheath screw davit, Type S. S. L. 5, (Arrangement Dwg. No. C. A. 300, dated 27 May 1942) (Maximum working load of 2,500 pounds per arm), submitted by Marine Safety Devices, Inc., New York, N. Y.

Welin Crescent sheath screw davit, Type A-5W (Arrangement Dwg. No. 1904, Rev. 1 July 1942), (Maximum working load of 2,500 pounds per arm), manufactured by Welin Davit & Boat Corp., Perth Amboy, N. J.

Lifesaving Net

Salterini lifesaving net (Dwg. No. 503), manufactured by the John B. Salterini Co., New York, N. Y.

Chapter IV—War Shipping Administration

[General Order 21,[1] Supplement 1 (Revised 1-43)]

PART 306—GENERAL AGENTS AND AGENTS

SERVICE AGREEMENT FORM

Section 306.48 Part II to Service Agreement (TCA) is amended by striking out the entire section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 306.48 Part II to Service Agreement (TCA). Vessels of which the United States of America, by and through its governmental agencies or departments other than the War Shipping Administration, is owner or owner pro hac vice, are from time to time released to the War Shipping Administration so that the latter may conduct the business of booking, loading and discharging cargo. Such vessels will be assigned to agents under the "Service Agreement for Vessels Time Chartered From Others by the War Shipping Administration" (TCA-4/4/42 as set forth in G. O. 21) (§ 306.45) modified by "Part II" to said agreement as follows:

[1] 7 F.R. 8240.

PART II
to
SERVICE AGREEMENT FOR VESSELS TIME CHARTERED FROM OTHERS BY THE WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION

(Provisions Relating to Vessels of Which the United States of America, By and Through Its Agencies or Departments Other Than The War Shipping Administration, Is Owner Or Owner Pro Hac Vice Which are Released to the War Shipping Administration.)

Whereas, the United States of America (herein called the "United States") acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, and ---------- (herein called the "Agent") entered into an Agreement (Contract WSA ----) dated ---------- (herein called the "Service Agreement") whereby the United States appointed the Agent as its agent to conduct the business of vessels time chartered by the United States and assigned to it by the United States from time to time, and

Whereas, the Army, the Navy, and other departments and agencies of the United States release to the War Shipping Administration, from time to time, vessels of which the United States (through such departments or agencies) is the owner or owner pro hac vice, under an arrangement whereby the War Shipping Administration is responsible for the booking and/or loading and/or discharging activities in connection with such vessels for certain voyages; and

Whereas, it is desirable to have both the vessels which are released to the War Shipping Administration by other departments or agencies of the United States as well as vessels which are time chartered by the War Shipping Administration, subject to the uniform provisions of one agreement;

Now, therefore:

In consideration of the reciprocal covenants and agreements contained in the Service Agreement, it being understood that nothing herein contained shall alter the terms of the Service Agreement (TCA 4/4/42) in respect of vessels time chartered from others by the War Shipping Administration, it is hereby agreed that, as to vessels heretofore or hereafter released by the Army, the Navy or some other agency or department of the United States Government to the War Shipping Administration and, in turn, assigned to the Agent under the Service Agreement, the parties hereto shall be governed by the provisions of the said Service Agreement modified as follows:

Section 1. Article 1 of the Service Agreement shall be considered altered and amended to read as follows:

"The United States appoints the Agent as its agent and not as an independent contractor, to conduct the business of vessels of which the United States, acting by and through any of its departments or agencies other than the War Shipping Administration, is owner or owner pro hac vice and which are released, allocated or assigned to the War Shipping Administration and, in turn, assigned to the Agent under the terms of this Service Agreement."

Section 2. Article 3A (a) of the Service Agreement shall be considered altered and amended to read as follows:

"Perform all of the customary duties of an agent for the booking of cargo and all loading and discharging activities in connection with the vessels subject to this Agreement, subject to the orders of the United States as to voyages, cargoes, priorities of cargoes, charters, rates of freight and other charges and as to all matters connected with the use of the vessels; or in the absence of such orders, the Agent shall follow reasonable commercial practice";

Section 3. Article 3A (c) of the Service Agreement shall be considered altered and amended as follows:

In the first line the words "fuel, fresh water" shall be deleted. In the sixth line the words "time charterer of" shall be deleted and the words "carrier of the cargo in" shall be inserted in place of the deletion. In line 9 the words "and supplying fuel" shall be deleted.

Section 4. Article 3A (d) shall be considered altered and amended so as to read as follows:

"Issue or cause to be issued to shippers customary freight contracts and bills of lading in the form prescribed by the United States, and prepare manifests and other cargo documents."

Section 5. Article 9 of the Service Agreement shall be considered altered and amended as follows:

The last sentence shall be deleted.

Section 6. Article 10 of the Service Agreement shall be considered altered and amended so as to read as follows:

"The negotiation and settlement of all salvage claims for services rendered by vessels shall be controlled by the United States. The Agent shall furnish the United States with full reports and information on all salvage services rendered."

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have executed this Part II to the Service Agreement in triplicate this ------ day of ----------, 19----.

A written complaint dated October 2, 1941, having been filed on October 7,

1941, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 8, complainant, pursuant to section 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, alleging wilful violation by Left Fork Fuel Company, Incorporated, a corporation, East Lynn, West Virginia, in the Bituminous Coal Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder; and

Left Fork Fuel Company, Incorporated, having filed with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") on January 15, 1943, its application for restoration of its code membership to become effective simultaneously with the effective date of the Order entered in Docket No. B-64, issued January 7, 1943, revoking and cancelling the code membership of said Left Fork Fuel Company, Incorporated, in the Code to become effective fifteen (15) days from the date of said Order; and

It appearing from said application and other information in the possession of the Division, that said Left Fork Fuel Company, Incorporated, paid to the Deputy Collector of the Internal Revenue at Huntington, West Virginia, on January 14, 1943, the sum of $403.65, pursuant to said Order issued January 7, 1943, in the above-entitled matter, as a condition precedent to the restoration of its code membership.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That said application Left Fork Fuel Company, Incorporated, filed with the Division on January 15, 1943, for restoration of its code membership, be, and the same hereby is granted.

It is further ordered, That said restoration of the code membership of Left Fork Fuel Company, Incorporated, be, and the same hereby is effective January 22, 1943.

Dated: January 27, 1943.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Wage and Hour Division.

AMENDMENTS OF LEARNER REGULATIONS AND DETERMINATIONS APPLICABLE TO VARIOUS INDUSTRIES

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW CAUSE

In the matter of amendments of learner regulations and determinations applicable to the hosiery industry, women's apparel industry, single pants, shirts, and allied garments industry, sportswear and other odd outerwear divisions of the apparel industry, belts division of the apparel industry, textile industry, knitted and men's woven underwear and commercial knitting industry, knitted outerwear industry and gloves and mittens industry.

Whereas a hearing was held on October 26 and 27, 1942, to consider amendments of learner regulations and determinations applicable to the hosiery industry, women's apparel industry, single pants, shirts and allied garments industry, sportswear and other odd outerwear divisions of the apparel industry, belts division of the apparel industry, textile industry, knitted and men's woven underwear and commercial knitting industry, knitted outerwear industry and gloves and mittens industry, and

Whereas the presiding officer, Merle D. Vincent has found that data were presented at that hearing which showed the need in the above industries for provision within the regulations for abnormal labor turnover which is occurring in certain localities, and for a change in the subminimum wage rate at which learners are to be employed, and recommended that the learner regulations and determinations applicable to the aforementioned industries be amended in the particulars that they are inconsistent with the following provisions to be effective for the duration of the war emergency:

1. Special learner certificates may be issued upon individual applications of employers provided that it is satisfactorily shown that:

(a) Experienced labor is not available in the locality from which the employer customarily draws his labor supply;

(b) Learners are available for employment at the established subminimum learner wage rate;

(c) The issue of a certificate will not tend to impair working or wage standards established for experienced workers in the industry;

(d) The issue of such certificates will not create unfair competitive labor cost advantages;

(e) The number of learners applied for will not tend to impair the statutory minimum wage rate in such plant;

(f) The applicant's piece work or hourly wage rates yield average earnings to experienced workers substantially above the minimum wage rate.

2. The subminimum wage rate which may be provided in special learner certificates shall be not less than 35 cents per hour.

3. The effective period for special learner certificates for labor turnover shall not exceed six months.

4. Authorization to employ a number or percentage of learners for labor turnover in excess of that provided in industry regulations may be granted to the extent of the actual need of an individual applicant, when that need is due to an abnormal labor turnover resulting from the war emergency.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given all interested parties of an opportunity to show cause why the said recommendations of Merle D. Vincent shall not be adopted. Objections, statements and briefs will be received, considered and examined by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, U. S. Department of Labor, 165 West 46th Street, New York, New York, if filed with him on or before February 15, 1943.

Signed at New York, New York, this 27th day of January 1943.

Delfino Cinelli, Signa, Italy	504
Raffaello Cinelli, Signa, Italy	142
Gioconda Rousseau, Signa, Italy	59
Nella Burgisse, Signa, Italy	59
Lina Cinelli, Signa, Italy	59
Giuliana Cinelli, Signa, Italy	59
Francesca Cinelli, Signa, Italy	59
Gioconda Cinelli, Signa, Italy	59
Total	1,000

is property of nationals, and represents ownership of said business enterprise which is a national, of a designated enemy country (Italy); and

(b) That the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of Delfino Cinelli, Signa, Italy, in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to him by Collectors Galleries, Inc., 250 West Fifty-seventh Street, New York, New York, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, and including particularly the loan account carried on the books of the aforesaid Collectors Galleries, Inc., in the name of Delfino Cinelli, is an interest in the aforesaid business enterprise held by a national of an enemy country, and also is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Italy);

and determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country, and having made all determination and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this Order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

formed under the laws of Delaware, in return for the transfer to Max Rueping of 1,000 shares of Class A stock to be issued by such corporation, together with all royalties and other monies payable or held with respect to such interest, is property payable or held with respect to patents or rights related thereto in which an interest is held by, and such property is itself an interest held therein by, a national of a foreign country (Germany),

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3, to be held, used administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

[Vesting Order 635]

FREDERICK PUSTET COMPANY, INC.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Marietta Schelosky, Elisabeth Erhard and Gertrud Pustet, whose last known addresses were represented to the undersigned as being Munich, Germany, Landl, County of Thiersee, Germany, and Regensburg, Germany, respectively, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. Finding that 1,520 shares of $100 par value common stock of Frederick Pustet Company, Inc., a New York corporation, New York, New York, registered in the name of Karl Eberle-Birchler, Einsiedeln, Switzerland, are beneficially owned by the aforesaid individuals in the following respective amounts:

Name:	Number of shares
Marietta Schelosky	507
Elisabeth Erhard	507
Gertrud Pustet	506
Total	1,520

3. Finding that said corporation is a business enterprise within the United States and that said 1,520 shares of stock constitute a substantial part (namely, 38⅓%) of all the outstanding capital stock of said business enterprise and represent an interest therein;

4. Determining, therefore, that said business enterprise is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

5. Finding that the property described as follows:

All rights, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of Marietta Schelosky, Elisabeth Erhard, and Gertrud Pustet, and each of them, in and to all obligations, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to them or any of them by said Frederick Pustet Company, Inc., including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such obligations and the right to sue for and collect such obligations, is an interest in the aforesaid business enterprise held by nationals of an enemy country, and also is property within the United States owned or controlled by nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

6. Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

7. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby (i) vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in subparagraph 2 hereof and the property described in subparagraph 5 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (ii) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

8. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on January 6, 1943.

[Vesting Order 640]

DRESDEN-LEIPZIGER SCHNELLPRESSENFABRIK A. G., ET AL.

Re: Interests of German corporations in contracts relating to patents.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned after investigation:

1. Finding that Dresden-Leipziger Schellpressenfabrik A. G., Askania Werke A. G., and Chemische Fabrik Pfersee, G.m.b.H. are corporations organized under the laws of Germany and are doing business at Radebeul, Berlin and Augsburg, Germany, respectively, and therefore are nationals of a foreign country (Germany);

2. Finding therefore that the interests in contracts relating to patents, which are described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, are property payable or held with respect to patents or rights related thereto in which interests are held by, and such property itself constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of a foreign country (Germany);

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 2, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on January 6, 1943.

[Order 2 Under MPR 39]

PRYOR AND COMPANY

ORDER GRANTING ADJUSTMENT

Order No. 2 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 39—Woven Decorative Fabrics—Docket No. 3039-15.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator and in accordance with § 1400.160 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 39, It is hereby ordered:

Adjustment of maximum prices for the sale of certain constructions of woven decorative fabrics by Pryor & Company. (a) On and after January 28, 1943, Pryor & Company may sell and deliver the following constructions of woven decorative fabrics at prices not in excess of the prices set forth below:

Name of fabric	Construction	Maximum price
Monk's cloth	2 x 2, 12 oz., 50"	Per yard $.30375
Monk's cloth	4 x 4, 14 oz., 50"	$.40425

(b) Pryor & Company shall mail or cause to be mailed to all persons who purchase from it a notice reading as follows:

The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum price for sales to you as follows:

Name of fabric	Construction	Former maximum price	Adjusted maximum price
Monk's cloth	2 x 2, 12 oz. 50"	Per yard $.30225	Per yard $.30375
Monk's cloth	4 x 4, 14 oz. 50"	$.40425	$.40425

These increases allowed us represent only those parts of cost increases which we are unable to absorb and they were granted with the understanding that retail prices would not be raised. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise maximum prices for sales of these woven decorative fabrics.

(c) Except for the adjusted maximum prices granted herein, all sales of the constructions of woven decorative fabrics set forth above shall be subject to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 39.

(d) All prayers of the petitioner not granted herein are denied.

(e) This Order No. 2 may be revoked or amended at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(f) This Order No. 2 shall become effective January 28, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

5	8.25	15.50
Less than 5	8.50	16.00

(2) For sales at wholesale, the maximum prices are $9.60 per gross for the Plas-Ti-Pads and $19.20 per gross for the Industrial Size Plas-Ti-Pads. The wholesale prices are f. o. b. seller's city.

(3) For sales at retail, the maximum price for the Plas-Ti-Pad is 10 cents per package and for the Industrial Size Plas-Ti-Pad, 20 cents per package.

(b) To every package of Plas-Ti-Pad and Industrial Size Plas-Ti-Pad shipped to a purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states the retail ceiling price.

(c) At or before the time of first delivery after the effective date of this regulation the manufacturer shall notify in writing every person who buys from him of the maximum price set by this Order No. 141 for resales by the purchaser. This written notice may be given in any convenient form; for example, it may be shown on or attached to the invoice, or packed with the merchandise.

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

(e) This Order No. 141 shall become effective on the 28th day of January 1943.

Issued this 27th day of January 1943.

[Order 142 Under MPR 188]

MARLIN FIREARMS COMPANY

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 142 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188—Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel.

Maximum prices for sales of a new razor blade sharpener, manufactured by Marlin Firearms Company.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9250, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, and § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

(a) This Order No. 142 sets maximum prices for sales of a new razor blade sharpener, designated as the Marlin Blade Sharpener, Patent No. 2133284, manufactured by Marlin Firearms Company, 17 East 42nd Street, New York City. The order applies to sales in the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia.

(1) The maximum price for sales to wholesalers by Marlin Firearms Company and its distributing corporation, Kenro Products, Inc., 17 East 42nd Street, New York City, is $1.79 per dozen, delivered.

(2) The maximum price for sales by wholesalers to retailers is $2.18 per dozen, delivered.

(3) The maximum price for sales at retail is $.29 each.

(b) Upon the display card on which the sharpeners are mounted, the manufacturer or its distributing corporation shall stamp or print a statement that the retail ceiling price is $.29. This requirement shall not apply, however, to sharpeners delivered prior to January 28, 1943.

(c) Kenro Products, Inc., shall notify every person who buys from it of the maximum price set by this Order No. 142 for resales by the purchaser. The notice shall be given at or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser after January 27, 1943. It may be given in any convenient form. For example, a statement in the following form on an invoice to a wholesaler will be sufficient: "Your ceiling price, set by an OPA order, is $2.18 per dozen, delivered."

(d) This Order No. 142 shall become effective January 28, 1943.

Issued this 27th day of January 1943.

PRENTISS M. BROWN,
Administrator.

WHEELING STEEL CORPORATION

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order No. 32 under Revised Price Schedule No. 6—Iron and Steel Products—Docket No. 3006-31.

On November 12, 1942, Wheeling Steel Corporation, of Wheeling, West Virginia, filed a petition for exception to Revised Price Schedule No. 6, as amended, pursuant to § 1306.7 (c) thereof. Due consideration has been given to the petition and an opinion in support of this order No. 32 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order 9250 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Wheeling Steel Corporation may sell and deliver and agree, offer, solicit and attempt to sell and any person may buy and receive from Wheeling Steel Corporation open hearth sheet bars and open hearth rerolling slabs produced at its Portsmouth, Ohio, plant pursuant to directives or allocations of the War Production Board, at prices not in excess of those stated in paragraph (b).

(b) (1) The maximum base price which may be charged for open hearth sheet bars is $38.00 per gross ton, f. o. b. Portsmouth, Ohio.

(2) The maximum base price which may be charged for open hearth rerolling slabs is $34.00 per gross ton, f. o. b. Portsmouth, Ohio.

(3) The maximum base prices set forth in (1) and (2) above shall be applicable to all shipments made after November 7, 1942.

(c) All prayers of the petitioner not granted herein are denied.

(d) This Order No. 32 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) The definitions set forth in § 1303.8 of Revised Price Schedule No. 6 shall apply to terms used herein.

(f) This Order No. 32 shall be effective as of November 7, 1942.

Issued this 27th day of January 1943.

Regulations

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IV—Federal Crop Insurance Corporation

PART 411—1942 COTTON CROP INSURANCE CONTRACT REGULATIONS

INDEMNITIES SUBJECT TO INSURANCE CONTRACT PROVISIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation by the Federal Crop Insurance Act, approved February 16, 1938, as amended, the 1942 Cotton Crop Insurance Regulations are amended as follows:

Section 411.23[1] of said regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 411.23 Indemnities subject to all provisions of insurance contract. Indemnities payable to any person shall be subject to all the provisions of the insurance contract, including the right of the Corporation to deduct from any such indemnity the unpaid amount of the note of the original insured for the payment of the earned premium: Provided, however, That in case of a transfer of an interest in an insured crop, such deduction to be made from an indemnity payable to the transferee shall not exceed the premium due on the interest in the crop so transferred. Any indemnity payable to any person other than the original insured as a result of transfer, or otherwise, shall be subject to any collateral assignment of the insurance contract by the original insured.

(Secs. 506 (e), 507 (c), 508, 509, 516 (b); 52 Stat. 73, 74, 75, 77; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed., 1506 (e), 1507 (c), 1508, 1509, 1516 (b), as amended by 55 Stat. 255)

Adopted by the Board of Directors on December 22, 1942.

[SEAL] M. CLIFFORD TOWNSEND,
Chairman of the Board.

Approved: January 28, 1943.

(4) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(5) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(b) Restrictions on delivery. Without regard to preexisting contracts, and until March 6, 1943, butter, required to be set aside pursuant to Conservation Order M–267 and not heretofore delivered or released in accordance with the provisions of Conservation Order M–267, may not be delivered except on specific permission of the Director, or to or for the account of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the War Shipping Administration, or any agency of the United States for supplies to be delivered to or for the account of the government of any foreign country pursuant to the act of March 11, 1941 (Lend-Lease Act).

(c) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of butter and premises used in his business; and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(d) Certificates. No person other than those agencies specified in or pursuant to (b) hereof shall remove butter, required to be set aside pursuant to Conservation Order M–267 and not heretofore delivered or released in accordance with the provisions of Conservation Order M–267, from any warehouse in the 35 cities unless such person files with the warehouseman a certificate, in duplicate, in substantially the following language (with the appropriate information inserted in the blank spaces);

This is to certify that the following quantity of butter _____ removed by me on _____ 1943, from _____ is not included within the percentage of my holdings, or the holdings of my predecessor in title, which was required to be set aside by Conservation Order M–267, as superseded by Food Distriction Order No. ____

(e) Restrictions on warehouseman. No warehouseman in the 35 cities may release or deliver any butter, required to be set aside pursuant to Conservation Order M–267 and not heretofore delivered or released in accordance with the provisions of Conservation Order M–267, from his custody or control with knowledge or reason to believe that such is being delivered or removed in violation of the terms hereof. Unless such delivery is to a governmental agency, the respective warehouseman shall obtain, at the time of making such delivery, a certificate as required by (d) hereof; and each such warehouseman shall retain each such certificate in his files for at least six months subsequent to the receipt thereof.

(f) Records and reports. Each person subject to the provisions of Conservation Order M–267 and the provisions hereof shall maintain such records for at least two years, or for such other period of time as the Director may designate, and shall execute and file such reports and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and such reports and information shall be submitted within such periods of time as may be prescribed by the Director.

(g) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing for relief, and such petition shall be submitted to the Director and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such decision by the Director shall be final.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning said Conservation Order M–267, as hereby amended, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Dairy and Poultry Branch, Food Distribution Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref: FD–12.

(i) Delegation of authority. The Director is hereby designated to administer the provisions hereof.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, by any act or omission, falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished, pursuant to this order, or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter, in connection with this order, within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against any such person as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under Paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(k) Conservation Order M–267 hereby superseded. This order supersedes, except in the respects stated herein, Conservation Order M–267, but with respect to violations of said Conservation Order M–267 or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said Conservation Order M–267 prior to the effective date hereof, said Conservation Order M–267 shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said Conservation Order M–267 shall be considered under the provisions of paragraph (g) hereof.

(l) Effective date. This order shall be effective as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., January 29, 1943.

(2) Defense Homes Corporation.

(3) Property managers of Defense Homes Corporation projects.

(b) In the performance of its duties hereunder the Housing Wage Agency shall comply with Executive Order 9250, dated October 3, 1942, and all regulations heretofore or hereafter issued thereunder, and with the declaration of wage policy of the National War Labor Board, dated November 6, 1942. The Housing Wage Agency, without making an initial ruling thereon may refer to the National War Labor Board, for decision by the Board, any application which in its opinion presents doubtful or disputed questions of sufficient seriousness and import to warrant direct action by the Board.

(c) The Housing Wage Agency shall transmit to the Review and Research Division of the National War Labor Board copies of its rulings, and rules of procedure, if any, as they are issued, and such additional data and reports as said Division or the Board may from time to time deem necessary.

(d) Any ruling by the Housing Wage Agency hereunder shall be deemed the act of the National War Labor Board and shall be final, subject to the National War Labor Board's right to review rulings on its own motion and to reverse or modify the same. Any such reversal or modification shall not be retroactive and shall allow the Commissioner of the Federal Public Housing Authority a period of two weeks for compliance.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter II—Bituminous Coal Division

[Dockets Nos. A-1776 and A-1782]

PART 323—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 3

ORDER OF CONSOLIDATION, ETC.

Order of consolidation and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petitions of District Board No. 3 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines and for changes in shipping points for the coals of certain other mines.

Original petitions, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 3 and requesting changes in shipping points for the coals of certain other mines, located in District No. 3; and

It appearing that said petitions should be consolidated, and that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matters; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That said petitions be, and the same hereby are, consolidated;

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 323.6 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplements R–I and R–IV, § 323.8 (Special prices—(b) Railroad fuel prices for all movements except via lakes) is amended by adding thereto Supplements R–II and R–V, § 323.8 (Special prices—(c) Railroad fuel prices for movement via all lakes—all ports) is amended by adding thereto Supplements R–III and R–VI and § 323.23 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petitions in the above-entitled matters and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: January 4, 1943.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Director.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-226]

KEIDEL PLUMBING COMPANY

Elmer Spindel, doing business as Keidel Plumbing Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, is a dealer in plumbing supplies. From April 16 to September 30, 1942, the company sold new metal plumbing equipment on orders in excess of $10 to ultimate consumers on orders which did not bear any preference ratings or certifications, in wilful violation of Limitation Order L–79. From April 17 to August 5, 1942, the company applied preference ratings of A–10 under Preference Rating Order P–84 to certain purchase orders for materials. At the time that these preference ratings were applied, the company did not have rated orders from its customers to support its use of these ratings. The application of such ratings constituted wilful violations of Preference Rating Order P–84 and misrepresentations to the War Production Board.

The foregoing violations of Limitation Order L–79 and Preference Rating Order P–84 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.226 Suspension Order No. S-226. (a) Deliveries of material to Elmer Spindel, individually or doing business as Keidel Plumbing Company or otherwise, his successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Elmer Spindel, individually or doing business as Keidel Plumbing Company or otherwise, his successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Elmer Spindel, individually or doing business as Keidel Plumbing Company or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on January 31, 1943, and shall expire on April 30, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 28th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-223]

COLUMBUS BED SPRING COMPANY

Columbus Bed Spring Company, an Ohio corporation, processed 25,000 lbs. of steel during the period between June 19 and August 5, 1942, and assembled from this steel 1,162 beds, in violation of General Conservation Order M–126, as amended. The respondent was aware that the War Production Board had issued restrictions on the use of steel for the manufacture of beds, but the respondent proceeded with this processing of steel without endeavoring to ascertain whether it was prohibited by the restrictions of the War Production Board. This constituted a wilful violation of General Conservation Order M–126, as amended.

This violation has hampered and impeded the prosecution of the war by diverting scarce material to uses prohibited by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.223 Suspension Order S-223 (a) Deliveries of material to Columbus Bed Spring Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Columbus Bed Spring Company, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Columbus Bed Spring Company from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) This order shall take effect on January 30, 1943 and shall expire on April 30, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

PART 1028—DOMESTIC COOKING APPLIANCES

[Supplementary General Limitation Order L–23–d, as Amended Jan. 29, 1943]

Section 1028.5 Supplementary Limitation Order L–23–d is amended to read as follows:

§ 1028.5 Supplementary Limitation Order L–23–d. Until March 31, 1943, any Class C manufacturer may use in the production of domestic heating stoves using coal or wood as fuel any iron or steel without regard to the limitations of Supplementary General Limitation Order No. L–23–c, or amendments thereto, relating to total weight or weight per unit.

This order shall expire March 31, 1943.

PART 1041—PRODUCTION, TRANSPORTATION, REFINING AND MARKETING OF PETROLEUM

[Preference Rating Order P–98–b, as Amended Jan. 29, 1943]

For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of material for the production, transportation, refining and marketing of petroleum, preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries of necessary material upon the terms hereinafter set forth:

§ 1041.2 Preference Rating Order P–98–b—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Operator" means:

(i) Any person located in the United States, its territories or possessions, engaged in the petroleum industry; or

(ii) Any person located in the Dominion of Canada engaged in the petroleum industry to whom and in whose name a copy of this order or of Preference Rating Order P–98, Extended and Amended, is or has been specifically issued and to whom a serial number has been assigned.

(3) "Supplier" means any person with whom a contract or purchase order has been placed for delivery of material to the operator or to another supplier.

(4) "Petroleum" means petroleum, petroleum products and associated hydrocarbons, including but not limited to natural gas.

(5) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(6) "Petroleum industry" means any operation directly incident to:

(i) The discovery, development or depletion of petroleum pools (production);

(ii) The extraction or recovery of natural gasoline and associated hydrocarbons (natural gasoline production);

(iii) The transportation, movement, loading or unloading of petroleum other than natural gas (transportation);

(iv) The processing, refining or compounding of finished or unfinished petroleum products (refining);

(v) The distribution or dispensing of petroleum products (other than natural gas) and the storing of petroleum products incident thereto (marketing).

(7) "Research laboratory material" means material used exclusively for the purpose of carrying out by means of an existing research laboratory investigations into more efficient or more effective methods of conducting petroleum industry operations, except that such material shall not include material for use in the construction of laboratory buildings or other structures.

(b) Scope of order. (1) No operator may apply any preference rating assigned by this order to obtain delivery of material:

(i) Unless such material is research laboratory material, or is to be used in effecting an alteration which when completed has involved the use of additional material having a total value of less than $500.00, or is to be used for maintenance or repair purposes or as operating supplies; or

(ii) Unless such rating is applied to obtain delivery of material to be used in any operation directly incident to the discovery, development or depletion of petroleum pools.

(2) The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue supplementary orders or specific directions with respect to the application of preference ratings or the use of material obtained under this order.

(c) Assignment of preference ratings. Subject to the terms of this order, a preference rating of A–2, A–1–a, AA–2X or AA–1 is hereby assigned to deliveries of material to an operator for use in the petroleum industry.

(d) Restrictions on the application of preference ratings by an operator. (1) No operator may apply any preference rating assigned by this order to obtain delivery of material unless the material cannot otherwise be obtained on the date when such material is required, and no operator may apply a preference rating assigned by this order in any case where a lower preference rating assigned by this order will enable such operator to secure the material on the date when such material is required.

(2) No operator may apply a rating assigned by this order to obtain material the use of which may be eliminated by substitution of less scarce material or by change of design without serious loss of efficiency.

(3) No operator may apply a rating assigned by this order to obtain material in excess of a 90 day supply thereof: Provided, That the Director General for Operations may determine and direct that any operator or class of operators is exempt, in whole or in part, from the restrictions contained in this paragraph.

(4) No operator as defined in paragraph (a) (2) (i) may apply a rating assigned by this order to obtain material for any use which is restricted, prohibited or in any way limited by any order or regulation issued by the War Production Board, other than material to be used in conformity with the provisions of such order or regulation.

(5) No operator as defined in paragraph (a) (2) (ii) may apply a rating assigned by this order to obtain material for any use which is restricted, prohibited, or in any way limited by any applicable order or equivalent authority issued by the Government of the Dominion of Canada, other than material to be used in conformity with the provisions of such order or equivalent authority.

(e) Method of application of preference ratings. In order to apply a preference rating assigned by this order:

(1) The operator must endorse on, or attach to, each contract or purchase order placed by him which includes such a preference rating, a certification in the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7 (§ 944.27) by an official duly authorized for such purpose:

The undersigned purchaser hereby represents to the seller and to the War Production Board that he is entitled to apply or extend the preference ratings indicated opposite the item shown on this purchase order and that such application or extension is in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar.

(Name of purchaser)

(Address)

By (Signature and title of duly authorized official)

(Date)

In addition, the provisions of the following subparagraphs of this paragraph (e) must be observed where applicable.

(2) The operator shall obtain the approval of the Director General for Operations before the rating is applied in any case:

(i) Where the delivery of an item which has a cost to the operator of $500.00 or more requires the application of an A–1–a or AA–2X preference rating; or

(ii) Where, except as provided in paragraph (e) (3) (iv), the delivery of an item requires the application of an AA–1 preference rating.

In order to obtain such approval, the operator shall communicate to the Petroleum Administration for War, Washington, D. C., Ref.: P–98b, the information set forth in paragraph (f).

(3) The operator shall obtain a countersignature on the purchase order or contract before the rating is applied in any case:

(i) Where the delivery of any item which has a cost to the operator of $100.00 or more requires the application of an A–2 preference rating; or

(ii) Where, except as provided in Exhibit "B", the delivery of an item which has a cost to the operator of less than $500.00 but more than $5.00 requires the application of an A–1–a preference rating; or

(iii) Where, except as provided in Exhibit "B", the delivery of an item which has a cost to the operator of less than $500.00 requires the application of an AA–2X preference rating; or

(iv) Where there has been an actual breakdown or a suspension of operations and where the delivery of an item which has a cost to the operator of less than $500.00 requires the application of an AA–1 preference rating.

In order to obtain such a countersignature the operator as defined in paragraph (a) (2) (i) shall submit the purchase order or contract to the District Director of Materials of a District Office of the Petroleum Administration for War, and the operator as defined in paragraph (a) (2) (ii) shall submit the purchase order or contract to the Oil Controller, Dominion of Canada. In order to obtain a countersignature pursuant to paragraphs (e) (3) (ii), (e) (3) (iii) and (e) (3) (iv) such operator shall communicate to the District Director of Materials or to the Oil Controller the information set forth in paragraph (f).

(4) In the event that the material specified in Exhibit "A" is to be used in service station operations, the operator shall obtain the countersignature of the District Director of Materials or of the Oil Controller on the purchase order or contract before the rating is applied in any case:

(i) Where the delivery of an item, which has a cost to the operator of less than $100.00, requires the application of an A–2 preference rating, or

(ii) Where the delivery of an item, which has a cost to the operator of $5.00 or less, requires the application of an A–1–a preference rating.

Provided, That in applying a preference rating assigned by this order, no operator shall alter the customary designation of any item or subdivide an ordinary purchase of any item for the purpose of making it appear that the item costs less than $500.00 or that the items costs less than $100.00, or that the item costs $5.00 or less.

(f) Information. Wherever required by this order the following information shall be submitted by an operator:

(1) Date of actual breakdown or suspension of operations and exact explanation as to what extent operations are affected (if applicable);

(2) The equipment to be repaired and its function in maintaining continuous operation (if applicable);

(3) Price, quantity, approximate weight and detailed description of necessary material; if such material in finished form weighs twenty-five pounds or less, the weight need not be shown but a statement must be made that the weight is not over twenty-five pounds (detailed description of material must be given even though it is set forth in purchase order or contract);

(4) A general description of the metals contained in the material applied for, and the full justification as to necessity for any material containing metals adjudged critical by the War Production Board, including copper, nickel, chromium, zinc, tin, aluminum and molybdenum;

(5) The supply of the necessary material which the operator has on hand;

(6) The earliest delivery dates assured by a supplier or suppliers for the delivery of the minimum necessary quantity of material on

(i) The preference rating for which approval is requested, and

(ii) The next lower preference rating assigned by this order.

(7) The purchase order or contract shall not be sent to the Petroleum Administration for War, Washington, D. C.; but in every instance where Washington approval is necessary (and only in such instance) the number and date of the purchase order or contract must be transmitted to the Petroleum Administration for War, Washington, D. C.

(8) Any other data or information which will help to determine the importance or urgency of the material for which application for rating is made.

(g) Additional preference rating assistance. (1) If the preference ratings assigned by this order will not enable an operator to obtain material on the date when such material is required, the operator may file a PD–1A application for an improvement of the ratings assigned by this order.

(2) If there has been an actual breakdown or a suspension of operations and if the preference ratings assigned by this order or the method specified in paragraph (e) for applying these ratings will not permit an operator to obtain material on the date when such material is required, the operator in order to obtain material for this emergency may communicate by letter or telegram with the Petroleum Administration for War, Washington, D. C., Ref.: P–98–b, supplying the information set forth in paragraph (f).

(h) Exception of operators from provisions of Preference Rating Orders P–43, P–46, and P–100. No operator to the extent that he is engaged in the petroleum industry and is covered by this order shall be entitled to apply the preference rating or ratings assigned by Preference Rating Orders P–43, P–46 or P–100, and no operator to the extent that he is engaged in the petroleum industry and is covered by this order shall be subject to the provisions of Preference Rating Orders P–43, P–46, or P–100.

(i) Communications. All reports which may be required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed:

(1) By any person located in the United States, its territories or possessions to: Petroleum Administration for War, South Interior Building, Washington, D. C., Ref.: P–98–b.

(2) By any person located in the Dominion of Canada to: Office of Oil Controller, Dominion of Canada, Toronto, Canada, Ref.: P–98–b.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(k) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the applicable provisions of any priorities regulation issued by the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

PART 1041—PRODUCTION, TRANSPORTATION, REFINING AND MARKETING OF PETROLEUM

[Preference Rating Order P–98–c, as Amended Jan. 29, 1943]

For the purpose of facilitating special sales of idle or excess materials by persons engaged in the petroleum industry to other persons engaged in the petroleum industry, it is hereby ordered that persons engaged in the petroleum industry may sell such material to other persons engaged in the petroleum industry upon the terms hereinafter set forth:

§ 1041.3 Preference Rating Order P–98–c—(a) Definitions. "Operator" means any person engaged in the petroleum industry. All other definitions of Preference Rating Order P–98–b shall apply in this order.

(b) Sales of material between operators. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, any operator may sell or transfer to any operator material from the seller's or transferor's stocks or inventories, and any such sale or transfer shall be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 13, as amended from time to time.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation Nos. 1 and 13, as amended from time to time, any operator may sell or transfer to any supplier, for direct sale or transfer by the supplier to another operator, material from the stocks or inventories of the operator.

(c) Applicability of orders and priorities regulations. This order does not authorize receipt or use of any material by any person in violation of any inventory, quota or use restrictions imposed by any order or regulation. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the applicable provisions of any priorities regulation issued by the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(d) Communications. All reports which may be required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed:

(1) By any person located in the United States, its territories or possessions to: Office of Petroleum Coordinator, South Interior Building, Washington, D. C., Ref.: P–98–c.

(2) By any person located in the Dominion of Canada to: Office of Oil Controller, Dominion of Canada, Toronto, Canada, Ref.: P–98–c.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

Issued this 29th day of January 1943.

PART 3002—PLASTICS MOLDING MACHINERY

[Allocation Order L–159, as Amended January 29, 1943]

The order title General Limitation Order L–159 is hereby amended to read Allocation Order L–159.

Section 3002.1 is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

§ 3002.1 Allocation Order L–159—(a) Definition. For the purpose of this order "plastics molding machinery" means new or used machinery of the following kinds:

Plastic injection molding presses.
Plastic compression molding presses, hydraulic, automatic, mechanical.
Plastic extrusion molding presses.
Plastic preforming presses.
Plastic laminating presses.
Plastic tube and rod molding presses.
Plastic tube rolling machines.

(b) Restrictions on production and delivery of plastics molding machinery. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) hereof:

(1) No person shall deliver or accept delivery of plastics molding machinery except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (d) hereof.

(2) No person shall manufacture or assemble plastics molding machinery except in fulfillment of orders previously authorized for delivery by the Director General for Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (d) hereof.

(c) Exemption. Specific authorization by the Director General for Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (d) hereof shall not be required with respect to delivery and acceptance of delivery of plastics molding machinery in fulfillment of orders placed with the producers of such machines on or before January 29, 1943, provided such orders were "approved orders" as defined in this order L–159 as issued July 4, 1942, and provided that the manufacture and assembly of such machinery had been completed prior to January 29, 1943.

(d) Applications. Each person seeking authorization to accept delivery of plastics molding machinery shall file application on Form PD–741 with the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–159.

(e) Repair and maintenance parts. Except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations:

(1) No person shall accept delivery of maintenance and repair parts for plastics molding machinery except as follows:

(i) To repair an actual breakdown, where the required repair or maintenance parts are not available in inventory, or

(ii) To acquire repair or maintenance parts for maintenance of a minimum practicable working inventory of such parts.

(2) No person shall deliver repair or maintenance parts if he knows or has reason to believe that the acceptance of such delivery would be in violation of paragraph (e) (1) above.

(3) No person shall manufacture repair and maintenance parts for plastics molding machinery except in minimum quantities sufficient to make deliveries permitted by the terms of this paragraph (e).

(4) No person shall use parts for plastics molding machinery except for maintenance and repair of previously existing and completed plastics molding machinery, or except as provided in paragraph (b) (2) above.

(f) Special directions to producers. The Director General for Operations at his discretion, may from time to time issue special directions to producers of plastics molding machinery with respect to the machines which they may or must manufacture or deliver, and with respect to manufacture and delivery of repair and maintenance parts for plastics molding machinery.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of War Production Board priorities regulations, as amended from time to time.

(2) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of plastics molding machinery shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–159.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 29th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3061—STEEL SHIPPING DRUMS

[Limitation Order L–197 as Amended Jan. 29, 1943]

Section 3061.1 Limitation Order L–197 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3061.1 Limitation Order L–197—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Drum" means any single walled, cylindrical or bilged container with a capacity of 110 gallons or less (including but not limited to buckets, kits and pails) constructed wholly of steel. The term shall not be deemed to refer to cans or high and low pressure gas steel cylinders, or to any container not susceptible of commercial use in the transportation and storage of commodities.

(3) "Sale" shall mean any transfer of title of a drum or drums, with or without consideration, and shall include the transfer of possession of any such drum or drums, pursuant to a lease or rental arrangement.

(4) "Purchase" shall mean the receipt of any transfer described in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph (a).

(5) "Used drum" means a drum which has been partially or wholly filled with any product or commodity, for storage or shipping purposes, in the course of business.

(6) "New drum" means any drum which is not a used drum.

(7) "Governing date" with respect to any product on List A means the date set forth opposite such product.

(b) Restrictions on use; General and List A products. (1) No person shall use any drum, new or used, for packing any product which he had not packed in drums prior to September 14, 1942.

(2) On and after the applicable governing date of any product on List A, no person shall pack such product in a drum or drums, new or used.

(c) "X" marking. (1) On and after October 1, 1942, no person shall manufacture or complete the manufacture of any drum which shall not have the letter X plainly and legibly embossed on the bottom plate thereof.

(2) On and after September 14, 1942, no person shall sell any new drum or deliver such drum pursuant to a sale thereof, and on and after November 7, 1942, no person shall sell any drum, new or used, or deliver same, pursuant to a sale thereof (regardless of when the manufacture of any such drum was completed), unless such drum shall be plainly and legibly marked on the bottom plate with the letter X.

(3) No person shall remove, cover or conceal any marking placed upon any drum pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (c) unless same is necessary in the course of renovating, cleaning, painting or processing drums so marked, in which event the marking shall, within 48 hours, be replaced in as nearly as possible the original manner by the person effecting such renovation, cleaning, painting or processing.

(d) Restrictions on use; List B products. (1) No person shall pack any of the products on List B of this order:

(i) In a drum or drums, new or used, which was manufactured on or after September 14, 1942;

(ii) In a drum or drums, which was purchased by or delivered to any person on or after September 14, 1942, and at the time of such purchase or delivery was a new drum;

(iii) In a drum or drums which was purchased by or delivered to any person on or after the 7th day of November, 1942, and at the time of such purchase or delivery was a used drum.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (d) (1), any person who owns a drum which is not required to be embossed or marked with the letter X pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2) of this order, whether such drum is in his possession or is hereafter returned to him by another person, may use such drum for packing any of the materials on List B, so long as he retains ownership of such drum; but the provisions of said paragraph (d) (1) shall become applicable as soon as he sells such drums.

(3) Nothing in this order shall prevent the purchase of ends or other parts or accessories for drums; nor shall the affixing of such ends or other parts to such drums prohibit their use in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (d).

(e) General exceptions. (1) Nothing in this order shall apply to the use of drums for storage purposes by any person having less than 5 drums in use for all purposes.

(2) The restrictions on use specified in paragraphs (b) (1) and (2) and (d) (1) of this order shall not apply:

(i) To drums which are used for the sale and delivery of commodities to the Army or Navy of the United States, the Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the War Shipping Administration, or such other governmental agencies as the Director General for Operations may designate;

(ii) To drums which are used for the sale or delivery of commodities which are to be physically incorporated into ships, guns, tanks, combat vehicles, aircraft, ammunition, armament and weapons, gunsighting devices and radio and sound equipment;

(iii) To drums which are used for the sale or delivery of commodities which are to be used for maintenance, repair or operating supplies for ships.

(3) The provisions of this order shall not apply:

(i) To drums constructed wholly of heavier than 14 gauge steel;

(ii) To used drums constructed wholly of lighter than 23 gauge steel having a capacity of more than 30 gallons.

(f) Relationship to General Preference Order M–45. The provisions of this order shall govern to the extent that they may be inconsistent with any provisions of General Preference Order M–45 as amended.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions. (1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years after the effective date of this order accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(3) Audit and inspections. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be filed on Form PD–717, in triplicate.

(6) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Containers Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: L–197.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680, W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 29th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 149,[1] Amendment 6]

MECHANICAL RUBBER GOODS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The title of § 1315.21 is amended; in § 1315.21a the text of paragraph (a) is amended, paragraph (d) is revoked, paragraphs (e) and (f) are redesignated paragraphs (d) and (e), respectively, and a new paragraph (f) is added; § 1315.22 is amended; in § 1315.28 paragraph (b) is amended, paragraph (c) is revoked and paragraph (d) is redesignated paragraph (c); and a new subparagraph (9) is added to paragraph (a) of § 1315.31, all as set forth below:

§ 1315.21 Prohibition against dealing in mechanical rubber goods at prices in excess of the maximum. • • •

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 9894.

[2] 7 F.R. 1258, 2132, 2760, 8948.

[3] 7 F.R. 1352, 2000, 2132, 2760, 6386, 8948

[4] 7 F.R. 3889, 7173, 8699, 8948, 10103, 10143, 10993

§ 1315.21a Maximum manufacturers' prices for mechanical rubber goods. • • •

(a) The maximum price for mechanical rubber goods of the types and kinds listed in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1315.34, shall be the price determined as follows, less the deduction required by paragraph (f) of this § 1315.21a, wherever applicable:

• • • • • •

(f) Deduction of the amount of the federal excise tax. If, on October 1, 1941, in the case of the articles listed in Appendix A and on January 5, 1942, for the articles listed in Appendix B, the manufacturer did not bill the federal excise tax on rubber products separately, he shall deduct the amount of such tax from the price determined in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, of this § 1315.21a. Provided, That where the manufacturer had a price list in effect for the article on September 30, 1941, this deduction shall not exceed the amount by which the price determined in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, exceeds the price stated in the manufacturer's price list in effect on September 30, 1941, less all discounts, allowances and other deductions from the list price in effect for a purchaser of the same class on that date.

§ 1315.22 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon or incident to, the sale, delivery or processing of mechanical rubber goods imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price: If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1315.28 Reports. • • •

(b) This paragraph (b) is applicable to mechanical rubber goods the maximum price of which cannot be determined by reference to the price stated in the schedule or price list of the manufacturer in effect on the base date (October 1, 1941, for articles listed in Appendix A and January 5, 1942, for articles listed in Appendix B) or by reference to a price regularly quoted in some other manner by the manufacturer on the base date. If any such mechanical rubber good be listed as a new standard list good, the manufacturer shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., that the article is being so listed and, prior to offering such mechanical rubber good for sale, shall report a detailed description thereof (including the size), the maximum price of each such article, the calculations used in the determination of the maximum price, the proposed selling price, and the terms of sale to each class of purchaser. The manufacturer may not accept payment for the commodity until fifteen days have elapsed after the mailing of the report. Within this fifteen day period the price so reported shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration. Subsequent to this fifteen day period, such price shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time upon the written order of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1315.31 Definitions. (a) • • •

(9) "Synthetic rubber" means a material obtained by chemical synthesis, possessing the approximate physical properties of natural rubber, when compared in either the vulcanized or unvulcanized condition, which can be vulcanized with sulphur or other chemicals with the application of heat, and which, when vulcanized, is capable of rapid elastic recovery after being stretched to at least twice its length at temperatures ranging from 0° F. to 150° F. at any humidity.

§ 1315.33a Effective dates of amendments. • • •

(f) Amendment No. 6 (§§ 1315.21; 1315.21a (a), (d), (e), (f); 1315.22, 1315.28 (b), (c), (d); 1315.31 (a) (9)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 149 shall become effective February 3, 1943.

PART 1340—FUEL

[RPS 88,[1] Amendment 63]

PETROLEUM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1340.159 (a) subparagraphs (2) and (5) are amended to read as set forth below:

§ 1340.159 Appendix A: Maximum prices for petroleum and petroleum products. • • •

(a) Crude petroleum. • • •

(2) Where on October 1, 1941, there was for any given pool no posted purchased price, or more than one posted purchase price, the maximum price at the receiving tank for crude petroleum from such pool shall be the price paid for crude petroleum at the same receiving tank as of October 1, 1941 unless this price is below the lower or lowest of the posted purchase prices, if any, and in that case, the maximum price shall not be in excess of such lower or lowest posted purchase price: Provided, however, That a price paid pursuant to a contract in effect on October 1, 1941 and entered into prior to that date, shall not be considered in determining the maximum price for crude petroleum unless the contract price reflected current market conditions on or about October 1, 1941.

• • • • • •

(5) (i) The maximum price for crude petroleum purchased at a point other than the receiving tank shall be at no greater differential at such point over the maximum price for such crude at the receiving tank than existed on October 1, 1941: Provided, however, That such a differential established pursuant to a contract in effect on October 1, 1941 and entered into prior to that date shall not be considered in determining the maximum price at that point unless the differential reflected current market conditions on or about October 1, 1941.

(ii) Where a maximum price at a point other than at the receiving tank cannot be determined under subdivision (i) above, the purchaser and seller may establish a temporary differential for a sale of crude petroleum at such point subject to provisions of § 1340.154 (c) hereof and subject to disapproval by the Office of Price Administration: Provided, however, That if such differential is not disapproved in writing by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days after it has been reported in accordance with § 1340.154 (c), it shall be the maximum differential for the particular sale and for all subsequent sales of crude petroleum from the same receiving tank delivered at that point.

PART 1362—CERAMIC PRODUCTS, STRUCTURAL CLAY PRODUCTS AND OTHER MASON MATERIALS

[MPR 206, Amendment 2]

VITRIFIED CLAY SEWER PIPE AND ALLIED PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1362.101, § 1362.105, Table No. 19 of § 1362.113 (b), Tables Nos. 3 and 8 of § 1362.114 (b), § 1362.114 (c), Table No. 19 of § 1362.115 (b), and § 1362.115 (c) are amended, a new paragraph (a) (7) is added to § 1362.109, a new paragraph (b) is added to § 1362.112a and a new § 1362.101a is added, all as set forth below:

§ 1362.101 Maximum prices for vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products. (a) On and after August 22, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any vitrified clay sewer pipe or allied products where shipment originates at the factory where the products are made rather than at a distribution yard, and no person shall buy or receive any of the foregoing products in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendices A, B, and C hereof, incorporated herein as §§ 1362.113, 1362.114, and 1362.115, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products to a purchaser if prior to August 22, 1942, such vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(b) Maximum prices for vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products when sold for delivery outside a factory's normal market area. A method is provided in § 1362.101a whereby vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products may be shipped outside a manufacturer's normal market area to a government agency, or to a contractor or subcontractor of such agency, at prices in excess of the maximum prices established in this section. For all other shipments outside the manufacturer's normal market area, for use on a project other than one controlled by a government agency, maximum prices as established in this section shall apply.

§ 1362.101a Maximum prices for vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products sold by a manufacturer to a Government Agency, and shipped outside its normal market area up to July 1, 1943. (a) Requirements which must be met by a manufacturer in order to use out-of-area maximum prices. A manufacturer may use the pricing method set forth in the next paragraph only when:

(1) He is selling to a Government Agency, or to a contractor or subcontractor with a Government Agency, for use on a project controlled by any such agency: Provided, That a manufacturer may sell to any person who re-sells to any of the foregoing at prices not in excess of the maximum prices established by this section.

(2) He ships by rail in not less than minimum carload quantities.

(3) He secures and retains for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, a certificate signed by the purchaser in the following form:

(b) Maximum prices for vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products sold by any person and shipped from a factory prior to July 1, 1943, to a destination which is outside the normal market area of such factory may be determined in the following manner:

(1) A price f. o. b. factory not in excess of 95% of the f. o. b. plant price for straight or mixed carload shipments.

(i) The following methods shall be used in determining the f. o. b. plant price which shall apply to manufacturers who wish to use this section:

(a) For those manufacturers who sell on an f. o. b. plant basis, the price as established in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 206.

(b) For those manufacturers who sell at a delivered price based on geographical zones, the price as established in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 206 for the zone within which the factory is located, less the weighted average freight paid by the manufacturer, during the calendar year 1941, for delivery in the zone in which the factory is located.

For those manufacturers who determine their price in accordance with this subdivision (b) the weighted average freight shall be determined in the following manner: From the total amount of freight paid during the year 1941 for rail delivery of vitrified clay sewer pipe or allied products to the zone within which the factory is located, deduct that amount of freight applicable to dunnage only, that is, to crating, bracing, or other material carried for the protection of the product. Divide the balance by the total amount of tons of vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products delivered by rail, during the calendar year 1941, in the zone in which the factory is located. The result will be the weighted average freight per ton paid during the year 1941 for delivery by rail of vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products in the zone in which the factory is located.

(c) For manufacturers located in the Eastern Area, who sell at a delivered price based on freight rate zones, the price as established in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 206 in the first or 10¢ zone, less the highest amount of freight from Akron, for delivery to the first, or 10¢ zone.

(2) A delivered price may be charged under this provision not higher than the maximum price established in this section, f. o. b. factory plus the actual freight charges incurred by the manufacturer in making delivery to the point of destination.

(3) Material purchased in accordance with the provisions of this section which is in excess of requirements, or which is rejected by the purchaser for cause, may be re-sold to any person at the prices established by the General Maximum Price Regulation, for the same grade or quality, for the area in which the product is ultimately used.

§ 1362.105 Records and reports. (a) Every person making purchases or sales subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 206, of vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products in the amount of $200 or more in any one calendar month, beginning September 1, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each purchase, sale, or delivery, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and the seller, the point of origin, and the point of delivery of the shipment, the price paid or received, and the quantity of each grade and classification of the product purchased, sold, or delivered. In the event the sale is one in which delivery takes place outside the manufacturer's normal market area it shall be indicated on the record.

(b) Every manufacturer who makes a sale under § 1362.101a in any month shall make a report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before the fifteenth day of the following month, setting forth a list of all sales which resulted in vitrified clay sewer pipe or allied products being shipped to points outside his normal market area during the preceding calendar month, showing the name and address of the purchaser, the point of shipment and the point of delivery, the quantity and classification of products sold, the price charged, and the method of computing such price.

(c) Every person making a purchase or sale subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 206 of vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

§ 1362.109 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 206, the term:

• • • • • •

(7) "Normal market area" for any factory means that area in which vitrified clay sewer pipe and allied products were regularly offered for sale during the period January 1, 1940 to January 1, 1942; for the purposes of this definition, vitrified clay sewer pipe or allied products will be deemed to have been "regularly offered for sale" only in that area in which the factory had salesmen traveling at regular intervals and/or customarily quoted for shipment during the above-mentioned period.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Amendment 31 to Ration Order 11 [1]]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In paragraph (a) of § 1394.5253, a colon is substituted for the period after the word "application", and there is added after the colon the phrase "Provided, That such certification shall not be required if the ration applied for is to be used in a portable space heater"; § 1394.5256 (d) is amended; in paragraph (a) of § 1394.5453, the phrase "for purposes other than the operation of equipment furnishing heat or hot water" is deleted, and in paragraph (b) of such section, the phrase "or for heat or hot water, or both," is inserted between the phrase "distillate oil" and the phrase "shall make a notation"; a colon is substituted for the period after the word "thereon" at the end of said paragraph (b), and there is added after the colon the phrase "Provided, That the period of validity entered by the Board on the stub of any delivery receipt issued for heat or hot water, or both, shall be limited to any single thermal period specified in § 1394.5266 (c) for the thermal zone in which the fuel oil burning equipment is located."; a new paragraph (f) is added to § 1394.5507; in paragraph (c) of § 1394.5705 the phrase "subject to the provisions of paragraph (d)" is inserted before the phrase "Every dealer and supplier", and a new paragraph (d) is added to said section; and a new paragraph (ee) is added to § 1394.5902; as set forth below:

[1] 7 F.R. 9710, 10380, 11071, 11072, 8 F.R. 28, 167, 566, 621, 978.

Heat and Hot Water Rations

§ 1394.5256 Determination of allowable ration for heating private dwellings. * * *

(d) Where application is made for the operation of a space heater in a house trailer, the allowable ration for such purpose shall be the amount requested by the applicant for the space heater but shall not exceed twice the maximum of the range established in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.5256 for the area assigned to the Board to which application is made and which has jurisdiction over the issuance of such ration pursuant to any of the subparagraphs of paragraph (b) of § 1294.5101. No ration shall be issued for the operation of a space heater for supplying domestic hot water in a house trailer.

(1) Any consumer who finds that the ration issued to him for the operation of a space heater in a house trailer is insufficient to meet his minimum needs, may, if his allowable ration is less than twice the maximum of the range provided in paragraph (d), surrender his current ration to the Board having jurisdiction and at the same time apply to such Board for a new ration.

(2) The new ration shall be applied for and passed upon in the same manner as an original application under § 1394.5266. If the Board is unable, at the time application is made, to issue to the applicant the new ration, the applicant shall be permitted to retain his coupon sheets until the Board issues the new ration. Upon issuance of the new ration, the Board shall detach from its coupons equal in gallonage value to that of any coupons used between the date of application and the date of surrender of the old ration. The coupon sheets surrendered on the issuance of the new ration shall be appropriately cancelled and attached by the Board to the application for the new ration.

Expiration and Revocation of Rations

§ 1394.5507 Suspension and revocation of rations. * * *

(f) The ration of any person who wilfully causes the destruction or impairment of the use of equipment, or any parts thereof, designed to use an alternate fuel for the purpose of obtaining such ration, may at any time be revoked.

Provisions Relating to Dealers and Suppliers

§ 1394.5705 Issuance of inventory coupons. * * *

(d) Where a transfer is made by a dealer or supplier of an inventory coupon sheet (exclusive of the stub to which it is attached) containing 100 undetached inventory coupons, the transferor may, in lieu of inserting the serial number of his registration certificate on each inventory coupon, prominently inscribe across the face and the reverse side of such coupon sheet his name, address and serial number of his registration certificate.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 7 Under § 1499.18 (c), as Amended, of GMPR]

SALES OF BEAN HAMPERS IN FLORIDA

For reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1507 Adjustment of maximum prices for 32 quart bean hampers sold in Florida. (a) Any person may sell for delivery in the state of Florida, and any person may buy for delivery in Florida, 32 quart bean hampers at a price not to exceed the maximum price for such hampers established for the seller by the General Maximum Price Regulation, plus the actual cost of any overtime labor incurred in manufacturing such hampers.

(b) Any seller who sells 32 quart bean hampers under the terms of this order must show separately on the invoice the maximum price established for him by the General Maximum Price Regulation and the charge for overtime labor.

(c) This Order No. 7 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(d) This Order No. 7 is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(e) This Order No. 7 shall become effective January 6, 1943, and shall terminate on March 1, 1943. No delivery made after March 1, 1943 shall be subject to the provisions of this order.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 19]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new subparagraph (4) to paragraph (c) of § 1394.8153, and a new paragraph (e) to § 1394.8207, and a new paragraph (s) to § 1394.8352 are added; as set forth below:

§ 1394.8153 Transfers to consumers in exchange for coupons. * * *

(c) * * *

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of paragraph (c) of this section, a distributor, or a dealer regularly engaged in bulk sales of gasoline in units of one hundred (100) or more gallons, may, during the period from January 22, 1943 through February 5, 1943, make bulk transfers to a bulk consumer, who has not as yet received Bulk coupons printed as part of Form OPA R–553A or Form OPA R–554A, without requiring a presentation of a ration book or a surrender of Bulk coupons at the time of transfer, under the following conditions:

(i) At the time of the transfer, such distributor or dealer shall obtain a written receipt from the transferee setting forth the names and addresses of the transferor and of the transferee, the date of the transfer, and the number of gallons of gasoline transferred and the promise of the transferee to deliver valid Bulk coupons in an amount equal to such gallonage within twenty days from the date of such transfer, and the transferor shall preserve such receipt until the receipt of coupons from the transferee pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph;

(ii) No consumer may accept such transfer or execute and deliver such receipt unless he has applied for and knows he is entitled to receive a ration which would entitled him to acquire gasoline for the purpose for which the transfer is made and which will enable him to surrender to such dealer Bulk coupons issued on Form OPA R–553A or Form OPA R–554A having a value equal to the number of gallons of gasoline so transferred;

(iii) Such consumer shall, immediately after issuance of such ration to him, surrender to such distributor or dealer Bulk coupons issued on Form OPA R–553A or Form OPA R–554A having a value equal to the number of gallons of gasoline so transferred and upon receipt of such coupons the distributor or dealer shall cancel the consumer's receipt;

(iv) Any dealer who has made a transfer pursuant to this paragraph shall report to the nearest State or District Office of the Office of Price Administration the name and address of any consumer who has accepted such transfer and who has not on or before February 25, 1943, surrendered coupons as required by this subparagraph (3) (iii); such report shall be forwarded immediately after the close of business on February 26, 1943;

(v) No dealer may secure replenishment on account of such transfer except in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e) of § 1394.8207.

§ 1394.8207 Restrictions on transfer. * * *

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in this section a distributor or dealer may, during the period from January 22, 1943 through February 8, 1943 obtain and receive transfers of gasoline from a distributor equal to any bulk transfers of gasoline he has made under the provisions of subparagraph (4) of paragraph (c) of § 1394.8153, upon executing and delivering to such distributor a receipt setting forth the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee, the amount of gasoline transferred, the date of the transfer and the promise of the transferee to deliver to the transferor within twenty days from the date of such transfer valid evidences equal to the amount of the gallonage transferred. The transferee shall deliver to the transferor evidences as required in such receipt as soon as he has received coupons or checks for the transfers for which he has obtained replenishment. The transferor shall hold such receipt until the transferee delivers such evidences as required, and upon such delivery shall cancel such receipt. On March 2, 1943, any distributor who has made a transfer pursuant to this paragraph shall report to the nearest State or District Office of the Office of Price Administration full information in regard to all such transfers where the transferee has not delivered evidences as required by this paragraph.

PART 1432—RATIONING OF CONSUMERS' DURABLE GOODS

[Ration Order 9,[1] Amendment 1]

HEATING STOVES

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new paragraph (e) is added to § 1432.13; the headnote to § 1432.15 is amended and the text of § 1432.15 is designated § 1432.15 (a) and a new paragraph (b) is added thereto; a new subparagraph (10a) is added to § 1432.65 (a); and a new § 1432.67 is added to Ration Order No. 9, as set forth below:

Subpart B—Provisions Affecting Consumers and Boards

* * * * *

§ 1432.13 Persons eligible to obtain certificates for new coal heating stoves. * * *

(e) Anyone who heats private dwelling premises by means of oil burning equipment which distributes heat through pipes or ducts but which does not supply heat adequate for the health and comfort of the occupants of such dwelling.

§ 1432.15 Application for a certificate. Persons who need new coal heating equipment as a substitute for or to supplement oil burning equipment. * * *

(b) A person who wishes to supplement oil burning equipment which distributes heat through pipes or ducts (see paragraph (e) § 1432.13) need not at the time of application surrender any of his unused and unexpired fuel oil coupon sheets or coupons to the Board, but must present to the Board the following statement signed by him:

I, ----------, hereby certify that I am the owner (or tenant) of the private dwelling property located at ---------- (Print Address)
(Print Name)
which is heated by oil burning equipment which distributes heat through pipes or ducts; and that I need a coal stove to heat essential living or working space in this property, and the heat supplied by the present equipment is not sufficient for health and comfort. I will promptly install the coal heating stove when I get it. I pledge that I will save as much fuel oil as possible by using the new coal heating stove to its full extent and that within the time specified in the Fuel Oil Rationing Regulations I will return to my local War Price and Rationing Board all fuel coupons I have saved by using such coal heating stove.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Navy

PART 8—REGULATIONS, UNITED STATES COAST GUARD RESERVE

WOMEN'S RESERVE

The regulations, United States Coast Guard Reserve, 1941 (6 F.R. 1925), as amended, are hereby further amended by adding the following:

§ 8.10101 Purpose. The purpose of the Women's Reserve, which has been established by law as a branch of the Coast Guard Reserve, is to expedite the war effort by releasing officers and men from shore establishments for duty at sea and replacing them by qualified women.

§ 8.10102 Composition, organization, and administration—(a) Composition. The Women's Reserve shall be composed of female citizens of the United States who by appointment or enlistment therein obligate themselves to serve in the shore establishments of the Coast Guard within the continental United States, for the duration of the present war and for six months thereafter unless sooner discharged or otherwise separated. Members of the Women's Reserve will be designated as "Spars".

(b) Organization. The various ranks, grades and ratings in the Women's Reserve shall correspond to those in the regular Coast Guard except that there shall not be more than one officer in the grade of lieutenant commander nor more than eighteen (18) officers in the grade of lieutenant and that the number of officers in the grade of lieutenant (junior grade) shall not exceed 35 percentum of the total number of commissioned officers. The class designations for personnel shall be as follows:

Class W–S: Women appointed as commissioned officers.

Class W–P: Women appointed as probationary commissioned officers.

Class W–9: Women enlisted as apprentice seamen for training preliminary to appointment as commissioned officers.

Class W–10: Women enlisted for general service.

(c) Administration. The Women's Reserve shall be administered by the Commandant under the general direction of the Secretary of the Navy, and the Commandant may order to duty at Headquarters an officer of the Women's Reserve who shall act as Director and such other officers and enlisted personnel as efficient administration may require.

(d) Exercise of military authority by officers. The military authority of commissioned officers of the Women's Reserve may be exercised over women of the Reserve only, and is limited to the administration of the Women's Reserve.

§ 8.10103 Duties—(a) Place. Members of the Women's Reserve shall be considered available for assignment to duty at any place within the continental limits of the United States, and shall not be assigned to duty on board vessels of the Navy or Coast Guard or in combat aircraft.

(b) Assignment. Members of the Women's Reserve shall be assigned such duties as they may be found qualified to perform where such assignments will release male officers and enlisted men for duty at sea but shall not be used to replace Civil Service personnel.

§ 8.10104 Procurement—(a) Method. Personnel for the Women's Reserve shall be procured in accordance with instructions issued by Headquarters.

(b) Quotas. The quotas of personnel of the Women's Reserve to be procured shall be prescribed from time to time by Headquarters.

§ 8.10105 Qualifications—(a) Classes W–S, W–P and W–9. For appointment in Class W–S, W–P and W–9 in the Women's Reserve, an applicant must:

(1) Be a citizen of the United States or its territories or insular possessions.

(2) Be not less than twenty. The upper age limit shall be as from time to time prescribed by Headquarters.

(3) Possess a degree from an accredited university or college or, lacking such a degree, have completed two years of college work and had at least two years of acceptable business or professional experience. In exceptional cases, outstanding experience may be offered in lieu of the college requirement.

(4) Be of good moral character.

(5) Be able to pass such physical examination as may be prescribed.

(b) Class W–10. For enlistment in Class W–10 an applicant must:

(1) Be a citizen of the United States or of its territories or insular possessions.

(2) Be not less than twenty years of age. The upper age limit shall be as prescribed from time to time by Headquarters.

(3) Have completed at least two years of high school or business school.

(4) Be of good moral character.

(5) Be able to pass such physical examination as may be prescribed.

§ 8.10106 Uniforms and equipment—(a) Officers. The uniform allowance for officers of the Women's Reserve shall be the same as is prescribed for regular officers of the Coast Guard Reserve, and shall be payable in the same manner and under the same conditions.

(b) Enlisted personnel. The Commandant shall fix the money value of the articles of uniform and equipment which enlisted members are required to have upon their first reporting for active duty, and shall authorize such articles of uniform and equipment, or parts thereof, to be issued in kind, or in lieu thereof a payment in cash of the money value fixed in accordance with the foregoing, but not to exceed $200.00, may be made to enlisted members so ordered to active duty, for the purchase of required uniforms and equipment.

§ 8.10107 Disability and death benefits. If any member of the Women's Reserve shall suffer disability or death from disease or injury incurred in line of duty while employed on active duty, she or her beneficiaries shall be entitled to all the benefits prescribed by law for civilian employees of the United States. They or their beneficiaries shall not be entitled to receive the six-months' death gratuity, retirement, or pensions provided for officers and men of the Coast Guard.

§ 8.10108 Subject to laws. Members of the Women's Reserve shall be subject to the laws and regulations for the government of the Coast Guard, including, as far as practicable and where they are not otherwise made inapplicable, all provisions of the regulations for the United States Coast Guard Reserve.

R. R. WAESCHE,
Commandant.

Approved: December 29, 1942.

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, War Department

PART 204—DANGER ZONE REGULATIONS

WATERS NEAR CAMP HULEN, TEXAS

Pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order 9168 signed on May 20, 1942 (7 F.R. 3841), the following rules and regulations are prescribed to govern the use, administration, and navigation of the waters of Matagorda Bay, Lavaca Bay, Cox Bay, Keller Bay, Turtle Bay, Trespalacios Bay, Coon Island Bay, and Oyster Lake, Texas, comprising the firing range for the Coast Artillery Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas. These rules and regulations supersede § 204.93, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER August 4, 1942 (7 F.R. 6010).

§ 204.93 Waters of Matagorda Bay, Lavaca Bay, Cox Bay, Keller Bay, Turtle Bay, Trespalacios Bay, Coon Island Bay, and Oyster Lake, Texas: Firing Range, Coast Artillery Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas—(a) The danger zone. The firing ranges for firing points near Turtle Point, near Well Point, and near the shore line between Magnolia Beach and Powderhorn Lake, inclusive, hereinafter referred to as the "restricted area", include the waters of Matagorda Bay, Lavaca Bay, Cox Bay, Keller Bay, Turtle Bay, Trespalacios Bay, Coon Island Bay, and Oyster Lake, Texas, and their tributaries within an area bounded as follows. (See U. S. C. & G. S. Chart No. 1284—Matagorda Bay and Approaches.[1])

A line beginning at the neck of Turtle Point Peninsula bearing 110° true and running a distance of 13,000 yards, including all of Coon Island Bay and Oyster Lake and their tributaries; thence along a line bearing 180° true to the north shore of Matagorda Bay; thence along a line bearing 140° true a distance of 6,000 yards to a point one mile bayward from the north shore of Matagorda Peninsula; thence along a line bearing 225° true to the north shore of Matagorda Peninsula; thence in a southwesterly direction along the north shore of Matagorda Peninsula to a point on the north shore of Matagorda Peninsula intersected by a line bearing 130° true from Halfmoon Reef Light (approximately 3,500 yards along the shore line northeast of Greens Bayou); thence along a line bearing 255° true to a point one mile from the north shore of Matagorda Peninsula; thence southwesterly, along a line paralleling the north shore of Matagorda Peninsula at a distance of one mile bayward to a point in Matagorda Bay bearing 48° true, 5,600 yards from the cupola on Saluria Coast Guard Station; thence northwesterly to the entrance to Boggy Bayou; thence along shore line to Gallinipper Point; thence in a northwesterly direction to Noble Point; thence following the arc of a circle having a radius of 12,500 yards and a point of origin on the shore of Lavaca Bay midway between Indian Point and Magnolia Beach to the north shore of Matagorda Bay southeast of Olivia; thence following the north shore of Matagorda Bay to Well Point; thence following the shores of Turtle Bay to the point of beginning and including all of Turtle Bay.

(b) The regulations. (1) Through traffic in either direction on the route of the Intracoastal Waterway and feeder channels to Palacios and Port Lavaca may enter and proceed directly through the restricted area via the waterway and channels without hindrance or delay except as indicated below or when advised otherwise by the United States Coast Guard at Port O'Connor or by a representative of the Commanding Officer, Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas. When through Intracoastal traffic is not permitted to enter the restricted area, during daylight hours patrol boats or guards will be stationed at entrance to the canal near Port O'Connor and in the canal near the eastern end of Oyster Lake and in the feeder channels on the Palacios and Port Lavaca sides of the restricted area to warn traffic approaching the danger area. When through traffic is not permitted during hours of darkness, occulting red light or lights will be displayed from a high tower at Camp Hulen and from a high tower between Magnolia Beach and Indianola Island.

(2) Except under unusual circumstances, announcement of which shall be communicated to the surrounding communities, the restricted area is open throughout the year to the public for fishing and traffic without restriction from 6:00 p. m. Saturdays to 8:00 a. m. Mondays. The restricted area is also open to the public for fishing and traffic without restriction on other days when firing is not to be conducted.

(3) When firing is to be held in all or part of the restricted area, large red flags will be displayed from elevated positions in the immediate vicinity of each firing point from which firing is to be conducted.

(4) Except for through Intracoastal water traffic, no boats will enter the restricted area during the following periods without first obtaining clearance from Headquarters, Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas:

8:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m. on all week days

Traffic other than through Intracoastal traffic, desiring to enter the restricted area from Port O'Connor, Port Lavaca, Palacios, or from direction of Matagorda during the restricted periods must obtain permission in advance from the Commanding Officer, Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas, telephone extension #38 or #386. Traffic desiring to enter the restricted area from the vicinity of Port O'Connor may request the Coast Guard Station at Port O'Connor to obtain permission for entry from the Commanding Officer, Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas

(5) At night when firing is scheduled, occulting red light or lights will be displayed from high towers at Camp Hulen and between Magnolia Beach and Indianola Island. These occulting red lights will be displayed during the hours of darkness until the conclusion of the firing for the night. When these occulting red lights are displayed, no vessel of any type shall enter or remain in the restricted area without specific permission from the Commanding Officer, Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas. In addition, when notices have been published announcing night firing in the restricted area no vessel of any kind will enter or remain in the restricted area during any such announced period of firing without specific permission from the Commanding Officer, Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas.

(6) Vessels in or planning to enter the restricted area at any time should be on the lookout for the above-listed warning signals and when the indicated danger signals are displayed, should not enter or remain in the restricted area except as definitely authorized by these regulations unless authorized in advance to do so by the Commanding Officer, Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas.

(7) If an airplane zooms twice in succession over any vessel in or entering the restricted area, it should be taken as a warning to remain out of or promptly leave the restricted area.

(8) These regulations shall be enforced by the Commanding Officer, Antiaircraft Training Center, Camp Hulen, Texas, through the use of such equipment and personnel as may be properly designated by him for the purpose and through the assistance of the United States Coast Guard.

(9) These rules and regulations supersede those approved by the Secretary of War on June 13, 1942. (Regs. January 16, 1942) [Regs. January 16, 1943 (CE 684 (Camp Hulen, Texas)—SPEON)]

TITLE 36—PARKS AND FORESTS

Chapter I—National Park Service

AMENDMENTS TO SPEED REGULATIONS

Pursuant to the authority contained in the act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535, 16 U. S. C. sec. 3), Parts 2 and 20 of Chapter I, Title 36, Code of Federal Regulations, as amended, are amended in the following respects:

PART 2—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Section 2.42 is amended to read as follows:

§ 2.42 Limitations on speed. (a) Speed of vehicles is limited to 35 miles per hour, unless a lower limit is prescribed for a particular road or roads by special regulations. In every event, vehicles shall be driven or operated at an appropriate reduced speed when approaching and crossing an intersection, when approaching and going around a curve, when approaching a hill crest, when traveling upon a narrow and winding road, and when special hazards exist with respect to pedestrians or other traffic or by reason of weather or roadway conditions.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(1) Any vehicle driven or operated by or under the direction of the military or naval forces of the United States, or State military forces organized pursuant to section 61 of the National Defense Act, as amended;

(2) Any vehicle when driven or operated in an emergency for the protection or preservation of life, health, or for public safety: Provided, That this subparagraph shall not be so construed as to authorize any such vehicle to be driven or operated at a rate of speed in excess of that which is reasonable under conditions prevailing at such time.

(c) As used in this section, the term "vehicle" means every device in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a roadway.

PART 20—SPECIAL REGULATIONS

Section 20.1 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.1 Colonial National Historical Park. * * *

(c) Speed. Speed of vehicles is limited to 25 miles per hour in the battlefield area, and to 15 miles per hour in the utility areas and residential sections.

Section 20.26 is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.26 Hawaii National Park; speed. Speed of vehicles is limited to 25 miles per hour on those sections of the Mamalahoa Highway where signs are posted giving notice of such limit.

Sections 20.3 (d) (7) and 20.41 are revoked.

Issued this 4th day of November 1942.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter IV—War Shipping Administration

[Directive 4, Revised]

PART 321—DIRECTIVES

FORWARDING AND TRANSPORTATION OF FOREIGN COMMERCE

Section 321.4, Directive 4, issued on November 3, 1942, (7 F.R. 8967) is revised to read:

Directive with respect to forwarding and transportation of waterborne foreign commerce of the United States.

To all persons (including departments, agencies and officers of the United States) engaged in or concerned with the procurement, transportation or forwarding of Lend-Lease cargo or cargo procured, transported or forwarded for the government of any country whose defense has been deemed by the President to be vital to the defense of the United States pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 (which government is hereinafter referred to as a Lend-Lease government); and to all departments, agencies, officers, governmental corporations and other instrumentalities of the United States engaged in or concerned with the procurement, transportation or forwarding of cargo for delivery overseas.

Whereas the War Shipping Administrator (hereinafter referred to as the Administrator) is charged with the responsibility of coordinating the functions and facilities of public and private agencies engaged in forwarding and similar servicing of waterborne export and import foreign commerce of the United States and controlling the operation and use of ocean shipping (other than troopships and other vessels excluded from the Administrator's control under section 2 (a) of Executive Order 9054) for the successful prosecution of the War; and

Whereas in order effectively to discharge this responsibility it is necessary for the Administrator to correlate, in conjunction with the Director, Office of Defense Transportation, the movement of cargoes to port with the movement of ships available for carriage from port, to assure efficient loading of ships, and to maintain adequate inventories and records;

Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of March 14, 1942 (Public Law 498, 77th Congress), by Executive Order 9054, dated February 7, 1942, as amended, and in accordance with the directive issued on November 11, 1942 (7 F.R. 9359) by the Lend-Lease Administrator, it is hereby directed:

§ 321.4 Directive 4, Forwarding and transportation of waterborne foreign commerce of the United States.—(a) Scope. No person (including departments, agencies or officers of the United States) shall forward or authorize forwarding to a port or point in the United States for export transportation therefrom by water any Lend-Lease cargo or cargo procured or transported for a Lend-Lease government except at the direction of the Administrator; nor shall any department, agency, officer, governmental corporation or other instrumentality of the United States forward or authorize forwarding to a port or point in the United States for export transportation therefrom by water any other cargo except at the direction of the Administrator. As used herein, other cargo means any cargo which is shipped or transported by or on behalf of or for a governmental agency or instrumentality to itself or to another such agency or instrumentality or in the movement of which a governmental agency or instrumentality has a special interest as owner or potential owner or otherwise, except cargo shipped by the Navy or War Department for its own account.

(b) Consignment of cargo. All Lend-Lease cargo or cargo procured or transported for a Lend-Lease government shall be consigned to the Administrator as principal; all other cargo within the scope of this Directive shall be similarly consigned unless the Administrator's consent to the designation of some other consignee be previously obtained. After consignment, in the event that instructions for stoppage in transit or diversion to intermediate storage are given to the carrier or carriers, the Administrator or his agent shall in all cases be immediately notified by the issuer of such instruction, and, where the consignee is a person other than the Administrator or his agent, such other person shall also be immediately notified.

(c) Information required. Except as otherwise provided herein, the following information with respect to all cargo within the scope of this Directive, together with such other information as the Administrator may require, shall be furnished to the Administrator or his agent as soon as it is available:

(1) The identifying serial number and date of issuance of the O.D.T. block permit and of the Q.M.R. or other release, if any, authorizing movement of the cargo;

(2) Confirmation of movement, origin, date of shipment, route, mode of carriage and identification of carrying unit or units to the port or point of export;

(3) Original and such copies of inland carrier's bill of lading and of shipping papers as the Administrator may direct.

The Administrator may waive in whole or in part the application of this paragraph (c) with respect to any cargo within the scope of this Directive other than Lend-Lease cargo or cargo procured or transported for a Lend-Lease government.

(d) Preparation of documents. With respect to all cargo within the scope of this Directive which is consigned to the Administrator or his agent, the Administrator will prepare or cause to be prepared all dock receipts, ocean bills of lading, customs declarations and other appropriate ocean shipping documents.

(e) Records maintained by Administrator. The Administrator will maintain or cause to be maintained, in such form as requested by the interested United States Government procuring agencies, records concerning all Lend-Lease cargo or cargo procured or transported for a Lend-Lease government, which is called forward by him, consigned to him or his agent, forwarded by him or his agent, and loaded on ocean carriers, and will make such information available to the procuring agencies concerned, the Munitions Assignments Board and the Lend-Lease Administrator.

(f) Compliance with instructions issued by the Munitions Assignments Board and the Lend-Lease Administrator. The Administrator will comply with all instructions issued by the Munitions Assignments Board through its committees or by the Lend-Lease Administrator, in cases within their respective jurisdictions, with respect to the diversion to some other use of cargo consigned to the Administrator.

(g) Limitations on responsibility of Administrator. Nothing herein contained contemplates the assumption by the Administrator of responsibility for or control over stockpile, assembly, or transit storage depots, or the forwarding thereto: Provided, however, That if cargo consigned to the Administrator for forwarding to a port or point in the United States for export transportation therefrom be diverted to a stockpile, assembly or transit storage depot, it shall remain under the control and direction of the Administrator unless he is otherwise instructed by the Munitions Assignments Board through its committees or by the Lend-Lease Administrator in cases within their respective jurisdictions.

(h) Issuance of supplements, administrative orders and instructions. Supplements hereto and administrative orders and instructions hereunder may be issued from time to time.

(i) Compliance. All departments, agencies, or officers of the United States are directed to issue appropriate instructions to assure compliance herewith and with supplements hereto and administrative orders and instructions issued hereunder.

(j) Effective date. This Directive as herein revised shall become effective on February 1, 1943.

[Administrative Order 173]

METAL, PLASTICS, MACHINERY, INSTRUMENT, AND ALLIED INDUSTRIES

APPOINTMENT OF INDUSTRY COMMITTEE NO. 53

1. By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, I, L. Metcalfe Walling, Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, U. S. Department of Labor, do hereby appoint and convene for the metal, plastics, machinery, instrument, and allied industries (as such industry is defined in paragraph 2) an industry committee composed of the following representatives:

For the public: George E. Osborn, Chairman, Palo Alto, California; Clarence Ayres, Austin, Texas; Robert P. Brecht, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; George J. Burke, Ann Arbor, Michigan; Frank T. Carlton, Cleveland, Ohio; Ralph S. Foss, New York, New York; John Ise, Lawrence, Kansas; H. C. Nixon, Nashville, Tennessee; James S. Robbins, Washington, D. C.; Erwin H. Schell, Cambridge, Massachusetts; Tipton R. Snavely, Charlottesville, Virginia; John I. Yellott, Chicago, Illinois.

For the employees: Joseph Beach, Washington, D. C.; Edward D. Bieretz, Washington, D. C.; Paul Christopher, Knoxville, Tennessee; George Q. Lynch, Washington, D. C.; Joseph McDonagh, Washington, D. C.; Russ Nixon, Washington, D. C.; Ben Riskin, Washington, D. C.; Joseph Scanlon, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Boris Shishkin, Washington, D. C.; J. Raymond Walsh, Washington, D. C.; Charles W. Wilkerson, Cincinnati, Ohio; James Wishart, Detroit, Michigan.

For the employers: B. S. Berlin, Trenton, New Jersey; A. F. Trombore, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; W. A. DeRidder, Oakland, California; Ralph E. Herman, New Haven, Connecticut; Clark Hodder, Ashland, Massachusetts; J. H. McDuffee, Toledo, Ohio; William B. Neal, Gadsden, Alabama; E. B. Sherwin, North Chicago, Illinois; A. L. Smith, Birmingham, Alabama; J. L. Turner, Wheeling, West Virginia; Hans H. Wanders, South Boston, Massachusetts; August J. Zimmerman, Rochester, New York.

Such representatives having been chosen with due regard to the geographical regions in which such industry is carried on.

2. For the purpose of this order the terms "metal, plastics, machinery, instrument, and allied industries" mean:

The production of metals and the manufacture of any product or part made of metal or plastics; and the manufacture from any material of machinery, instruments, tools, electrical goods, transportation equipment, and ordnance: Provided, however, The definition shall not include:

1. The mining or milling of metalliferous ores.

2. The production of any basic material other than metal.

3. The further processing of any basic material other than metal or plastics: Provided, however, That such processing when performed by an establishment producing from such material a product of this industry or subassembly of such product shall be included within this definition.

4. Any product, the manufacture of which is covered by the definition of an industry for which the Administrator has already issued a wage order or appointed an industry committee.

3. The definition of the metal, plastics, machinery, instrument, and allied industries covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the articles covered by the definition, including clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations: Provided, however, That this definition does not cover clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations when carried on in a wholesaling or selling department, physically segregated from the other departments of a manufacturing establishment the greater part of the sales of which wholesaling or selling department are sales of articles which have been purchased for resale: And provided, further, That where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer, in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.

4. Any person who, in the opinion of the Committee, having a substantial interest in the proceeding and who is prepared to present material pertinent to the question under consideration, may, with the approval of the committee, appear on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person.

5. The industry committee herein created shall meet at 10:00 a. m. on February 16, 1943 in the East Ballroom of the Hotel Astor, New York, New York, and, in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, shall proceed to investigate conditions in the industries and recommend to the Administrator minimum wage rates for all employees thereof who within the meaning of said Act are "engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce," excepting employees exempted by virtue of the provisions of section 13 (a) and employees coming under the provisions of section 14.

Signed at New York, New York this 27th day of January 1943.

BOARD OF ECONOMIC WARFARE.

WILL THOMAS COMPANY

ORDER DENYING LICENSING PRIVILEGES

Pursuant to Part 807 of the regulations adopted under section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940 as amended, the Chief of the Trade Intelligence Division of the Export Control Branch, Office of Exports, charged Will Thomas Company, Will Thomas, Partner, and Israel Torrico, Partner, hereinafter referred to as appellants, with violations of §§ 801.2 and 802.10 (a) of the regulations issued in part under the authority of said section in matters relating to export control and within the jurisdiction of the Board of Economic Warfare. The appellants filed a written answer to the charges above set out.

The Compliance Commissioner, duly designated under § 807.1 of the aforesaid regulations, reviewed the record and filed his findings of fact and recommendations in the matter. The Compliance Commissioner found and concluded that the appellants, Will Thomas Company, Will Thomas, partner, and Israel Torrico, partner, violated section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940 and the Export Control regulations of the Board of Economic Warfare, by filling orders for ladies' nylon hose in excess of one dollar per pair and shipping the same in nine parcels, each of the approximate value of $25.00, without the required individual license, between the dates of July 6, 1942, and July 14, 1942, to various consignees in La Paz, Bolivia, for the account of one party.

Upon consideration of the record, findings of fact and recommendations in the matter, the Chief of Office, Office of Exports, Board of Economic Warfare, denied all export license privileges to appellants and any person, association or organization acting on behalf of or for the account of them, until March 18, 1943.

Appellants were duly notified of said order and within ten days of said notice and pursuant to § 807.11 of the aforesaid regulations, duly filed a written appeal to the Assistant Director in charge of the Office of Exports. The undersigned, Assistant Director, has considered the record in this matter and has concluded that the facts and conclusions of the Compliance Commissioner are supported by the record. He has determined, however, that the disciplinary action ordered by the Chief of Office of the Office of Exports should be modified by limiting the suspension until the first day of February, 1943. Now, therefore, It is determined and ordered, That:

Will Thomas Company, Will Thomas, partner, and Israel Torrico, partner, and any person, association or organization acting on behalf of or for the account of them are denied the privilege of obtaining individual export license and the use of any general or unlimited license for any exportation from the United States until the first day of February, 1943.

HUNGARIAN REFERENCE LIBRARY

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the Hungarian National Museum, an agency administered by the Ministry of Worship and Public Education of the Kingdom of Hungary, is a national of a designated enemy country (Hungary);

2. Finding, therefore, that all that certain library and office furniture and objects of art, and that certain collection of books, manuscripts and newspaper clippings known as the Feleky Collection (more commonly known as the Hungarian Reference Library) owned by the aforesaid Hungarian National Museum, are property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Hungary);

3. Determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Hungary);

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 2 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

CONTRACT RIGHTS OF EMIL PAULS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Emil Pauls, whose last known address is Madgeburg, Germany, is a national of a foreign country (Germany);

2. Finding that said Emil Pauls is the owner of the interest described in subparagraph 3 hereof;

3. Finding, therefore, that the property described as follows:

The interest of the aforesaid Emil Pauls in and to the contract by and between him and Ralph C. Busser, Jr., 1012 Stephen Girard Building, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, whereby the said Emil Pauls acquired the right to receive 85% of the profits derived from the license, sale or other exploitation of the United States Letters Patent Nos. 2,146,240 and 2,146,241.

is property payable or held with respect to patents or rights related thereto in which an interest is held by, and such property itself constitutes an interest held therein by, a national of a foreign country (Germany);

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

ESTATE OF JOYCE SAMPSON BALLERINI

In re: Estate of Joyce Sampson Ballerini, deceased—File D-38-276; E. T. sec. 12.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act as amended, and Executive Order 9095 as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by George A. Hopkins, Executor and Trustee of the estate of Joyce Sampson Ballerini, deceased, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, New York County, New York.

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Italy, namely,

	Last known address
National:
Elisio Ballerini	Italy.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Italy; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind of character whatsoever of Elisio Ballerini in and to the estate of Joyce Sampson Ballerini, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

ESTATE OF IRENE ANN COLLEONI

In re: Estate of Irene Ann Colleoni, deceased—File D-38-357; E. T. sec. 570.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act as amended and Executive Order 9095 as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by William H. Jeffers and Alfred L. Rose, trustees, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, New York County, New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by a national of a designated enemy country, Italy, namely,

	Last known address
National:
Leone Colleoni	Italy.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Italy; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Leone Colleoni in and to the trust estate created under the Last Will and Testament of Irene Ann Colleoni, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Dated: January 27, 1943.

[SEAL] LEO T. CROWLEY,
Alien Property Custodian.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Food Distribution Administration[1]

Subchapter C—Regulations Under the Farm Products Inspection Act

PART 63—OFFICIAL UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF CREAMERY BUTTER[2]

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the provision in the act of Congress entitled "An Act Making Appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, and for other purposes" (56 Stat. 664702), approved July 22, 1942, authorizing an inspection service for farm products, I, Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture, do prescribe and promulgate the following standards for grades of creamery butter, that shall be employed for the grading and certification of creamery butter by official graders of the United States Department of Agriculture, to be effective on February 1, 1943, and thereafter unless amended or superseded by standards hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority. These standards[3] shall supersede all standards for creamery butter previously promulgated.

§ 63.1 Terms defined. For the purpose of the United States standards for grades of creamery butter:

(a) Butter. Butter shall be the food product usually known as butter, and which is made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with or without common salt, and with or without additional coloring matter, and containing not less than 80 percent by weight of milk fat, all tolerance having been allowed for.[4]

(b) Creamery butter. Creamery butter shall be butter manufactured in a commercial creamery.

§ 63.2 Nomenclature of U. S. grades. The nomenclature of the U. S. Grades of Creamery Butter shall be as follows: U. S. Grade AA or U. S. 93 Score, U. S. Grade A or U. S. 92 Score, U. S. Grade B or U. S. 90 Score, U. S. Grade C or U. S. 89 Score, U. S. Cooking Grade, and No Grade.

§ 63.3 Basis for determination of U. S. grades. The basis for the determination of the U. S. Grades of creamery butter, except "No Grade", shall be as follows:

(a) The flavor shall be classified in accordance with § 63.4.

(b) The defects in body, color, and salt shall be rated in accordance with § 63.5.

(c) The relation of the U. S. Grade of the butter to the flavor classification of it, as affected by total defects in body, color, and salt, shall be determined in accordance with § 63.6.

§ 63.4 Classification of flavors in creamery butter. Various identified flavors[5] in butter shall be classified as follows:

Identified flavors:	Flavor classification
Fine, highly pleasing	AA
Slightly normal feed	AA
Definitely cooked	AA
Pleasing and desirable	A
Slightly coarse-acid cream	A
Slightly smothered	A
Slightly heated (summer defect)	A
Slightly aged (butter)	A
Slightly storage	A
Slightly bitter	A
Slightly flat	A
Definitely normal feed	A
Definitely cooked	A
Slightly weedy (common)	B
Slightly musty	B

[1] Formerly Agricultural Marketing Association.

[2] These standards supersede the U. S. standards for quality of creamery butter effective April 1, 1939, contained in Part 55, §§ 55.41 to 55.48, inclusive.

[3] These standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

[4] In conformity with an act of Congress approved March 24, 1923.

[5] When more than one flavor is discernible in a sample of butter, the flavor classification of the sample shall be established on the basis of the flavor that carries the lowest classification.

§ 63.6 Relation of U. S. grade of butter to the flavor classification, as affected by total defects in body, color, and salt. The relation of the U. S. grade of an individual sample of butter to the flavor classification of it, as affected by total defects in body, color, and salt shall be as follows:

(a) When the total defects in body, color, and salt do not exceed the permitted total defects, which is one-half (½) for butter having a flavor classification of AA, A, or B and one and one-half (1½) for butter having a flavor classification of C, the U. S. Grade of the butter shall be the same as the flavor classification. (See examples 1, 6, 11, 16, and 17 in Table I).

(b) When the total defects in body, color, and salt exceed the permitted total defects for butter having a flavor classification of AA, A, or B by either one-half (½) or one (1), the U. S. Grade of the butter shall be one grade below the flavor classification; when the total defects for body, color, and salt in such butter exceed the permitted total defects by one and one-half (1½) or two (2), the U. S. Grade of the butter shall be two grades below the flavor classification. (See examples 2, 3, 7, 8, 12, and 13; also examples 4, 5, 9, 10, 14, and 15 in Table I).

(c) When the total defects in body, color, and salt exceed the permitted total defects for butter having a flavor classification of C by one and one-half (1½) the U. S. Grade of the butter shall be U. S. Cooking Grade. (See examples 18 and 19 in Table I).

§ 63.7 Specifications for U. S. grades of creamery butter.[1] The specifications for the U. S. grades of creamery butter are as follows:

U. S. Grade AA or U. S. 93 Score butter shall possess a fine, highly pleasing flavor. It may possess a slightly normal feed or a definitely cooked flavor. It is made from sweet cream or cream of low natural acid to which a culture (starter) may or may not have been added. The permitted total defects in body, color, and salt are limited to one-half (½).

U. S. Grade A or U. S. 92 Score butter shall possess a pleasing and desirable flavor. It may possess any of the following flavors to a slight degree: Coarse-acid, smothered, flat, heated (summer defect), bitter, aged (butter) and storage, or a normal feed and cooked flavor of a definite degree. The permitted total defects in body, color, and salt are limited to one-half (½) unless the flavor classification permits these defects to exceed one-half (½). Butter that has a flavor classification of AA and total defects in body, color, and salt which exceed one-half (½) but do not exceed one and one-half (1½) shall be U. S. Grade A or U. S. 92 score.

U. S. Grade B or U. S. 90 Score butter may possess any of the following flavors to a slight degree: Weedy, musty, rape, cabbage, turnip, and woody or any of the following flavors of a definite degree: Old-cream flavor, coarse-acid-cream, acidy, utensil, scorched, neutralizer, storage, aged (butter), greasy and bitter. The permitted total defects in body, color, and salt are limited to a total of one-half (½) unless the flavor classification permits these defects to exceed one-half (½). Butter that has a flavor classification of AA and total defects in body, color, and salt which exceed one-half (½) but do not exceed two and one-half (2½) shall be U. S. Grade B or U. S. 90 score. Butter that has a flavor classification of A and total defects in body, color, and salt which exceed one-half (½) but do not exceed one and one-half (1½) shall be U. S. Grade B or U. S. 90 score.

U. S. Grade C or U. S. 89 Score butter may possess any of the following flavors to a slight degree: Obnoxious weeds and onion or garlic or any of the following flavors of a definite degree: Scorched-neutralizer, sour, fruity, yeasty, cheesy, alkaline, oily, metallic, cabbage, turnip, rape, weedy, musty, stale, and barny. The permitted defects in body, color, and salt are limited to a total of one and one-half (1½) unless the flavor classification permits these defects to exceed one and one-half (1½). Butter that has a flavor classification of A and total defects in body, color, and salt which exceed one and one-half (1½) but do not exceed two and one-half (2½) shall be U. S. Grade C or U. S. 89 score. Butter that has a flavor classification of B and total defects in body, color, and salt which exceed one-half (½) but do not exceed one and one-half (1½) shall be U. S. Grade C or U. S. 89 score.

U. S. Cooking Grade butter may possess any of the following flavors of a definite degree: Obnoxious weeds, onion or garlic, and fishy; or any of the following flavors of a pronounced degree: Yeasty, fruity, cheesy, alkaline, and stale. Defects in body, color, and salt are not limited in this grade. Butter that has a flavor classification of B or C and total defects in body, color, and salt of two (2) or more shall be U. S. Cooking Grade.

No Grade: Butter that possesses any of the following flavors or contains any of the substances listed under "conditions" or is below the requirements of the U. S. Cooking Grade shall be classified as "No Grade".

PART 73—APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, WARRANT OFFICERS, AND CHAPLAINS

FLIGHT OFFICERS

Section 73.351 is hereby added as follows:

§ 73.351 Flight officers—(a) Eligibility. The following are eligible for appointment as flight officers in the Army of the United States:

(1) Any aviation cadet who has successfully completed an aviation cadet course of training prescribed by the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, pursuant to Part 74 of this Title and AR 615-160, and who is qualified to perform the duties of a member of an air crew.

(2) Any enlisted man who has successfully completed a course of aviation student training prescribed by the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, pursuant to AR 615-150,[1] and who is qualified to perform the duties of a member of an air crew.

(3) Any warrant officer or enlisted man who is recommended for such appointment by the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, or pursuant to such regulations as he may prescribe, and who is qualified to perform the duties of a member of an air crew.

(4) Any civilian who is recommended for such appointment by the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, and who is qualified to perform the duties of a member of an air crew.

(b) Appointing authority. Civilians will be appointed as flight officers by such authority and in such manner as is prescribed by the War Department.

(c) Termination. The officers authorized to appoint flight officers in the Army of the United States are authorized to terminate such appointments when the best interests of the service make such action desirable. Persons whose appointments as flight officers are thus terminated will be restored to the enlisted grade held by them at the time of their appointment, or appointed to such other enlisted grade as the appointing authority deems appropriate in the circumstances.

(d) Commissioning in the Army of the United States. (1) Flight officers may be appointed, by selection, to the grade of second lieutenant and, upon such appointment, shall be commissioned in the Army of the United States under the provisions of the act of September 22, 1941 (55 Stat. 728). Flight officers selected to be commissioned will be commissioned second lieutenants in such manner as is prescribed by The Adjutant General.

(2) In foreign theaters of operations, flight officers may be appointed, by selection, to the grade of second lieutenant in the Army of the United States by theater commanders without regard to the period of time a flight officer has served as such. The system for selecting those flight officers who will be commissioned will be prescribed by the theater commander.

(e) Commissioning in Air Corps Reserve. Any person who has completed an aviation cadet course of training as an aviation cadet, or has completed an aviation student course of training, under the provisions of AR 615-150 as an enlisted man, and has served in time of war as a commissioned officer or flight officer in the Army of the United States, may be appointed an officer in the Air Corps Reserve upon recommendation of the Commanding General, Army Air Forces. Individuals so recommended will be commissioned in the Air Corps Reserve in such manner as is prescribed by The Adjutant General. (Act of Congress approved July 8, 1942, Public Law 658—77th Congress) [Pars. 2, 3d, 7, 8 and 9, AR 610-50, November 5, 1942, as amended by C 1 January 5, 1943]

Chapter X—Areas Restricted for National Defense Purposes

[Public Proclamation 4]

PART 102—CONTROL OF LIGHTING WITHIN RESTRICTED ZONES

COASTAL DIMOUT, EASTERN MILITARY AREA

JANUARY 27, 1943.

Headquarters Eastern Defense Command and First Army, Governors Island, N. Y.

To: The people within the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida East of the Apalachicola River, and the District of Columbia.

Whereas, the Eastern Military Area was prescribed by Public Proclamation No. 1, this Headquarters, dated May 16, 1942, under authority contained in Executive Order of the President, No. 9066, [7 F.R. 1407], dated February 19, 1942; and

Whereas, military necessity then requiring such action, certain restrictions for the control of lighting in coastal areas of the Eastern Military Area (Coastal Dimout Restrictions) were imposed by Public Proclamation No. 1 for the protection of United Nations shipping from enemy attack, and the prevention of enemy action against the Atlantic Seaboard; and

Whereas, the present situation requires as a matter of military necessity, for the protection of inhabitants of the Eastern Military Area and National Defense activities, utilities, and installations therein against enemy attack, the extension of military control over certain phases of air raid protection in the area;

Now, therefore, I, Hugh A. Drum, Lieutenant General, U. S. Army, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the President of the United States and by the Secretary of War and my powers and prerogatives as Commanding General of the Eastern Defense Command and First Army, charged with the defense of the Eastern Seaboard, do hereby declare, order and proclaim, That:

§ 102.2 Coastal dimout area; Eastern Military Area. (a) The right of any person to enter, remain in, or leave the Eastern Military Area, or any part or zone thereof, shall hereafter be subject to regulations governing air raid protection including coastal dimout, blackout, the control of lighting and radio, the movement of vehicles and other conveyances, and activities of persons during periods of blackout and air raid, and related matters, issued by commanding generals of service commands and the Commanding General of the Military District of Washington, each for his appropriate jurisdiction, pursuant to orders of this Headquarters. Such regulations are hereby adopted as restrictions.

(b) In all parts of the Eastern Military Area, a blackout shall be effected as soon as the authorized signal therefor has been given and shall continue until the authorized signal to terminate the blackout.

(c) Within the Eastern Military Area, there is hereby designated a coastal dimout area. This coastal dimout area, in each of the four service commands of the Eastern Military Area, coincides in location and extent with the areas designated by commanding generals of service commands, each for his appropriate jurisdiction, as coastal dimout areas.

(d) Throughout the coastal dimout area, nightly dimouts, in accordance with regulations of commanding generals of service commands, each for his appropriate jurisdiction, will be observed. This dimout is a preparatory step for periods of blackout throughout the coastal dimout area. The regulations governing air raid protection provide that a blackout must be effected more quickly in the coastal dimout area than in those parts of the Eastern Military not included in the coastal dimout area.

(e) In accordance with paragraphs 6 and 7 of Public Proclamation No. 1, the civilian defense organizations of the Federal Government and of the District of Columbia and of the several States within the Eastern Military Area are, with their consent, hereby designated as the principal agencies to assist commanding generals of service commands in the enforcement of restrictions imposed by this Proclamation and orders issued pursuant hereto, and these organizations and Federal, State and local law enforcement agencies are requested to render assistance in the enforcement of such restrictions and orders.

(f) Any person who violates any restriction or order issued, required to be issued, or adopted by the Commanding General, Eastern Defense Command and First Army, pursuant to the authority cited in the preamble of this proclamation, applicable to the whole or any part of the Eastern Military Area, is subject to immediate exclusion from the Eastern Military Area, or any part or zone thereof, and to the penalties provided by Title 18, section 97A, United States Code. In addition, if two or more persons conspire to violate this section and one or more do any act to effect the object of such conspiracy, each of the parties will be subject to the penalties provided by Title 18, section 88, United States Code. In the case of an alien enemy, such person will, in addition, be subject to immediate apprehension and internment.

(g) A copy of this proclamation shall be displayed for public inspection at every Selective Service local board; at every Post Office; at every Court House; and at every Town Hall within the Eastern Military Area. Copies of regulations issued pursuant to this proclamation shall be displayed for public inspection at every Selective Service local board; at every Post Office; at every Court House; and at every Town Hall within the area affected by such regulations. It will be the duty of every person found within the Eastern Military Area to familiarize himself with the terms of every proclamation and regulation with respect to air raid protection including coastal dimout, blackout, the control of lighting and radio, the movement of vehicles and other conveyances, and activities of persons during periods of blackout and air raid, and related matters, in the area or service command in which he is found.

[SEAL] H. A. DRUM.
Lieutenant General, U. S. Army Commanding.

Confirmed:

J. A. ULIO.
Major General,
The Adjutant General.

§ 25.12 Moral character. Applicant shall be of good moral character.

§ 25.13 Education. Applicant shall be able to read, write, and understand the English language; Provided, That a citizen of Puerto Rico, or an applicant who is employed by an air carrier outside the United States, need not be able to read, write, speak, or understand the English language except that a certificate issued to such an applicant shall be valid only in Puerto Rico, or only while employed by an air carrier outside of the United States, as the case may be.

§ 25.14 Knowledge. Applicant shall pass a written, oral, and practical examination on (a) the construction, inspection, packing, maintenance, use of, and the manufacturer's instructions with respect to at least one make and type of parachute in common commercial use, and (b) the pertinent provisions of the Civil Air Regulations and related manuals.

§ 25.15 Experience. Applicant shall have performed satisfactory service in the packing of at least 20 parachutes of each type for which he seeks a rating under the supervision of a properly qualified and certificated parachute technician.

§ 25.16 Military competence. An applicant who is or was within the 60 days preceding application a regular or reserve member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard on active duty as a parachute technician for a period of not less than one year, upon passing the prescribed written examination on the pertinent Civil Air Regulations and presentation of a statement from the appropriate military authorities attesting to such experience, will be deemed to have met the requirements of §§ 25.14 and 25.15.

§ 25.2 Senior parachute rigger grade. Applicant shall comply with the provisions of §§ 25.10 through 25.15 and in addition thereto he shall:

(a) Demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Administrator that he has a thorough practical and theoretical knowledge of the construction, inspection, packing, maintenance, use of, and repairs to at least 3 types of parachutes in common commercial use including the manufacturers' instructions with respect to such subject;

(b) Present proof satisfactory to the Administrator that he has served as a properly qualified and certificated parachute technician or as a mechanic with a rating as a parachute rigger for a period of at least 2 years; and

(c) Present proof satisfactory to the Administrator that he has satisfactorily serviced and packed at least 25 parachutes of each make and type for which he seeks to be rated.

§ 25.3 Master of parachute maintenance grade. Applicant shall comply with the provisions of §§ 25.10 through 25.15 and in addition thereto he shall:

(a) Demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Administrator that he has a thorough practical and theoretical knowledge of the construction, inspection, packing, maintenance, use of, and repairs to the products of not less than 3 different manufacturers including at least 4 types of parachutes and 3 types of canopies, and the ability to properly supervise all operations in connection therewith.

(b) Present proof satisfactory to the Administrator that he has served as a certificated parachute technician for a period of at least 5 years, and that he has satisfactorily serviced and packed not less than 200 parachutes of various makes and types and not less than 25 of each type and make of parachute for which he is rated; and

(c) Present written statements satisfactory to the Administrator attesting to his character, responsibility, skill, ability, and length of service, and recommending him for a "Master of Parachute Maintenance" grade.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR RATINGS

§25.5 Special ratings. Special parachute ratings are as follows:

(a) Parachute jumper;
(b) Parachute instructor.

§ 25.50 Parachute jumper rating. A special rating of parachute jumper will be entered on the Airman Rating Record of a certificated parachute technician who, after inspection and examination, is found by the Administrator to meet the requirements therefor and, if less than 21 years of age, to have obtained the written consent of either parent, or legal or natural guardian.

§ 25.500 Knowledge. Applicant must pass a written, oral, and practical examination demonstrating a practical and theoretical knowledge of the proper methods and procedures for making test and exhibition jumps, which shall include methods of leaving and clearing aircraft with relation to the speed and altitude thereof, emergency measures to be taken in the event of malfunction of the parachute during the opening and subsequent operation thereof, and the proper method of manipulation and control of the parachute during descent and landing.

§ 25.501 Experience. Applicant shall present proof satisfactory to the Administrator that he has satisfactorily accomplished at least 10 jumps without injury to himself or damage to his equipment.

§ 25.502 Physical condition. Applicant shall meet the physical standards of the third class prescribed in Part 29.

§ 25.51 Parachute instructor rating. A special rating of parachute instructor will be entered on the Airman Rating Record of a certificated parachute technician who satisfactorily passes a written, oral, and practical examination demonstrating his ability to teach the processes and procedures which, in the opinion of the Administrator, are deemed necessary and appropriate for the construction, inspection, packing, maintenance, repair, and use of parachutes.

EXAMINATIONS AND TESTS

§ 25.6 General. All examinations and tests prescribed herein shall be conducted at a time and place designated by the Administrator.

§25.60 Standard of performance. The passing grade of any theoretical examination shall be 70 percent. The prescribed practical examinations must be accomplished to the satisfaction of the Administrator.

§ 25.61 Physical examinations. The appropriate physical examination prescribed for a parachute jumper rating shall be accomplished before any practical or theoretical test or examination will be given, and shall be completed within the 12 calendar months preceding such test.

§ 25.62 Reexaminations. An applicant who has failed to:

(a) Accomplish successfully any prescribed theoretical examination may apply for reexamination at any time after the expiration of 30 days from the date of such failure; or

(b) Accomplish successfully any prescribed practical examination or test may apply for reexamination (1) after expiration of 30 days from the date of such failure, and (2) after he submits proof satisfactory to the Administrator that he has received adequate instruction by a certificated parachute technician holding a rating for the make and type of parachute on which he failed to demonstrate his ability.

ISSUANCE AND DURATION OF CERTIFICATES

§ 25.7 General. Application for a parachute technician certificate and rating shall be made upon the applicable form prescribed and furnished by the Administrator.

§ 25.70 Duration. A parachute technicion certificate issued hereunder shall be of 60 days' duration and unless the holder thereof is otherwise notified by the Administrator within such period it shall continue in effect thereafter, until otherwise specified by the Board, unless suspended or revoked.

§ 25.700 Existing certificates. A currently effective mechanic certificate with a parachute rigger rating shall continue in effect for a period of not to exceed 6 months after the effective date of this Part, during which time the holder thereof may secure upon application a parachute technician certificate of:

(a) Parachute rigger grade with appropriate ratings; or

(b) A higher grade with appropriate ratings upon demonstrating to the satisfaction of the Administrator that he is able to meet the standards currently prescribed in the Civil Air Regulations for the issuance of such grade and ratings.

§ 25.71 Revocation. No person whose parachute technician certificate has been revoked shall apply for or be issued a parachute technician certificate for a period of one year after the revocation, except as the order of revocation may otherwise provide.

REGULATIONS AND LIMITATIONS

§ 25.8 General. A certificated parachute technician shall not serve as such unless:

(a) He has in his possession in addition to his parachute technician certificate, an identification card satisfactory to the Administrator containing his finger prints, picture, and signature; and

(b) There is attached as part of his certificate the appropriate Airman Rating Record prescribed and issued by the Administrator setting forth such limitations as to type and make of parachute and such other limitations as the Administrator may prescribe.

§ 25.80 Service limitations. A certificated parachute technician shall not:

(a) Perform any act or serve in any manner in connection with his certificate which will adversely affect public safety;

(b) Pack any parachute which is not in condition for safe use;

(c) Serve otherwise than in accordance with the terms, limitations, and conditions of his certificate and rating record except as provided hereinafter: Provided, That the holder of a mechanic certificate with a parachute rigger rating in effect on the 21st day of January, 1943, may perform service pursuant to the terms of such certificate and rating record for a period not to exceed 6 months after the effective date of this Part;

(d) Pack a parachute for use by any person other than himself; unless:

(1) Such parachute has been thoroughly dried and aired for a period of at least 12 hours for each 30 days since the time of its last packing; and

(2) Such parachute is packed in accordance with the approved method of the manufacturer and in a place where the minimum facilities prescribed in § 25.9 are available; and

(3) Within the preceding 30 days he has reviewed the manufacturer's instructions with respect to the packing of the particular type if more than 6 months have elapsed since he last packed a parachute of that make and type; and

(4) Within the preceding 30 days he has reviewed the manufacturer's instructions with respect to the packing of the particular type and has made at least 10 practice packings of that type if more than 12 months have elapsed since he last packed a parachute of the identical make and type;

(e) Make any modification, alteration, or major repair not specifically authorized in writing by the manufacturer of the parachute, or the Administrator, or make any substitution of materials or parts on any parachute, or in any way deviate from the manufacturer's approved procedures of packing any make or type of parachute.

§ 25.800 Parachute rigger. A parachute rigger shall not make any major repairs to parachutes unless he is under the supervision of a person deemed competent for the purpose by the Administrator.

§ 25.801 Senior parachute rigger. A senior parachute rigger shall not make any major repairs to parachutes except to those types for which he is rated unless he be under the supervision of a person deemed competent for the purpose by the Administrator; nor shall such repairs be made otherwise than in a manner which will restore the equipment to an airworthy condition.

§ 25.802 Master of parachute maintenance. A master of parachute maintenance shall not make any major repairs to parachutes except in a manner which will restore the equipment to an airworthy condition.

§ 25.803 Parachute instructor. A certificated parachute technician with a parachute instructor rating shall not permit any student under his supervision to make a training or exhibition parachute jump unless such student has been thoroughly instructed in the proper methods of making such jumps and the instructor is satisfied that the student has the theoretical knowledge prescribed in § 25.500, and has passed the physical examination prescribed in § 25.502.

§ 25.81 Log-book.

§ 25.810 Individual log-books. A certificated parachute technician shall keep a record of his parachute packing and jumping operations in a log-book, which shall be a bound record and contain accurate and legible entries in ink or indelible pencil.

§ 25.811 Contents. The log-book shall contain the date of packing or jumping, name and address of the owner, serial number of each parachute, its type and manufacturer, place where packed or jumped, the certificate number of the parachute technician, and a record of drop tests and repairs. Such log-book shall be presented to any authorized representative of the Administrator, or any State or municipal officer enforcing local regulations or laws involving Federal compliance, upon request and reasonable notice.

§ 25.812 Master log-book. A certificated parachute technician in charge of parachute maintenance operations, in which two or more certificated parachute technicians are engaged in the same parachute loft, shall be responsible for the maintenance of a master log-book which shall contain all of the information prescribed in § 25.811.

§ 25.82 Display of certificate. A certificated parachute technician shall keep his certificate readily available when on duty and shall present it for inspection upon reasonable request by an authorized person or representative of the Administrator or Board or of any State or municipal officer enforcing local regulations or laws involving Federal compliance.

§ 25.83 Inspection. An applicant or holder of a parachute technician certificate upon reasonable request by any representative of the Administrator shall cooperate fully in any examination which may be made of him.

§ 25.84 Surrender of certificate. Upon the suspension, expiration, or revocation of any certificate, the holder shall upon request surrender such certificate to any duly authorized representative of the Administrator.

§ 25.85 Notice of defects. A certificated parachute technician upon refusal to pack any defective parachute, shall give notice thereof to the owner and forward a copy to the manufacturer of the parachute and to the Administrator. Such notice shall contain the owner's name and address, the manufacturer's name, serial number, date of manufacture, the type, material, and basic construction of the canopy, a statement containing the parachute's use and history, if known, and the reasons for refusing to pack the parachute.

§ 25.86 Seal. Each certificated parachute technician shall have a seal press of suitable design with an individual identifying marker assigned by the Administrator. Upon repacking any parachute, he shall seal the pack release with a thread of not more than two pounds tensile strength, and affix his seal in such a manner that it cannot interfere in any way with the prompt and proper functioning of the parachute, and shall make certain that the parachute cannot be opened without the destruction of the seal.

§ 25.87 Parachute record. A certificated parachute technician shall enter on the parachute packing record of each parachute packed by him the date and place of packing, his signature, and his certificate number.

§ 25.88 Reports. A certificated parachute technician shall transmit to the Administrator, annually, during the month of January, a report for the preceding 12-month period, setting forth the number and type of parachutes packed and such other pertinent data as the Administrator may require.

§ 25.89 Transfer. A parachute technician certificate is not transferable.

§ 25.9 Minimum facilities. Unless prior approval has been obtained from the Administrator, a certificated parachute technician shall not pack or repack any parachute or make any minor parachute repairs in a place other than where the following facilities for such operations are available:

(a) A suitable smooth-top table at least 3 x 40 feet in length;

(b) A suitable compartment where parachutes may be suspended for drying and airing;

(c) Packing tools and repair equipment suitable for the repacking and repair of the type of parachute involved; and

(d) Adequate housing facilities for such equipment.

RATINGS

§ 54.1 Parachute loft ratings. The following ratings may be issued prescribing the type of work the holder of a parachute loft certificate is qualified to perform:

(a) General maintenance and minor repair;
(b) Canopy overhaul;
(c) Harness overhaul;
(d) Metal parts and container overhaul;
(e) Drop testing.

PARACHUTE LOFT CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS

§ 54.2 Certificate requirements. To be eligible for a rating as a parachute loft and certification as such an applicant shall comply with the following requirements:

§ 54.20 Personnel. Applicant shall have adequate personnel certificated in accordance with the provisions of Part 25 of the Civil Air Regulations and qualified to perform or supervise the type of work involved; and § 54.21 Facilities and equipment. Applicant shall have such equipment, facilities and material as are necessary for the competent and efficient performance of the type of work for which a rating is sought. Such facilities shall include suitable and adequately heated, lighted, and ventilated housing; an adequate system of inspection; adequate equipment for making drawings; and adequate facilities for the segregation and storage of parts and materials.

NOTE: A manual will be issued outlining facilities, equipment, and personnel which will comply with the requirements of this section.

ISSUANCE AND DURATION

§ 54.3 Application. Application for a parachute loft certificate and appropriate ratings shall be made upon the applicable form prescribed and furnished by the Administrator.

§ 54.30 Duration. A parachute loft certificate shall remain in effect indefinitely, unless suspended or revoked: Provided, That such certificate may be cancelled by the Administrator at any time within 60 days after issuance.

§ 54.31 Application to amend. Application for a change in the Parachute Loft Rating Record of a certificated parachute loft shall be made upon the applicable form prescribed and furnished by the Administrator.

REGULATIONS AND LIMITATIONS

§ 54.4 General.

§ 54.400 Display. A parachute loft certificate shall be displayed in a prominent place in the parachute loft.

§ 54.401 Transfer. A parachute loft certificate may not be transferred.

§ 54.402 Surrender. Upon the suspension, revocation, or expiration of a parachute loft certificate, the holder thereof upon request shall surrender such certificate to any officer or employee of the Administrator.

§ 54.403 Inspection. An applicant for a parachute loft certificate shall cooperate fully in any inspection or examination which may be made of such applicant, applicant's personnel, facilities, equipment, and records, upon proper request by an authorized representative of the Administrator, prior or subsequent to the issuance of a parachute loft certificate.

§ 54.404 Revocation. No person whose parachute loft certificate has been revoked shall apply for or be issued a parachute loft certificate or any rating for a period of one year after the revocation of such certificate except as the order of revocation may otherwise provide.

§ 54.41 Records. The holder of a parachute loft certificate shall maintain adequate records, which shall include the names of the persons who performed the work and the type of work performed. Such records shall be kept for at least two years.

§ 54.410 Parachute Loft Rating Record. An appropriate Parachute Loft Rating Record prescribed and issued by the Administrator shall be attached to each parachute loft certificate issued. The record shall contain the type of repair, operation, maintenance, and overhaul of parachutes for which the holder of such certificate is rated.

§ 54.411 Recording major repair and alteration operations. The holder of a parachute loft certificate authorized to perform major repair and alteration operations on a parachute canopy, harness, container, accessory, or any combination thereof, shall execute such repair and alteration forms as may be prescribed and furnished by the Administrator and shall deliver a copy of such form to the owner of the parachute.

§ 54.42 Maintenance, personnel, facilities, equipment, and material. The holder of a currently effective parachute loft certificate shall maintain personnel, facilities, equipment, and material at least equal in quantity and quality to those currently required for original issuance of such a certificate and the appropriate ratings.

§ 54.43 Airworthiness requirements for maintenance, repairs, and alterations.

§ 54.430 Quality of maintenance, repairs, and alterations. The holder of a parachute loft certificate shall perform maintenance, repair, and alteration operations in a workmanlike manner and so as to maintain the equipment in, or restore it to an airworthy condition.

§ 54.431 Materials. The holder of a parachute loft certificate shall use materials in connection with maintenance, repair, and alteration operations of such quality and strength as to be suitable for the purposes used.

§ 54.432 Reporting defects or unairworthy conditions. The holder of a parachute loft certificate shall report upon the applicable forms prescribed and furnished by the Administrator all recurring or serious defects or other unairworthy conditions of parachutes or parts thereof.

§ 54.433 Agencies authorized to perform maintenance, repairs, alterations, and inspections. Maintenance, repairs, alterations, and inspections of certificated parachutes may be performed by:

(a) A certificated parachute technician of appropriate grade and ratings (See Part 25 for service limitations of certificated parachute technicians); or

(b) A certificated parachute loft having an appropriate rating; or

(c) The manufacturer of the parachute or part thereof; or

(d) Another parachute manufacturer deemed competent by the Administrator: Provided, That all maintenance, repairs, alterations, and inspections shall be performed in accordance with manuals and specifications approved by the Administrator.*

§ 54.434 Drop testing of parachutes. The holder of a parachute loft certificate shall drop test any major repaired or altered parachute canopy, harness, container, accessory, or any combination thereof, when in the opinion of the inspecting certificated parachute technician such repairs or alterations may have affected its structural, functional, or other airworthiness characteristic. Drop tests shall be conducted in accordance with the following conditions:

§ 54.4340 Functional tests. If it is necessary to determine the functional characteristics of the entire assembly, such assembly shall be drop tested with a 150-pound dummy man (not including the weight of the parachute) at an indicated air speed of 70 miles per hour and a minimum altitude of 500 feet above the ground.

§ 54.4341 Strength tests. If it is necessary to determine the material values in the entire assembly, such assembly shall be drop tested with a 190-pound dummy man (not including the weight of the parachute) at an indicated air speed of 120 miles per hour and a minimum altitude of 500 feet above the ground.

§ 54.4342 Airworthiness tests. If it is necessary to determine material airworthiness of the entire assembly prior to repairs of any kind, such assembly shall be drop tested with a 190-pound dummy man (not including the weight of the parachute) at an indicated air speed of 120 miles per hour and at a minimum altitude of 500 feet above the ground.

§ 54.4343 Agencies authorized to perform drop testing operations. Parachute drop testing operations shall be performed only by:

(a) The manufacturer of the parachute; or

(b) Another parachute manufacturer deemed competent by the Administrator; or

(c) A certificated parachute loft having an appropriate rating.

DEFINITIONS

§ 54.5 General.

§ 54.50 Parachute. A unit comprised of a canopy, harness, container, and accessories, so arranged in combination as to allow instantaneous release of a folded canopy by means of mechanical control or manually operated release device, such combination to be approved by the Administrator.

§ 54.500 Canopy. That part of a parachute combination which is designed to retard the descent of a falling body or object.

§ 54.501 Harness. That part of a parachute combination designed to enfold or carry the body or object and to serve as an attachment between the canopy and its intended cargo.

§ 54.502 Container. That part of a parachute combination designed to hold or contain a folded canopy.

§ 54.503 Accessory. That part or parts of a parachute combination necessary to complete a unit as designed by the manufacturer and approved by the Administrator.

§ 54.51 Manufacturer. (a) The holder of a type certificate for the manufacture of a canopy, harness, container, or accessory or any combination thereof

*Manuals and specifications may be issued by a parachute manufacturer or by the Administrator. In either case they must be approved by the Administrator.

or of the current rights under licensing arrangements to the benefits of such type certificate; or

(b) The maker of a part or accessory of a certificated parachute: Provided, That such maker shall have in his employ a properly certificated parachute technician in direct charge of maintenance, repair, or alteration operations.

§ 54.52 Routine maintenance. An operation limited to the packing of parachutes and the replacement of small standard parts not involving complex assembly operations.

§ 54.53 Repairs.

§ 54.530 Minor repairs. Elementary repair operations executed in accordance with standard practices and not within the definition of major repairs.

§ 54.531 Major repairs. Complex repair operations of vital importance to the airworthiness of a parachute.

§ 54.54 Alterations. Any appreciable change in the design or an exchange of parts in a parachute canopy, harness, container, accessory, or any combination thereof.

§ 54.540 Minor alterations. (a) An alteration having no appreciable effect on the structural, functional, or other characteristic, affecting the airworthiness of a parachute canopy, harness, container, accessory, or combination thereof, individually or as a unit;

(b) An alteration for which specific plans and instructions have been approved by the Administrator and which can be executed by minor elementary operations.

§ 54.541 Major alterations. All alterations not within the definition of minor alterations.

§ 54.55 Overhaul. Maintenance, inspection, repairs, and alterations performed in accordance with manuals and specifications, and approved by the Administrator.

In the Matter of Harold M. May, an Individual, Trading Under the Names United Inheritance Bureau and Guardian Service Bureau

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and states that he waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to the facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Harold M. May, individually and trading as United Inheritance Bureau and as Guardian Service Bureau, or trading under any other name, and his agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of respondent's form letters and envelopes in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the words "United Inheritance Bureau," or any other word or words of similar import, to designate, describe, or refer to respondent's business; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's business bears any relation to estates, or to the rights or interests of heirs therein.

2. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent has affiliations in the principal states of the United States or Canada, or that respondent has correspondents in Europe.

3. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent is engaged in genealogical research.

4. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's business includes the examination of titles to real estate.

5. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's business is that of locating heirs to estates or to interests therein; or that respondent is in a position to advise persons with respect to interests in estates or the ownership of assets; or that persons concerning whom information is sought through respondent's form letters have or may have any interest in estates or any other property.

6. Selling or distributing form letters or envelopes which represent, directly or by implication, that respondent's business is other than that of obtaining information to be used in the collection of debts; or which represent, directly or by implication, that the information sought through such letters is for any purpose other than for use in the collection of debts.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order of consolidation and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matters of the petitions of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices, for changes in seam designations and price classifications, for the establishment of an additional shipping point, and for corrections and changes in railroad loading points and designations, respectively, for the coals of certain mines located in District 1.

Original petitions, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines located in District 1; changes in seam designations and price classification for the coals produced at the Thompson No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 2151, operated by George Thompson, and at the Keystone Mine, Mine Index No. 1158, operated by H. P. Burkholder, respectively; the establishment of an additional shipping point, corrections in the designation of the rail loading point, and changes in rail loading points for the coals of certain other mines located in District 1; and

It appearing that said petitions should be consolidated; and

It further appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in either of the above matters; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That the above-named matters be, and the same hereby are consolidated.

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matters, temporary relief is granted as follows:

Commencing forthwith, § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplements R–I and R–II, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petitions in the above-entitled matters and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

It is further ordered, That no relief be granted herein for the coals of the Thompson No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 2151, operated by George Thompson, and the Keystone Mine, Mine Index No. 1158, operated by H. P. Burkholder, respectively, for the reasons appearing in the order issued this day in Dockets Nos. A–1807 and A–1808, Part II.

Dated: January 8, 1943.

[Docket No. A–1785]

PART 333—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 13

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 13 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 333.6 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, § 333.7 (Special prices—(a) Prices for shipment to all railroads and for exclusive use of railroads) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, § 333.7 (Special prices—(c) Prices for shipment by railroad, applicable to all coal sold for steamship vessel fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–III, § 333.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–IV, § 333.25 (Special prices—(b) Prices for shipment to all railroads for locomotive fuel, station heating, power plants and other uses) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–V, § 333.27 (Prices for shipment by river (free alongside) for all uses (except railway locomotive fuel) for delivery via the Tennessee River to f. a. s. consumers in the States of Tennessee and Alabama) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–VI, § 333.34 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–I, and § 333.43 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and application to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

No relief has been granted herein for the coals produced at the Moss Hollow and Millie Mines of R. C. Gillespie for the reason that the records of the Division indicate that no code acceptance has been received for these producers.

The proposal of rail and railroad fuel prices for the coals of the Udora #1 (Mine Index No. 1706) and Udora #2 (Mine Index No. 1709) Mines of the Tombrello Coal Co. and for a change in shipping point of the Spradling Hollow Mine (Mine Index No. 199) of that Company has not been granted since relief therefor was granted in Docket No. A–1765.

No relief is granted herein as to the coals for truck shipment of the Twin Arrow Mine (Mine Index No. 1095) of Guthrie & Fondren (Columbus Guthrie) since such relief has previously been granted the coals of this mine in Dockets Nos. A–171 and A–205, 6 F.R. 6476 and 7 F.R. 2961.

No relief is granted herein as to the coals for truck shipment of the Mulvehill & Cato Mine (Mine Index No. 1638) of J. C. Thomas since such relief has previously been granted the coals of this mine in Docket No. A–1606, 7 F.R. 7823.

In proposing prices for the coals of the E. S. Gilliam Mine (Mine Index No. 1707) of E. S. Gilliam, the District Board listed this mine as being located in Sequatchie County, Tennessee. The records of the Division indicate that this mine is located in Marion County, Tennessee, and relief has been granted accordingly.

Dated: January 9, 1943.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter III—Bureau of Mines

PART 301—CONTROL OF EXPLOSIVES AND THEIR INGREDIENTS IN TIME OF WAR OR NATIONAL EMERGENCY

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the authority conferred by section 18 of the act of December 26, 1941 (55 Stat. 863), the regulations under the Federal Explosives Act heretofore promulgated [1] are hereby amended as follows:

Section 301.3 (c) is amended by adding at the end of subparagraph (2) the following subparagraph:

§ 301.3 Application of act and regulations; exceptions. • • •

(c) Explosives and ingredients excepted. • • •

(2) Explosives or ingredients in transit. • • • or which are in transit upon aircraft in conformity with statutory law or with the rules and regulations of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Section 301.4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 301.4 Licenses, kind, scope and restrictions—(a) Kind of licenses. Five different kinds of licenses are issued under the Federal Explosives Act, as follows: Manufacturer's license, vendor's license, purchaser's license, foreman's license, analyst's-educator's-inventor's-investigator's license.

(b) Scope of licenses. Generally one license will fit all of the needs of any particular applicant, although this will not always be the case. If the applicant conducts enterprises or operations distinct from one another, which would require separate licenses if conducted by different persons, separate licenses will be required. All licenses authorize the handling, storing and transporting of explosives and ingredients by the licensee, and upon the operating premises by his employees, to the extent necessary to carry on the operations covered by the license. A licensed employer will remain responsible and liable for the acts of his employees, whether or not such employees are licensed. The scope of each license is briefly as follows:

(1) Manufacturer's license. This license authorizes the manufacture, possession, and sale of explosives and ingredients. It covers the purchase of explosives and ingredients for manufacture into explosives, and the sale of manufactured products in the usual course of trade to jobbers, dealers, or users. It does not cover the purchase and sale of explosives or ingredients purchased for resale. A person having a manufacturer's license is not required to have an analyst's-educator's-inventor's - investigator's license in addition although he operates a laboratory.

(2) Vendor's license. This license authorizes the purchase, possession, and sale of explosives and ingredients. It is required of jobbers, wholesalers, dealers, and retailers, whether or not they physically handle, store, or have possession of the explosives or ingredients dealt in. A vendor's license covers sales clerks whose duties are performed upon premises where the explosives and ingredients of the vendor are in the custody of a person licensed under the Act.

(3) Purchaser's license. This license authorizes the purchase, possession, and use of explosives and ingredients. It permits no disposition of the explosives or ingredients purchased except the use thereof by the licensee.

(4) Foreman's license. This license authorizes the purchase and possession of explosives and ingredients and the sale and issuance thereof to other employees of the licensee's employer, for distribution, storage, sale, issuance, testing, use, or other disposition of explosives or ingredients in the operations of the employer. An employee may not be licensed as a foreman unless his employer is licensed under the act. (See definition of "foreman", § 301.2 (i).)

(5) Analyst's-educator's-inventor's-investigator's license. This license authorizes the purchase, manufacture, possession, analysis, testing, and disposal of explosives and ingredients. It is required of schools, hospitals, laboratories, and other institutions and persons who use explosives or ingredients in a laboratory, but a person having a manufacturer's license issued under the act will not be required to have an analyst's-educator's-inventor's-investigator's license in addition.

(c) Licenses restricted to specified explosives or ingredients. The kinds of explosives or ingredients which a license will authorize to be purchased, sold, manufactured, tested, or otherwise handled may be restricted by the Licensing Agent or the Director in accordance with the needs and experience of the applicant, and such restrictions, if any, shall be written on the face of the license, preferably in the space provided at the end of the paragraph designated "Limitations". A licensee who is not satisfied with restrictions placed upon a license issued to him may appeal in the same manner as if the license applied for were refused. If after obtaining a restricted license a licensee wishes to purchase, sell, manufacture, test, or otherwise handle explosives or ingredients different in kind from those authorized by the license already issued, he may apply for another license to satisfy his needs.

Section 301.7 (g) is amended by substituting for the first sentence the following sentences:

§ 301.7 Applications for licenses; forms. • • •

(g) Qualification affidavits required. Every individual applicant, and every partner where a partnership is an applicant, must file at least two qualification affidavits with the application. The affidavits must be executed by responsible citizens, preferably Federal, State or local officials. In those instances where the Licensing Agent has known the applicant intimately for a number of years and vouches for his qualifications by signing a statement setting forth the information called for by the affidavit form, the requirement for qualification affidavits may be waived by the Licensing Agents. Statements by Licensing Agents may be made on the qualification affidavit form but need not be sworn to by them. • • •

Section 301.8 (a) is amended by changing the last sentence of the first paragraph to read as follows:

§ 301.8 Filing of applications—(a) Purchaser's, vendor's or foreman's applications. • • • In such case, the licensing agent shall forthwith report the circumstances to the Director.

Section 301.9 is amended by changing the title to read as follows:

§ 301.9 Issuance of licenses.

Section 301.9 (a) is amended by changing the second paragraph to read as follows:

§ 301.9 Issuance of licenses—(a) Issuing officers and fees. • • •

Licensing Agents may charge a fee of 25 cents for each license issued by them, whether an original or a reissued license, or a duplicate, or a certified copy of a license, and for each application filed with them to be forwarded to the Director. The fee referred to in this paragraph is separate and apart from and in addition to any fees which Licensing Agents may otherwise be authorized to charge for administering oaths. No fees are required to accompany applications filed with the Director, nor are any fees required for the issuance by the Director of an original or a reissued license, or a duplicate, or a certified copy of a license.

Section 301.10 (a) is amended by changing the last sentence to read as follows:

§ 301.10 Issuance of duplicates and certified copies—(a) Licenses lost, destroyed, defaced or stolen. • • • The duplicate shall be given the same number as the original license and shall bear the date of issuance; and the issuing officer shall write upon the stub thereof the words "Duplicate of license No. ------, dated ------," with the serial number and date of the original license filled in.

Sections 301.10 (c) and 301.10 (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 301.10 Issuance of duplicates and certified copies. • • •

(c) Photographic copies of licenses. Copies of a license, clear and distinct, and of the same size as the license, may be made by licensees by any method of photographic reproduction and used by them in lieu of duplicate or certified copies, without any application to or certification by any issuing officer. Licensees themselves shall number all such copies serially, in ink, beginning with the number "1", and shall themselves certify same as copies by writing upon the face thereof, in ink, the words following: "Copy No. ____" with the signature of the licensee, as appearing on the face of the license (by its proper officers if a firm, corporation, or other organization), under the certificate.

(d) Unauthorized copies of licenses. No unauthorized copies of licenses shall be made or kept. Any extra copies of any sort, not certified by a licensing officer, and photographic copies not numbered and certified by the licensee, shall be immediately destroyed.

Section 301.11 (e) is amended by substituting for the second sentence of the second paragraph the following sentences:

§ 301.11 Licensing Agents; instructions. * * * * * *

(e) Publicizing appointments and licensees. * * *

As an alternative to publicizing such names and addresses, Licensing Agents may post notices to the effect that the names and addresses of all licensees and their sponsors, if any, are on file and available to proper parties. A Licensing Agent who posts such notices may require any person desiring the information to present a signed request indicating the reason for the request and shall thereupon grant such request unless there are affirmative reasons which indicate that such request should be disapproved, in which case a report of the incident shall be promptly forwarded to the Director.

Sections 301.12 (d) and 301.12 (e) are amended by substituting for the words "Council of National Defense," the words "Secretary of the Interior."[1]

Section 301.14 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 301.14 Licensees; duties and obligations. * * *

(c) Inspections, investigations, and instructions. Explosives Investigators and other authorized officers of the Bureau of Mines may enter at all times the premises where explosives or ingredients are being used, stored, or handled, for the purpose of inspecting the premises and any operations thereon involving the distribution, use, storage, or handling of explosives and of investigating compliance with the act and regulations. Licensees shall admit such officers upon demand. All reasonable written instructions of said officers regarding the distribution, storage, safekeeping, handling, or use of explosives or ingredients, shall be followed and observed by licensees, unless they appeal within 24 hours from the receipt thereof to the Director, Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C. The maintaining of guards by the licensee at any magazine or place of storage may be a suitable instruction.

[1] Under authority of Executive Order No. 9287, December 24, 1942 (7 F.R. 10900).

Section 301.14 (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 301.14 Licensees; duties and obligations. * * *

(d) Records of transactions. One purpose of the act is to make it possible at all times to know or ascertain the source and the ultimate disposition of all explosives and ingredients covered by the act. To this end licensees must keep a full, detailed and tabulated record of all transactions in or operations involving explosives or ingredients. An accumulation of invoices, sales slips, delivery tickets or receipts, or similar papers representing individual transactions, will not satisfy the requirement for tabulated records, but such papers must be retained by the licensee and furnished to any authorized representative of the Director of the Bureau of Mines upon request as evidence of the accuracy of the tabulated record. Copies of records must be sworn to and furnished to the Director of the Bureau of Mines or his authorized representatives whenever requested. All records or copies thereof required to be kept by a licensee pertaining to explosives or ingredients stored at or sold or delivered from a particular location must be retained by the person having the custody of the explosives or ingredients at that place until such records or sworn copies thereof are furnished to the Director of the Bureau of Mines or his authorized representative.

(1) Manufacturer. The record of a person having a manufacturer's license must include the following information: the amounts and kinds acquired for manufacture, the names and addresses of the persons from whom acquired and the dates on which acquired; the amounts and kinds manufactured and the dates on which manufactured; the amounts and kinds sold or otherwise disposed of, the names, addresses, and the numbers and dates of licenses, of persons to whom sold or otherwise disposed of, the purposes for which sold or otherwise disposed of, and the dates of the sales or other dispositions; and the amounts and kinds on hand at each location at the end of each day on which there are transactions or operations.

(2) Vendor. The record of a person having a vendor's license must include the following information: the amounts and kinds acquired, the names and addresses of the persons from whom acquired and the dates on which acquired; the amounts and kinds sold or otherwise disposed of, the names, addresses, and the numbers and dates of licenses, of persons to whom sold or otherwise disposed of, the purposes for which sold or otherwise disposed of, and the dates of the sales or other dispositions; and the amounts and kinds on hand at each location at the end of each day on which there are transactions or operations.

(3) Purchaser. The record of a person having a purchaser's license must include the following information: The amounts and kinds acquired, the names and addresses of the persons from whom acquired and the dates on which acquired; the amounts and kinds used, the purposes for which used, the places where used and the dates on which used; and the amounts and kinds on hand at each location at the end of each day on which there are transactions or operations.

(4) Foreman. The record of a person having a foreman's license must include the following information: The amounts and kinds acquired, the names and addresses of the persons from whom acquired and the dates on which acquired; the names and addresses of the employees to whom sold or issued or from whom returned and the dates on which and the amounts in which sold, issued or returned; the amounts and kinds on hand at each location at the end of each day on which there are transactions or operations; and such other information as may be required by § 301.20 (d).

(5) Analyst-educator-inventor-investigator. The record of a person having an analyst's-educator's-inventor's-investigator's license must include the same information as is required of a person having a purchaser's license.

Section 301.14 (g) is amended to read as follows:

§ 301.14 Licensees; duties and obligations. * * *

(g) Restrictions on persons handling explosives—(1) Persons prohibited by any other Federal Agency. No licensee shall permit any enemy alien covered by the prohibition referred to in § 301.7 (i), who is under the licensee's direction or control, to use, or have possession, control or custody of explosives or ingredients thereof unless such alien shall have secured the written permission of a United States Attorney.

No licensee shall permit any person, whether a citizen or an alien, who is prohibited by any Federal agency from possessing explosives or component parts thereof, and who is under the licensee's direction or control, to use or have possession, control or custody of explosives or ingredients thereof.

(2) Persons under influence of intoxicants or narcotics. No person while under the influence of intoxicants or narcotics shall enter or attempt to enter a magazine where explosives or ingredients are stored, or transport, use, sell, issue or otherwise dispose of explosives or ingredients. No person shall sell, issue or otherwise dispose of explosives or ingredients to any person who is under the influence of intoxicants or narcotics or permit any such person who is employed by him or who is under his direction or supervision to have the custody, control, or possession of explosives or ingredients or to use, handle or transport explosives or ingredients.

(3) Persons physically or mentally handicapped. No person who is so physically or mentally handicapped that the handling of explosives by him would endanger other persons or their property shall handle explosives, nor shall any person sell, issue or otherwise dispose of explosives to such a person or permit such a person employed by him or under his direction or control to handle explosives.

Section 301.15 is amended to read as follows:

§ 301.15 Sales of explosives and ingredients. These regulations apply to sales made by every manufacturer, vendor, dealer, or other person selling explosives or ingredients of explosives.

(a) Over-the-counter sales. No sale shall be made to anyone who appears in person, except a sale by a foreman to other employees of his employer for use in the operations of the employer, unless the purchaser presents his license or a certified or photographic copy thereof.

(b) Sales by mail. No sale shall be made by mail, telegraph, etc., unless a certified or photographic copy of the license of the person buying the explosives or ingredients is on file in the seller's office.

(c) Sales by traveling salesmen. If the person buying the explosives or ingredients presents his license to a traveling salesman at the time of placing the order, it will not be necessary for him to have a copy on file with the salesman's employer. Such salesman must, however, in forwarding the order to his employer state that a proper license has been presented to him, specifying its kind, number and date of issuance upon the order. These statements must be preserved by the employer as part of the evidence necessary to support the records required to be kept by § 301.14 (d).

Section 301.16 is amended to read as follows:

§ 301.16 Transportation of explosives—(a) Evidence of license on shipping papers. (1) The vendor must plainly mark the number of the consignee's license on the bill of lading and shipping order or on whatever other receipts may be given by the carrier, describing the license as "Federal Explosives License No. ____."

(2) The representatives of the carrier accepting any such shipment of explosives or ingredients shall cause to be indorsed on the waybill or other document covering the shipment the information as to the consignee's license number. This information must also be shown on all waybills or other document covering such shipments issued or used by connecting carriers.

(3) Before making delivery to the consignee the agent of any carrier at the final destination of any shipment shall require the consignee to file with him a certified or photographic copy of the license or to exhibit the original license or a certified or photographic copy thereof, authorizing such consignee to purchase, accept or receive such explosives or ingredients, and such license must correspond with the waybill or other shipping document as to name and number.

(b) Necessity for license. No person, whether as owner, employee, agent, independent contractor, or otherwise, shall transport explosives, except upon the operating premises of a licensee, unless he is individually licensed under the act. The following licenses are proper for a person who transports explosives and who is not otherwise licensed under the act: a purchaser's license if the explosives are for his own use, a foreman's license if the explosives are for his employer's use, and a vendor's license if the explosives are transported for the use of others or carried for hire. No license is required for such transportation of explosives as is covered by the regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Secretary of Commerce, or the Civil Aeronautics Board or for transportation of explosives by, to or for the military services or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(c) Delivery to licensed haulers. Persons delivering explosives for transportation to such haulers as are required to be licensed under paragraph (b) of this section shall deliver the explosives only to licensed haulers.

(d) Delivery to licensed consignees. Haulers transporting explosives, other than for their own or their employer's use, in transportation for which they require a license under paragraph (b), shall deliver the explosives only to licensed consignees or to employees of licensed consignees.

(e) Records. Records shall be kept by all licensees of the names and license numbers of haulers and consignees to whom the deliveries covered by paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section are made, and the date of such deliveries.

Section 301.17 is amended to be read as follows:

§ 301.17 Storage of explosives and ingredients—(a) Protection of storage place. Explosives and ingredients must at all times be adequately protected against theft.

Explosives must be kept in magazines (box or building type) which are properly constructed, safely located and securely locked. Hasps, staples and hinges on magazines must be attached by rivets or by bolts properly washered and with nuts on the inside, or by other equally secure methods.

Except when weather conditions prevent inspections, magazines must be opened and inspected at intervals of not greater than three days by a licensed person for the purpose of determining whether the magazine and its contents are intact and in good order and whether there is any evidence of improper or unauthorized entry or attempted entry to or removal of or tampering with the magazine or its contents.

(b) Marking of premises. The premises on which explosives or ingredients that are in themselves explosive are stored must be conspicuously defined and marked by signs containing the words "Explosives—Keep Off."

(c) Inspection and instructions. Explosives investigators and other designated officers of the Bureau of Mines are authorized to inspect all places where explosives or ingredients are stored, and to instruct the licensee to make such changes in the construction, location or safeguarding as may be necessary for the proper protection of the contents and of the surrounding property. All reasonable written instructions of said officers shall be observed by the licensee unless he appeals within 24 hours from the receipt thereof to the Director, Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C.

(d) License requirements for key to and entry of magazine. No person, as employee, agent, independent contractor or otherwise shall have in his possession a key to a magazine in which explosives are stored unless he is individually licensed under the act. No licensee shall permit any person, whether as employee, agent, independent contractor or otherwise, to have a key to a magazine where the licensee's explosives are kept unless such person is individually licensed under the act.

No person, as employee, agent, independent contractor or otherwise shall enter a magazine in which explosives are stored unless he is individually licensed under the act or is accompanied by a person so licensed. No licensee shall permit any person, whether as employee, agent, independent contractor or otherwise, to enter a magazine where his explosives are stored unless such person is individually licensed under the act or is accompanied by a person so licensed.

This paragraph shall not apply to magazines located at explosives manufacturing plants where the premises on which the magazines are located are fenced or otherwise effectively guarded.

Section 301.19 (b) is amended by substituting for the word "photostatic", the word "photographic".

Section 301.20 (c) is amended by omitting the last sentence of the first paragraph.

Section 301.20 (d) is amended by substituting for the words "paragraph (c)" the words "§ 301.17 (a)".

Section 301.20 is amended by adding the following paragraph:

§301.20 Special instructions for industries using explosives. * * *

(f) Records of explosives in mines. Every licensed owner or operator of a mine shall keep records, through his licensed foreman or by other means, of all explosives taken into and brought out of the mine by each worker at each shift, regardless of the ownership of the explosives.

Section 301.23 is added to the regulations, as follows:

§ 301.23 Reissuance of expired licenses—(a) Applications for annual reissuances of licenses. Applications for reissuances of licenses may be made before the expiration of the licenses to be reissued. They shall be made in the same manner and upon the same forms as are required for original applications at the time of reissuance. An application for a reissued license need not be accompanied by the qualification affidavits referred to in § 301.7 (g) if a previous application, addressed to the same issuing officer, upon which a license was issued was accompanied by qualification affidavits, unless the Licensing Agent or the Director, in his discretion, requests that qualification affidavits be again furnished. Applications by organizations other than partnerships for reissued licenses may incorporate by reference to previous applications, addressed to the same issuing officer, information set out on such applications concerning officers, directors, and controlling members or stockholders, but all differences between such information and the facts existing when applying for reissued licenses must be clearly and specifically set out in applications for reissued licenses.

(b) Failure to comply with the act, regulations or instructions as grounds for refusing to reissue licenses. The Licensing Agent and the Director may take into consideration the applicant's compliance or noncompliance with his duties under the act, the regulations or the instructions issued by the Bureau of Mines or authorized representatives thereof in determining whether the applicant for a reissued license is sufficiently reliable to be qualified to have a license.

(c) Date of issuance. If the application is filed with the Licensing Agent or the Director before the expiration of the license to be reissued, the date of issuance of the reissued license, whenever it is actually issued, shall be the date of such expiration and it shall be marked accordingly. No reissued license shall be issued more than 30 days in advance of the expiration of a license.

If an application is filed after the expiration of the license, the date of any license issued thereon shall be the date when the license was actually issued.

(d) Numbering of application and license. The application for a reissued license and the license issued thereon shall be given new numbers.

(e) Expired license part of records. All expired licenses, together with all certified or photographic copies thereof, shall be retained among the records of the licensee.

[Amendment 118, 2d Ed.]

PART 611—DUTY AND RESPONSIBILITY TO REGISTER

ALIEN'S APPLICATION FOR DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCE

By virtue of the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 885, 50 U.S.C., Sup. 301–318, inclusive); E.O. No. 8545, 5 F.R. 3779, E.O. No. 9279, 7 F.R. 10177, and the authority vested in me by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission in Administrative Order No. 26, 7 F.R. 10512, Selective Service Regulations, Second Edition, are hereby amended in the following respect:

1. Amend § 611.21 to read as follows:

§ 611.21 What aliens may apply for a determination. Any nondeclarant alien who has entered or who hereafter enters the United States in a manner prescribed by its laws, except a nondeclarant alien described in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (8), and (9) of § 611.13 may file with his local board, if he is registered, or with the local board where he is at the time located, if he is not registered, an Alien's Application for Determination of Residence (Form 302); Provided, That such application is filed within three months after the date of his entry into the United States or within three months after persons of his age become liable for training and service by law, whichever is the later; And provided further, That such application is filed prior to induction. An Alien's Personal History and Statement (Form 304) must be filed with such application.

2. The foregoing amendment to the Selective Service Regulations shall be effective immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

PART 621—QUESTIONNAIRE AND OTHER INFORMATION TO BE USED IN CLASSIFYING REGISTRANTS

CLAIMS FOR DEFERMENT, ETC.

By virtue of the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 885, 50 U.S.C., Sup. 301–318, inclusive); E.O. No. 8545, 5 F.R. 3779; E.O. No. 9279, 7 F.R. 10177, and the authority vested in me by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission in Administrative Order No. 26, 7 F.R. 10512, Selective Service Regulations, Second Edition, are hereby amended in the following respect:

1. Amend paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 621.4[1] to read as follows:

§ 621.4 Claims for, or information relating to, deferment. • • •

(b) Any person other than the registrant who has cause to claim that the registrant should be deferred may file with the local board an Affidavit of Dependent Over 18 Years of Age (Form 40A), an Affidavit Occupational Classification (General) (Form 42), an Affidavit-Occupational Classification (Industrial) (Form 42A), or an Occupational Certification (Form 42B), prepared in accordance with the instructions printed on such form. Such affidavits should be filed within the time allowed for the registrant to return his Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40).

(c) Any person so claiming that the registrant should be deferred shall be entitled to present information in support of his claim. Such information should be included in or attached to the Affidavit of Dependent Over 18 Years of Age (Form 40A), the Affidavit-Occupational Classification (General) (Form 42), the Affidavit-Occupational Classification (Industrial) (Form 42A), or the Occupational Certification (Form 42B), and may include any documents, affidavits, or depositions supporting the claim. The affidavits or depositions shall be as concise and brief as possible.

2. The foregoing amendment to the Selective Service Regulations shall be effective immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

1. Amend § 624.1 to read as follows:

§ 624.1 Who may volunteer. Men who have reached the eighteenth anniversary of the day of their birth and who have not reached the thirty-eighth anniversary of the day of their birth may volunteer at the local board for induction into the land or naval forces by filing an application for Voluntary Induction (Form 165).

2. Amend § 624.4 to read as follows:

§ 624.4 Classification of volunteers. When a man files an Application for Voluntary Induction (Form 165) under the provisions of § 624.1, he shall be classified as soon as possible and placed in a class immediately available for military service unless:

(a) Disregarding all other grounds for deferment, he would be classified in Class II-A, Class II-B, or Class II-C;

(b) His induction would result in undue hardship to his dependents;

(c) He is the Vice President of the United States, a Governor of a State, any other State official chosen by the voters of the entire State, a member of the Congress of the United States, a member of a State legislative body, or a judge of a Court of Record of the United States or of a State; required to be deferred by law; or

(d) Under the provisions of § 622.61 or § 622.62, he is found to be morally, physically, or mentally unfit.

Chapter IV—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040; 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 819 and 507, 77th Cong.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 11A]

PRP FOR SECOND QUARTER OF 1943

§ 944.32A Priorities Regulation 11A—(a) Purpose. The Second Quarter of 1943 is the transition period from the Production Requirements Plan to the Controlled Materials Plan. In order to insure the receipt of materials by manufacturers during the transitional period, authorizations will be made under the Production Requirements Plan and under the Controlled Materials Plan. Preference ratings will be authorized under PRP as provided herein and in addition, most manufacturers will receive allotments under the Controlled Materials Plan. It is therefore essential that the utmost care be observed by manufacturers not to duplicate their orders for materials under both authorizations, and it is the purpose of this regulation to provide priorities assistance to PRP Units during this transition period and to require reductions in PRP authorizations or CMP allotments to the extent necessary to eliminate duplication.

(b) Definitions. (1) The definitions contained in Priorities Regulation No. 11 and CMP Regulation No. 1 shall apply to this regulation.

(2) "PRP rating" means any preference rating which a PRP Unit is entitled to apply pursuant to authorizations on a PRP certificate or pursuant to paragraph (c) of this regulation.

(3) "First quarter production material rating" means a preference rating assigned to a PRP Unit for production materials (as distinguished from supplies as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 11) on its PRP certificates for the first quarter of 1943.

(4) "CMP rating" means a preference rating which a person is authorized to apply or extend under the Controlled Materials Plan.

(5) "Listed production material" means any listed material, as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 11, which constitutes production material as defined therein.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation, any person who is a PRP Unit as of March 31, 1943, shall continue to be deemed a PRP Unit through June 30, 1943, or until such time as he ceases entirely to operate under the Production Requirements Plan.

(c) Assignment of ratings to production materials. Subject to the restrictions contained in paragraph (d) of this Regulation:

(1) Each PRP Unit may apply its first quarter production material ratings to the delivery to it of not more than 40% during April, 1943, nor 70% during the entire second quarter of 1943 of the total amount of each listed material which was authorized on its first quarter PD-25A certificate and on any first quarter PD-25F certificates issued prior to March 1, 1943, such percentages to be applied after deducting from such total the amount of each such material received or scheduled to be received during said first quarter for supplies.

(2) In addition, unless otherwise specifically directed by the Director General for Operations by March 31, 1943, each PRP Unit may, during the second quarter of 1943, apply its first quarter production material ratings to deliveries in the quarter of the remaining 30% of said authorized quantities of listed production materials, computed as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c).

(3) Each PRP Unit may apply its first quarter production material ratings to the delivery during the second quarter of 1943 of production materials (including listed fabricated items) other than listed materials, but only in the quantities and at the rate necessary to maintain the production schedules permitted by the quantities of listed materials it is authorized to receive as a PRP Unit.

(4) CMP Ratings may be applied or extended as provided in CMP Regulation No. 3.

(d) Elimination of duplications under PRP and CMP—(1) Controlled materials. If a PRP Unit receives an allotment of controlled material under CMP, to the delivery of which it is authorized to apply PRP ratings under paragraph (c) of this regulation, it must reduce the amount to which it applies such PRP ratings by the amount of such material which it obtains for its own use by means of the allotment, but need not, unless it included the requirements of secondary consumers in its first quarter PRP application, deduct the portion thereof which it allots to its secondary consumers producing Class A products for it. If, at the time of receiving its allotment, it has already received by use of the PRP rating or otherwise any or all its requirements of controlled material for the production schedule for which the allotment is made, or elects to obtain the same by PRP rating, it must reduce or cancel the allotment as provided in paragraph (v) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) Other materials and fabricated items. If a PRP Unit is authorized to apply a CMP rating to the same material (other than a controlled material) or fabricated item to which it is authorized to apply a PRP rating for delivery during the second quarter, it may apply either rating to the quantity authorized therefor, but may not apply ratings under both authorizations to more than is covered by the greater of the two authorizations.

(e) Quantitative restrictions as to receipt of listed production materials. No PRP Unit shall accept delivery during the second quarter of 1943 of any listed production material in excess of the amount thereof to which it is entitled to apply preference ratings pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this regulation, except that a PRP Unit may accept deliveries of:

(1) Any materials to the extent that it is permitted by paragraph (e) of Priorities Regulation No. 11 to accept deliveries in excess of the amounts authorized on its PRP certificates.

(2) Aluminum, magnesium, alloy steel (including stainless steel), and copper, in the forms specified in Materials List No. 1 Revised accompanying the first quarter Form PD-25A, in quantities approved for delivery to the PRP Unit by the Aluminum and Magnesium Division, the Steel Division or the Copper Division, respectively.

(3) Listed production materials to the extent required to meet a production schedule authorized under the Controlled Materials Plan.

(f) Quantitative restrictions as to receipt of other materials and products. A PRP Unit may receive during the second quarter of 1943 production materials in the form of fabricated items (whether listed or not) and in the form of materials other than listed materials, in the amounts to which it is entitled to apply preference ratings under paragraph (c) (3) of this regulation or in the amounts required to meet a production schedule authorized under the Controlled Materials Plan.

(g) Advance quarter authorizations. A PRP Unit which has received, on a PRP certificate for the first quarter of 1943, an advance quarter authorization for the second quarter of 1943 may, as to any particular material, elect to use the ratings thereby authorized for the amounts therein specified in lieu of the ratings and amounts permitted by paragraphs (c) and (d) of this regulation. A PRP Unit which has placed rated purchase orders for delivery in the third quarter of 1943, or any subsequent quarter, pursuant to an advance quarter authorization on a PRP certificate, need not cancel or rerate the same, except as otherwise expressly provided in any regulation or order of the Director General for Operations, and may receive delivery of the materials or fabricated items covered by such purchase orders, subject to any applicable regulations or orders of the War Production Board.

(h) Maintenance, repair and operating supplies. A PRP Unit may, prior to the third business day after the date of issuance of CMP Regulation No. 5, apply to the delivery to it of supplies (as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 11) during the second quarter of 1943 the same ratings authorized on its PRP certificates for the first quarter of 1943, in amounts not exceeding the amounts of such supplies actually received or scheduled for receipt during the first quarter. After said third business day, a PRP Unit may apply to maintenance, repair and operating supplies (as defined in CMP Regulation No. 5 only the ratings and only to the amounts authorized by said regulation and may rerate deliveries previously rated pursuant to this paragraph (h).

(i) PD-25F applications. A PRP Unit which finds that the authorizations provided by this regulation and by the Controlled Materials Plan are insufficient to cover the quantities of materials required during the second quarter for essential production may file an application on Form PD-25F for an increased authorization. Such authorizations will not be granted to consumers of controlled materials unless it appears that allotments under the Controlled Materials Plan will not be received in time to obtain the materials required for the production contemplated under the Plan.

(j) Applicability of priorities Regulation 12. Wherever a rating is applied pursuant to the provisions of this regulation to a delivery to which another rating has previously been applied, such rerating shall be effected in the manner provided in paragraphs (g) and (h) of Priorities Regulation 12 and subject to the limitations contained in paragraph (i) of said regulation.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Amendment 1 to Priorities Regulation 11, as Amended Nov. 16, 1942]

Section 944.32 Priorities Regulation 11 is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Every Class 1 producer shall file a PRP application for the first quarter of 1943, except that no application shall be required of any person who becomes a Class 1 producer after December 31, 1942. Applications for the first quarter of 1943 shall be filed not later than October 25, 1942, or in the case of a person who was not a Class 1 producer as of October 15, 1942, as promptly after October 25, 1942, as possible. No person is required to file a PRP application for the second quarter of 1943 or for any subsequent quarter except as specifically directed by the Director General for Operations. The Director General for Operations may specifically require other persons to file such applications from time to time, and may also exempt particular Class 1 producers from the requirements of this paragraph or extend or advance their time for filing PRP applications. Any other processors of materials desiring priority assistance on a quarterly basis may also, with the consent of the Director General for Operations, qualify under the Production Requirements Plan, although not required to do so by this regulation.

2. Subparagraph (2) of paragraph (d) is amended to read as follows:

(2) A PRP unit may apply to deliveries of material during the second quarter of 1943 and thereafter, the ratings assigned or permitted in Priorities Regulation No. 11A.

3. Subparagraph (4) of paragraph (d) is deleted.

4. Paragraph (e) is amended by adding the following subparagraph (6):

(6) A PRP unit may, during the second quarter of 1943 and thereafter, accept delivery of listed materials or listed fabricated items to the extent permitted by Priorities Regulation No. 11A.

5. Paragraph (i) is amended to the extent that the first sentence thereof shall read as follows:

(i) Interim procedure. During the interim between filling a PRP application for a particular quarter and receipt of the PRP certificate for such quarter a person may apply or extend preference ratings for delivery during such quarter, and, in case he shall have submitted advance quarter applications, may on or before February 2, 1943, but not thereafter, apply or extend preference ratings for delivery during only the first advance quarter, as follows:

6. Paragraph (j) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) No person shall be required by the provisions of this paragraph (j), however, to cancel any order or portion thereof calling for delivery during the first twenty-one days of November 1942 or during the first twenty-one days of January 1943, of any listed material, if the producer thereof certifies in writing to such person (i) that substitution of other orders, or diversion of the material to fill other orders (even if such other orders call for later delivery or carry a lower rating) is impossible, and (ii) that the production of such material has been completed or that cancellation would disrupt the producer's production schedules and result in substantially diminished production. Nothing herein contained, however, shall relieve a PRP unit from the obligation of cancelling or postponing delivery under other orders calling for delivery of similar material during the quarter, as to which no certification is received, to the extent necessary to bring the total receipts of such material during the quarter within the quantities authorized on its PRP certificates.

7. Paragraph (n) is deleted.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1026—PRODUCTION OF CHEMICALS, MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND OPERATING SUPPLIES

[Preference Rating Order P-89, as Amended Jan. 30, 1943]

Section 1026.1 Preference Rating Order P-89 is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

§ 1026.1 Preference Rating Order P-89—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Producer" means any person (provided he shall have received a serial number from the War Production Board in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) (1) hereof) operating a plant physically situated within the limits of the United States, its territories and possessions, or the Dominion of Canada, and actually engaged in the production of chemicals.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(3) "Schedule A material" means any material listed in Schedule A appended hereto and made a part hereof.

(4) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue the working condition of the producer's plant at its then current rate of production.

(5) "Repair" means the restoration of the producer's plant to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts, or the like, have made it unfit or unsafe for service.

(6) "Operating supplies" means any material which is essential to the operation of the producer's plant including, but not limited to, lubricants, fuels, catalysts, and small perishable tools; provided, however, that the term operating supplies shall not include:

(i) Any material which is physically or chemically incorporated, at any stage of production, in whole or in part, into any material which the producer manufactures.

(ii) Any material which, at any stage of production, enters into the chemical reaction necessary to the manufacture, or is used in the purification (including, among other things, washes, solvents, extractants and the like) of any material which the producer manufactures.

(7) Material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies shall include:

(i) Material which would be carried on the producer's books as maintenance, repair, operating supplies or the equivalent in the producer's established method of bookkeeping.

(ii) Material for the improvement of the producer's plant through the replacement of material in the existing installation, but only when such equipment is beyond economical repair, or through minor additions of material in the existing installation to increase efficiency or production capacity.

but shall not include

(iii) Material for additions to, or expansions of, the producer's plant.

(b) Assignment of preference ratings. Subject to the terms of this order, and provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of any other or higher rating to which the producer shall be entitled by reason of any priorities regulation or of any other preference rating certificate or order, the following preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries to the producer of material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies:

(1) Up to and including AA-2X to deliveries of Schedule A materials.

(2) Up to and including AA-5 to deliveries of material not included in Schedule A, appended.

(3) Such other preference ratings as the Director General for Operations may from time to time assign to particular orders for any material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies, upon application by the producer to the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: P-89, by letter or telegram, stating plant location and serial number, material needed, the weight, value and function of such material, amount of such material (or equivalent substitute) in inventory, name and address of supplier (if known), purchase order number and date, product or products affected, percentage curtailment of production, nature of the emergency, rating requested and delivery date promised by supplier on basis of rating requested.

(c) Ratings for containers. The producer shall not apply ratings pursuant to paragraph (b) to orders for containers, drums and other packages, whether for intra or extra plant deliveries and whether returnable or not, or for materials to seal, fasten or be physically incorporated therein, with the exception of materials for maintenance and repair of pressure cylinders; but the producer may apply to the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: Chemicals Packaging Section, for special ratings under this order for such containers or container parts.

(d) Conditions on assignment of ratings. The preference ratings assigned by or pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) are assigned subject to the following conditions:

(1) That the producer shall have filed with the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: P-89, a statement (in triplicate) properly executed on Form PD-315, and shall have received from the War Production Board a serial number under this order.

(2) That the producer shall apply the ratings assigned by or pursuant to paragraph (b) to deliveries of material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies only for that portion of his productive facilities to which a serial number under this order has been assigned.

(3) That the producer shall not apply any preference rating under subparagraphs (b) (1) or (2) to fabricated parts and equipment having a unit cost of $250.00 or more. Parts and equipment, and components thereof, which are ordered for use together shall be treated as a single unit for the purpose of determining unit cost in this subparagraph.

(4) That the producer shall not apply any preference rating hereunder unless the material to be delivered cannot be secured when required with a lower rating.

(5) That the producer shall not apply any preference rating hereunder to obtain scarce material if its use can be eliminated without serious loss of efficiency by substitution of less scarce material or by simplification of design.

(e) Application and extension of ratings. (1) Preference ratings assigned by or pursuant to this order shall be applied by the producer and extended by his supplier in accordance with the terms of Priorities Regulation No. 3, as now or hereafter amended.

(2) To the extent that the producer applies ratings under this order, the restrictions imposed by Priorities Regulation No. 3 upon extension of ratings, as distinguished from application of ratings, are not applicable.

(3) To the extent that the producer extends ratings for maintenance, repair and operating supplies under Priorities Regulation No. 3, instead of applying ratings pursuant to this order, the producer shall be subject to the restrictions imposed by Priorities Regulation No. 3 with respect to extension of ratings for maintenance, repair and operating supplies under that regulation, and, in addition, shall be subject to the limitations imposed by paragraphs (g) and (h) of this order.

(f) Reports. In addition to such other reports as may from time to time be required by the Director General for Operations, the producer shall file with the War Production Board a report on Form PD-762, in the manner prescribed therein, on or before February 20, 1943, and on or before April 23, 1943, and the twenty-third day of each calendar quarter thereafter.

(g) Special restrictions. On the basis of reports filed by the producer on Form PD-762 the Director General for Operations at his discretion may issue special directions to the producer limiting the amount of particular materials for maintenance, repair or operating supplies which the producer may acquire, with or without preference rating assistance.

(h) Inventory. The producer shall not accept deliveries (whether rated hereunder or not) of material for maintenance, repair or operating supplies which will increase the inventory of stores available to the producer for such purpose to an amount greater than the minimum necessary for maintenance and repair and to sustain the current level of operations of the producer.

(i) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of War Production Board priorities regulations, as amended from time to time.

(2) PRP units. The producer shall not be subject to any restrictions imposed by this order during the period that the producer is prohibited from exercising the privilege of applying ratings for maintenance, repair and operating supplies pursuant to this order by reason of his having qualified as a PRP Unit pursuant to Priorities Regulation No. 11 as amended from time to time.

(3) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time as to the producer. In the event of revocation, deliveries already rated pursuant to this order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications of the rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the producer affected by such revocation.

(4) Records. In addition to the records required to be kept under Priorities Regulation No. 1, the producer placing any purchase order or contract rated hereunder, shall retain, for a period of two years, for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, whether accepted or rejected, segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated for such inspection.

(5) Conservation and standardization. Every person affected by this order shall use his best efforts to effectuate conservation of materials by elimination, simplification or standardization of types, sizes or forms or otherwise, and shall cooperate in any program developed for such purpose by the War Production Board. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue specific directions as to conservation, elimination and standardization.

(6) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(7) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(8) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: P-89.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE A

(Attached to Preference Rating Order P-89, as Amended January 30, 1943)

Iron
Carbon steel
Alloy steel
Stainless steel
Aluminum
Magnesium
Copper—in bare or insulated wire or cable
Copper—as rods, bars, sheet, strip, tubing or pipe
Copper base alloys—as wire, rods, bars, sheet, strip, tubing or pipe
Copper and copper base alloy castings
Nickel (other than as an alloying element)
Monel
Tin
Lead
Zinc
Other unfabricated metals
Wood (lumber or plywood)
Rubber (including synthetic)
Fabricated parts and equipment

All of the above headings, except wood, rubber and fabricated parts and equipment, refer to materials in the forms specified in the Metals List of Priorities Regulation No. 11, as amended from time to time.

"Copper base alloy" shall include any alloy (such as brass, bronze, admiralty or muntz metal) in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40% of the total weight of the alloy.

PART 1095—COMMUNICATIONS

[General Conservation Order L-204 as Amended Jan. 30, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage of materials for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1095.20 General Conservation Order L-204—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, receiver or any form of enterprise whatsoever, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Telephone set" means an assemblage of apparatus including a telephone transmitter, a telephone receiver, and their immediately associated devices and wiring for use in telephone communication (including intercommunicating telephones and systems). It shall not include any telephone set the design and construction of which is substantially different from the telephone sets which have been heretofore manufactured and sold as standard telephone sets, and which has been so designed and constructed as to meet unusual and special requirements for use in combat or for combat equipment, and which is manufactured for delivery to and for the account of:

(i) The Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Administration; or

(ii) The government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom, including its dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates, and Yugoslavia; or

(iii) Any other country, including those of the Western Hemisphere, now or hereafter designated, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures or assembles telephone sets. It shall not include any person to the extent that he is engaged in the repair or reconditioning of used telephone sets.

(4) "Factory sales value" means the aggregate net value of all sales of telephone sets including both domestic sales and sales for export, produced by a manufacturer at his regular selling price.

(b) General restrictions. (1) Each manufacturer shall limit his production of telephone sets:

(i) During the fifteen-day period beginning on the 17th day of October, 1942, and ending on the 31st day of October, 1942, to 4% of the total factory sales value of telephone sets produced by him in the calendar year 1941.

(ii) During the second fifteen-day period beginning on the 1st day of November, 1942, and ending on the 15th day of November, 1942, to 2% of the total factory sales value of telephone sets produced by him in the calendar year 1941.

(2) No manufacturer shall produce telephone sets on or after the 16th day of November, 1942.

(c) Records. All manufacturers affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning production and sales of telephone sets.

(d) Reports. Each manufacturer affected by this order shall file such reports and questionnaires with the War Production Board as may from time to time be required by the Director General for Operations.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from process or use of, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Communications. All reports to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to: War Production Board, Communications Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: L-204.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1162—DYESTUFFS AND ORGANIC PIGMENTS

[Conservation Order M-103, as Amended Jan. 30, 1943]

§ 1162.1 Conservation Order M-103—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of all the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Dyestuffs and organic pigments" means any coloring matter with the exception of coloring matter the chemical constituents whereof are entirely inorganic in nature, and shall not include inorganic pigments which may be extended or otherwise processed with resinates, dispersing agents, or other substantially colorless organic material.

(2) "Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments" means the anthraquinone vat dyes appearing on List A attached hereto.

(3) "Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments" means all anthraquinone vat dyes other than those appearing on List A, and shall also include Fast Red A. L. Salt, which shall be considered an anthraquinone vat dye of single strength.

(4) "Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments" means all anthraquinone dyes other than anthraquinone vat dyes.

(5) "Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments" means all dyestuffs and organic pigments which:

(i) Are not Class A, Class B or Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments, and

(ii) Are not derived from vegetable or animal sources, and

(iii) Are synthesized or produced in whole or in part from benzene, aniline, toluene, phthalic anhydride, phenols, cresols, xylonols, or derivatives of any of the foregoing.

(6) "1943 dollar value" means the dollar value computed from the domestic consumers contract sales price as of January 1, 1943.

(7) "Continental United States" means the 48 states, the District of Columbia and the Territory of Alaska.

(c) Restrictions on sale, purchase and use—(1) Class A. Except in the case of sales and deliveries for export within the limitations prescribed in paragraph (d), and except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall sell, deliver, accept delivery of, or use any Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments.

(2) Class B. Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, deliver to any other person or persons for use in the continental United States or Canada an amount of Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of 15% of the amount of Class A and Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered by such person to all other persons in the year 1941 for such use.

Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter accept delivery of, for use in the continental United States or Canada, an amount of Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of 15% of the amount of Class A and Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered by such person from all sources in the year 1941 for such use.

For the purposes of this subparagraph, amounts of Class A and Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments shall be calculated in pounds of equivalent single strength anthraquinone vat dyes and shall be raised, but only to the extent necessary, to equal 25 pounds or a multiple thereof.

(3) Class C. Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, deliver to any other person or persons for use in the continental United States or Canada a total 1943 dollar value of Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of 15% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered by such person to all other persons in the year 1941 for such use.

Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, accept delivery of, for use in the continental United States or Canada, a total 1943 dollar value of Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of $100, or 15% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered to such person from all sources in the year 1941, for such use, whichever is higher.

(4) Class D. Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, deliver to any other person or persons for use in the continental United States or Canada a total 1943 dollar value of Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of 15% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered by such person to all other persons in the year 1941 for such use.

Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, accept delivery of, for use in the continental United States or Canada, a total 1943 dollar value of Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of $100, or 15% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered by such person from all sources in the year 1941 for such use, whichever is higher.

In determining the 1943 dollar value of dry and wet dispersions of organic pigments for the purposes of this subparagraph, only the organic pigment content of such dispersions shall be considered and the value of such content shall be based on the 1943 dollar value of a comparable dry pigment.

(5) Use by producer of own dyestuffs. For the purposes of subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph amounts of dyestuffs and organic pigments of his own production which are, or have been, used by any person in any calendar quarter, or in the year 1941, shall be considered as having been delivered to such person in the calendar quarter, or the year 1941, as the case may be.

(d) Restrictions on export—(1) General restrictions. No producer shall sell for export from the continental United States to any country other than Canada any dyestuffs and organic pigments produced by him except that any producer may sell for such export upon orders accompanied by individual export licenses issued by the Board of Economic Warfare, the applications for which show thereon the corresponding current domestic sales price of the dyestuffs and organic pigments to be exported, or upon orders covered by general export licenses, a total amount of dyestuffs and organic pigments in each calendar quarter, the total 1943 dollar value of which is not in excess of:

(i) ¾% of the total 1943 dollar value of dyestuffs and organic pigments sold by him in the year 1941, plus

(ii) 17% of the total 1943 dollar value of dyestuffs and organic pigments sold for export in the year 1941 to all countries other than Canada.

(2) Further restrictions on Class A, B, and C dyestuffs. The amount of Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments produced by him which a producer may sell for export in any calendar quarter within the limits prescribed in subparagraph (1) shall not exceed ¾% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments sold by him in the year 1941; and the total amount of Class A, Class B and Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments produced by him which a producer may sell for export in any calendar quarter shall not exceed 2% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class A, Class B, and Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments sold by him in the year 1941.

(3) Carry-over of unused portion of export quota. Any amounts of dyestuffs and organic pigments of any class which a producer may sell for export in the first calendar quarter of 1943, or any subsequent calendar quarter, within the provisions of subparagraphs (1) and (2), and which are not sold for export within such quarter may be carried over to the following quarter or quarters and operate to increase the corresponding quota for such class for such subsequent quarter or quarters to that extent. For the purposes of this subparagraph, all dyestuffs and organic pigments other than Class A, Class B and Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments shall be considered one class.

(e) Treatment of mixtures of dyestuffs. In the case of physical mixtures of dyestuffs and organic pigments of different classes, as defined in paragraph (b), containing a component or components of one class to the extent of at least 90% of the 1943 dollar value of such mixture, such mixtures shall be considered for the purposes of this order as belonging in entirety to the class to which the said component or components belong. In the case of all other physical mixtures of dyestuffs and organic pigments, the classes of components shall be considered separately.

(f) General exceptions. The prohibitions and restrictions of paragraphs (c) and (d) shall not apply to:

(1) Sales and deliveries of dyestuffs and organic pigments to the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the War Shipping Administration, the Defense Plant Corporation, the Government Printing Office or the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, or to the Government of Canada, or to any agency of the United States Government for delivery to any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), or

(2) Sales or deliveries of dyestuffs and organic pigments to any person for use in the manufacture of any item which is being produced under a specific contract or subcontract for any of the agencies mentioned in subparagraph (1) or the government of Canada, and the use for such manufacture but only to the extent required by the specifications of the prime contract, or

(3) Sales and deliveries of dyestuffs and organic pigments for use in, or resale for use in, and such use in, the manufacture of products to be physically incorporated in uniforms for:

(i) Officers and enlisted personnel of the Army and Navy of the United States (including the Marine Corps and Coast Guard), including nurses.

(ii) U. S. Government military and naval academy and training school students.

(iii) U. S. Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration officers.

(iv) U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey officers.

(v) U. S. Public Health Service officers and nurses, or

(4) Sales and deliveries to any person of amounts of dyestuffs and organic pigments to replace in inventory amounts of dyestuffs and organic pigments which, although not acquired for any of the uses referred to in subparagraphs (2) and (3), were nevertheless used for one of such purposes.

(5) Sales and deliveries of dyestuffs and organic pigments by or from a producer or his exclusive sales agent to another producer or the exclusive sales agent of such other producer, or

(6) Sales to, deliveries to, and use by any person for coloring of gasoline, Provided, however, That all sales and deliveries of dyestuffs and organic pigments exempted from the prohibitions and restrictions of paragraphs (c) and (d) by subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph shall be made only upon the receipt by the vendor from the purchaser of a certificate signed by such purchaser, or by a person authorized to sign in his behalf, in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned hereby certifies to his vendor and to the War Production Board that the amount of dyestuffs and organic pigments to be delivered on the annexed purchase order will be used for one or more of the purposes specified in paragraph (f) of Conservation Order M-103, or will replace inventory so used.

(g) Restrictions on use of meta-toluylene diamine. No person shall use any meta-toluylene diamine in the developing of diazotized dyes already present on textile fibers; Provided, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit the use of meta-toluylene diamine in the manufacture of dyestuffs and organic pigments. The term "meta-toluylene diamine" as used in this paragraph (g) shall include, without being limited to, the products commonly known in the trade as Amanil

Developer B, Pontamine Developer TN, Developer D, Developer DB, Developer MT, Developer MTD or Developer TD.

(h) Restrictions on use of anthraquinone. No person shall use any anthraquinone in any physical form in discharging stripping or destroying napthol (azoic), vat, or other dyes already present on textile fibers: Provided, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit the use of anthraquinone in the manufacture of dyestuffs and organic pigments. The term "discharging" as used in this paragraph (h), shall include, without being limited to, color and white discharge printing.

(i) Restrictions on use of annato and extracts. No person shall use any annato or annato extracts for the purpose of coloring any materials other than food products.

(j) Restrictions on inventory. In addition to the restrictions on inventory contained in Priorities Regulation No. 1 (§ 944.14), no person using dyestuffs shall hereafter purchase or accept delivery of any Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments which will increase his inventory thereof beyond an amount which, to the best of his knowledge and belief, will be used by him in the next 45 days; except that, notwithstanding the provisions of such regulations and this paragraph (j), any person purchasing directly from the Defense Supplies Corporation may hold as inventory any amount of Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments so purchased: Provided, however, That such amounts purchased from the Defense Supplies Corporation shall be taken into account in determining the size of inventory insofar as purchases and deliveries from other persons are concerned.

(k) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries. No person shall hereafter sell or deliver any dyestuffs and organic pigments to any person, if he knows, or has reason to believe, such material is to be used in violation of the terms of this order.

(l) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be required by the said Board from time to time. No reports or questionnaires are to be filed by any person until forms therefor have been prescribed by the War Production Board.

(m) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(n) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Communications to the War Production Board. All communications concerning this order, or any reports required to be filed hereunder shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., Reference: M-103.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1206—HORSEHIDE

[Supplementary Order M-141-c]

Pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) of Order M-141 as amended to November 4, 1942, which this order supplements, the Director General for Operations hereby determines that:

§ 1206.4 Supplementary Order M-141-c. During February, 1943, no tanner shall put in process and no converter shall cause to be put in process for his account:

(a) More than 100% of his basic monthly quota of wet salted horsehide fronts.

(b) More than 80% of his basic monthly quota of horsehide butts.

(c) More than 80% of his basic monthly quota of horsehide shanks.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

PART 1244—INSTRUMENTS, VALVES, AND REGULATORS USED IN INDUSTRIAL PROCESSES

[Conservation Order L-134, as Amended Jan. 30, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of chromium and nickel for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1244.1 Conservation Order L-134.—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person manufacturing any industrial instrument, instrument end, instrument connection, control valve, or regulator as defined below, to the extent he is engaged in such manufacture; and includes sales and distribution outlets controlled by such manufacturer.

(3) "Dealer" means any person primarily engaged in the business of selling or distributing industrial instruments, control valves, or regulators, whether at wholesale, retail, or otherwise, but does not include sales and distribution outlets controlled by a manufacturer.

(4) "Industrial instrument" means any type of indicating, recording or measuring, or controlling instrument ordinarily used in industrial processes and containing an instrument connection listed in subparagraph (5) below, or an instrument end listed in subparagraph (6) below; except "laboratory equipment" as defined in Order L-144.

(5) "Instrument connection" means any of the following, to the extent used with or in an industrial instrument, if fabricated in whole or in part from nickel, chromium, or any alloy thereof: capillary tubing having an internal diameter of .025" or less; protective armor tubing; tubes or springs (pressure measuring systems); diaphragms or bellows (pressure measuring systems except differential measuring systems) and extension lead wire.

(6) "Instrument end" means any of the following to the extent used with or in an industrial instrument, if fabricated in whole or in part from nickel, chromium, or any alloy thereof; sockets, wells, protecting tubes, sheaths and target tubes; liquid level floats, float rods, float cages and flanges, expansion and immersion tubes; venturi tubes; cleanout valve trim and liner for use with venturi tubes; flow nozzles; orifice plates; orifice meter accessories; thermocouples and thermocouple wire; temperature bulbs (fluid filled tube system type); bushings and revolving or coupling nuts; safety shutters and switches for radiation pyrometers; contact rods for flame control; straightening vanes; studs for differential pressure chambers; conductivity cells for measuring conductivity of fluids; pitot tubes; and flexible and rigid extension stems for temperature bulbs.

(7) "Control valve" means any glove or butterfly type valve, the inner portion of which is automatically positioned by pneumatic, hydraulic, or electric motive power, containing any of the parts listed in paragraphs (d) (1), (2), (3) and (5), provided such parts are fabricated in whole or in part from nickel or chromium, or any alloy thereof. The term shall not include any type of gate valve or slide valve.

(8) "Regulator" means any self-operated or integral pilot operated type valve used to control temperature, pressure above 25 p. s. i., pressure where inlet pressure is above 25 p. s. i. flow or liquid level, and containing any of the parts listed in paragraphs (d) (1), (2), (3), and (5), provided such parts are fabricated in whole or in part from nickel or chromium, or any alloy thereof.

(9) [Revoked January 30, 1943.]

(b) General restrictions. (1) On and after September 9, 1942, no manufacturer shall knowingly put in process any chromium, nickel, or alloy thereof, in the production of any instrument end, instrument connection, industrial instrument containing an instrument end or instrument connection, control valve, or regulator, except for use under such operating conditions, if any, as may be specified in paragraphs (c) or (d): Provided, however, That the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to such items sold to another manufacturer or dealer for resale, or to items sold for use in a foreign country (except Canada).

(2) On and after September 9, 1942, no manufacturer or dealer shall knowingly deliver, and no person shall accept delivery of, any instrument end, instrument connection, industrial instrument containing an instrument end or instrument connection, control valve, or regulator, except for use under such operating conditions, if any, as may be specified in paragraph (c) or (d): Provided, however, That the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to deliveries by a manufacturer to another manufacturer or dealer for resale, or to deliveries of any item to be used in a foreign country (except Canada).

(3) On and after September 9, 1942, no manufacturer shall put in process any chromium, nickel, or alloy thereof for the production of any instrument end, instrument connection, industrial instrument containing an instrument end or instrument connection, control valve, or regulator except in accordance with the specifications enumerated in paragraph (c) or (d).

(4) On and after September 9, 1942, no manufacturer or dealer shall accept an order for, or deliver, and no person shall accept delivery of any instrument end, instrument connection, industrial instrument containing an instrument end or instrument connection, control valve, or regulator, except pursuant to a preference rating of A-1-c or better: Provided, however, That the limitations and restrictions of this paragraph (b) (4) shall not apply to:

(i) Any order accepted by a manufacturer or dealer prior to September 9, 1942, and bearing a preference rating of A-10 or better, or

(ii) Any order for maintenance and repair purposes, bearing a preference rating of A-8 or better, or

(iii) Any order by and for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, or the Office of Scientific Research and Development.

(5) No person shall accept delivery of any instrument end, instrument connection, industrial instrument containing an instrument end or instrument connection, control valve, or regulator for use, unless based upon experience records he expects to install the item which is being delivered, and all similar items on hand, within the next 90 days.

(6) Certification to be furnished. (i) Each person (other than a manufacturer or dealer acquiring the item for resale or any person purchasing the item for use in a foreign country, except Canada) receiving delivery of an instrument end, instrument connection, industrial instrument containing an instrument end or instrument connection, control valve, or regulator, shall certify to the manufacturer or dealer from whom he receives such delivery, as a condition to receiving delivery, the following on the purchase order, or in a separate letter:

The undersigned hereby certifies that will be used under the operating conditions permitted for such items under the terms of Conservation Order L-134. The operating conditions under which the items will be used are:

(here fill in items ordered)

Here fill in operating conditions, if any (by reference to paragraph of order) for which items will be used.

---------- Company

By ----------

Provided, however, That such certification shall be required only where a limitation on the use of the item in question is prescribed in an operating condition specified in paragraph (c) or (d), except where otherwise provided in paragraph (c) or (d).

(ii) No person shall make a delivery under this paragraph (b) who has reason to believe that the person accepting delivery has furnished a false certification; and no person shall falsely furnish the certification specified above. The certification specified above shall constitute a representation to the Director General for Operations, War Production Board, of the facts certified therein.

(7) Nothing in this order shall be construed to place any restriction upon any instrument, valve or regulator, or part thereof, unless such instrument, valve, regulator or part thereof contains nickel, chromium, or any alloy thereof (not including plating); or upon any instrument, valve, regulator or part thereof which was manufactured prior to May 26, 1942.

(8) The provisions of this order shall not apply to any instrument end, instrument connection, industrial instrument containing an instrument end or instrument connection, control valve, or regulator to be incorporated in, or used exclusively on board a vessel of the Army or Navy of the United States.

(c) Operating conditions and specifications for instrument ends, instrument connections, and industrial instruments containing instrument ends or connections. Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) hereof, the production and delivery of the following instrument ends, instrument connections, and industrial instruments containing instrument ends or instrument connections shall be governed by the following operating conditions and specifications:

(1) Capillary tubing having an internal diameter of .025" or less—(i) Operating conditions. Capillary tubing having an internal diameter of .025" or less shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A paragraph 1; capillary tubing for use with a mercury filled thermal system may be delivered for use under any operating condition.

(ii) Specifications. Capillary tubing having an internal diameter of .025" or less shall be manufactured from a metal whose nickel and chromium alloy content does not exceed that of Type 347 metal and shall be manufactured in the following four sizes only: .06" x .007"; .06" x .011"; .06 x .017"; .06" x .025".

(2) Protective armor tubing—(i) Operating conditions. Protective armor tubing shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraph 1.

(ii) Specifications. Protective armor tubing shall be manufactured in lengths not in excess of 6" at either the instrument or bulb.

(3) Tubes and springs (Pressure measuring systems)—(i) Operating conditions. Tubes or springs for pressure measuring systems may be delivered for any use, but certification of operating conditions shall be required where delivery is for the use described in List A, paragraphs 1 or 2.

(ii) Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy content of such tubes or springs shall not exceed 6% chromium (with no nickel): Provided, however,

That for use under the operating conditions described in List A, paragraphs 1 or 2, the total nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 32%.

(4) Diaphragms or bellows. (Pressure measuring systems except differential measuring systems)—Operating conditions. Diaphragms or bellows for pressure measuring systems (except differential measuring systems) shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 or 2.

(5) Sockets, wells, protecting tubes, sheaths and target tubes. The operating temperatures specified below shall be deemed part of the operating conditions for purposes of certification:

(i) Operating temperature up to 1,400° F—(a) Operating conditions. When used under operating temperatures up to 1,400° F., sockets, wells, protecting tubes, sheaths and target tubes shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 (a) to 1 (k) inclusive, paragraph 2, or paragraph 3 (b) or 3 (c), or on aircraft.

(b) Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy content of sockets, wells, protecting tubes, sheaths and target tubes shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium: Provided, however, That for use under operating conditions specified in List A, paragraph 1 (f) or 1 (k) the total nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 80%, and maximum nickel and chromium content of not over 65% and 30%, respectively.

(ii) Operating temperatures from 1,401° F. to 1,900° F.—Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy content of sockets, wells, protecting tubes, sheaths and target tubes, used under operating temperatures from 1,401° F. to 1,900° F. shall not exceed 52%, and the nickel and chromium contents shall not exceed 35% and 28%, respectively: Provided, however, That for use under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 (f) or 1 (k) the total nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 80%, and maximum nickel and chromium content of not over 65% and 30%, respectively.

(iii) Operating temperatures of 1,901° F. and above—(a) Operating conditions. When used under operating temperatures of 1,901° F. and above, sockets, wells, protecting tubes and sheaths shall only be delivered for use under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 (f) or 1 (k). Target tubes may be delivered for use under any conditions.

(b) Specifications. Sockets, wells, protecting tubes, sheaths and target tubes employed under the operating conditions specified in (a) above shall contain a maximum total nickel and chromium alloy content not to exceed 80%, and maximum nickel and chromium content of not over 65% and 30%, respectively.

(6) Temperature bulbs (fluid filled tube system type)—(i) Operating conditions. When used without sockets or protecting tubes, temperature bulbs (fluid filled tube system type) may be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1, 2, 3 (b) or 3 (c).

(ii) Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy content of temperature bulbs (fluid filled tube system type) shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium. No nickel, chromium, or alloy thereof, shall be used in temperature bulbs (except for mercury filled systems) when such bulbs are used in a socket or in protecting tubes. When used with a mercury filled system in a socket, temperature bulbs shall be manufactured from S. A. E. 4140 or alternate steels of no greater chromium alloy content and containing no more than 0.60% nickel.

(7) Bushings and revolving or coupling nuts—Operating conditions. Bushings and revolving or coupling nuts shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 or 2.

(8) Flexible and rigid extension stems for temperature bulbs—(i) Operating conditions. When used with temperature bulbs without separable sockets or protecting tubes, flexible or rigid extension stems shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraph 1, 2, 3 (b) or 3 (c).

(ii) Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy content of such stems shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium.

(9) Contact rods for flame control—Specifications. The alloy content of contact rods for flame control, including contiguous brackets or clamps, shall not exceed 80% nickel and 20% chromium.

(10) Thermocouples. The operating temperatures specified below shall be deemed part of the operating conditions for purposes of certification.

(i) Operating temperatures up to 800° F.—Specifications. Where used in temperature ranges up to and including 800° F., the thermocouple wire alloy content shall not exceed 46% nickel, and the size of the wire shall not exceed #14 B and S gage.

(ii) Operating temperatures from 801° F. to 1,400° F.—Specifications. Where used in temperature ranges between 801° F. and 1,400° F., inclusive, the thermocouple wire alloy content shall not exceed 46% nickel, and the size of the wire shall not exceed #8 B and S gage, or as an alternate, the thermocouple wire alloy content shall not exceed 95% nickel or 20% chromium in either wire, and the size of the wire shall not exceed #14 B and S gage.

(iii) Operating temperatures from 1,401° F. to 2,050° F.—Specifications. Where used in temperature ranges between 1,401° F. and 2,050° F., inclusive, the thermocouple wire chromium alloy content shall not exceed 20% chromium in either wire, and the size of the wire shall not exceed #8 B and S gage.

(iv) Operating temperatures of 2,051° F. and above—(a) Operating conditions. When used in temperature ranges of 2,051° F. and above, thermocouple wire shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 (f) or 1 (k).

(b) Specifications. The size of the wire shall be limited to No. 2 B and S gage or smaller when used under the operating conditions in List A, paragraph 1 (f), and shall be limited to No. 8 B and S gage or smaller when used under the operating conditions of List A, paragraph 1 (k).

(v) Special provisions for replacement. Except with respect to size of extension lead wire when used with potentiometer type pyrometers, the limitations of subparagraphs (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) shall not apply to replacements if the extension lead wire or parts required to recalibrate existing instruments are not available in the user's plant.

(11) Extension lead wire—(i) Specifications. Two conductor extension lead wires shall not exceed 46% nickel content and shall be manufactured in sizes not larger than #16 B and S gage; except that extension lead wire used with millivoltmeter type pyrometers shall be limited in size to #14 B and S gage. When used with KA2S thermocouples, which measure surface tube temperatures, the nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 95% nickel and 20% chromium in either wire, and no wire shall be longer than necessary: Provided, however, That there shall be no limitation on the size of wire used on aircraft.

(12) Safety shutters and switches for radiation pyrometers — Specifications. The nickel or chromium alloy content of safety shutters for radiation pyrometers shall not exceed 20% each; except that this restriction does not apply to the nickel or chromium alloy content of switches for radiation pyrometers.

(13) Liquid level float cages and flanges—(i) Operating conditions. Liquid level float cages and flanges shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 2 (a) and 3 (b).

(ii) Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium: Provided, however, That when used under the operating conditions of List A, paragraph 2 (a), the nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed that of the contiguous metal.

(14) Liquid level floats and float rods—(i) Operating conditions. Liquid level floats and float rods shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1, 2, or 3 (b).

(ii) Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium: Provided, however, That when used under the operating conditions of List A, paragraph 2 (a), the nickel or chromium alloy content shall not exceed that of the contiguous metal.

(15) Liquid level expansion and immersion tubes—Operating conditions. Liquid level expansion and immersion tubes shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 or 2 or at temperatures of 400° F. and above.

(16) Flow nozzles—Operating conditions. Flow nozzles shall be delivered for use only in the presence of a flowing medium with a temperature in excess of 900° F.

(17) Pitot tubes—Specifications. No nickel, chromium or alloy thereof shall be used in the manufacture of pitot tubes, except when used on aircraft.

(18) Orifice plates—Operating conditions. Orifice plates shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1, 2, 3 (b) or 3 (c).

(19) Orifice meter accessories—Specifications. No nickel, chromium or alloy thereof shall be used in the manufacture of settling chambers, separating chambers or condensers.

(20) Straightening vanes—(i) Operating conditions. Straightening vanes shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 or 3 (c) and their delivery shall be further limited to use in pipes having an internal diameter of 10 inches or less.

(ii) Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy contents shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium.

(21) Cleanout valve trim and liners for use with Venturi tubes—Operating conditions. Cleanout valve trim and liners for Venturi tubes shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1, 2, 3 (b) or 3 (c).

(22) Venturi tubes — Specifications. No nickel, chromium or alloy thereof shall be used in the manufacture of Venturi tubes.

(23) Studs for differential pressure chambers—Specifications. Studs for differential pressure chambers shall be manufactured from S. A. E. 4140 or alternate steels of no greater chromium alloy content and containing no more than 0.60% nickel.

(24) Conductivity cells for measuring conductivity of fluids—Operating conditions. Conductivity cells for measuring conductivity of fluids shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 or 2.

(d) Operating conditions and specifications for control valves and regulators. Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) hereof, the production and delivery of the following control valves and regulators shall be governed by the following operating conditions and specifications:

(1) Bodies, bonnets and blind flanges—(i) Operating conditions. Bodies, bonnets and blind flanges shall be delivered for use only under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraph 2 (a) and 3 (b).

(ii) Specifications. When used under operating conditions of List A, paragraph 3 (b) the total nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium: Provided, however, That when used under the operating conditions of List A, paragraph 2 (a), the nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed that of the contiguous metal.

(2) Inner valves and seat rings—(i) Operating conditions. Inner valves and seat rings shall be delivered for use only under an operating pressure drop of 50 p. s. i. or more, or under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 or 2.

(ii) Specifications. When used under operating conditions of a pressure drop of 50 p. s. i. or more, the flow cutting surface shall be made of carbon steel, faced, where practicable, with a chromium or nickel alloy not in excess of $\frac{3}{32}$" finished thickness. When used under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 1 or 2, the total nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium: Provided, however, That when used under the conditions of List A paragraph 2 (a) the nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed that of the contiguous metal.

(3) Studs for valve bodies and flanges—(i) Operating conditions. Studs for valve bodies and flanges may be used under any operating conditions; but certification shall be required for use under the operating conditions of List A, paragraph 3 (b) or 3 (d).

(ii) Specifications. Studs for valve bodies and flanges shall be manufactured from S. A. E. 4140 or alternate steels of no greater chromium alloy content and containing no more than 0.60% nickel: Provided, however, That where used under the operating conditions specified in List A, paragraphs 3 (b) or 3 (d) the total nickel and chromium alloy content shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium.

(4) [Revoked January 30, 1943.]

(5) Stems, bushings and guiding surfaces for control valves, and regulators—Specifications. The total nickel and chromium alloy content of stems, bushings, and guiding surfaces for control valves and regulators shall not exceed 30%, or 20% of either nickel or chromium.

(e) Ninety-day exemption of Army, Navy, and Maritime Commission. The provisions of this order shall not apply to deliveries to and for the use of the Army, Navy, or Maritime Commission until August 26, 1942. As used in this paragraph, the terms "Army," "Navy," and "Maritime Commission" shall not include any privately operated plant or shipyard, financed or controlled by any of these organizations, or operated on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis.

(f) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L-134.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(i) Records and reports. All manufacturers affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning production, deliveries, and orders for industrial instruments.

All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the Director General for Operations, War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as said Director General for Operations shall from time to time request.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

LIST A

PARAGRAPH 1. When exposed to:
(a) Nitric acid (dilute or concentrated).
(b) Coke oven gas.
(c) Blast furnace gas.
(d) Sulphurous gases.
(e) Steam above 200 p. s. i. or 400° F.
(f) Molten metal baths.
(g) Sulphuric or hydrochloric acids.
(h) Sour gas and vapors, and liquids contaminated with sour gas and vapors.
(i) Hydrofluoric acid.
(j) Salt brine in crude petroleum.
(k) Salt baths containing nitrates, chlorides, cyanides, or fluorides.

PAR. 2. (a) When contiguous metal coming in contact with the processed medium at the point of measurement or control is also a nickel or chromium alloy.

(b) When contiguous surfaces coming in contact with the processed medium at the point of measurement or control are nonmetallic but no protection other than that containing nickel or chromium will withstand the corrosive medium.

(c) In the production of synthetic rubber, when an explosive hazard due to chemical reaction cannot otherwise be avoided, or where acetic acid has a corrosive effect on seating, guiding, and measuring surfaces.

(d) When no other material can be substituted without contaminating the material being processed.

PAR. 3. When the fluid to which the part is to be subject is under:

(a) Static pressure of 250 pounds per square inch or more;

(b) Temperature of 750° F. and above, or minus 20° F. and below;

(c) Normal pipe velocity of 5,000 ft. per minute or more for gases or vapors; or 300 ft. per minute or more for liquids;

(d) Temperature of minus 250° F. to minus 20° F. inclusive, and from 400° F. to 1,250° F. inclusive, and 400 p. s. i. to 2,500 p. s. i. inclusive.

PART 3129—SULFURIC ACID

[General Preference Order M–257, as Amended Jan. 30, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of oleum and other materials used in the manufacture of explosives for defense, for private account and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3129.1 General Preference Order M–257—(a) Definitions. (1) "Sulfuric acid" means all grades or strengths of sulfuric acid, both virgin and fortified, and includes oleum and spent sulfuric acid.

(2) "Oleum" means sulfuric acid plus sulfur trioxide and is the product also known by the name of fuming sulfuric acid.

(3) "Spent sulfuric acid" means that grade of sulfuric acid produced in the manufacture of military explosives and in the refining of petroleum.

(4) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of sulfuric acid.

(b) Allocations. The Director General for Operations may allocate sulfuric acid to specified persons. He may direct the specific quantities in which deliveries shall be made to and accepted by specified persons, and direct or prohibit specified uses of sulfuric acid and the production by any person of sulfuric acid, or any strength or grade thereof. Allocations and directions will be made to insure the satisfaction of war requirements of the United States and may include allocations or directions respecting spent acid where necessary in the opinion of the Director, to promote, or prevent the curtailment of, the production of oleum and of military explosives. Allocations or directions may be made to eliminate cross-hauling and may be made without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts.

(c) Applications and reports. (1) Each producer of sulfuric acid and each other person who delivers spent sulfuric acid shall, on or before the 10th day of each month commencing with January 1943, file with the War Production Board, Form PD–601, in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) Copies of Form PD–601 may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

(ii) Prepare two copies and forward one to the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–257, retaining the second copy for your files.

(iii) In the heading, under name of chemical, specify sulfuric acid; under WPB Order No., specify M–257; under name of company, state your name and mailing address; under unit of measure, specify tons (of 2,000 pounds each).

(iv) In the caption "This schedule is for deliveries to be made during the month of _____ 194__", strike out the words "to be" and insert the month preceding the month in which your report is filed, and the year.

(v) Insert in Column 1 the name of each customer to whom in the preceding month you shipped sulfuric acid in tank truck, tank car, tank barge or pipe line. Shipments by other means, including drum or carboy, are not to be listed separately. All persons to whom you shipped by such other means in the prior month will be lumped in Table I under the title "all others". If you consume all or part of your own production of sulfuric acid you will list yourself as a customer in Column 1.

(vi) In Column 3 specify strength in degrees Baume or percentage of sulfuric acid.

(vii) Leave blank Columns 5, 6 and 7.

(viii) In heading "Quantity ordered" at top of Column 4, strike out word "ordered" and substitute word "delivered".

(ix) Leave Table II blank in its entirety.

(2) The Director General for Operations may require each person affected by this order to file such other reports as may be prescribed, and may issue further special directions to any such person with respect to preparing and filing Forms PD–601.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–257.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3153—MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND OPERATING SUPPLIES FOR LOGGERS AND PRODUCERS

[Preference Rating Order P–138, as Amended Jan. 30, 1943]

For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of material for operating supplies and for maintenance and repair of property and equipment used in the production of logs and lumber in the public interest and to promote the national defense, preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries of such material on the terms hereinafter set forth:

§ 3153.1 Preference Rating Order P–138—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Logger" means any person actually engaged in the production of logs of any species within the limits of the United States, its territories or possessions, or the Dominion of Canada.

(2) "Producer" means any plant within the limits of the United States, its territories or possessions, or the Dominion of Canada which processes, by sawing, edging, planing, cutting, slicing, peeling, laminating or other comparable method, 25% or more of the total volume of logs, cants, flitches, veneers, and lumber purchased or received by it, and which sells or otherwise disposes of the product of such processing as lumber, plywood or veneer. "Volume" means board foot volume, or in the case of plywood or veneer, surface measure, processed or sold within the last six calendar months immediately prior to the transaction affected by this order.

(3) "Maintenance" means minimum upkeep necessary to continue the working condition of equipment used in connection with log, lumber, plywood or veneer production by a logger or producer at its maximum rate of actual production.

(4) "Repair" means the restoration of property or equipment used in connection with log, lumber, plywood or veneer production by a logger or producer in a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts or the like have made the property or equipment unfit or unsafe for service.

(5) "Operating supplies" means material which is essential to the operation of property and equipment used in connection with log, lumber, plywood or veneer production, or essential to the production or disposition of logs, lumber, plywood or veneer by a logger or producer and which is generally carried as stores and charged to operating expense account, but not including office supplies.

(6) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(7) Material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies includes only material which is essential to minimum service standards, and does not include

(i) Material for the improvement of a logger's or producer's property or equipment through the replacement of material which is still usable with material of a better kind, quality or design.

(ii) Material controlled by Limitation Order L–158 or Limitation Order L–53–b.

(iii) Material for additions to, or expansions of, any logger's or producer's plant, or for new construction.

(b) Assignment of preference ratings. Subject to the restrictions of paragraph (d) hereof, a preference rating of AA–2X is hereby assigned to deliveries of material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies to a logger or producer.

(c) Application and extension of preference ratings. Preference ratings assigned by or pursuant to this order shall be applied in accordance with the terms of paragraph (d) (1) of Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended from time to time.

(d) Restrictions on application of ratings. (1) A logger or producer shall not apply the rating assigned by paragraph (b) above to deliveries, nor shall he accept deliveries (whether or not rated pursuant to this order), of material to replace other material withdrawn from his inventory of maintenance, repair and operating supplies where receipt of such deliveries will increase such inventory to an amount greater than the minimum necessary for maintenance, repair and to sustain the maximum rate of production of the logger or producer.

(2) The cost of material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies to which the rating assigned by paragraph (b) above may be applied by a logger or producer in any calendar year shall not exceed 110% of the cost of such material actually used by the logger or producer applying the rating in the most recent preceding calendar year in which such logger or producer was logging, or producing lumber, plywood or veneer, and in any calendar quarter shall not exceed 40% of the cost of the material to which a rating may be applied in the same calendar year.

(3) A logger or producer shall not apply the ratings assigned by paragraph (b) to obtain deliveries of scarce material, the use of which could be eliminated without serious loss of efficiency by substitution of a less scarce material.

(4) The assignment of a preference rating by paragraph (b) above shall not constitute authorization to begin construction under Conservation Order No. L–41, and shall not authorize the use or delivery of any material, or the application or extension of any preference rating in violation of the provisions of any conservation, limitation or other order or regulation heretofore or hereafter issued by the Director of Priorities, the Office of Production Management, or by the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time; except that after December 24, 1942 no logger or producer shall be entitled to extend preference ratings for repair, maintenance and operating supplies pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 3.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed as follows: Lumber and Lumber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: P–138.

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

INTERPRETATION

Paragraph (a) (1) of Preference Rating Order P–138 defines a "logger" as "any person actually engaged in the production of logs of any species." "Production of logs" as used here includes all steps necessary to deliver logs to sawmills, pulp mills or other dealers in or users of logs, but does not include transportation by common carrier. Thus persons building logging roads or contract-hauling logs are "loggers" within the Order, and, as to their activities in that regard, are entitled to the benefits of the Order.

PART 3157—CONTROLLED SHIPMENTS

[General Transportation Order T–1]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of transportation facilities and of certain materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3157.1 General Transportation Order T–1—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Controlled shipment" means shipment, including reconsignment, of any material on List 1 or 2 annexed hereto, where the shipment is to be made at the time, in the manner and for the distance specified opposite such material in such list.

(2) "Originate" means to load for shipment or to tender or offer to a carrier for shipment.

(3) "Tank car" means any railway tank car having one or more steel tanks from which materials are customarily loaded and unloaded while the tank is on the car.

(4) "Tank truck" means any vehicle designed for highway travel having one or more steel tanks from which materials are customarily loaded and unloaded while the tank is on the truck.

(b) List 1 materials. (1) No person shall originate a controlled shipment of any List 1 material, except as specifically authorized or directed by the Director General for Operations.

(2) Any person seeking authorization to originate a controlled shipment of any List 1 material may make application on Form PD–782, or, in emergency, by telegram, containing substantially the information called for by such form.

(c) List 2 materials.—(1) Each person shall report on Form PD–782 on or before the 20th day of each calendar month all shipments of List 2 materials which he then intends to originate during the succeeding calendar month.

(2) Each person shall report on Form PD–782 on or before the 10th day prior to origination any controlled shipment of List 2 materials which he then intends to originate and has not previously reported.

(3) Any person may originate a controlled shipment of List 2 materials reported pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) or (2), unless otherwise specifically directed by the Director General for Operations.

(4) No person shall originate a controlled shipment of any List 2 material which has not been reported pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) or (2), except as specifically directed or authorized by the Director General for Operations. Applications for such authorization may be made by telegram containing substantially the information called for by Form PD–782.

(d) List 3 materials. This order does not restrict shipments of List 3 materials, except to the extent that such shipments are controlled shipments of List 1 or List 2 materials.

(e) Other materials. On and after March 1, 1943, no person shall originate a shipment by tank car of any material unless:

(1) Specified on List 1, List 2 or List 3; or

(2) Consigned to or for the account of the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, or corresponding Canadian agencies specified in Priorities Regulation No. 14; or unless the material shipped is procured pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 (Lend-Lease Act), provided that at the time each such shipment is originated the material is in the form in which it is eventually to be delivered to a foreign country or its representative; or

(3) Specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations upon application by such person on Form PD–782, or, in emergency, upon application by telegram containing substantially the information called for by Form PD–782.

(f) Carriers. The provisions of this order shall not apply to any carrier acting in the capacity of a carrier as distinguished from a carrier acting in the capacity of a shipper.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of War Production Board priorities regulations, as amended from time to time.

(2) Applicability of other orders. Nothing contained in this order shall be construed to limit the requirements of any other War Production Board order now or hereafter issued.

(3) Territorial limitations. This order shall apply only to shipments originating or reconsigned in the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia.

(4) Appeals. Any appeal from denials of applications or from directions pursuant to this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular action appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: T–1 (specified commodity).

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

LISTS ATTACHED TO GENERAL TRANSPORTATION ORDER T–1

LIST 1 (ZONED SHIPMENTS)

1. Molasses. Shipments of 200 miles or more in tank cars or tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943, of blackstrap, invert, edible or hydrol molasses, except shipments of such molasses for the manufacture of yeast or citric acid. The term molasses shall be construed to include the residuum of such molasses.

2. Caustic soda: Shipments in tank cars or tank trucks, orginating on and after April 1, 1943, over the boundaries of the following zones:

First caustic soda zone: Maine, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut and those counties in the State of New York east of and including Monroe, Ontario, Yates, Seneca, Tompkins, Cortland and Broome Counties, but excluding all parts of Metropolitan New York City, as defined in Zone 2.

Second caustic soda zone: Metropolitan New York City, defined as that area including Norwalk and West in Connecticut; counties of Westchester and Rockland and all of New York City and Long Island, in New York State; and all the counties of Bergen, Passaic, Essex, Hudson and the eastern section of Middlesex, east of a line from Potter to Perth Amboy, in New Jersey. Authorizations by the Director General for Operations will be issued for shipments into this Zone from Zones 1 and 3.

Third caustic soda zone: The counties of Orleans, Genesee, Livingston, Steuben, Chemung, Tioga, Schuyler, Niagara, Erie, Wyoming, Allegany, Cattaraugus and Chautauqua, in the State of New York; the counties of Tioga, Bradford, Susquehanna, Wayne, Sullivan, Wyoming, Lackawanna and Pike in the State of Pennsylvania; and those counties in the State of New Jersey north of, but not including, Burlington County; but excluding all parts of Metropolitan New York City, as defined in Zone 2.

Fourth caustic soda zone: Those counties in the State of Pennsylvania not specified in Zone 3 above; those counties in the State of New Jersey south of and including Burlington County; the States of Delaware and Maryland; the District of Columbia; those counties in West Virginia north of but not including, Cabel, Lincoln, Kanawha, Clay, Braxton, Webster and Pocahontas Counties, but excluding the city of Nitro, West Virginia (Zone 5); those counties in the State of Virginia north of the James River to Albermarle County, and north of and including Albemarle and Rockingham Counties; South Richmond, Virginia; and those counties in the State of Ohio east and south of, and including, the counties of Cuyahoga, Medina, Wayne, Holmes, Coshocton, Muskingum, Perry, Hocking, Vinton, Jackson, Pike, Highland, Brown, Clermont and Hamilton.

Fifth caustic soda zone: The city of Nitro, West Virginia. Authorizations by the Director General for Operations will be issued for shipments into this Zone from Zones 4 and 8.

Sixth caustic soda zone: Those counties in the State of Ohio not included in Zone 3 above; the States of Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota; Kansas City in Missouri and Kansas; and the city of St. Louis, Missouri.

Seventh caustic soda zone: The city of Memphis, Tennessee. Authorizations by the Director General for Operations will be issued for shipments into this Zone from Zones 6, 8 and 11.

Eighth caustic soda zone: Those counties in the States of Virginia and West Virginia not included in Zone 4 above (also excluding South Richmond, Virginia, and Nitro, West Virginia); the States of Kentucky, North Carolina and South Carolina; those counties in the State of Georgia north of and including the counties of Floyd, Bartow, Cherokee, Forsyth, Hall, Jackson, Madison and Elbert; and the State of Tennessee; except the cities of Memphis, Chattanooga, and Nashville.

Ninth caustic soda zone: The city of Chattanooga in Tennessee. Authorizations by the Director General for Operations will be issued for shipments into this Zone from Zones 8 and 10.

Tenth caustic soda zone: The States of Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and that part of Georgia not included in Zone 8 above.

Eleventh caustic soda zone: The city of Nashville, Tennessee; the States of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas; except the cities of St. Louis and Kansas City.

Twelfth caustic soda zone: The States of Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, and those counties in the State of Nevada east of and including the counties of Elko, Lander and Nye.

Thirteenth caustic soda zone: The States of Washington, Oregon and California and those counties in the State of Nevada not included in Zone 12 above.

LIST 2 (REPORTED SHIPMENTS)

1. Acetone: Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943.

2. Butyl acetate: Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943.

3. Corn syrup (glucose): Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943.

4. Ethyl acetate. Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943.

5. Ethyl alcohol (including denatured ethyl alcohol): Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 250 miles in tank trucks, originating on or after March 1, 1943, except shipments of ethyl alcohol (including denatured ethyl alcohol) owned or shipped by Defense Supplies Corporation, or shipments of specially denatured ATU Formula No. 18.

6. Molasses: Shipments of any distance in tank cars, or of more than 200 miles in tank trucks originating on or after March 1, 1943, of beet molasses shipped for any purpose, or of blackstrap, invert, edible or hydrol molasses shipped for the manufacture of yeast or citric acid. The term molasses shall be construed to include the residuum of such molasses.

LIST 3 (OTHER SHIPMENTS)

1. On and after March 1, 1943, no shipments in tank cars other than of the following materials:

Acetaldehyde
Acetic acid, glacial or liquid
Acetic anhydride

[1] Acetone
Acids
Acrylonitrile
[1] Alcohols
Aluminum chloride
Aluminum sulfate
Ammoniacal liquor or aqua ammonia
Ammonium nitrate liquor
Ammonia sulphide
Ammonium thiocyanate liquor
Amyl acetate
Amyl chloride
Anhydrous ammonia
Aniline oils
Anti-freezing compounds
Arsenic (arsenious acid)
Arsenic trioxide
[2] Asphalt
[1] Aviation gasoline (of Octane No. 87, 91, and 100) and its component parts, such as:
Alkylate
Aromatic fractions for aviation
Aviation base stocks
Butylene
Codimer
Isobutane
Isobutylene
Iso octane
Isopentane (pentane)
Hydrocodimer
Babassu oil
Benzol (benzene)
Brake fluid
Butadiene
[2] Butanes
[1] Butenes
[2] Butyl acetate
Butyl aldehyde
Butyraldehyde
Butylamines
Calcium chloride, liquid
Calcium hypochlorite (chlorinated lime)
Carbon dioxide, liquefied
Carbon bisulfide (carbon disulfide)
Carbon tetrachloride
Castor oil
Caustic potash (potassium hydroxide)
[1] Caustic soda (sodium hydroxide)
Chemicals, other, shipped as "chemicals NOIBN"
Chestnut tanning extract (tannic acid)
Chlorine, liquid
Chlorobenzol (Monochlorobenzol)
Chlorosulphuric acid
Coal tar pitch
Coconut oil (copra)
Core compound, foundry
Corn oil
[1] Corn syrup (glucose)
Cottonseed oil
Creosote oil
Creosote-tar solution
Cresylic acid (cresol)
Crude tar oil
Crude napthalene
Crude tar acid
[2] Cumene (isopropylbenzene or isopropylbenzine)
Diacetone
Dibutyl, diethyl, or dimethyl phthalate
Dichlorodifluoromethane
Dichloromonofluoromethane
Dichlorotetrafluoroethane
Diethyl sulphate
Diethylene glycol
Dimethylaniline
Dinitrochlorobenzol
Dioctyl phthalate
Diphenyl
Diphenylamine
Dye-intermediates
Ester gums
Ether (ethyl, dichloroethyl, or isopropyl)
[1] Ethyl acetate
Ethyl chloride
Ethylamines
Ethylene bromide or dibromide
Ethylene chlorohydrin
Ethylene dichloride
Ethylene glycol
Ethylene oxide
Ethyl methyl ketone (methyl ethyl ketone)
Ethyl hexyl alcohol
Fatty acid
Fatty acid esters
Fertilizer ammoniating solution
Fish or sea animal oil
Formaldehyde, liquid
Formamide
Formic acid
Furfural
Gas drip oil, including crude
Grease (inedible animal)
Glycerine
Hexa methylene diammonium adipate solution
Hydrochloric acid (muriatic)
Hydrofluoric acid
Hydrofluosilicic acid
Hydrogen dioxide or peroxide
[1] Hydrol (corn sugar final molasses)
Ink, printing
Iron chloride (ferric)
Isobutyl acetate
Isopropyl acetate
Lactic acid
Lacquer solvents
Lard
Lard oil
Latex
[1] Lead tetraethyl
Lignin liquor
Lime, chlorinated
Lime and sulfur solution
Lime sludge or slurry
Linseed oil
Liquefied petroleum gases
Magnesium chloride
Methanol
Methyl acetate
Methyl acetone
Methyl chloride
Methyl formate
Methyl isobutyl ketone
[1] Molasses (beet blackstrap, edible, and molasses residuum)
Monofluorotrichloromethane
Milk
Naphtha
Naphtha solvent
Naphthalene, including crude
Neutral oil
Nitrating acid or mixed acid
Nitric acid
Nitrobenzol
Nitrocellulose solution
Nitrogen fertilizer solution (including crude)
Nylon salt solution
Oil foots or sediment
Oiticica oil
Oleic acid (red oil)
Orthodichlorobenzol
Oxygen, liquid
Oxidizing salt solution
Oil tar
Oil tar oil
Paint oil compounded
Paint, lacquer, varnish, gum, resin, or pyroxylin plasticizers or solvents
Paint, lacquer, or varnish, increasing, reducing, removing or thinning compounds
Paints, stains, varnishes or lacquers
Palm oil
Paraffin wax, chlorinated
Paraldehyde
Peanut oil
Pentane
Perchloric acid
Perchloroethylene
[2] Petroleum
[2] Petroleum products (not otherwise listed)
Phenol (carbolic acid)
Phosphoric acid
Phosphorous
Phosphorus oxychloride
Phosphorous trichloride
Pickles
Pilargonic acid
Pinene
Pine oils
Pitch, pine tar
Pitch, rosin
Plasticizers
Pork fat, rendered
Powder, smokeless, in water
Potassium silicates
Preservatives, wood
[2] Propanes
Propionic acid
Proprietary anti-freeze preparations
Propylene dichloride
Propylene glycol
Pulp mill liquid
Pyridine
Pyroxylin solution
Pyroxylin waterproofing liquid
Pyroligneous acid
Rapeseed oil
Resin
Resins, synthetic Road tar
Rosin oil
Rosin size
Rubber solvent
Sludge acid
Soap stock
Sodium aluminate
Sodium bichromate
Sodium bisulphite
Sodium chromate solution
Sodium hydrosulfide liquid (sodium sulphydrate)
Sodium, metallic
Sodium nitrate
Sodium nitrite
Sodium hypochlorite
Sodium phenolates
Sodium silicates
Sodium sulfate
Sodium sulfide, liquid
Sodium sulfite
Soyabean oil
Stearine
Styrene
Sulfur dioxide, anhydrous
Sulfuric acid
Sulphate, black liquor skimmings
Sunflower oil
Tall oil
Tallow
Tar acid, coal
Tar acid, oil
Tar, coal
Tar, pine
Tar, wood (hardwood tar)
Tetrachloroethane
Toluol (Toluene)
Trichlorobenzol
Trichloroethylene
Tricresyl phosphate
Tung oil (chinawood oil)
Turpentine, including crude
Turpentine, oil (spirits of turpentine; turps)
Unfinished alcohol
Unfinished grain spirits (suitable only for redistribution)
Vinegar
Vinyl acetate
Waste waterproofing liquid

[1] Controlled as List 1 or List 2 materials to the extent defined in List 1 or List 2.
[2] Subject to such orders as may be issued by the Petroleum Administrator for War.

Water not including mineral, flavored or phosphated
Water gas tar
Xylol (xylene)

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Amendment 1 to Suspension Order S-96]

CHESTER F. DOLLEY

Paragraph (b) of § 1010.96 Suspension Order S-96 issued September 9, 1942, (7 F.R. 7169) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Beginning 90 days after the effective date of this order, Chester F. Dolley, his successors and assigns, shall not operate the well known as Girten Well No. 1, located at Torrance, California, except in accordance with conditions prescribed by the Petroleum Administrator for War.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9094, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-205]

UNITED ELECTRIC CO.

E. L. Reed, doing business as United Electric Company, Oakland, California, is engaged in the business of buying, selling and installing electric wiring in housing projects.

Subsequent to March 2, 1942, E. L. Reed, doing business as United Electric Company, received preference ratings of A-1-j and A-1-k under Preference Rating Order P-55 covering the sale of 419,900 feet of copper wire to be installed in certain defense housing projects. Thereafter he extended said preference ratings to purchase orders for approximately 641,000 feet of copper wire or approximately 221,000 feet in excess of the amounts for which these ratings could be extended. These acts constituted wilful violations of paragraph (d) (2) (i) of Preference Rating Order P-55, issued March 2, 1942, and as amended April 20, 1942.

E. L. Reed, doing business as United Electric Company, was extended by his customers A-1-k ratings under Preference Rating Order P-55 to obtain delivery of copper wire to be incorporated in the construction of certain defense housing projects. Said preference ratings were extended by E. L. Reed, doing business as United Electric Company, to his suppliers and he obtained delivery of 69,100 feet of copper wire which he then used in connection with certain temporary installations on the aforesaid projects although the use of copper wire for this purpose had not been authorized. This constituted a use of said copper wire for purposes not specified in connection with the issuance of the preference rating orders in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

These violations of Preference Rating Order P-55 and Priorities Regulation No. 1 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce material to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.205 Suspension Order S-205 (a) Deliveries of materials, directly or indirectly, to E. L. Reed, doing business as United Electric Company, or otherwise, his successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of Preference Rating Certificates, Preference Rating Orders, General Preference Orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocations shall be made, directly or indirectly, to E. L. Reed, doing business as United Electric Company or otherwise, his successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve E. L. Reed, doing business as United Electric Company or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director General for Operations except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on February 2, 1943, and shall expire on November 2, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Orde S-227]

STERLING BRASS CO.

The Sterling Brass Company, Cleveland, Ohio, is a manufacturer of plumbing fixtures and supplies and also maintains a jobbing department in which it deals in plumbing supplies and accessories manufactured by others. In various reports filed by it on Form PD-25A and Form PD-59 in May, June, and July, 1942, the Company knowingly omitted approximately 47,000 pounds of brass ingots from its reported inventory in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1. In a PD-25 application dated October 4, 1941, the Company also knowingly misrepresented its inventory of brass scrap and ingot.

From October 15 to December 31, 1941, the Company used in the manufacture of plumbing and heating supplies approximately 132,000 pounds of copper base alloy in excess of the amount which it was permitted to use under Conservation Order M-9-c. During the major portion of this time the Company was familiar with the restrictions contained in Conservation Order M-9-c and its violation thereof was wilful.

These violations of Priorities Regulation No. 1 and Conservation Order M-9-c have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce material to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing. It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.227 Suspension Order S-227. (a) The Sterling Brass Company, its successors and assigns, shall not process, fabricate, or use any of the metals specified in the Metals List attached to Priorities Regulation No. 11 in any form, nor shall The Sterling Brass Company, its successors and assigns, sell or deliver any article or item in whose fabrication there has been used or consumed or to which is attached any of the metals specified in the Metals List attached to Priorities Regulation No. 11 in any form except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Cleveland Regional Office, War Production Board.

(b) Deliveries of material to The Sterling Brass Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Cleveland Regional Office, War Production Board.

(c) No allocation shall be made to The Sterling Brass Company, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except with the specific approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Cleveland Regional Office, War Production Board.

(d) The provisions of this order shall not be applicable to deliveries, fabrication, or use of materials or articles ordered, received, used, or required for use to fill orders bearing preference ratings of AA-2 or higher.

(e) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The Sterling Brass Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(f) This order shall take effect on February 2, 1943, and shall expire on August 2, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-228]

ORIENTAL TEA & COFFEE CO.

Oriental Tea & Coffee Company of Boston, Massachusetts, a partnership, is a roaster of coffee and a packer of tea. It distributes coffee and tea at wholesale in the Boston metropolitan district and maintains a retail store on Court Street. During the months of May to September, both inclusive, the Company delivered approximately 75,000 pounds of coffee and 22,000 pounds of tea in excess of the quotas allowable under Conservation Orders M-135 and M-111, respectively. During this period the Company's deliveries of both coffee and tea were materially larger than its deliveries for the corresponding period of 1941. During the last quarter of 1942 taken as a whole the Company's tea deliveries totalled somewhat less than the total of its quotas, but its deliveries of coffee for the period from October 1 to November 21 were in excess of the total of its quotas for those months.

These deliveries were made with full knowledge of the foregoing orders, and although some doubt existed in the minds of the partners as to the exact method by which the curtailments required by the orders were to be computed, the Company knew that such deliveries were substantially greater than its deliveries of tea and coffee in the corresponding months of 1941 instead of being substantially less. The overdeliveries, therefore, constituted wilful violations of the orders.

These violations of Conservation Orders M-135 and M-111 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.228 Suspension Order S-228. (a) In each calendar month during which this order shall be in effect deliveries of coffee by Oriental Tea & Coffee Company, its successors and assigns, shall not exceed 23,000 pounds, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) In each calendar month during which this order shall be in effect Oriental Tea & Coffee Company, its successors and assigns, shall not deliver any tea, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Oriental Tea & Coffee Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall be in effect during the months of February to July, 1943, both inclusive.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 30th day of January 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3115—CONSTRUCTION MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT SIMPLIFICATION AND CONSERVATION

[Schedule II to Limitation Order L-217]

PORTABLE JAW AND ROLL CRUSHERS

§ 3115.3 Schedule II to Limitation Order L-217—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Schedule II:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of portable jaw and portable roll crushers or portable crushing plants as herein defined.

(3) "Portable jaw crusher" means a machine commonly known as a portable jaw crusher of either the lever (Blake) or overhead eccentric type designed for producing construction aggregates by reducing non-metallic minerals.

(4) "Portable roll crusher" means a machine commonly known as a portable roll crusher designed for producing construction aggregates by reducing non-metallic minerals.

(5) "Portable crushing plant" means any crushing plant incorporating either or both portable jaw or portable roll crushers.

(b) Limitations on production of portable jaw crushers. (1) On and after February 1, 1943, no producer shall use or put into process any materials for the manufacture of portable jaw crushers (to be used either independently or as a part of a portable crushing plant) except as provided in paragraph (b) (3) hereof.

(2) On and after March 1, 1943, no producer shall assemble portable jaw crushers (to be used either independently or as a part of a portable crushing plant) except as provided in paragraph (b) (3) hereof.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (b) (4), (b) (5), (b) (6) and (b) (7) hereof, producers are permitted to manufacture and assemble only one size of either the lever (Blake) type or of the overhead eccentric type portable jaw crusher in each of the following groups:

(i) Group A, 9" x 14" to 11" x 18" inclusive. A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 10" x 16" may produce that size only in Group A.

(ii) Group B, 9" x 18" to 11" x 22" inclusive.—A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 10" x 20" may produce that size only in Group B.

(iii) Group C, 9" x 21" to 11" x 26" inclusive. A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 10" x 24" may produce that size only in Group C.

(iv) Group D, 9" x 32" to 11" x 40" inclusive. A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 10" x 36" may produce that size only in Group D.

(v) Group E, 13" x 22" to 17" x 26" inclusive. A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 15" x 24" may produce that size only in Group E.

(vi) Group F, 13" x 32" to 17" x 40" inclusive. A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 15" x 36" may produce that size only in Group F.

(vii) Group G, 18" x 32" to 22" x 40" inclusive. A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 20" x 36" may produce that size only in Group G.

(viii) Group H, 22" x 32" to 26" x 40" inclusive. A producer having the necessary equipment to produce a portable jaw crusher in the size of 24" x 36" may produce that size only in Group H.

(ix) Group I. Each producer may manufacture one size portable jaw crusher larger than 26" x 40" provided it is at least 4" larger in one or both jaw dimensions.

(4) If a producer elects to manufacture a permitted product which falls within the description of more than one of the above groups, such producer may not manufacture other types or sizes in those groups.

(5) For the purposes of this paragraph (b) the size of portable jaw crushers shall be determined as follows:

(i) By a horizontal measurement of the receiving opening from the apex of the corrugation on the stationary jaw to the base of the opposite corrugation on the movable jaw while the eccentric is at the maximum open position.

(ii) By measuring the inside distance between keyplates (cheek plates) when both of the jaws and both of the keyplates are in place.

(iii) Portable jaw crushers in Groups A, B, C and D (described in paragraph (b) (3) hereof) shall be measured when the discharge opening at the bottom is 1½" between the apex of the corrugation on the stationary jaw and the base of the opposite corrugation on the movable jaw, and

(iv) Portable jaw crushers in Groups E, F, G, H and I (described in paragraph (b) (3) hereof) when such discharge opening at the bottom is 3 inches.

(6) No person, unless actively engaged in the current production of portable jaw crushers (as indicated in his January, 1943 filing of Production and Shipment Schedules on Form PD–697, pursuant to Limitation Order L–192) shall thereafter enter into the production of such crushers.

(7) No producer, who is not actively engaged in the current production of portable jaw crushers in a size category listed in paragraph (b) (3) above, shall thereafter produce any portable jaw crusher in that size category.

(c) Limitation on production of portable roll crushers. (1) On and after February 1, 1943, no producer shall use or put into process any materials for the manufacture of portable roll crushers (to be used either independently or as a part of a portable crushing plant) except as provided in paragraph (c) (3) hereof.

(2) On and after March 1, 1943, no producer shall assemble portable roll crushers (to be used either independently or as a part of a portable crushing plant) except as provided in paragraph (c) (3) hereof.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (c) (4), (c) (5) and (c) (6) hereof, producers are permitted to manufacture and assemble portable roll crushers in the following sizes only:

(i) 16" x 16"
(ii) 24" x 16"
(iii) 30" x 18"
(iv) 40" x 22"
(v) 54" x 24"

(4) For the purpose of this paragraph (c) the size of portable roll crushers shall be determined by measuring the outside diameter and width of the shells when installed in a new unused portable roll crusher.

(5) No person, unless actively engaged in the current production of portable roll crushers (as indicated by his January, 1943 filing of Production and Shipment Schedules on Form PD–697, pursuant to Limitation Order L–192) shall thereafter enter into the production of such crushers.

(6) No producer, who is not actively engaged in the current production of portable roll crushers in a size listed in paragraph (c) (3) above, shall thereafter produce any portable roll crusher in that size.

(d) List of permitted crushers. On or before February 14, 1943, every producer shall file Form PD–754 with the Construction Machinery Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–217, Schedule II, listing product, model number, size and type of those portable jaw and portable roll crushers currently produced by such producers which are proposed to be continued in production in accordance with the limitations of this order. No producer shall thereafter deviate from the sizes and types of crushers as listed by him and no producer shall enter into the production of any size or type of crusher not listed by him on such form, unless the Director General for Operations shall otherwise direct.

(e) Not applicable to maintenance and repair parts. Nothing in this order shall restrict a producer from continuing to manufacture and sell maintenance and repair parts for any and all sizes of portable jaw and portable roll crushers, provided that such manufacture and sale of parts is confined solely to meet the demands for repair parts for maintenance.

(f) Limitation Order L–192. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to permit any contravention of the provisions of Limitation Order L–192.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Subchapter A—General Provisions

PART 903—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

[Amendment 1 to Supplementary Directive 1–O]

RATIONING OF FUEL OIL

Paragraph (d) of § 903.18 Supplementary Directive 1–O (7 F.R. 8418) is amended to read as follows:

(d) As used in this supplementary directive, the term "fuel oil" means any liquid petroleum product commonly known as fuel oil, including grades No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, whether or not blended or rebranded, such as Bunker C, Diesel oil, kerosene, range oil, and gas oil. The term also includes any other liquid petroleum product having the same specifications as the above designated grades and used for the same purposes as such grades.

The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, government or governmental agency, and any other organized group or enterprise; the term "consumer" means any person who uses fuel oil for any purpose, including use as a component part of any manufactured article, material or compound; the term "limitation area" means the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Florida (east of the Apalachicola River), Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and the District of Columbia.

Issued this 1st day of February 1943.

PART 1389—APPAREL

[MPR 287,[1] Amendment 2]

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES FOR WOMEN'S, GIRLS' AND CHILDREN'S OUTERWEAR GARMENTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new paragraph is added to Rule 6 in § 1389.353 (c); the text of § 1389.368 is designated paragraph (a) and a new paragraph (b) is added; a new § 1389.375 is added, as set forth below:

§ 1389.353 Pricing of garments by manufacturers, except "manufacturing-retailers", "dressmakers" and "custom tailors." • • •

(c) "Pricing rules". • • •

Rule 6. • • •

A maximum allowable margin will not be authorized to any manufacturer, other than a manufacturing-retailer, that is higher than the maximum allowable margins listed in Appendix F (§ 1389.375).

§ 1389.368 Definitions. • • •

(b) For the purposes of this regulation, where authorizations are to be granted, or prices are to be adjusted under Rules 5 and 6 (§ 1389.353 (c)) or Rule 9 (§ 1389.356), the references to the Office of Price Administration shall mean any regional office of the Office of Price Administration or such other office as may be authorized by order, issued by the appropriate regional office of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1389.375 Appendix F: Maximum allowable margins for new manufacturers, other than manufacturing-retailers. (a) Maximum allowable margins which may be authorized for any manufacturers under Rule 6 (§ 1389.353 (c)) shall be as follows:

Categories of garments	Maximum allowable margin (percent)
Category Nos. 1 to 20, both inclusive: All selling price lines	32
Category Nos. 21 and 22:
Selling price lines to and including $3.75	27
Selling price lines above $3.75 to and including $5.75	31
Selling price lines over $5.75	36
Category Nos. 23, 24, and 25: All selling price lines	34
Category 26: All selling price lines	34
Category Nos. 27 to 31, both inclusive: All selling price lines	32

These maximum allowable margins shall not apply to manufacturing-retailers.

(b) These margins are to be applied to selling price lines based on 8% or higher discount terms. If the discount terms are less than 8%, appropriate adjustments will be made in the margins listed in this section.

§ 1389.369a Effective dates of corrections and amendments. • • •

(d) Amendment No. 2 (§§ 1389.353 (c), 1389.368 (b), 1389.375, 1389.369a (d)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 287 shall become effective January 29, 1943.

Expiration, Revocation and Redetermination of Rations

§ 1394.8113 Revocation, review, modification and redetermination of rations by Boards and district, State and regional officers in territory formerly within gasoline shortage area. (a) In the event any territory within the gasoline shortage area is removed from such area, any Board in such territory, and any district manager, state director or regional administrator having jurisdiction of such territory shall have power to revoke, cancel, review, modify or redetermine any supplemental, fleet or official ration, or any ration under §§ 1394.7757, 1394.7758, 1394.7851 or 1394.7852 issued or renewed while such territory was still within the gasoline shortage area. Such action shall be taken as the Regional Administrator may direct in order to redetermine the class of ration and amount of mileage or gallonage to which each such ration holder is entitled, and to adjust all such rations to conform with the provisions of Ration Order No. 5C relative to allowance of mileage and gallonage, and the unit value of coupons outside of the gasoline shortage area.

(b) Such review, redetermination, cancellation, revocation, or modification if instituted by a Board shall be conducted and ordered and be subject to the same review and appeal upon the same notice and procedure as that provided under the provisions of § 1394.8105. Such review, redetermination, cancellation, revocation, or modification, if instituted by a regional administrator, state director or district manager, shall be conducted and ordered and be subject to the same review and appeal upon the same notice and procedure as that provided under the provisions of § 1394.8109.

PART 1427—MAGNESIUM

[MPR 314]

MAGNESIUM AND MAGNESIUM ALLOY INGOT

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for magnesium and magnesium alloy ingot in a separate regulation. The maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 314 (herein referred to as "this regulation") are, in the judgment of the Administrator, generally fair and equitable, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

The Administrator has given due consideration to prices prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941 and to relevant factors of general applicability, and, so far as practicable, has consulted with representatives of the industry affected. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Order No. 9250,[1] and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 314—Magnesium and Magnesium Alloy Ingot—is hereby issued.

Sec.

1427.51 Maximum prices for magnesium and magnesium alloy ingot.
1427.52 Prohibition.
1427.53 Applicability.
1427.54 Adjustable pricing.
1427.55 Prohibited practices.
1427.56 Invoices, records and reports.
1427.57 Enforcement.
1427.58 Definitions
1427.59 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1427.51 to 1427.59, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R.7871.

§ 1427.51 Maximum prices for magnesium and magnesium alloy ingot.—(a) Maximum base prices. The maximum base prices for magnesium and magnesium alloy ingot shall be the following:

	Maximum base price (cents per pound)
Magnesium metal (commercially pure)	20.50
Magnesium alloy ingot:
Incendiary bomb alloy	23.40
50-50 magnesium-aluminum alloy	23.75
ASTM B80-41T No. 11	25.00
ASTM B94-40T No. 13	25.00
All other alloys	23.00

(b) Premiums. The maximum base prices established in paragraph (a) of this section are applicable to shipments of 100 pounds or more of magnesium or magnesium alloy in the form of standard ingots (such as the standard 4-piece notched ingot weighing approximately 17 pounds). In appropriate cases one or more of the following premiums may be added to the applicable maximum base price:

(1) Special shapes and sizes. If magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot is sold in nonstandard shapes or sizes which were customarily sold at a premium prior to January 1, 1943, a premium of 1 cent per pound may be added to the applicable maximum base price. Examples of such nonstandard shapes or sizes are the three-pound ingot and the round ingot (4" diameter x 16") weighing approximately 12 pounds.

(2) Small quantities. The following premiums may be added to the applicable maximum base price if magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot is shipped in quantities of less than 100 pounds:

	Cents per pound
For lots of 25 to 100 pounds	10
For lots of less than 25 pounds	20

(3) Packing. If magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot is paper-packaged or shipped in wire-bound bundles a charge of ½ cent per pound may be added to the applicable maximum base price.

(c) Delivery charges. (1) The maximum price established by this regulation for incendiary bomb alloy is f. o. b producing plant.

(2) The maximum prices established by this regulation for shipments of less than 100 pounds are f. o. b. producing plant.

(3) All other maximum prices established by this regulation shall include the cost of transportation to any destination in the continental United States, not to exceed the lowest carload rate of rail freight. Actual transportation costs in excess of those so included may be charged to, and paid by, the buyer.

§ 1427.52 Prohibition. (a) On and after February 1, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(1) No person shall sell or deliver magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot at a price higher than the maximum price established by this regulation; and

(2) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot at a price higher than the maximum price established by this regulation; and

(3) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the acts prohibited in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph.

(b) The maximum prices established by this regulation shall have no application to sales to, or purchases by, the Metals Reserve Company.

(c) Prices lower than the maximum prices established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1427.53 Applicability — (a) Geographical. The maximum prices established by this regulation shall apply to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(b) Relation to General Maximum Price Regulation. This regulation supersedes the General Maximum Price Regulation[2] as to sales and deliveries which are covered by, or expressly excluded from, this regulation.

(c) Export sales. The maximum price at which magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot may be exported shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.[4]

§ 1427.54 Adjustable pricing. It is permissible under this regulation to provide in a contract that the price shall be adjustable to a price not higher than the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1427.55 Prohibited practices. Any practice or device which is an attempt to get the effect of a price higher than the maximum without actually charging a higher price is prohibited and is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright excessive price. This applies to devices involving commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings and the like.

§ 1427.56 Invoices, records and reports. (a) On and after February 1, 1943, every sale of magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot shall be invoiced by the seller. The original invoice shall be delivered to the buyer, and shall contain:

(1) A full description of the magnesium or magnesium alloy ingot sold;

(2) The quantity sold;

(3) The price charged; and

(4) Other terms of sale and shipment.

(b) So long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, is in effect, the buyer shall preserve for inspection by the Office of Price Administration the original, and the seller shall preserve a copy, of the invoice required by paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Persons subject to this regulation shall submit such reports as the Administrator may from time to time require. Except as the Administrator may specifically request, however, no reports are required by this regulation.

§ 1427.57 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) No war procurement agency, nor any contracting or paying finance officer thereof, shall be subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation or the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the

§ 1427.58 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Magnesium and magnesium alloy ingot" means all kinds and grades of ingot (including cast billets) containing 50 per cent or more magnesium by weight, except remelt magnesium ingot (i. e., ingot in which the magnesium content is derived principally from scrap). Maximum prices for remelt magnesium ingot are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 302—Magnesium Scrap and Remelt Magnesium Ingot.[1]

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used in this regulation.

§ 1427.59 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 314 (§§ 1427.51 to 1427.59, inclusive) shall become effective February 1, 1943.

Issued this 29th day of January 1943.

PART 1346—BUILDING MATERIALS

[RPS 45, as Amended]

ASPHALT OR TARRED ROOFING PRODUCTS

Sales and deliveries of asphalt or tarred roofing products by manufacturers have been subject to price control by the Office of Price Administration under the terms of Price Schedule No. 45 and Revised Price Schedule No. 45 since December 12, 1941. This Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, continues that control. The title and preamble are amended, §§ 1346.51 through 1346.60, inclusive, are renumbered and amended, and §§ 1346.61, 1346.62, 1346.63 and 1346.64 are added, all to read as set forth below:

Asphalt or tarred roofing products, primarily made of a felt base (composed of waste rags, waste paper and other fibers), saturated and/or coated with asphalt or tar, are widely used as a building material. In the defense and war programs, these products have been extensively employed in the construction industry. The increased use of asphalt roofing products stemming from the defense program and the accompanying expanded economic activity so increased demand for such products that shipments for the first eight months of 1941 exceeded 26,000,000 squares. As a consequence, inflationary pressure was exerted upon these products, resulting in several successive price increases during the spring and summer of 1941 totaling fifteen to sixteen percent, while total unit costs for most items increased very little during the same period. Earnings therefore steadily increased. While Price Schedule No. 45 reduced prices below the levels in effect just prior to its issuance, it still allowed a substantial margin of profit.

Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, establishes in dollars and cents the maximum prices for most of the western area, which prices were hitherto simply frozen at the July 2, 1941 or August 1, 1941 level of prices, and amends or adds certain other provisions to bring the schedule in conformity with the over-all policies of the Office of Price Administration.

Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, utilizes the shipping point, freight equalization, and allowance systems in effect in this industry prior to the issuance of Price Schedule No. 45, including the customary practice of free deliveries in free shipping zones. Such acceptance and incorporation of these systems into Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, merely as a vehicle for determining prices, should not be regarded as approval thereof, nor should this reservation be regarded as disapproval.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator and the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, is hereby issued.

§ 1346.51 Maximum prices for asphalt or tarred roofing products sold by manufacturers. (a) On and after February 5, 1943, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment (1) no manufacturer shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer asphalt or tarred roofing products at prices higher than the maximum prices established in Appendices A (Eastern Area) and B (Pacific Coast Area) hereof, incorporated herein as §§ 1346.63 and 1346.64, and (2) no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of such products from a manufacturer at prices higher than the said maximum prices; Provided, That "applied sales" of asphalt or tarred roofing products, as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (15), shall not be subject to Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, but shall be subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 251.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall not be applicable to any war procurement agency or any contracting officer thereof, and any such contracting officer or any paying finance officer shall be relieved of any and every liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1346.53 Taxes. There may be added to the maximum prices established by this schedule the amount of tax levied by any Federal excise statute or any State or municipal sales, gross receipts, gross proceeds, or compensating use tax statute or ordinance, under which the tax is measured by gross proceeds or units of sale, if, but only if, (1) such statute or ordinance requires the vendor to state the tax, separately from the purchase price paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user, on the bill, sales check, or evidence of sale, at the time of the transaction; or (2) such statute or ordinance requires such tax to be paid separately by the purchaser, consumer, or user with tokens or other media of State or municipal tax payment; or (3) such statute or ordinance permits the vendor to state such tax separately, and such tax is in fact stated separately by the vendor. The amount of tax permitted to be added by this provision shall in no event exceed that paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user.

Notwithstanding any previous provision of this section, the provisions of Supplementary Order No. 31[2] shall apply where applicable to this Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended.

§ 1346.54 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust prices to prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1346.55 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, transfer, purchase, or receipt of or relating to asphalt or tarred roofing products, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discounts, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by making terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on the effective date of Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, or by any other means.

§ 1346.56 Records and reports. (a) On and after February 5, 1943, every manufacturer who sells, delivers, or transfers asphalt or tarred roofing products of a total value in excess of $1,000.00 per month, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale, delivery, or transfer, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer, the price paid or received, and the quantity (in squares) of each grade, type, shape, size, kind and color of asphalt or tarred roofing products sold.

(b) Persons affected by Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

§ 1346.57 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1346.58 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1346.59 Application for adjustment of maximum prices for asphalt or tarred roofing products under Government contracts or subcontracts. Any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a Government contract or a subcontract under any such contract, who believes that a maximum price established by this Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, impedes or threatens to impede production of a commodity or supply of a service which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of such contract or subcontract may apply for adjustment of that maximum price in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6, as amended.[4]

§ 1346.60 Definitions. (a) When used in this Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Asphalt or tarred roofing products" means roofing, shingles and siding materials having a felt base (composed of waste rags, waste paper, or other fibers), saturated and/or coated with asphalt or coal tar pitch, whether with or without mineral surface, of any grade, type, shape, size, kind, or color, and without restricting the above, also includes slaters felt, and asphalt or coal tar pitch saturated and/or coated laminated fiber or felt sheets or boards not exceeding one-quarter inch in thickness.

(3) "Manufacturer" means a person operating a mill or plant producing asphalt or tarred roofing products, as well as any sales subsidiary or affiliate, any commission salesman, manufacturer's representative, or other manufacturer's agent.

(4) "Dealer" means a merchant maintaining a permanent place of business equipped with sales personnel and service facilities sufficient to serve the consuming public.

(5) "Applicator" means a roofing contractor engaged in the sale of asphalt or tarred roofing products in applied form, maintaining a warehouse stock of such roofing products and a permanent place of business.

(6) "Governing shipping point" means that established shipping point the use of which results in the lowest delivered price at the place of delivery.

(7) "Distributor" means a buyer who regularly serves the retail trade from his own warehouse stock, who regularly buys in carload or truckload lots, who regularly transacts such wholesale distribution through his own sales efforts, whose sales at wholesale are essentially to dealers and who assumes full credit responsibility for his sales of asphalt or tarred roofing products.

(8) "Carload" means a quantity or combination of one or more grades, types and sizes of asphalt or tarred roofing products, taking the same freight rate, the aggregate weight of which totals at least the lowest applicable minimum carload weight as required in the established tariffs of rail carriers.

(9) "Less than carload" means a quantity or combination of one or more grades, types and sizes of asphalt or tarred roofing products, taking the same freight rate, the aggregate weight of which is less than that referred to in (8) above.

(10) "Ten-ton truck shipment" means a quantity or combination of one or more grades, types and sizes of asphalt or tarred roofing products, taking the same freight rate, the aggregate weight of which totals at least the highest applicable minimum truckload weight as required in the established tariffs of motor carriers.

(11) "Less than ten-ton truck shipment" means a quantity or combination of one or more grades, types and sizes of asphalt or tarred roofing products, taking the same freight rate, the aggregate weight of which is less than that referred to in (10) above.

(12) "Fifteen-ton truck shipment" means a quantity or combination of one or more grades, types and sizes of asphalt or tarred roofing products, taking the same freight rate, the aggregate weight of which totals at least the highest applicable minimum truckload weight as required in the established tariffs of motor carriers.

(13) "Less than fifteen-ton truck shipment" means a quantity or combination of one or more grades, types and sizes of asphalt or tarred roofing products, taking the same freight rate, the aggregate weight of which is less than that referred to in (12) above.

(14) "Square" means a quantity of asphalt or tarred roofing products sufficient to cover 100 square feet of surface when applied in the customary trade manner.

(15) "Applied sale" means a transaction whereby the manufacturer furnishes materials and in addition performs the service of applying the materials to the building itself, in consideration of the total price paid by the purchaser.

(16) "Deliver" means to make physical transfer to the purchaser, or to a carrier not owned or controlled by the seller for carriage to the purchaser, to whom the goods have been sold.

(17) "Government contract" means any contract with the United States or any agency thereof, or with the Government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States" or with any agency of any such Government.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1346.61 Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[5] applicable. The maximum price at which a person may sell or deliver any asphalt or tarred roofing product for export shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[5] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1346.62 Effective date. Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended (§§ 1346.51 to 1346.64, inclusive) shall become effective February 5, 1943.

§ 1346.63 Appendix A: Maximum prices for asphalt or tarred roofing products for the Eastern Area.

(a) Application. The provisions of this Appendix A apply to all sales of asphalt or tarred roofing products in which the point of destination is within the continental United States east of and including the states of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico.

(b) Types of shipments and prices applicable thereto. (1) Carload (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (8)) via rail and/or water: Carload price on all items.

(2) Less than carload (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (9)) via rail and/or water: Less than carload price on all items.

(3) Ten-ton truck shipment (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (10)): Carload price on all items.

(4) Less than ten-ton truck shipment (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (11)): Less than carload price on all items.

(c) Transportation charges and freight equalization. Although the maximum prices established herein are set f. o. b. shipping points, the purchaser shall bear only the transportation charges expressly provided for below and all other transportation costs shall be absorbed by the manufacturer, except as provided in Supplementary Order No. 31.*

(1) Shipments to destinations within any of the shipping points or free shipping point zones listed in § 1346.63 (g) and (h) respectively: No charges for transportation may be added to the maximum prices set forth in Revised Price Schedule No. 45, as amended, on such shipments.

(2) Shipments to destinations not within any of the shipping points or free shipping point zones listed in § 1346.63 (g) and (h) respectively: On all such shipments the transportation charge shall be shown as a separate item in the purchaser's invoice. Such transportation charge shall be computed by applying to the weight of the shipment as determined from the manufacturer's published price lists the rail rate from that shipping point herein contained from which the lowest rail rate to actual destination on an identical shipment is applicable, except that transportation charges on a ten-ton truck shipment (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (10)) shall be computed on the basis of the carload rail freight rate, unless the actual cost of trucking to the manufacturer exceeds such carload rail freight rate, in which event that actual cost of trucking may be used as the basis of computation; Provided, however, That in no event shall such transportation charge exceed the less than carload rail freight rate. However, in addition to any other allowance which may be required or made, an allowance shall be made to the purchaser (by credit or refund) as indicated below:

(i) Carload shipments or ten-ton truck shipments. (a) Where shipment is made via rail or truck: Full allowance of the transportation charge[7] shall be made to the purchaser, unless such charge[7] shall exceed nine cents per hundred pounds, in which case the manufacturer may limit such allowance to nine cents per hundred pounds.

(b) Where shipment is wholly or partially by water: In lieu of the allowance set forth in (a) above, the allowance to the purchaser shall be the established switching, wharfage and handling charges at the points of loading on vessels and unloading from vessels.

(ii) Stop-over charges. Where 20,000 lbs. or more of asphalt or tarred roofing products are unloaded an allowance shall be made to the purchaser equal to actual stop-over charges at such point of unloading.

(d) Maximum prices for standard asphalt or tarred roofing products, f. o. b. shipping points:

[1] Where this product is sold wholly or partially without fixtures, the price thereof must be reduced by the amount by which it was or would have been reduced on a similar sale made on June 29, 1941, if the manufacturer had a standard differential for such sales at that time.

Where this product is sold partially without fixtures, and the manufacturer had no practice for pricing such sales on June 29, 1941, he shall make a reduction in the maximum price stated in this Schedule in an amount not less than that obtained by applying the ratio of the sum of the costs of the included fixtures to the allowance he made for a sale minus all fixtures, and deducting the proportion involved for the articles now excluded from the fixtures furnished.

(e) Discounts. All of the discounts set forth in paragraph (d) of this Appendix A shall be prominently set forth on any and all price lists issued subsequent to the effective date of this Revised Price Schedule No 45 as amended, as an integral part thereof.

(f) Maximum prices for non-standard asphalt or tarred roofing products, f. o. b. shipping points. For all asphalt or tarred roofing products expressly listed above, maximum prices shall be as so listed whether in any specific case the manufacturer has or has not manufactured such products before. No such products so listed above shall be construed as coming within the provisions of this paragraph (f). For all asphalt or tarred roofing products not expressly listed above, the maximum prices f. o. b. shipping points shall be the net f. o. b. shipping points selling prices (after deduction of all discounts and allowances, whether published or unpublished) which were actually charged, or which would have been charged (upon the basis of the prices, discounts and allowances, whether published or unpublished, then listed or quoted by the manufacturer) by the manufacturer on a sale made on June 29, 1941, to the same purchaser or class of purchaser for like quantities, grades, types, shapes, sizes, kinds, or colors of asphalt or tarred roofing products, exclusive of any premiums or charges for advanced delivery or any other inducement that may then have been offered by the buyer or demanded by the seller to negotiate the sale.

For all asphalt or tarred roofing products not expressly listed above, and which were first sold or offered for sale on or after August 1, 1942, the maximum prices shall be determined in accordance with § 1499.154, and sections therein referred to, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 (Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel.)

§ 1346.64 Appendix B: Maximum prices for asphalt or tarred roofing products for the Pacific Coast Area.

DIVISION I

(a) Application. The provisions of Division I of Appendix B apply to all sales of asphalt or tarred roofing products in which the point of destination is within the states of Oregon, Washington, California, Nevada, Arizona, or that part of Idaho north of and including Idaho County, and also the city of Boise, Idaho and all points west to which the railroad carload freight rate on asphalt or tarred roofing products from Portland, Oregon, is the same as the rate to Boise, Idaho.

(b) Types of shipments and prices applicable thereto. (1) Carload (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (8)) via rail and/or water: Carload price on all items.

(2) Less than carload (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (9)) via rail and/or water: Less than carload price on all items.

(3) Fifteen-ton truck shipment (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (12)): Carload price on all items.

(4) Less than fifteen-ton truck shipment (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (13)): Less than carload price on all items.

(c) Transportation charges and freight equalization. Although the maximum prices established herein are set f. o. b. shipping points, the purchaser shall bear only the transportation charges expressly provided for below and all other transportation costs shall be absorbed by the manufacturer, except as provided in Supplementary Order No. 31[11] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(1) Shipments to destinations within any of the shipping points or free shipping point zones listed in § 1346.64 (g) and (h) respectively. No charges for transportation may be added to the maximum prices established herein for such shipments.

(2) Shipments to destinations not within any of the shipping points or free shipping point zones listed in § 1346.64 (g) and (h), respectively. The maximum transportation charge which may be made for such shipments shall be that transportation charge which would be applicable to an identical shipment from the governing shipping point as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (6) above, to the actual destination by the same mode of transportation employed for actual shipment.[12] The transportation charge shall be shown as a separate item on the purchaser's invoice.

In calculating such transportation charge, the weight used shall be either the actual weight of the shipment, or the estimated weight as determined from the manufacturer's published price lists.

(d) Maximum prices for standard asphalt or tarred roofing products, f. o. b. shipping points:

(1) Maximum prices f. o. b. Compton, Los Angeles and South Gate, California.

[11] 7 FR 9894.

[12] If the same mode is not available, the available mode of transportation which has the lowest rate shall be employed.

(e) Maximum prices for standard asphalt or tarred roofing products. (1) Shipments to destinations within any of the shipping points or free shipping point zones listed in § 1346.64 (g) and (h) respectively. The maximum prices for such shipments shall be the prices as established herein for such shipping point.

(2) Shipments to destinations not within any of the shipping points or free shipping point zones listed in § 1346.64 (g) and (h), respectively. The maximum prices for asphalt or tarred roofing products to which this paragraph applies shall be the aggregate of (i) the shipping point prices at the governing shipping point (as defined in § 1346.60 (a) (6) above) and (ii) the transportation charge specified in paragraph (c) of this section.

(f) Maximum prices for non-standard asphalt or tarred roofing products, f. o. b. shipping points. For all asphalt or tarred roofing products expressly listed above, the maximum prices shall be as so listed, whether in any specific case the manufacturer has or has not manufactured such products before. No such product so listed above shall be construed as coming within the provisions of this paragraph (e). For all asphalt or tarred roofing products not expressly listed above, the maximum prices f. o. b. shipping points shall be the net f. o. b. shipping points selling prices (after deduction of all discounts and allowances, whether published or unpublished) which were actually charged, or which would have been charged (upon the basis of the prices, discounts and allowances,[15] whether published or unpublished, then listed or quoted by the manufacturer) by the manufacturer on a sale made on July 2, 1941, to the same purchaser or class of purchaser for like quantities, grades, types, shapes, sizes, kinds, or colors of asphalt or tarred roofing products, exclusive of any premiums or charges for advanced delivery or any other inducement that may then have been offered by the buyer or demanded by the seller to negotiate the sale: Provided, That the date of August 1, 1941 shall be used instead of the date of July 2, 1941 as to sales in which the point of destination is within the states of Washington, Oregon, or that part of Idaho north of and including Idaho County or the city of Boise, Idaho, and all points west to which the railroad carload freight rate on asphalt or tarred roofing products from Portland, Oregon is the same as the rate to Boise, Idaho.

[15] See supra, footnote 9.

For all asphalt or tarred roofing products not expressly listed above, and which were first sold or offered for sale on or after August 1, 1942, the maximum prices shall be determined in accordance with § 1499.154, and sections therein referred to, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 (Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel).

(g) Shipping points:

Compton, Calif.	Richmond, Calif.
Los Angeles, Calif.	San Francisco, Calif.
South Gate, Calif.	Portland, Oreg.
Emeryville, Calif.	Seattle, Wash.
Pittsburg, Calif.	Tacoma, Wash.

(h) Free shipping point zones:

Seattle, Washington Zone and Tacoma, Washington Zone: Each includes the following cities and towns, forts and airfields in the state of Washington: Olympia, Fort Lewis, McChord Field, Puyallup, Auburn, Kent, Renton, Tacoma, Kirkland, Bothell and Bremerton.

DIVISION II

(a) Application. The provisions of Division II apply to all sales of asphalt or tarred roofing products in which the point of destination is within the States of Utah and Idaho (exclusive of Idaho County, Idaho and that part of Idaho north thereof, and the city of Boise, Idaho, and all points west to which the railroad carload freight rate on asphalt or tarred roofing products from Portland, Oregon, is the same as the rate to Boise, Idaho)

(b) For all sales to which Division II is applicable, the maximum prices shall be such that the cost to any purchaser shall not be in excess of what it was or would have been to such purchaser on July 2, 1941 (upon the basis of the prices, discounts, charges and allowances,[16] whether published or unpublished, then listed or quoted by the manufacturer) for like quantities, grades, types, shapes, sizes, kinds, or colors of asphalt or tarred roofing products, exclusive of any premiums or charges for advanced delivery or any other inducement that may then have been offered by the buyer or demanded by the seller to negotiate the sale.

(c) For all sales of asphalt or tarred roofing products, to which Division II is applicable and which were first sold or offered for sale on or after August 1, 1942, the maximum prices shall be determined in accordance with § 1499.154, and sections therein referred to, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 (Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel).

Additions and deductions per 1,000 feet board measure.
For working:
1. Rough, B and better, deduct $3.00.
2. Rough, C, deduct $2.00.
3. S1S, S2S, S3S and matched, Shiplap, or any other Matcher dressing, standard or thinner, add $2.00. No addition may be made for dressing to flooring, drop siding, ceiling or any other pattern for which a maximum price is set in any of the tables that follow.
4. Ripping or resawing, add $1.00 for each cut.
5. Casing, base, jambs, apron, pulley stiles, or any other pattern requiring moulder work (not including moldings), add $7.50 for 1" stock, $10.00 for 5/4 and thicker.
6. Nosed stepping, add $3.00.
7. Sanding one face, add $3.00.
8. Wrapping, add $8.00.

For grade:
9. A, add $5.00 to B and better prices.
10. If both sides are required A grade (par. 171), or if both sides are required B grade (par. 174), add $5.00 for 1" stock, $7.50 for 5/4 and 6/4, and $10.00 for 7/4 and thicker. No addition may be made if both sides are required C grade.

For condition:
11. Air dried, stain no defect, deduct $6.00.
12. Air dried, stain a defect, deduct $4.00.
13. Green, deduct $9.00 for 1" stock, $11.00 for 5/4 and 6/4, $13.00 for 7/4 and 8/4, and $15.00 for 10/4 and 12/4.
14. Anti-stain treatment (any form), add 5¢ to Air dried prices, but not to Kiln dried prices.
15. "Special soft texture finish", add as provided in paragraph (E) of this section.

For size:
16. 13" and wider, add $3.50 per inch or fraction thereof to 12" prices and compute footage on actual size.
17. Extra standard thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), add $1.00.
18. Random widths (other than restricted random widths), each width shall be priced at the specified width price.

For length:
19. Where required by the buyer for precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than 1/4" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double-end trimming.
20. Odd or fractional lengths over 4', not listed, shall be counted and priced as next longer even length.
21. For any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price of the nearest even multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge the 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M. B. M. for each necessary cross cut, but the addition for precision cutting permitted in footnote 19 may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M. B. M. If length breaks on even one half foot compute footage on actual length, otherwise compute on six inch breaks on the next break above.

[1] Standard lengths are 8' to 20' inclusive, and in shipments of standard lengths, 5% of 8 foot in C and better grades shall be permitted.
[2] Restricted random widths are 4" to 12" inclusive, and must not contain over 20% of 4" widths, and not less than 20% of 10" and wider.
[3] Edge widths are random widths including odd, even or fractional widths. Measurement shall be according to paragraph 136.

[1] Restricted random widths are 4" to 12" inclusive, and must not contain over 20% of 4" widths, and not less than 20% of 10" and wider.
[2] Edge widths are random widths including odd, even or fractional widths. Measurement shall be according to paragraph 136.

Additions and deductions per 1,000 feet board measure.
For working:
1. Rough, deduct $1.00.
2. End-matching, add $2.00.
3. Barn siding or any other matcher dressing, not otherwise provided for, add $2.00. Patterns requiring moulder work, add $6.50.
4. Ripping or resawing, add $1.00 for each cut.

For grade:
5. No. 1 common 85 or 90% heart facial area, add $8.00, 85% heart cubical content, add $6.00.

For condition:
6. Kiln dried, add $3.00.
7. Green, deduct $2.00.
8. Anti-stain treatment (any form), add 5¢ to air dried prices but not to kiln dried prices.

For length:
9. The price for a random length shipment is that of the 12' length. Random lengths must average at least 12'. If the lengths do not average at least 12' (with a tolerance of 3%), the price may not be higher than the 10' price. Random lengths are 4' to 20' inclusive, in multiples of 2', and may not contain more than the following percentage of short lengths:

	4'	6'	8'
No. 1	None	None	5%
No. 2	5%	5%	5%
No. 3, No. 4 and dunnage, 3" and wider	5%	5%	5%
No. 3, No. 4 and dunnage, 3" to 6" widths may contain total of 25% under 10'.

10. Where restricted random lengths are required by the buyer, 8' to 16', 10' to 16', or longer, charge the specified length price for the lengths actually shipped.
11. Where the buyer requires any average length, charge the price for the specified length corresponding to the average length required and shipped.
12. Where required by the buyer for precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than 1/4" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.
13. Odd or fractional lengths over 4', not listed, shall be counted and priced as next longer even length.
14. For any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price of the nearest even multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge the 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M. B. M. for each necessary cross cut, but the addition for precision cutting permitted in footnote 12 may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M. B. M. If length breaks on even one half foot compute footage on actual length, otherwise compute on six inch breaks on the next break above.

[3] 7 F.R. 5427, 5869, 7094, 8023, 8384, 9087, 9085, 9460, 8948.

For size:
15. Stock dressed thinner than ¾", deduct $1.00 from the ¾" price for each 1/32" thinner than ¾".
16. 1¼" and wider, add $2.50 per inch or fraction thereof to 12" price and computate footage on actual size.
17. 5/4 and 6/4 No. 1 and No. 2 Common, add $3.00.
18. 7/4 No. 1 and No. 2 Common, add $2.50.
19. 5/4, 6/4 and 7/4 No. 3 Common, add $2.00.
20. 5/4, 6/4 and 7/4 No. 4 and Dunnage, add $1.00.
21. Extra standard thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), and $1.00.
22. Where the buyer requires an average width, charge the price which would have been charged had the buyer ordered the various widths which were shipped.
23. Random widths (other than restricted random widths), each width shall be priced at the specified width price.

[1] Restricted random widths are 4" to 12" inclusive, and must not contain over 20% of 4" widths, and not less than 20% of 10" and wider.

[2] Edge widths are random widths including odd, even, or fractional widths. Measurement shall be according to paragraph 136.

Additions and deductions per 1,000 feet board measure.
For working:
1. Rough, deduct $1.00.
2. End-matching, add $2.00.
3. Barn siding or any other matcher dressing, not otherwise provided for, add $2.00. Pattern requiring moulder work add $6.50.
4. Ripping or resawing, add $1.00 for each cut.
For condition:
5. Kiln dried, add $1.00.
6. Green, deduct $2.00.
7. Anti-stain treatment (any form), add 40¢ to air dried prices but not to kiln dried prices.
For length:
8. The price for a random length shipment is that of the 12' length. Random lengths must average at least 11'. If the lengths do not average at least 11' (with a tolerance of 3"), the price may not be higher than the 10' price. Random lengths are 8' to 16' inclusive, in multiples of 2', and may not contain more than the following percentage of short lengths:

No. 1 ..... 50% 8'
No. 2 ..... 50% 8'

9. Where restricted random lengths are required by the buyer, 12' to 16' or longer, charge the specified length price for the lengths actually shipped.
10. Where the buyer requires any average length, charge the price for the specified length corresponding to the average length required and shipped.
11. Where required by the buyer for precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than ¼" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.
12. Odd or fractional lengths over 4', not listed, shall be counted and priced as next longer even length.
13. For any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price of the nearest even multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge the 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M. B. M. for each necessary cross cut, but the addition for precision cutting permitted in footnote 11 may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M. B. M. If length breaks on even one-half foot, compute footage on actual length, otherwise compute on six inch breaks on the next break above.
For size:
14. Stock dressed thinner than ¾", deduct $1.00 from the ¾" price for each 1/32" thinner than ¾".
15. 1¼" and wider, add $2.50 per inch or fraction thereof to 12" price and compute footage on actual size.
16. 5/4 and 6/4 No. 1 and No. 2 Box, add $3.00.
17. 7/4 No. 1 and No. 2 Box, add $2.50.
18. 5/4, 6/4 and 7/4 No. 3 Box price the same as 4/4.
19. Extra standard thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), add $1.00.
20. Where the buyer requires an average width, charge the price which would have been charged had the buyer ordered the various widths which were shipped.
21. Random widths (Other than Restricted Random widths), each width shall be priced at the specified width price.

§ 1381.211a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(g) Amendment No. 6 (§ 1381.212) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 19 shall become effective February 1, 1943: Provided, That contracts entered into prior to February 1, 1943, for any items of Southern pine lumber subject to Tables 1, 2, and 11 of § 1381.212 (a) as they stood before being superseded by this amendment may be completed according to the contract if delivery is made on or before March 1, 1943. The lumber under such contract must be received before that date by a carrier other than one owned or controlled by the seller for shipment to a buyer. All lumber not subject to such pre-existing contracts and all lumber under pre-existing contracts not delivered into the hands of a common carrier as above provided shall be subject to the pricing provisions of this amendment.

[MPR 136, as Amended,[1] Amendment 68]

MACHINES AND PARTS AND MACHINERY SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subparagraph (41) of § 1390.25 (c) is amended as set forth below:

§ 1390.25 Petitions for amendment or adjustment. * * *

(c) * * *

(41) Sales of air conditioning and refrigerating equipment pursuant to War Production Board program. (i) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 136, as amended, the maximum price applicable to the sale at the direction of the War Production Board of any industrial or commercial air conditioning or refrigerating equipment to the manufacturer of such equipment by a person using such equipment and not engaged in the business of selling such equipment, shall be the installed cost of such equipment to such user, less depreciation at the rate of 5% per year (except as provided in paragraph (b)(i)); the maximum price applicable to the resale of any such equipment by the manufacturer on a reconditioned and guaranteed basis to a new user designated by the War Production Board shall be the total cost of the equipment to the manufacturer, including the cost of inspection, dismantling, and shipment to the manufacturer's plant, estimated if necessary; plus the cost of reconditioning the equipment, of shipment to the purchaser, and of installation, estimated if necessary; plus the amount of any other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such sale, estimated if necessary; plus a reasonable charge for engineering and a reasonable profit, not upon the cost to the manufacturer, but in the light of the manufacturer's risk and responsibility; Provided, That the amount of such profit, together with a description of the transaction, has been submitted to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for its review and that the Office of Price Administration has approved or failed to disapprove the amount of such profit within thirty days after receipt of the information.

(ii) If, upon a sale of industrial or commercial air-conditioning or refrigerating equipment by a state government, or any agency or political subdivision thereof, the War Production Board certifies to the Office of Price Administration prior to such sale that upon the basis of a competent engineering appraisal the 5% rate of depreciation, referred to in paragraph (a), does not fairly reflect the actual depreciation of such equipment to the date of such sale, the rate of depreciation fixed by, and set forth in the certification of, the War Production Board as fairly reflecting such actual depreciation shall be used in the determination of the maximum price of such sale instead of the 5% rate of depreciation.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 99 to Supp. Reg. 14[1] to GMPR[2]]

FRUIT WINES, BERRY WINES AND GRAPE WINES (OTHER THAN CALIFORNIA GRAPE WINES)

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new subparagraph (61) is added to paragraph (a) of § 1499.73 as set forth below:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided:

* * * * *

(61) Fruit wines, berry wines and grape wines (other than California grape wines)—(i) Maximum prices for all sellers other than sellers at retail—(a) Permitted increase; specified types of wine. On and after February 5, 1943, any seller, other than a seller at retail, may add to the maximum prices established for him under §§ 1499.2 and 1499.73 (a) (39) for the fruit wines, berry wines and grape wines hereinafter described (other than California grape wines) made from the 1942 crop and prior crops of berries, fruits and grapes, a permitted increase per gallon as follows:

(1) Berry wines containing less than 18% alcohol by volume.

Group CC	Group C	16
Group DD	Group D	8
Group EE	Group E	10

The permitted increase for container sizes larger than one gallon capacity shall be proportionate to the permitted increase for one gallon.

(iii) All sellers; new taxes. Any seller may at any time add to the maximum prices established for him with respect to the types of berry wines, fruit wines and grape wines (other than California grape wines) listed in (i) (a) and made from the 1942 crop or prior crops of berries, fruits or grapes, the amount of any new tax or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof imposed upon such seller after March 31, 1942 by any statute of the United States, or any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof: Provided, That such amount has been paid, or has accrued and will be payable by such seller to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor: And provided, further, That the provisions of this subdivision (iii) shall not apply to the increases in the Federal Excise Tax which became effective November 1, 1942 as allowance for such tax increases is included in the seller's maximum prices established in accordance with §§ 1499.2 and 1499.73 (a) (39).

(iv) Notification.—(a) On or before his first delivery to any purchaser of any brand, type, quality and container size of any berry wines, fruit wines or grape wines (other than California grape wines) at prices adjusted under (i) (a) hereof, every seller, other than a seller at retail, shall notify such purchaser of the total permitted increase applicable to the type of wine in the particular container, case or other unit of sale in question by delivering to the purchaser written notice as follows:

NOTICE OF PERMITTED INCREASE

The Office of Price Administration has authorized us to increase our ceiling prices for berry wines, fruit wines and grape wines (other than California grape wines) made from the 1942 crop or prior crops of berries, fruits and grapes to reflect increased costs of production. Your new OPA ceiling price for each type of wine shown below is your March 1942 ceiling price plus the increase for Federal Excise Taxes effective November 1, 1942 and plus the "permitted increase" stated for each of the container sizes shown below. The OPA requires you to keep this notice for examination.

TABLE TO BE USED AS PART OF THE NOTIFICATION FORM

Brand	Kind of wine	Gallons per case	Permitted increase per gallon	Permitted increase per case	Permitted increase per bottle
					½ pt.	¾ to gal.	1 pt.	1½ gal.	1 qt.	½ gal.	1 gal.	Other sizes (specify)

(b) No seller is required to give a notice to any purchaser of any brand, type, quality or container size of berry wines, fruit wines, or grape wines (other than California grape wines) after one notice to such purchaser of the seller's maximum price for such brand, type, quality or container size of wine as increased under (i) (a) and/or (iii): Provided, That if the maximum price of any seller, other than a seller at retail, for any brand, type, quality or container size of such wine is subsequently adjusted under (iii) hereof, a similar notice covering the adjustment shall be given by the seller to each purchaser.

(v) Determination of maximum prices by reference to maximum prices of most closely competitive seller. If a seller's maximum price for any type, quality and container size of berry wines, fruit wines or grape wines (other than California grape wines) listed in (i) (a) hereof or prior crops of berries, fruits or grapes cannot be determined under subdivisions (i) to (iii) hereof, inclusive, his maximum price therefor shall be the maximum price established under (i) to (iii) hereof inclusive, for his most closely competitive seller of the same class for the same type, quality and container size of wine, or for the similar commodity most nearly like it (as such term is defined in § 1499.2) for sales to purchasers of the same class.

(vi) Definitions. (a) "Berry wine" means any wine manufactured exclusively from berries other than grapes in accordance with §§ 3032 and 3044 of the Internal Revenue Code, and includes high acid berry wines "made with over 35% sugar solution" within the limitations provided in section 22 (b) (5) of Regulation No. 4 issued by the Federal Alcohol Administration relating to the Labeling and Advertising of Wine.

(c) "Grape wines (other than California grape wines)" means grape wine produced in accordance with sections 3032, 3036 and 3044 of the Internal Revenue Code in wineries located outside of the State of California, but does not include wine containing California grape wine.

(d) "California grape wine" means grape wine produced in accordance with sections 3032, 3036 and 3044 of the Internal Revenue Code in wineries located within the State of California.

(e) "Table wine" means grape wine, other than dessert wine or blending wine.

(f) "Dessert wine" means grape wine having an alcoholic content in excess of 14% by volume but not in excess of 21% by volume to which grape spirits have been added in accordance with section 3032 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) "Blending wine" means wine produced in accordance with section 3032 of the Internal Revenue Code and having an alcoholic content in excess of 21% by volume but not in excess of 24% by volume.

(h) "Grape spirits" means wine spirits produced from grapes in accordance with section 3036 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(i) "Concentrates" means boiled or condensed berry, fruit or grape juice concentrated to not more than 80 degrees (Balling).

(j) "Vermouth" means vermouth as defined in Section 21, Class 7 of Regulation No. 4 issued by the Federal Alcohol Administration relating to the Labeling and Advertising of Wine.

(k) "Sparkling wine" means grape wine rendered effervescent by secondary fermentation of the wine in a closed container, tank or bottle.

(l) "Artificially carbonated wine" means grape wine rendered effervescent otherwise than by secondary fermentation in a closed container, tank or bottle.

(vii) Applicability. The provisions of this subparagraph (61) shall be applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

(b) Effective dates. • • •

(100) Amendment No. 99 (§ 1499.73 (a) (61)) to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 shall be effective as of February 5, 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICE

[Order 253 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

REMINGTON PRODUCTS CO.

Order No. 253—Maximum Prices Authorized under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

On December 24, 1942, Remington Products Company of Akron, Ohio, filed application with the Office of Price Administration seeking specific authorization pursuant to § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation to determine maximum prices for heel pads, arch pads, metatarsal pads and bottom filler pads made from "Remtex" and for instructions as to the method to be used in determining such maximum prices. Due consideration has been given to the application and an opinion in support of this order has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, issued by the Office of Price Administration, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.1489 Authorization for Remington Products Company to determine maximum prices for heel pads, arch pads, metatarsal pads and bottom filler pads made of "Remtex". (a) The maximum prices which may be charged for heel pads, arch pads, metatarsal pads and bottom filler pads made of "Remtex" manufactured by the Remington Products Company, hereinafter called the "manufacturer", shall be determined as follows:
